

Celebrity News: Surprise! The Weeknd & Bella Hadid Are Hanging Out Again

By Karley Kemble

Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber may not be the only celebrity exes on the mend! In the latest celebrity news, The Weeknd and Bella Hadid have recently been in contact with one another, reports EOnline.com. The Weeknd was spotted leaving Hadid's New York City apartment on Tuesday. While friends close to the former celebrity couple say the pair are not officially back together, they do admit there might just be some unresolved feelings – the rapper has “been very open about the fact that he still cares for her deeply.” The Weeknd and Hadid ended their relationship of a year and a half back in 2016.

In celebrity news, it seems lots of celebs are getting back with their exes! What are some benefits to getting back together with someone who you've dated before?

Cupid's Advice:

Dating somebody you've dated before isn't always a bad idea, contrary to what you may have heard. If you are thinking of getting back together with a former fling, here are some advantages to consider:

1. No awkward small-talk: Let's face it – small talk is pointless, but a staple of any new relationship. (Do you actually care about the weather?) When you jump back into a relationship with somebody from the past, you've already gotten to know them and can skip the boring norms. You can move forward faster and get to the more serious stuff.

2. Sense of familiarity: To an extent, we all fear the unknown. Dating somebody you've dated before eliminates that fear. Your ex accepted you once before, so whether you realize it or not there's comfort in knowing you were good enough for them in the past.

3. Time apart helped you grow: While you will be familiar with who they were when you dated them before, you could find yourself surprised at how they changed in your time apart. Perhaps you both did a lot of soul searching and have a whole new outlook on life to share with each other. Whatever the case, you won't be bored with the same stories.

Celebrity News: Selena Gomez Snuggles With Her Pup at Justin Bieber's Hockey Game

By Karley Kemble

Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber's rekindled relationship appears to still be going strong. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple was seen together at Bieber's hockey match on November 15th. In tow with Gomez was her adorable Cavalier King Charles Spaniel, Charlie. Gomez and Bieber caused quite a stir in celebrity news just weeks ago.

Following Gomez's breakup with The Weeknd, it was revealed that she was dating Bieber again. Though there may have been drama between the celebrity couple with their past on-again-off-again relationship, sources close to the duo say that Bieber has always been Gomez's soulmate. We're happy to see that they are going strong!

This celebrity news proves that Selena and Justin are still rekindling their romance. What are some ways to rebuild trust in a broken relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It's not impossible to rebuild a broken relationship. While it may take a lot of work, if you are wanting to move on from past occurrences, Cupid has some tips you can implement into your lives:

1. Act lovingly: Within the tougher times when emotions are high, it will be more challenging to respond kindly. Even in the toughest of times, it is critical to keep love in the forefront. If your partner sets you off, instead of putting your guard up and acting defensively, take a step away from the situation. Then, think of an appropriate way to respond lovingly.

2. Follow through: Remaining consistent is very important. You must follow through on your word, and your partner must follow suit. An already rocky relationship will be impossible to mend if one person thinks they are more reliable than the other. If life gets in the way of you staying true to your word, make sure you maintain an open line of communication to show that you respect your partner.

3. Maintain patience: Trusting someone is a gradual process. It's certainly more challenging to rebuild trust after a serious situation occurs. Be patient and know that you cannot magically trust someone overnight. If the relationship is worth it, it will happen, though.

Kim Kardashian Announces the Sex of Celebrity Baby No. 3

By Rachel Sparks

Kim Kardashian just revealed the sex of celebrity baby number three! According to EOnline.com, during an interview with Ellen Degeneres, Kim Kardashian was telling a story where North West said, “Mom, baby sister isn’t here. I think I need all the toys in my room.” This celebrity couple is on their way to a full house!

It looks like Kim and Kanye will be welcoming another celebrity baby girl to their brood! What are some ways to prepare for a third child versus the first or the second?

Cupid’s Advice:

Each addition of a new child takes its own preparation. When you brought home baby number two, you worried how your first born would react to not getting as much attention. Now, you know more about handling an infant, so there’s less to buy and worry about. But having a third infant is different. Now you’ve got two older siblings to prepare, five schedules to try and balance, and the financial strain of another kid. How can you prepare for baby number three with less stress? Read our parenting advice below:

1. Potty train: If you have older kids that aren't potty trained yet, go ahead and make your life so much easier now and get those kids' butts on the toilet. You don't want to have an infant strapped to your chest while you're chasing a screaming, naked two year old around the house.

Related Link: Parenting Tips: How to Cope With Stress

2. Prep the house: Besides setting up a nursery, there's a lot that you can do before baby number three gets here. If you have carpets and children, you know what a disaster that can be. While redoing floors may not be at the top of your prepping list, removing carpets can help you avoid allergies and stains. Buy the carpet tile samples from a home improvement store for a cheap and easily replaced rug for your kids' rooms.

3. Start a routine: Children thrive off of routines, but changing them can be hard. Start the newborn routine now so the kids won't have such a hard time adjusting. The most critical thing is to ensure you spend alone time with each child so they know they won't be forgotten.

4. Encourage alliances: Building strong relationships with the kids and encouraging them to be the best of sibling friends will make entertaining the older kids much easier. It also teaches them how to look out for each other, making them feel special instead of left out when the newborn comes home.

Celebrity News: Gwen Stefani Reveals Christmas Plans with Blake Shelton

By Rachel Sparks

Celebrity couple Gwen Stefani and Blake Shelton are making plans for their Christmas holiday together. According to UsMagazine.com, the couple is starting in Oklahoma at Shelton's house, and then spending the day with Stefani's three boys, who she had with celebrity ex Gavin Rossdale, at Stefani's house. The latest celebrity news is that the couple, who met on The Voice, produced a Christmas song together, a duet called "You Make it Feel Like Christmas."

This celebrity news that Gwen and Blake are still holding strong in their relationship is inspiring! What are some ways to combine traditions when you're part of a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

The holidays hold a lot of special memories for people. We all want to experience the same joy we felt as a child, and we especially want to share that with someone we love. The problem couples face is that they may not share holiday traditions. How do you and your partner make it through the holidays with the same joy if you're sharing traditions? Here's our relationship advice to get you through the holidays:

1. Merge traditions: Share your favorite traditions with your partner. If your love always goes caroling but that's not your thing, compromising and trying something new makes the holiday exciting. It also gives you the opportunity to value other cultures and their traditions. It could quite possibly make the whole month of December filled with holiday cheer!

2. Start new traditions: Even if it means combining old traditions a new and unique way, starting new traditions as a couple cements your status as partners. Make a holiday bucket list is a great way to learn what your partner wants to do to celebrate together. Treat each idea like a day from the advent calendar to spread the holiday cheer throughout the whole month!

3. Invite a friend: When you're a new couple, the holidays may feel a little lonely if you're used to a big family ordeal. Invite some friends for a bigger festivity. They might bring their own traditions, and trying something new will be fun for everyone and may ease the tensions of sharing holiday traditions with your significant other.

Celebrity News: The Weeknd Hangs Out with Justin Bieber's Ex Post-Selena Gomez Split

By Rachel Sparks

After only a week without celebrity ex Selena Gomez, The Weeknd has been spotted out on the town with Justin Bieber's ex Yovanna Ventura. He was seen holding hands with Ventura while hanging out with French Montana, according to EOnline.com. The Weeknd's partying is the latest celebrity news. He's been photographed with other celebrities, such as Leonardo DiCaprio, Robert Pattinson, and Emily Ratajkoski as well.

Post-celebrity breakup from Selena Gomez, The Weeknd is definitely getting around. What are some ways to recover from a split quickly?

Cupid's Advice:

Post-split is a disorienting feeling. You've lost the person you spent all of your time, likely other friends, and common hobbies. For the sentimental, TV shows, music, video games, etc. that the two of you shared bring back painful memories. Figuring out what to do with yourself after a breakup is hard, but it starts with getting over your ex. Here's our dating advice for all of you who are newly single:

1. Actually feel your feelings: No one wants to feel lonely, guilty, hurt, or betrayed, but pushing all of those feelings aside will only prolong the process of moving on. Grab a friend and bawl your eyes out. Get to the gym and work-out your frustrations. Drink until feel your sorrows, purge them, and move on.

Related Link: Relationship advice: How Do I Know If I'm Rebounding?

2. Cut them off: The only way to really get over your ex is to ignore them. Sounds harsh? It's worse being that guy who is stuck in the past. Delete all contact information for your ex, get out of your shared group of friends, and find new hobbies if you shared any with your ex. Finding who you are on your own starts with actually being on your own.

3. Get back out there: Ok, so one-night stands, flings, and rebounds can happen if you get back in the saddle before you're ready. Prolonging jumping back into the dating pool is just as harmful, though. Even if feel under confident, start flirting with other people until you're ready to start dating again. The fun of flirting, and how good you feel when you receive it, will help you get over your ex that much quicker.

Celebrity Couple News: Gigi

Hadid & Zayn Malik Celebrate 2 Years Together with a Kiss

By Rachel Sparks

Model Gigi Hadid and former One Direction singer Zayn Malik celebrated two years together on November 12. The celebrity couple recognized the moment with a kiss, posted on Instagram later that night. Hadid shared with UsMagazine.com that the romance started for the couple on the Ellen DeGeneres Show. Hadid and Malik met at a friend's party and had their first date later that same week.

This celebrity couple is celebrating their anniversary. What are some special ways to show your partner you care on your anniversary?

Cupid's Advice:

Anniversaries are significant for couples because they mark the growth the two of you have made as a team. Finding the best ways to express your love for your partner is a lot of pressure, but Cupid has relationship advice to make your anniversary that much better:

1. The perfect gift: Tell your love story together. It will be heart-warming to see how your partner views your first meeting. Sharing how your relationship has grown and what you've loved most will reignite the initial young love for each other. Make a photo album, splurge on a hardcover book of the two of you, or tell it in style with a customized playlist.

Celebrity News: Chloe Green Thinks She'll Get Engaged to 'Hot Felon' Jeremy Meeks

By Karley Kemble

Just three years after an insanely viral mugshot took over the internet, the famed “Hot Felon” seems to have a drastically different life! Jordan Meeks and his girlfriend Chloe Green might soon be planning a celebrity wedding! According to UsMagazine.com, Green thinks that she and Meeks are looking to take the next step in their relationship and become engaged! The celebrity couple were first seen together in June and haven’t slowed down since. This is certainly a turnaround in Meeks' life – he made celebrity news just last month for filing for divorce from his wife Melissa.

This celebrity news shows that you truly can move on after a divorce. What are some steps you can take to move on after a tough split?

Cupid's Advice:

While it may seem impossible to move on while enduring a rough divorce, it is possible. If you are having trouble, Cupid has some ideas that might just help you out:

1. Ask for help: There's nothing wrong with admitting you need help. Contrary to what you may believe, it's not a sign of weakness, but rather, a sign of strength. Admitting you need help will garner a lot of respect from those around you. Yes, you can still consider yourself strong and independent and still require extra help from time to time!

2. Celebrate small: If you find yourself constantly down from a messy divorce, sometimes it's easier to find small things to celebrate. Even if it's something as seemingly mundane as putting on "real pants" rather than sweats – that's something to be proud of. Coloring your world with more positivity will cause you to see things more positively.

Celebrity Divorce: Mel B & Stephen Belafonte Reach Partial Divorce Settlement

By Karley Kemble

Celebrity exes Mel B and Stephen Belafonte have reached a partial divorce settlement. While the exact terms have not been disclosed, UsMagazine.com has confirmed that they have also agreed to a partial custody settlement of their six-year-old daughter Madison. Mel B announced her celebrity divorce in March, with allegations that Belafonte had an affair with their nanny. In a heartbreaking statement, Mel B stated, “I am in fear of my safety, and I am in fear of being irreparably harmed.” She was allowed a temporary restraining in May, and still awaits a domestic violence restraining order to be finalized.

This celebrity divorce is partially settled, but not all the way. What are some ways to make your divorce proceedings more efficient and civil?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes when it comes down to it, divorce is the right decision for you and your partner. There certainly is potential for drama to fester within divorce proceedings, but if you want to avoid the added stress of a long and messy battle, check out these tips from Cupid:

1. Don’t be defensive: When you’re going through a rough divorce, a defensive guard might be your first instinct. Emotions are high, and maybe things aren’t going your way. You are entitled to your feelings, though it is important to refrain from a “you started it” mentality. Be as mature as you can – it will make your divorce run a lot smoother.

2. Nix the disses: While it’s okay to vent to a close friend or your immediate family, you shouldn’t let the hostility saturate. Don't trash talk your ex to everyone you meet. When you do that, you're making your private business a public ordeal. If you only have negative thoughts about your ex, consider keeping them out of the conversation. As hard as that may be, you'll find a positive mindset is beneficial to your mental well-being.

Celebrity News: Ed Westwick & GF Jessica Serfaty Were Looking at Engagement Rings Before Sexual Assault Scandal

By Rachel Sparks

This happy celebrity couple is facing some serious relationship trouble. Ed Westwick and Jessica Serfaty confirmed their relationship back in May, and, according to UsMagazine.com, Westwick had been looking at engagement rings two weeks before a sexual assault accusation hit Westwick from Kristina Cohen via Facebook. Serfaty posted the next day in support of Westwick, saying, "I know you, I know the truth." We're still holding out hope for a future celebrity wedding!

This celebrity news is unfortunate, whether it's true or not. What are some ways to help your partner through a situation where their character is affected?

Cupid's Advice:

At some point, we all face accusations. Whether it's typical bullying, workplace miscommunication, or frustrated exes, we will all encounter situations where we or the people we care about face similar challenges as Westwick. It's normal to feel doubt, but ultimately faith in our partners will carry us through these tough times. Read below for more relationship advice to get you through expected tensions:

1. Be gentle with the wounds: Your partner is probably having a lot of doubts. Facing accusations makes someone feel insecure in their current situations. Don't push these wounds. You've known your partner long before these accusations came up, so putting any faith in them will only further aggravate your partner's wounds.

3. Defend through battles: When you need help, you trust that your partner has your back. Even though accusations can shake some trust you have in the relationship, standing by your partner and defending them against others will strengthen your relationship. Any doubts you have, you handle between the two of you, but be sure to keep it behind closed doors. Presenting a united front will help restore trust from others along with strengthening your partnership.

Celebrity Couple News: Scott Disick is Telling Friends He's 'in Love' with Sofia Richie

By Rachel Sparks

According to a source, 34-year-old Scott Disick said that he is “in love” with 19-year-old girlfriend Sofia Richie. According to UsMagazine, the couple have shared their intimate moments around the world where it’s easier to remain private. Richie’s friend Chloe Bartoli, an old fling of Disick’s, has stopped talking to Richie, but it’s no loss. Richie’s father Lionel Richie claims his daughter is just as infatuated with with Disick. Despite the three children Disick has with Kourtney Kardashian, the celebrity couple are receiving support from the Kardashian clan.

This celebrity couple must be getting more serious if Scott Disick is using the “L” word. What are some ways to know when to tell your partner you love them?

Cupid’s Advice:

Dropping the “L” word for the first time is nerve-wracking, but it’s exceptionally exciting. It takes the relationship to a new stage and shows the commitment both people have for each other. There’s a sense of security and a renewed sense of infatuation for each other. But how do you know it’s the right time to take your relationship to the next level? Read Cupid’s relationship advice below:

1. You know you’re capable: Loving another person is a delicate and healthy balance of self-awareness and selflessness. You have to know what you need in a relationship just as much as you need to know what your partner needs. Are you willing to make the sacrifices your partner may ask of you? When you feel confident that you can provide selflessly for another person and are aware of your own needs and how to ask for them in a healthy and respectful manner, then you know that you are ready to say the all-powerful phrase.

2. You’re confident the relationship is ready: At some point, the two of you have talked about the future you see for yourselves, both independently and together. You never want to drop the “L” word too soon, but you don’t want to wait too long. If you’re worried about scaring your significant other away, then hold off on saying anything. Respecting your partner's need to become confident in their decision and the time it takes to reach that is a sign of a loving and supportive relationship.

Celebrity News: Selena Gomez's Friends Want Her 'To Be Cautious' with Justin Bieber

By Karley Kemble

Recently reunited celebrity couple Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber are as happy as ever, and want to do things right this time around. Though the couple spent most of their past relationship as an on-again-of-again couple, they have both grown individually in the years they've been apart. In the latest celebrity news, friends are a bit wary that the celebrity couple is back together, reports UsMagazine.com. Sources close to Gomez, including her bestie Taylor Swift, report that they want her "to be cautious" dating Bieber again. Though her friends admit the singer has certainly changed for the better, they also know how much hurt he has caused Gomez in the past. Here's to hoping they continue to go strong!

This celebrity news is definitely the talk of Hollywood at the moment. What are some things to be careful about if you're getting back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter what people say, getting back with an ex isn't always a bad idea. Like Gomez says – the heart wants what it wants, right? However, it is important to be cautious when you jump back into a relationship with someone. Cupid has the scoop:

1. Think about their motives: While this might be unsettling, you need to consider your ex's feelings. Are they genuinely wanting to give it another go, or are they just using you to fill a void? You don't want to get burned again, so be careful and really think this through before you jump back in.

Related Link: Celebrity News: It's Official! Selena Gomez & Justin Bieber Are Back Together

2. Think about your feelings: Similarly, it's important to be careful that you're really interested in giving it another shot. If you just want to get back with them because you don't want to go to your bestie's wedding by yourself or are lonely in general, you should reconsider your priorities. Don't invest your time into your ex if you aren't going back into the relationship with the right intentions.

3. Beware of old habits: As they say, old habits die hard. While you might be thinking that your ex has completely changed for the better, it's important to be realistic. There's still potential for the habits that previously affected your relationship to creep back into the picture, so don't put your ex on a pedestal quite yet.

Have you ever gotten back with an ex? How were you careful? Let us know below.

Celebrity News: Scott Disick is Upset Kourtney Kardashian Didn't Invite Him to Khloe's Surprise Party

By Karley Kemble

Uh oh, it looks like celebrity exes Scott Disick and Kourtney Kardashian are making celebrity news yet again. According to EOnline.com, Disick was very upset he was not invited to her sister, Khloe Kardashian's surprise birthday party. In a preview for next week's Keeping Up With the Kardashians episode, a disgruntled Disick confronts his ex, saying, "I would have wanted to be there for her" because he still considers himself part of the family. When asked for explanation, Kardashian explained that she was worried about the photos and press attention – but later reveals that she simply did not want her celebrity ex to be there. The preview ends with Disick calling his celebrity ex “really fake” for not being honest with him. Yikes!

This celebrity news shows that these exes aren't necessarily civil all of the time. What are some parameters you can put on your relationship with your ex if you have children together?

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups can be messy. Breakups with kids can be really messy. While Kardashian and Disick try and remain civil for the sake of their three children, it's clear they face their fair share of problems. If you're having trouble with an ex, Cupid has some tips that you can implement into your life:

1. Kick the emotions to the curb: You must keep your frustrations and all negative feelings about your ex between the two of you. It's easy to jump to conclusions and expect the worst from your ex if you ended on bad terms and continue to have drama. Your child (or children) are the most important commitment you two share, so when they're around, get along as best as you possibly can.

2. Have a clear-cut plan: Early on into your separation or divorce, it is pivotal to have a clear and defined custody agreement. Between the two of you, decide on a visitation schedule and figure out how you will celebrate holidays and their birthdays. It won't be easy by any means, but it will really help you diffuse potential conflicts from arising.

3. Leave the new boyfriend/girlfriend out: Introducing a new person into your child's life can be complicated. It is best to leave the parenting to the parents until the relationship becomes very serious. That way, you and your ex can learn how to co-parent maturely and avoid playing the blame game with each other.

Celebrity Interview: Drew D'Angelo of 'Real Estate Wars' Says, "Don't Ever Settle for Second Best"

By Rachel Sparks

If you don't already know his name, you will soon: Drew D'Angelo is a coastal real estate agent on The McMonigle Team and one of the stars of Bravo's new reality TV show Real Estate Wars. At 21 years old, he joined his stepfather's land development business as an assistant and worked his way up to the top. With 17 years of experience, he is certainly one of the best. In our exclusive celebrity interview, D'Angelo opens up about reality TV, his best relationship advice, and his future goals.

Drew D'Angelo Talks Real Estate & Reality TV in Celebrity Interview

Real Estate Wars includes the biggest real estate moguls in the O.C. Filled with A-listers, celebrity drama, and multi-million dollar houses, it's our next binge-worthy show. Of the experience so far, D'Angelo says, "My life hasn't changed all that much, with the exception of being recognized on the street and in stores when I am with my family." While he's now in the spotlight more than before, his career path is still very much the same. He co-owns several businesses with his family, including his stepfather (and role model), and continues to sell houses.

Bravo's selling point for Real Estate Wars – besides the gorgeous coastal homes – is two rival teams. D'Angelo is part of John McMonigle's team, who was the number one real estate agent in the United States before the market crashed. Of course, there's a catch: McMonigle's old partner, Jojo Romero, is on the opposing side. Despite the drama, D'Angelo reveals, "John is a constant gentleman to her. One can hope that, one day, they will be friends again. I do think Jojo will be nice to John when she lets go of her deep-rooted resentments."

D'Angelo, though, thrives off of the competition. He never feels animosity towards any members of either team and considers some of them friends. In fact, he believes that the competition makes him better: "I look at my competition as an opportunity to collaborate and learn what makes them tick because it gives me the upper hand when I'm in negotiations with them."

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Getting Over a Grudge

Real Estate Wars focuses on extremely high-end homes, so it's no surprise that the reality TV star often works with celebrities. "I try not to get starstruck by anyone, but I definitely am in awe of the wealth these people have and the lives they live. It's really a different world for some of my clients," he shares. "I always try to make sure they know I am as comfortable as they are when doing business with celebrities. They seem to open up more when you are just being yourself and aren't nervous."

Of course, there is that one celebrity that he'd love to meet – and celebrity home that he'd love to sell: Kobe Bryant. Close runner-ups include Richard Branson, Irvine Co. owner Don Bren, and Bill Gates.

Reality TV Star Offers Relationship Advice

D'Angelo could never have so much success in his professional life without support from his family. When it comes to relationship advice, he believes the most important part of having a good home life is the partner you choose. "Don't look for someone who fits into your life. Look for someone who adds to you and makes you better in all aspects of your life," he explains in our celebrity interview. "A true partner is a complement to who you are already – someone who challenges you in a positive way to be more, someone who makes you want to be more in your life, someone who respects your boundaries and has a set of morals and goals that again complement who you are."

Currently married to his second wife, he adds, "Don't ever settle for second best. This person, whomever it is, will make you feel your best and be the ying to your yang."

Adam Levine & Pregnant Wife Behati Prinsloo Are Expecting a Second Baby Girl

By Rachel Sparks

Celebrity couple Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo are expecting their second celebrity baby, and it’s going to be another girl! According to UsMagazine, Adam Levine shared the baby gender news on the Ellen DeGeneres Show November 7th. When asked if they would be having more children, the expecting couple claim they both want a lot more children. We can't wait to see the family these two beauties build together!

This celebrity news has the girls outweighing the boys in Adam Levine's household! What are some ways to help your husband deal with an all-girl family?

Cupid's Advice:

Family dynamics are an important aspect as couples decide to have another child. Oftentimes, though, parents only think about how the older child(ren) will adapt to being an older child. But how do parents change as their family grows, especially when one gender is outnumbered? Read Cupid's parenting advice below:

1. Model through Mom: Children watch how their parents interact, and this sets the basis for a lot of their future relationships. When you're raising all daughters, the girls watch how mom and dad read each other. If you want to raise confident young women with high standards, show them what those standards should be by treating your spouse right.

2. Don't shy away as she grows: The whole family gets pretty terrified as the little ladies in the family start to grow up. Teenage years are terrible for everyone in the family, but don't shy away. The pre-teen years are especially important for developing the adult minds, so be careful of too much distance, even if that seems like what they want. Be there, be supportive, be present.

3. Date her: Put aside the Oedipal complex and realize that your role as the most important man in your daughter's life really does effect the future of her relationships with men. That's a lot of pressure. Take your daughter out for dates for genuine connection, but you'll also teach her how she should be treated. Make sure to spend authentic time with each of the kids alone to nourish both the present and the future for your children.

Celebrity Divorce: 'Real Housewives' Shannon & David Bador's Split is Still on Despite Reunion

By Rachel Sparks

Real Housewives of Orange County stars Shannon and David Baedor are still going through with their celebrity divorce, which was announced a week ago. EOnline.com reports that the ex celebrity couple were seen reuniting on Saturday at USC for their daughter Sophie Baedor. Though the couple are splitting after 17 years of marriage, both Shannon and David remain committed to regular reunions, claiming that co-parenting amicably for the sake of their children remains their goal.

This celebrity divorce is still happening after 17 years of marriage. What are some things to try to heal your relationship before resorting to a divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Long-term relationships are a lot of work, but we often forget it. That initial falling in love feeling disappears but we're still optimistic about our futures. Routine, monotony, stress, and hardships challenge the relationship and it's natural when we feel down from life to let those feelings translate to our relationships. How do we know, then, when we've done everything we can for our marriage? Check out Cupid's relationship advice:

1. Decide if you want to fix your marriage: You would think this would be obvious for most people: you know either way if you want to save your relationship. But it's much easier to say you do want to make things work than it is to take the actions to do so. When you realize you want to do the hard work it takes to repair a relationship, that means you have to stop complaining and start taking action.

Related Link: Jennifer Garner & Ben Affleck Attend Church After Celebrity Divorce Filing

2. Take responsibility: Unfortunately, working on a relationship isn't comfortable. Then again, it was awkward in the beginning, but that proved to be worth it. You'll be embarrassed and humbled, but likely, so will your spouse. Own up to your mistakes, both past and present. Your spouse will appreciate it and you'll find some closure on past pains. Your relationship will also take a giant leap forward as the two of you confront your demons together.

3. Respect and value: This is another that should seem obvious, but when you're hurting it's very easy to take out that pain on the other party. From our childhoods we all learned how easy it is to lash out at our family, and our spouses are no exception, but take a breath before you do so. Is that comment worth the damage it does to your relationship? Also keep in mind that actively paying attention and engaging your significant other shows that you value and respect them, and taking the time to listen and engage will go much further than an extravagant gift that was purchased to overcompensate for failures.

4. Give your best: When you're hurt, you don't want to make yourself vulnerable, but you won't move forward unless you try. Keep giving your best, even when your spouse isn't. If things don't work out you will know you tried your hardest and you will have learned from the whole experience for another relationship.

Celebrity Baby: Chrissy Teigen & John Legend Share Baby No. 2 Plans

By Karley Kemble

John Legend and Chrissy Teigen are talking baby number two! According to EOnline.com, Teigen and Legend are hoping to have another celebrity baby very soon. Teigen has been very vocal about her struggles with infertility and their choice to have their first child, Luna, through frozen embryo transfer. In a recent magazine interview, Teigen said that the celebrity couple had 20 embryos from the start, though only three were genetically “normal.” Both Legend and Teigen have both said they definitely want to have their second child, which Teigen has confirmed will be a boy “in the near future.” We hope to hear news of a celebrity pregnancy soon!

Hopefully there will be a celebrity baby on the way for Chrissy Teigen and John Legend soon. What are some ways to support your partner through fertility issues?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes having a child does not always happen according to plan. If you or somebody you love is coping with infertility,

Cupid has some ways to help during the difficult and emotional times:

1. Validate their feelings: A common mindset of people who struggle with fertility is to blame themselves. They have more than a right to be upset, so make sure they know it's okay to feel what they're feeling. It's also important that they know they are not alone and their infertility issues are not their fault.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby: John Legend Opens Up About Fertility Struggles with Chrissy Teigen

2. Learn: Infertility is kind of a taboo subject to talk about, so you might be in the dark about the details and latest information. Sit down at your computer and take some time to research the subject. Keeping up to date will show you care and will help you empathize with them a lot better.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple: Tom and Ashley Arnold Open Up About Their Tough Road to Parenthood

3. Know what and what not to say: We often default into saying phrases that we've heard, and think are helpful (i.e. "just relax" or "you can always try another way"). In almost all cases, these words will hurt more than help. It's much more calming to ask your loved one "how are you doing" or "how can I help" because you're thinking of their feelings rather than trying to fix the problem. Most times, people just want somebody to listen to them.

Celebrity Wedding: Kate Upton Marries Justin Verlander in Lavish Italian Wedding

By Karley Kemble

Just days after a monumental World Series win, Kate Upton has married her baseball beau, Houston Astros pitcher Justin Verlander. Their celebrity wedding took place at Rosewood Castiglion Del Bosco, a breathtaking resort in Italy. EOnline.com reports that the decorations and scenery wowed attendees – from breathtaking mountaintop views that overlooked vineyards, to flower arrangements mixed in with olive branches, the luxe atmosphere could not be beat. Upton even shared a heartwarming photo of the newlywed celebrity couple on her Instagram account, saying, “I feel so lucky that I got to marry my best friend!” We’re so happy for this celebrity couple – congratulations to Upton and Verlander!

This celebrity wedding took place at an Italian resort. What are some benefits to getting married at a resort?

Cupid's Advice:

Weddings are definitely a time of pure and wonderful bliss. While there are certainly a lot of little details to plan, one of the key elements to any wedding is location! If you're wondering if a resort wedding is for you, Cupid has some benefits that might just interest you:

1. Scenic views: Resorts are known for their five-star luxury – both inside and out. Not only will you have an outstanding and classy venue, you'll have gorgeous views, too! Location is everything, so why not go all out? (Bonus: think about how amazing your wedding pics will turn out with all the gorgeousness around you!)

2. Easy, breezy, convenience: A major hassle of having a destination wedding is finding a place to stay. If you have your wedding at a resort, you and your guests can book rooms on-site. Most people will dig the idea of getting ready and walking over to your ceremony – so they can dodge the humiliation of getting lost and walking in late. Believe us, your guests will be thanking you for making their lives easier.

3. One-stop shop: Often times, weddings have special packages and deals that make wedding planning so, so, so easy. You'll have a caterer, bartender, and all the ceremony and reception necessities. It takes a lot of the stress of planning out, so you can focus on more important things (hello, like finding your dress!) Nobody will even think of calling you a bridezilla.

Have you had a resort wedding or have you been to one? What was it like? Do tell!

Celebrity News: Arnold Schwarzenegger Says Cheating on Maria Shriver Was a 'Major Screw-Up'

By Karley Kemble

Six years after announcing a shocking celebrity divorce, Arnold Schwarzenegger is speaking candidly about his past decisions. According to UsMagazine.com, in a preview for an upcoming television special, Schwarzenegger admits, “I know it was a major, major screw-up” when asked about his infidelity. The actor and former governor of California caused quite a stir in 2011, when he made celebrity news after cheating on his wife, Maria Shriver with their long-time housekeeper, Mildred Baena. Shortly after the revelation, news also broke that Schwarzenegger had, in fact, fathered a child with Baena. Though Schwarzenegger and Shriver have officially filed for divorce, Schwarzenegger also has revealed that the celebrity exes have not yet finalized it.

This celebrity news proves that celebrities feel regret just like us. What are some ways to come back from a fatal mistake in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

As humans, we are subject to error and mistakes. While it may seem like you will never be able to bounce back after something terrible happens in a relationship, it's entirely possible. Cupid has some ways to cope and move on:

1. Don't let it define you: It's normal to take blame and harness a mistake as a part of who you are. You are not your mistakes or the product of mistakes that have affected you. It is important realize this and even more important to learn and grow from the past. Don't let it hold you back.

2. Practice positive mental talk: A positive mind is empowering. (Say that out loud five times!) If you're stuck in a rut after making a mistake, think of a way to spin negative thoughts into positive ones. Instead of thinking "I am so stupid" reframe your thoughts "I am smart, that decision was not." This way of thinking will really help change the way you see things.

3. Forgive and learn from it: Forgiveness isn't easy, but it is possible. It certainly does not happen overnight. In time you will find it to be freeing. Whether you need to forgive yourself or somebody else, reflect on the steps you need to take to reach that point, and do what you can to get there. Forgiveness doesn't change the past, but it can help you learn from it.

Celebrity News: It's Official! Selena Gomez & Justin Bieber Are Back Together

By Karley Kemble

After a roller coaster of a week for Selena Gomez, it appears she and Justin Bieber are officially a couple again! UsMagazine.com reports Gomez “has always had feelings” for Bieber, so this celebrity news is not too surprising for their inner circle. Since 2011, the celebrity couple has had a longstanding on-again, off-again history, and they went their separate ways for good three years ago. After Gomez’s kidney transplant over the summer, Bieber reached out to check in with her. While they kept things platonic at first, it wasn’t long before old feelings resurfaced. According to their pals, their time apart has allowed each of them mature and “move past” the drama they used to have, and the rekindled celebrity couple is happier than ever!

This celebrity news has us reeling!
What are some ways to decide whether or not to get back together with your ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sure, you broke up for a reason. But sometimes, it’s impossible to get that one person out of your head. If you’re thinking of getting back with an ex, Cupid has some ways to help you decide if it's the right move:

1. Enough time has passed: If it's been awhile since you've gone your separate ways and you've had the chance to grow individually, then you might be ready to give it another shot. Time apart allows for clarity, after all. Maybe they were the right person for you, just at the wrong time in your life.

Celebrity News: Kate Upton

Kisses Fiancé Justin Verlander After Astros World Series Win

By Karley Kemble

For the first time in 55 years, the Houston Astros have won the World Series! The team defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers in the seventh game on Wednesday evening. In the latest celebrity news, Kate Upton attended the final series game in support of her fiancé, Astros pitcher Justin Verlander. Following the team's big win, the adorable celebrity couple was snapped sharing a huge kiss and excitedly celebrating with each other, reports UsMagazine.com. Upton and Verlander have been a couple since 2014, and announced their engagement at the 2016 Met Gala. Now that baseball season is on hiatus, perhaps a celebrity wedding is on the horizon? Congratulations to this happy celebrity couple!

With this exciting celebrity news, this pair has a lot to celebrate! What are some ways to celebrate your partner's achievements?

Cupid's Advice:

It's always exciting to share big moments with your partner. Cupid has some ways you can treat yourselves and celebrate your accomplishments:

1. Have a party: It's always fun to celebrate with your friends and family. You can take the reins and plan for a get-together at your place with all their favorite foods, or send a mass text to meet at their favorite restaurant or bar. Either way, the night is entirely about them and is sure to be fun and memorable time!

Celebrity News: The Weeknd 'Really Didn't Trust' Selena Gomez's Ex Justin Bieber

By Karley Kemble

Selena Gomez and The Weeknd may have broken up, but it's clear the celebrity exes may still have drama between them. In the latest celebrity news, a source close to The Weeknd questioned Gomez's rekindled friendship with her ex-boyfriend, Justin Bieber. Following a major kidney transplant earlier this summer, Bieber reached out to Gomez and the celebrity exes kept in constant contact after that. According to UsMagazine.com, The Weeknd trusted his ex-girlfriend, but “really didn’t trust” Bieber’s intentions. Gomez and Bieber have been spotted hanging out with each other since news of her split with The Weeknd became public. Maybe Gomez isn’t so sick of that same old love, after all?

In this celebrity news, it seems that ex relationships caused some turmoil in a current relationship. What are some ways to keep your past relationships from dictating your current or future ones?

Cupid’s Advice:

Break-ups are almost always rough. While it may seem challenging to heal, it’s important to maintain a strong sense of self. Cupid has some tips that you can implement into your life to help keep your past from dictating the future:

1. Respect the past: Your past relationship ended for a reason. You don’t have to forget the good times you had. Respect the relationship for all that it was, because it probably was right for you at that point in your life.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Selena Gomez & The Weeknd Split After 10 Months of Dating

2. Be present: If you spend your time dwelling on what used to be, it’ll be super challenging to find happiness in another relationship. Yes, you should respect the past for what it was, just know you are a different person in the present. Learn from your past self and relationship, and fully embrace yourself for who you are presently.

Celebrity Interview: Michael Canale Talks About His New Product Line & The Latest Celebrity Hair Styles

By Rachel Sparks

With nearly thirty years of experience as a celebrity hair stylist, Michael Canale is best known for creating “The Rachel,” the hair style of Jennifer Aniston’s character on Friends. Seeing between 20 and 40 clients every day, he starts his mornings at 7 a.m. and spends anywhere from 15 to 30 minutes on each client. Adding to his already busy schedule, he has just released an ingenious new hair product line that lengthens the longevity of color and repairs damage to hair. Of course, Canale is a lot more than a stylist: He’s also a family man to three kids and an avid traveller for work. In our exclusive celebrity interview, he opens up about his new product line, the latest celebrity hair styles, the importance of family, and what’s next for his booming career.

Michael Canale Talks About New Product Line in Celebrity Interview

Canale’s new line of hair care products “is the first of its kind, focusing on getting hair ready for color and maintaining color between salon visits.” The four-step process starts with a gentle shampoo that does not fade color. Following the shampoo, Nourish is a topical vitamin that helps strengthen and heal hair. The third step is the conditioner that “restores luster, softness and shine.” The newest addition to his line is Replenish, “an ingestible vitamin with a vegan and all-natural approach that contains patented Targeted Cellular Technology for maximum absorption with critical ingredients that will help you achieve strong, healthy hair.”

It's easy to see why we trust the Canalé product line as much as we trust the stylist to color and cut our hair. Canalé has a strong knowledge base and uses the undertones of someone's skin and eyes in order to choose their best hair color. He suggests that you look at your wrist and note the color of your veins: “If they're blue, you have a cool undertone, and if they're green, you have a golden undertone.” He also recommends looking at your eye color: If you have blue-toned eyes, cool-toned highlights will be a natural compliment. For instance, blue-toned eyes with specs are best complimented with baby-blonde highlights.

Making it even easier for hair color novices, he adds, “Another trick is to always use your natural hair color when creating a hair color – that's why I prefer highlights.”

Having started the largest hair styling trend in decades with

“The Rachel,” we had to ask Canale’s perspective on must-have celebrity hair styles. In terms of hair color, he believes that ombre and balayage are on their way out. Instead, he suggests his favorite technique and says, “The hottest color trend right now is using paper thin highlights to enhance a client’s natural base and adding a finishing touch of a pop around the face to bring out a client’s eye color, giving a subtle, glamorous look.”

Related Link: Get a Knockout Look with This One-Two Punch in Hairstyles

When it comes to hair cuts, he encourages his clients to consider their natural texture. “If you do a cut that embraces your natural waves, it’ll require less styling with heat and tools,” he shares.

Celebrity Hair Stylist Shares Parenting Advice

Aiding in his success is help from both his wife and manager. “I will tell you, it’s not easy. My wife is very supportive and holds down the fort when I’m out on the road,” he explains. “I also have a great manager who makes sure I don’t miss a beat when it comes to my kids.”

Despite his long days, Canale always prioritizes time with his family. When it comes to finding your own work-life balance, Canale says, “My best parenting advice to your readers is to never let work allow you to miss the most memorable moments and to carve out family time. Creating memories with your loved ones is priceless!”

So what’s next for this celebrity stylist? For starters, he sees himself spending plenty of time in the salon. He began his career working with Leslie Ann Warren and Marsha Mason, and most recently, he’s worked with Carolyn Murphy, the face of Estée Lauder, and Stephanie Hollman from The Real Housewives of Dallas. “I want to still be behind the chair, coloring the hair of women all over the world. I work in eight cities as of today and am looking to expand into another,” he explains. “My goal is that the future of my business continues to help women feel beautiful as we create healthy and beautiful hair color.”

Additionally, Canale hopes that one of his children will join the family business someday. “I’ve built a career around brand-specific color techniques and would love to see it continue,” he says. Plus, he promises that “a couple of incredible products will be released in 2018.” So stay tuned!

Canale saves his best piece of beauty advice for the end of our celebrity interview: “One last thing: Don’t overthink your color. Your hair is your best accessory – stay colorful!”

Celebrity Break-Up: Selena Gomez & The Weeknd Split After 10 Months of Dating

By Karley Kemble

Selena Gomez's heart wants what it wants, and apparently it's not The Weeknd. In the latest celebrity news, the former couple has ended their 10-month relationship, according to UsMagazine.com. News of this celebrity break-up is a surprise to many, as they appeared "stronger than ever" just last month. Gomez has reportedly been back in contact with ex-boyfriend Justin Bieber after undergoing a kidney transplant, but the two are just on friendly terms. Hang in there, Selena and The Weeknd!

This celebrity break-up has us wondering if Selena Gomez will be getting back together with Justin Bieber anytime soon! What are some ways to cope with a recent break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups are almost always difficult to overcome. While it may seem like you will never be able to get over your ex, we promise it's possible. Here are some ways to get that ex off your mind:

1. Write it out: In this digital age, it's easy to want to take your feelings to social media. Don't. Put your phone away, shut down your laptop, grab a pen and piece of paper, and start writing. You'll find it to be very therapeutic!

Related Link: Why Celebrity Exes Justin Bieber & Selena Gomez Can't Quit Each Other

2. Talk it through: Find a good friend, and ask them to sit down and listen. Make it clear that you just want them to hear you out for now – they can give their personal opinions when/if you are ready for it.

By Karley Kemble

Matthew Morrison's new life as a father has filled him with lots of glee! In recent celebrity news, he and his wife Renee Puente welcomed their first celebrity baby, Revel James Makai Morrison just two weeks ago. Morrison tells EOnline.com that fatherhood has been "something I have been ready for" and such a "beautiful transformation in my life." Congratulations to these new celebrity parents!

This celebrity parent couldn't be happier with the transformation in his life! What are some ways your relationship must change when you become parents?

Cupid's Advice:

Welcoming a new bundle of joy is sure to bring lots of change to your routines and overall way of life. Without a doubt, your relationship will have to adjust accordingly. Cupid has some tips to consider:

1. Prioritize, prioritize, prioritize: It'll probably feel like you have less time for you and your partner to spend time together. That's normal – your new baby comes first!
