This celebrity couple is happy as can be! What are some things you can do about an unhappy relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When it comes to famous celebrity couples, it's great to see ones like Hadid and Malik who have officially achieved romantic bliss. But sometimes in relationships, things don't go as smoothly. Here are Cupid's top tips for dealing with an unhappy relationship in your own life:

1. Talk it out: First things first, prioritize communicating clearly with your partner. If there's building resentment, frustration or some issue that's become a roadblock to your happiness as a couple, sit them down and hash it out. It may be painful or angering in the moment, but ultimately it will do nothing but benefit your relationship and each other to know where both of you stand and that you're both seeking resolution.

2. See a counselor: While many couples cringe when they think about sharing their problems with a relationship expert and therapist, there are many upsides to bringing an unbiased third party into your discussions. Try to see this not as a sign that your relationship is not going as planned, but that you and your partner are both committed to talking your feelings out in healthy and fair ways. If anything, it's an indicator of how dedicated you both are to preserving your relationship, not the other way around.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Gigi Hadid & Zayn Malik Are Back Together

3. Know when it's time to walk away: As painful as break-ups can be, there is nothing so painful as spending all your time trying to repair something that will simply never be truly fixed. If your partner isn't doing their share to deal with your issues as a couple or if you feel that they've permanently damaged your trust in them, don't be afraid to just say the words out loud; "It's not working." It may see scary and sad in the moment, but ultimately you'll be happier on your own and eventually with someone else than you would be staying in a relationship that isn't meant for you.

1. Listen to your body: Most importantly, pay attention to what your body’s telling you. Pre-pregnancy, you may have pushed yourself to run that half-marathon as fast as you can. Celebrity Exes: Scarlett Johansson Attends Event with Romain Dauriac Amid Divorce

By Noelle Downey

Former celebrity couple Scarlett Johansson and Romain Dauriac were spotted out together on April 5th, less than a month after Johansson had officially filed for divorce from Dauriac. While there's no doubt this must be a troublesome time for both of them, according to UsMagazine.com, these celebrity exes seem at peace with their decision to separate, and remained amicable throughout the night as they sipped on cocktails and admired the art at 53W53 Gallery in NYC. It seems these celebrity exes are absolutely amicable! What are some ways to keep the drama out of your divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

In a celebrity break-up, just like any other, there's bound to be some conflict and crushed feelings. But just like these sensible stars, there's no need to bring that angst into the public eye. Here are Cupid's top three tips for keeping your divorce cordial and calm:

1. Define your boundaries: In an early statement to the press about her impending divorce, Johansson clarified, "I would only like to say that I will never, ever be commenting on the dissolution of my marriage. Out of respect for my desires as a parent and out of respect for all working moms, it is with kindness that I ask other parties involved... to do the same." Just like this celebrity parent, be careful who you choose to divulge the dirty details of your divorce to. While confiding in close friends and confidants is healthy, don't be afraid to tell someone when they're prying into your personal business – and let them know, firmly and kindly, that your divorce is between you, your family and your lawyers.

2. Form a friendly truce with your ex: Just like Johansson and former flame Dauriac, it's possible to be able to associate casually with your ex even when tensions are high. By forming a working friendship, these celebrity co-parents are presenting a united front to the world despite their recent separation, which will help them in future negotiations, especially over their daughter, Rose. Try doing the same with your ex to ease the stress of separation.

3. Focus on what really matters: Whether that's your child's happiness, your own personal mental and physical health or making sure that you and your ex can remain on friendly terms even after the divorce is finalized, prioritize what really matters, and try not to get caught up in petty squabbles over things that don't. While it can be tempting to lash out at your ex for hurting you, remember that in the end, focusing on the most important things will help you heal faster and adjust more quickly to this life change.
