Cupid's Advice:

Your partner is there to support you in many things, but it's especially important to have a significant other who supports and shares in your passions. Cupid has some ways to do so:

1. Listen to them talk about their passions: One way to share your partner's passions, even if you have different interests, is to listen to them express their passions. This will allow them to feel like you are involved in this part of their life, even if it isn't something you are also passionate about.

In the latest celebrity news, Brad Pitt's new girlfriend

Nicole Poturalski faced questions about her rumored hatred toward Pitt's celebrity ex, Angelina Jolie. According to UsWeekly.com, Poturalski was presented with an array of comments on one of her Instagram posts after captioning the image "Happy people don't hate," followed by three heart emojis. Fans were quick to question the caption after hearing rumors about Poturalski's ill feelings toward Jolie, but the model silenced them instantly. Pitt and Poturalski's celebrity relationship was confirmed after the two were spotted in France together this past August.

In celebrity news, Brad Pitt's girlfriend is keeping things classy when it comes to her beau's ex. How do you deal with lingering drama with your partner's ex?

Cupid's Advice:

When beginning or continuing a relationship with your current partner, the last thing anyone wants to face is drama associated with their ex. While you may want to believe that none of the rumors are true, it can be difficult to stop them from affecting your relationship. If you are looking for ways to deal with lingering drama with your partner's ex, Cupid has some advice for you.

1. Listen to your partner: Your partner cannot control the way their ex acts after their relationship has ended. Rather than focusing on whatever it is that their ex is saying, pay more attention to the way your partner is speaking and acting. If he or she is not paying attention to any lingering drama, then neither should you.

2. Limit their access: In a world where everything we do ends up online, it can be beneficial to limit someone's access to you. There is no shame in blocking your partner's ex from your social media accounts if you feel that they are visiting your page regularly. If a person can't see what you are doing, then they can't start any real drama!

3. Stand your ground: Unfortunately, sometimes people can be relentless and turning a blind-eye to the drama will only work for so long. If this is the case, follow Poturalski's lead and give them a simple reply. Despite stirring up drama, some people are still afraid of confrontation, and acknowledging their actions once may be enough to get them to stop.

Despite reconciling in the past, Cardi B has declared their celebrity relationship is “Irretrievably broken.”

In celebrity divorce news, Cardi B filed for divorce from husband Offset How do you know your relationship is officially over?

Cupid's Advice:

When we truly love someone, we often find it difficult to determine when a relationship is officially over. Despite the fact that staying together may now be causing one or both of you discomfort, it can be challenging to let go. If you are looking for signs that it is time to end your relationship for good, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Nonstop disagreement: It is obvious that a relationship isn't working when both people involved are fighting constantly. However, even nonstop small disagreements, such as never agreeing where to eat or what day to hangout, can be unhealthy in a relationship. While these mild disagreements may not be enough to warrant a break-up initially, they can lead to underlying tension or lack of communication if they are present in every conversation.

2. Lack of Excitement: If agreeing to an activity with your partner causes you to feel stressed rather than excited, it might be a sign that the relationship has reached its limit. It should never feel like an obligation to be around the person you love. If you find yourself dreading the idea of spending time with your partner, it is likely time to sit down for the conversation.

3. Consult your friends: While the relationship is taking place between you and your partner, sometimes it is necessary to get an outsider's perspective. Find a trusted friend that will have no problem being honest with you and ask for their feedback. This friend will likely see the signs long before you, and will have no problem telling you if you've been acting differently or getting irritated easily, which are often signs of a troubled relationship.

Celebrity parent Reese Witherspoon is opening up about the feelings she had when she was pregnant at 22. What are some ways to keep your fear at bay while pregnant with your first child?

Cupid's Advice

Getting pregnant for the first time can most definitely be scary. If you're a soon-to-be mother looking to keep your fear at bay while pregnant, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Read about motherhood: One thing you can do to relax your fears is to start reading. If you get more knowledgeable and familiar with the idea of motherhood, it might not scare you so much anymore.

According to UsMagazine.com, Chrisley announced their celebrity break-up via Instagram and acknowledged that fans had been looking for an update on the couple's status. Chrisley and Kerdiles began dating in November of 2017 and got engaged shortly after in December of 2018. While the couple has faced challenges in the past, Chrisley clarified in her post that there is no hatred between them.

In celebrity break-up news, Savannah and Nic have decided to go call it quits on their relationship. What are some last ditch efforts you can make before deciding to split from your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Deciding if it is time to split from your current partner is one of the most difficult decisions to make in a relationship. It can be hard to tell your relationship has reached its end, or if you are simply going through a rough patch. If you are looking for ways to prolong your relationship, Cupid has some advice for you.

1. Look to the beginning: As a relationship progresses it tends to change, and there are likely some aspects that you have left in the past. By revisiting some of your favorite activities from when you first started dating, you may be able to rekindle the spark you are currently missing.

Related link: Celebrity News: Cassie Randolph Is Granted Restraining Order Against 'Bachelor' Colton Underwood

2. Take a step back: Sometimes we have to see just how much we will miss a person before we let them go. Try designating some time throughout the week for the both of you to spend alone and allow yourself to miss the other person's company. Taking a step back from your relationship is a great way of determining if your partner's absence brings you unhappiness or peace.

become unstable and/or dangerous?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes break-ups can get heated, especially when intense feelings are involved. If you're starting to think your ex has become unstable and/or dangerous, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Stop contacting them completely: If your ex is starting to make you feel unsafe in any way, it's important to stop contacting them completely. Don't answer their calls or texts, and definitely don't make plans to see them in person. You can even unfollow or block them on social media accounts to ensure that they can't reach you.

In celebrity baby news, Gigi Hadid and boyfriend Zayn Malik are keeping the spark in their relationship alive before welcoming their first child. What are some ways to keep the passion in your relationship even when you become parents?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a child is one of the most monumental steps in a relationship. While there is so much excitement around starting a family with the person you love, there can also be some questions as to how that will affect your relationship. If you are looking for some ways to keep the romance alive as you welcome your first child, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Embrace family activities: It can be exciting to schedule specific activities to do as a family, but it can also be enjoyable to make everyday tasks into a family activity. Taking trips to the grocery store, walking around the neighborhood, or even settling down in front of a movie can lead to some of the most memorable moments with your new family. The more time you spend as a full unit, the deeper your bond will be with both your partner and your child.

Celebrity Break-Up: Kelly Clarkson Says Life Has Been a

'Dumpster' Amid Divorce from Brandon Blackstock

y Nicole Maher

In the latest celebrity news, singer Kelly Clarkson opened up about some of the challenges she has been facing since her celebrity divorce from estranged husband Brandon Blackstock. According to UsMagazine.com, Clarkson and Blackstock filed for divorce in June of this year, putting an end to their seven year marriage. While the couple was experiencing problems before, these issues were heightened while the pair was quarantining together amid the coronavirus pandemic.

In celebrity break-up news, Kelly Clarkson is having a tough time amid her divorce from Brandon Blackstock. What are some ways to keep the drama at bay during a split?

Cupid's Advice:

One of the unfortunate added side effects that often follows a break-up is drama. Despite all the efforts we may make, it is normal to be faced with rumors or awkward questions once a relationship ends. If you are looking for ways to keep the drama at bay during a split, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Keep it neutral: Negative words seem to travel the quickest during the time of a break-up, and are likely to make their way back to your ex partner if you share mutual friends. While it is necessary to process your break-up with others, avoiding an excessive amount of negativity around the situation can help alleviate some of the drama. Try to keep statements as neutral as possible when speaking with your mutual friends to avoid anything accidentally being taken out of context.

Related link: Celebrity Divorce: What Went Wrong for Kelly Clarkson & Brandon Blackstock?

2. Focus on yourself: Drama is often started when we are focusing on another person. Instead of worrying about if your ex partner is going on dates or talking to someone else, focus on what you are doing post break-up. If you refuse to give this budding drama the time of day by prioritizing yourself, then it will not be able to grow!

3. Find an outlet: Just as Clarkson did through her music, finding an outlet to help you process your feelings can help avoid some unnecessary drama. Songwriting, keeping a journal, or even recording quick voice-memos are good ways to channel how you are feeling without involving anyone else. Once you have a better handle on how you are truly feeling, then it can be easier to address any questions without feeling like you will be stirring up drama.

Following two miscarriages in the months leading up to their latest pregnancy, the birth of their new baby boy makes the celebrity couple's fifth child together. According to EOnline.com, the name of the celebrity baby has not yet been announced.

In celebrity baby news, Hilaria and Alec Baldwin just welcomed their fifth child together. What are some factors to consider when deciding how many children to have with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Deciding how many children to have when building your family is an important decision. If you're wondering which factors to include when making your decision, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Consider the finances: One of the most obvious factors to consider when planning to have children is the financial aspect since raising a child is expensive. Many couples prefer to spend all of their money on their children. Decide if your preferred financial situation is more suitable for a big or small family.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby News: Emma Roberts Reveals Sex of First Child with Garrett Hedlund

2. Think about sibling dynamics: A lot of couples decide how many children they want to have based on the sibling dynamic. Celebrity Break-Up: Victoria Fuller Says She & Chris Soules Split Due to Geography

y Nicole Maher

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelor Nation stars Victoria Fuller and Chris Soules called off their relationship due to geographical reasons. According to UsMagazine.com, Fuller was not ready to move to Iowa and join Soules on his farm. The two had been traveling to see each other since April of this year, but were ultimately unable to reach a decision on where to settle down together. While the pair agreed to a celebrity break-up, they have reportedly been staying in contact with each other.

In celebrity break-up news, Victoria and Chris split due to location. What do you do if you're in a long distance relationship and can't agree on a place to live together eventually?

Cupid's Advice:

Distance can be one of the most difficult factors of a relationship to navigate. Whether someone is a long car ride away or only accessible by plane, the challenge of seeing each other can have a toll on the relationship. If you are looking for ways to overcome the challenges of distance as a couple, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Meet in the middle: One of the main reasons people do not want to uproot their life and move is because they are familiar with their current surroundings. It can be difficult to convince a person to leave their family and friends and move to a completely new place where they only know one person. But if both partners are willing to meet someplace in the middle, it would allow both of them to remain closer to home and to each other.

Related link: New Celebrity Couple: Is Victoria Fuller Quarantining with Former 'Bachelor' Chris Soules in Iowa?

2. Continue to travel: If the impending distance does not need to be resolved right away, then continue your current travel methods. Circumstances and priorities may change after a period of time, and the two of you may eventually reach a point of agreement on where to finally settle down together.

3. Be honest with yourself: If you and your partner have had multiple conversations about the distance and there has been no compromise on either side, it might be time to consider the alternative of breaking-up. Breaking-up does not mean that the relationship failed, it simply means that the two people involved are progressing in different directions. In this case it may be two different geographical locations.

Single celebrity Selena Gomez is able to make relationship jokes at her own expense. How can humor help you cope with heartache?

Cupid's Advice:

Humor is a great way to help you cope with difficult things, especially a break-up. If you're wondering if making jokes about your break-up will help you cope, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. It keeps things light: Joking about something makes everything feel lighter. We all know that a break-up can feel really dark and sad, so sometimes lightening it up is just what you need to be able to move on.

Celebrity Couple News: Find Out Why Kaia Gerber & Jacob Elordi Aren't Officially

Dating Yet

y Nicole Maher

In the latest celebrity news, actor Jacob Elordi and model Kaia Gerber have been spotted together on multiple occasions, but have not made their relationship official yet. According to EOnline.com, the potential celebrity couple has been spending time together while Gerber is in New York City for work, doing everything from sightseeing to relaxing at home. While there is mutual interest, Gerber's upcoming busy work schedule is one of the reasons the two have not made their celebrity relationship official.

In celebrity couple news, Kaia and Jacob aren't solidifying their relationship just yet. What are some benefits to taking things slow in your dating life?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be difficult to determine the best pace for advancing a relationship. While it may be enticing to move quickly, there are also some benefits to taking things slow in your dating life. If you are looking for reasons to slow down the dating process, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Developing a foundation: It is important to have a strong foundation in a relationship, whether it is with a friend or a person you would like to date. It often takes more than a couple of weeks for this type of foundation to form. By taking things slow, you are allowing yourself to develop more trust with this person, which will benefit you in the long run.

2. Accessing compatibility: People often determine early on if they are interested in dating a person, but probably do not have a firm grasp on how compatible they would be as a couple. By taking things slow, you'll get a better sense of what you two have in common and if your lifestyles align in a way that would allow a healthy relationship.

3. Setting your own pace: At the end of the day, it is the decision of you and your potential partner about when to start dating. While you may feel pressured to speed up the process by people external to your relationship, many people also feel pressured to slow down the process. As long as the two of you are communicating openly about the pace at which you are moving, you are on the right track.

y Nicole Maher

In the latest celebrity news, messy details about Jaime King and husband Kyle Newman's divorce continue to surface. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity exes tried to finalize their divorce in early June of this year, but were unable to reach an agreement. King has now reportedly cleared the couple's joint bank account and refused Newman access to their family home.

In celebrity break-up news, some not-so-pleasant details are coming out about Jaime King and Kyle Newman's divorce battle. What are some ways to keep you split amicable?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups are always challenging, even if they are not happening in the celebrity spotlight. If you are looking for ways to keep your break-up as cordial as possible, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Be professional: Emotions run high during the process of breaking up, and may cause some people to act out of character. It is important to remain professional in the early stages of a break-up to prevent creating unnecessary conflict. Agreeing on dates for your ex to collect their belongings or return keys if you were living together is a good way to keep the break up harmonious.

2. Vent to a friend: The break-up is going to be one of the most prominent things on your mind during this time, and your feelings toward it could change daily. There may be times when you are upset or angry about the circumstances, and other times when you are relieved the relationship is over. Rather than confusing your ex partner, find a trusted friend that you can process your feelings with.

3. Consider everyone involved: Even though the break-up is taking place between you and your partner, there are often other people involved such as family members and friends. While it is important to prioritize yourself in these types of situations, it also may be necessary to consider the feelings of others. By taking into account how your break-up is affecting other people, you may be able to have clearer conversations with others involved and alleviate some unnecessary tension.

y Carly Silva

In the latest celebrity news, reality TV star Francesca Farago came clean about her dating history to put rumors to rest. After a recent break up with Harry Jowsey, rumors have been circulating about the Too Hot To Handle's dating life after she was spotted out with multiple celebrities, including Jersey Shore star Vinny Guadagnino and model Casey Boonstra. According to EOnline.com, Farago silenced the rumors and explained that she is dating someone who she "just recently met," who fans have assumed to be Bachelorette star, Jef Holm.

In celebrity news, Francesca Farago is tired of the rumors and sets the record straight on her current dating life. What are some ways to keep rumors from affecting your relationships?

Cupid's Advice:

Dating can be hard enough even without added speculation and criticism from others. Being able to handle rumors and judgement during a relationship is a must. If you need to stop rumors from affecting your relationship, cupid has some advice for you:

1. Don't listen: One of the easiest ways to let the opinions of other people is to stop listening. Try blocking comments on your Instagram posts, or take a break from social media. This can help you to stop worrying about the thoughts other people have about your relationship.

New Celebrity Couple? Sofia Richie & Jaden Smith Get Close at the Beach

by Carly Silva

In the latest celebrity news, Sofia Richie and Jaden Smith were spotted getting flirty with each other at an L.A. beach last Saturday. The stars, who briefly dated in 2012, were photographed holding hands in the ocean, starting rumors that the two are starting things up again. According to UsMagazine.com, Richie's previous relationship, with KUWTK star Scott Disick, was confirmed to have ended only two weeks before her beach date with Smith. Disick and Richie's celebrity relationship was on an off a few times this year because of Disick's complicated relationship with co-parent and ex, Kourtney Kardashian, but he and Richie are said to be completely over this time around.

In celebrity couple news, Sofia Richie may be moving on after her split from Scott Disick with Jaden Smith. How do you know you're ready to move on after a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on after a break-up can be one of the hardest things to do. There are a few ways to tell if you're ready to start thinking about moving on, so if you're thinking of trying to start dating again, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Make sure you're over your ex first: The last thing you want to do is start up a new relationship when you're still not healed from your old one yet. This will make it harder to fully invest in someone new and might cause problems if you're still hung up on your ex. Before rushing into a rebound, focus on taking care of yourself and making sure you've had time to heal before starting something new.

2. Take it slow: If you think you're ready to start dating again, but you're still feeling hesitant, try to take it slow.

It's okay to try and put yourself back out into the dating game, but consider moving your next relationship slowly, so you're able to stop at any time.

Celebrity Exes Kendra Wilkinson & Hank Baskett Are in a 'Really Good Spot' After Split

y Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Kendra Wilkinson and Hank Baskett are in a good place after their celebrity break-up. According to UsMagazine.com, Wilkinson and Baskett have been very cordial and are in a really good spot with coparenting. Hank is out of the picture in terms of a romantic relationship, but they have a good thing going when it comes to the kids. They switch off week to week with them.

Celebrity exes Kendra and Hank are making the best of things after their break-up. What are some ways to keep things positive in the face of a split?

Cupid's Advice:

A break-up can be a hard thing to get over and keeping it cordial with your ex can be just as hard. If you're looking for ways to keep things positive in the face of a split, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Don't fight your feelings: Trying to make yourself seem better than you actually are is only going to make things worse. Allow yourself to cry it out if you need to and get that emotion out. That way once all of that is done, you can easily move on.

Celebrity Baby News: Emma Roberts Reveals Sex of First

Child with Garrett Hedlund

y Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, celebrity couple Emma Roberts and Garrett Hedlund revealed the sex of their celebrity baby. According to UsMagazine.com, Roberts wrote an Instagram post captioned: "Me...and my two favorite guys," revealing that the couple is expecting a boy. The couple's celebrity friends joined them in celebrating the news in the comments section of Robert's post. Her aunt, Julia Roberts, commented, "Love you" with a kiss emoji. Emma's former Scream Queens costar Lea Michele, commented, "You will be the greatest mama. I love you Em! Boy moms together." Her American Horror Story castmate Sarah Paulson, meanwhile, wrote, "Beauty beauty."

In celebrity baby news, Emma Roberts and her boyfriend Garrett are expecting a baby boy. What are some ways to reveal the sex of your baby to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Finding out the sex of your baby is almost as exciting as finding out that you're welcoming a baby. There are so many ways to reveal the sex of your baby to your friends and family and if your looking for the way that's right for you, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Use social media: Just like Emma Roberts and Garrett Hedlund, you can use social media to share with all of your friends and family the gender of your new baby. It's fast, it's easy, and it gets the job done. It's also a great excuse for a photo shoot.

Celebrity News: Elsa Pataky Says Marriage to Chris Hemsworth Is 'Not Easy'

y Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Elsa Pataky says her celebrity marriage with Chris Hemsworth is not easy. According to EOnline.com, Pataky explained in a new interview with Australia's Body + Soul, she and Hemsworth have been through many highs and lows together over the years. "It's funny that people think of us as a perfect couple," Pataky said. "No way. It's been ups and downs, and we still keep working at the relationship."

In celebrity news, Elsa Pataky claims that marriage with Chris Hemsworth isn't easy. What are some ways to get through rough patches as a married couple?

Cupid's Advice:

When you've been married for a while rough patches are inevitable, but it's all about you work through them that will define the rest of your relationship. If you are looking for ways to work through a rough patch in your relationship, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Never stop loving them: Love is unconditional. That means your love is strong during the good times and the bad. Even during this difficult time, never stop loving them. This is easier said than done. You could be mad at your partner or feeling negatively toward them. In order for the relationship to work, the flame can't go out.
