Celebrity Interview: 'Love Blows' Creators SallyAnn Salsano & Patti Stanger Discuss Reality TV & Modern Dating

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Marissa Donovan.

Television producer SallyAnn Salsano and famous matchmaker Patti Stanger have teamed up to create a new reality TV show on WE tv called Love Blows, which follows the drama of a Chicago family's matchmaking business. In our exclusive celebrity interview, Salsano and Stanger chat about their show, previous television projects, and today's dating world.

Read and listen to this celebrity interview from the masterminds behind the matchmaking reality TV show Love Blows!

<http://cupidspulse.com/wp-content/uploads/2017/08/Sally-Ann-Salsano-and-Patti-Stanger-Interview-for-Love-Blows.mp3>

SallyAnn, we last spoke about Martha and Snoop's Potluck Dinner, so I have to start off with saying congratulations because that's a tremendous success and your first Emmy nomination! How does that make you feel?

Salsano: I'm super proud of that. They are such power houses, superstars, and household names worldwide. Working with them – there's almost nothing they won't do. They are super dedicated 24/7 and on set with you morning, noon, and night. And creatively, it's really fun. We really had a great time.

Related Link: 'Martha & Snoop's Potluck Dinner Party' Producer SallyAnn Salsano Talks About Her Hit Reality TV Shows & Possible 'Jersey Shore' Revival

You've said that there are a lot of commonalties between them, even though people may view them as so different. Do you think that played a role in the show's success?

Salsano: There's all this hullabaloo now in our world about different people and people being against each other. If the country was more like this show, we'd be in a better place. If you like someone, nothing brings you together more than a good meal and good conversation. Just get together and have a good time! It doesn't matter where you're from, where you're raised, or what you're like. At the end of the day, we all like to eat, laugh, and have fun. That's basically what this show's about.

Absolutely – great point. Patti, last month, you were on Hollywood Medium with Tyler Henry, and you shared that your adoptive mother was really good at giving you advice. What was that experience like?

Stanger: It's not so much what he says and how he says it. It's more like, when you're in the room, there's a strong energy. You feel the presence of your loved one. He's a guy that brings in the energy of your loved ones, and you feel loved. My mom died a really horrible death of lung cancer, and at the end, she was in a lot of pain. So knowing that she was okay was important to me. And then my biological mother showed up – that was all really nice. I never met her, but I felt a presence. You can't tell that though the television though.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: 'Hollywood Medium' Star Tyler Henry on His New Memoir & Career: "This is Fundamentally What I'm Meant To Do"

Now, let's talk about Love Blows. This is just an amazing collaboration. Who came up with the idea?

Salsano: Patti!

Stanger: I came up with the idea. I wanted SallyAnn involved because she did Jersey Shore, and I envisioned this show to be in the same style. I just thought she was the perfect powerhouse to go into Chicago and turn it upside down. Chicago didn't have it's own reality TV show, which was really important.

These are people I work with – I'm like the head affiliate for matchmakers around the world. I'm the one generating leads, giving them advice, and training them. So Lisa used to fix me up – we were like sisters. One day, she told me the story about her husband who cheated on her with her best friend – and she stills works with both of them! Their kids are now training to take over the business. I was like, "Oh my god, this is a reality TV show."

I originally sold the show in a different format to Bravo, but when I left Bravo, I took it back. SallyAnn reformatted it and came up with a better concept than what I had. It was just going to be a pilot at first, but of course, given the powerhouse that she is, she made it go straight to series. We're super excited. It's going to connect to viewers like The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills and Vanderpump Rules. It's a show you can keep watching for two hours straight.

So you knew Lisa before you started developing the show?

Stanger: She's someone I work with on a regular basis. All matchmakers work with me; we all work with each other. What's great about this show is that you're going to see this unveiling of the industry. You're going to see behind the scenes of matchmaking, which is a real business that you cannot major in at college. The only place you can get certification is through my old assistant who owns the Matchmakers Institute in New York. You train with matchmakers. You shadow them, like other matchmakers have shadowed me. It's cool because it's always handed down generation after generation – the way Lisa plans on handing it down to her daughter Annie.

A lot of crazy things happen in these episodes, a lot of cliff-hanger drama. And I'm appearing in a lot of episodes, which is fun.

SallyAnn, you've produced a lot of shows about love and relationships. What do you think makes this one different?

Salsano: It's actually real. There's something about a family dynamic that you can't change. If you combine the young and beautiful people on Vanderpump Rules with the drama of Flipping Out and the family dynamic of Cake Boss, then you get Love Blows – this show has it all. And it's all coming from a place of helping other people find love.

Mixing Patti's star power and expertise with their family dynamic is a recipe for success. Still, there's a lot of disastrous moments behind the scenes too. It's the stuff that reality shows are made of – and it's completely authentic.

Related Link: Celebrity Video Interview: 'Millionaire Matchmaker' Star Patti Stanger on How a Relationship and Love Changed Her: "I'm Much More Relaxed"

Shifting gears, let's talk about digital matchmaking versus traditional matchmaking. Do you think singles are ready to get back to true matchmaking – where a matchmaker (instead of a website or app) sets them up on a date?

Stanger: Personal attention will never be defeated by an app. Ever! With a matchmaker, you have someone selecting potential partners for you and talking to you on a daily basis...versus an app that has no information! You don't even know how tall they are, how many kids they have, if they're divorced. That's why matchmaking is older than prostitution – it's as old as time.

Do you think the show could help bring back the matchmaking industry?

Stanger: I wanted to make it a major in college – where you could actually major in it and open your own business. The industry is really going to change in the next 10 years. We've already passed the two billion dollar mark – internationally, not just in the United States.

We've never been able to use FaceTime matchmaking because people want to hide their looks, their voices, their age, their height, and their weight. So that's the next frontier: Will you FaceTime with somebody? Will you show them who you are in broad daylight without makeup on and your hair up?

That's brilliant! Getting back to the show, Patti, we'd love to know a bit more about your role on-camera.

Stanger: You see a little bit of a softer side of me. I come in to help Annie, and I have to shut Lisa down because Lisa's more of a screamer than I am in this particular season. On top of it, I go on three dates.

I'm still going to lose my cool because I'm Patti, but I'm not in charge, so it's a different side of me. It's hard because I'm used to calling the shots. I'm more like the therapist that comes in to fix the problems in the family.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: 'Ex Isle' Executive Producer SallyAnn Salsano Talks Reality TV

I have a couple additional questions for you, SallyAnn. The last time we spoke, I asked you if there would be a reunion for the Jersey Shore cast...and then Reunion Road Trip happened!

Salsano: That had nothing to do with me. Oh my god, I would kill to do one – with the entire cast and have them talk about the past.

As you probably know, Ronnie Ortiz-Magro and Pauly D have both been on the show Famously Single. Have you watched it?

Salsano: Of course. I watch this show and everything those cast members do. We have a group text going, and we always support each other. They're like my children. They call me "Mom." It makes me feel 900 years old, but it is what it is! There's something different when you know somebody before anyone else did. I think you just kind of have a different bond with them and different insight into who they are.

Any final words about Love Blows?

Salsano: Just watch it!

Stanger: You need to watch it live. We have this expression on WE tv: "Live or Die." You're going to get tips about what to do if you want to open your own business, if you're dating someone and it's not working out, if you want to get back in the game after a divorce. People date on Saturdays or Sundays, so they need to tune in on Friday night! They need to have these tips in their arsenal. We can basically be your dating coaches.

Channing Tatum recently reflected on his plan to propose to his now wife, Jenna Dewan Tatum, which ended up being... well, pretty cruel. According to UsMagazine.com, Tatum wanted to propose in 2008 but when he thought his wife was onto him, he tried to throw her off. "I basically told her I never wanted to get married," Tatum reveals. "I told her, 'I don't believe in the institution of marriage and I don't think I ever want to get married.' She basically broke down crying." Apparently Dewan Tatum's reaction broke his heart, because he realized he had to propose sooner than later. Thankfully, she said yes, and the celebrity couple have been married since 2009.

This celebrity couple news has us shaking our heads at Channing Tatum. What are some ways to throw your partner off the scent when you're about to propose?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're attempting to keep your proposal a secret, there are better ways to do so instead of taking your partner on an emotional rollercoaster (sorry, Channing!). Head below for some of Cupid's advice on throwing your lover off when it comes to the big proposal:

1. Stay quiet: Instead of bringing up any hints of marriage or proposing, just stay silent about the topic. This way you aren't even bringing the thought to their attention, plus it'll make it seem like you aren't even thinking about it. Don't do this for too long, though – you don't want to pull a Channing and have your partner think that you're not even interested in getting married!

2. Make it a complete surprise: Try to surprise your partner with the proposal by having them think you're doing something simple. For example, take them out on a date night and then propose at the end of the night, making it a memorable yet quaint night. You could also go on a weekend getaway and plan a romantic surprise, catching them off guard entirely.

3. Do it when they're least expecting: On the other hand, you could also propose when they're least expecting it. Make your partner breakfast in bed and pop the question just as they're done digging in. If your lover is into a more simple approach, surprise proposals would be picture perfect.

1. End on good terms: Break-ups can be filled with anger, sadness, and hurt, but it is always a good decision to ultimately end things on good terms. At the end of the day, this person is someone you spent some time with, were romantically attracted to, and held a place in your heart. There's no pressure to immediately have things go back to normal, regardless of what the circumstances are. Taking things slowly will benefit you, your ex, and the potential of being friends.

Cupid's Advice:

If your partner is making you question the state of your relationship, then maybe it's time to part ways. Here are some signs to know a break-up is healthier than staying in the relationship:

1. Rude comments towards you are constant: If your partner keeps calling you names or being negative towards your decisions, consider the option of breaking up. Nobody deserves to be verbally abused in a relationship and it's not healthy for you to be in one.

2. You feel isolated while dating: Have you ever felt that you spend more time being by your partner's side than having fun with your friends? Some say this is a common trait of being in a relationship. If your partner controls your weekend plans, then you break-up and seek help from friends.

3. You feel self conscious around your partner: Being self conscious around your partner is bad sign. Sometimes your partner can change their rude behavior and controlling ways, but it is very hard to change how you feel around the person. If you have lost love for yourself while being with your partner, then breaking up might be the best for you.

This celebrity couple news proves that exes can rekindle their relationship! What are some factors to consider before getting back together with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Before you bite the bullet and start dating your former ex-partner, there are a few things you should be considering. If you're in the same position as Bethenny or Dennis, check out Cupid's advice to help you make the right choice:

1. So, why'd you break up in the first place?: It's important to reflect on the former relationship as a whole and weigh the pros and cons. More importantly, why did you break up before? Is the issue something that has been solved, or is it still on-going? Everyone understands how tough break-ups can be (and how, in some cases, you may just want to skip it altogether and start dating again) but you should definitely make sure that the problems from the first relationship aren't going to continue.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby: 'Bachelor in Paradise' Stars Jade Roper & Tanner Tolbert Reveal Baby Girl's Name

together for the right reasons? Is it because you're sad and you miss having a partner, or is it because you're deeply in love with this person and you believe you belong together? Don't misinterpret sadness or hurt as reasoning to begin dating again.

3. Is it what you truly, really want?: The most crucial factor to remember – and reflect on – is if this is really what you want. When getting back together with someone, you have to have the upmost trust that this time it will work. If you don't feel that this will be a lasting relationship due to occurring issues from the last time, then maybe it isn't right. As cheesy as it may be sound, listen to your instincts and go with your gut.

involved with. Check out some of Cupid's tips if this is something you find yourself struggling with:

1. Distance can do miracles: The break-up process can be lengthy, but it's essential for anyone that wants to get over their ex. Before you can even think about being civil with your former lover, it's important to distance yourself for a little bit. There's no way that you will be able to be friends right after breaking up – there is way too much sadness, anger, and hurt there!

2. Enforce boundaries: At the same time, it's crucial to have some limits when being friends with an ex. Lines can get blurred at times, especially if you're just trying to stay friends. An example of an important boundary to have is not hanging out one-on-one all the time. Base these limitations on your comfort levels with one another, and you should be good to go.

Celebrity Break-Up: Anna Faris Opens Up About Split

from Chris Pratt

By Melissa Lee

Earlier in the week, former Hollywood celebrity couple Anna Faris and Chris Pratt announced that they were separating from one another. Though the news was revealed via social media, Faris finally broke her silence after opening up on her podcast, Unqualified. She offered relationship advice to one heartbroken listener, eventually hinting at her own situation with Pratt. People.com reported that Faris found herself feeling lost in relationships, explaining that one should always know their worth and independence.

This celebrity break-up has left

Hollywood shocked and sad. What are some factors to consider when it comes to independence in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

After eight years of marriage, coming to terms with divorce must have been a hard pill to swallow for both Anna and Chris. It seems like a lot of the issues stemmed from Anna's struggle to understand her independence in the relationship. If this situation sounds familiar to you, head below to read some of Cupid's tips:

1. Try not to lose yourself: In serious relationships, it can become increasingly difficult not to lose sight of the person you are at heart. At times, we may find ourselves changing our likes and dislikes (among other things) simply due to our partner. While there's nothing wrong with change, you should always remember who you are. You should know your boundaries, in addition to knowing when you've changed too much. At the end of the day, you should always recognize the person you are.

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelor in Paradise' Stars Carly Waddell & Evan Bass Discuss Surprise Pregnancy

2. Do things on your own: Going out to eat, trips to the super market, and walks in the park are always fun to do with your sweetheart, but that doesn't mean you should do everything with them. If you are constantly performing tasks and going places with your partner – and find yourself having difficulty doing the same things by yourself – you may be losing your independence as a human being. While it's enjoyable to have company when doing mundane tasks, you should still be taking the time to embrace your independence by doing things on your own as well.

3. Never stop working on yourself: A common misconception is that it's harder to grow as a person when you are in a relationship. This can be true at times, but that's usually because you're not putting the work in. Regardless of the relationship you find yourself in, you should never stop working on yourself. You should always take the time to do beneficial things for yourself, along with putting yourself first every now and then.

If you and your sweetheart are deciding whether or not it's the right time to have kids, check out this advice from Cupid:

1. Look at your financial situation: As much happiness as babies bring, they're also super expensive! Between diapers, formula, and clothes, money can quickly become an on-going issue.
