Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes we find ourselves wanting to rekindle old flames. Whatever the reason may be, here are some tips to decide whether it's a good idea or not:

1. Make sure it's real: Are you sure you're missing your ex, and not the attention you got from them? If you miss the attention, that's something you can find in a better match for you. If you miss the person, maybe it's not a bad idea to meet up for coffee.

2. Who's reaching out to who: If your ex is the one begging for another chance, remind yourself what it was to make you split in the first place. If it was over inexcusable actions, block their number and don't let them wear you down.

3. Make sure it's what you want: Don't settle on a lover for weak reasons. If you want to go back to your ex because your mom liked them, or you guys have mutual friends, remember that you wanted to end it for a reason. Be absolutely sure this is what you want, and no one else. Always do what's best for you.

Ray integrates her 20-plus years of experience as a celebrity matchmaker, certified dating coach, and online dating expert to battle it out with determined mothers in order to find the perfect suitor for struggling singles on her stirring reality TV show. In our exclusive celebrity interview, the matchmaker spills her expert dating advice as well as her views on the hottest celebrity couples.

Carmelia Ray Talks Season Two of Mom vs. Matchmaker

The saying “mother knows best” truly came into play during filming of the second season of Mom vs. Matchmaker – so much so that the expert needed a little help herself as she went head-to-head with the mothers. “I thought the moms were fiery last season,” Ray shares, “but that was a fondue compared to the blazing competitors this season! I had to bring in a smoking hot love assistant, Patrick, to keep up with all that fire.”

Moms were ready to give their all following the success of the show’s first season, and they sure didn’t disappoint. The process of being a matchmaker isn’t an easy one, especially if you’re butting heads with the mother of a client. Ray recalls working with a mother who called herself the “Mafia Mom” and, boy, did she mean it. The mothers participating in this season showed up “ready to rumble,” making it deliciously exciting for both Ray and her viewers.

Matchmaker Gives Love Advice on the End of “Cuffing Season”

With warm weather just around the corner, Ray’s love advice for the end of “cuffing season” – or winter flings – is short and sweet. “It’s time for spring cleaning!” she exclaims. This advice is both literal and metaphoric when it comes to your life. “Clear out your clutter – in your mind, on your social media, and with your love life. Dump anything or anyone that doesn’t serve you or what you stand for.” Although we all know too well how rough it is to end a winter relationship following long nights of cuddling and cocoa, Ray advises us to leave all of that in the past. The matchmaker thrives off of her ability to connect singles with their life mates and says, “Helping people find love is the best reward I could ever imagine.” So how could her advice possibly steer us wrong?

As for finding someone special in the heart of spring, Ray mentions that if you’re looking for love, you have to have a plan. “It’s amazing how many singles who are looking for love don’t date!” Ray shares. “My number one tip for someone looking for love is to make sure they have a dating strategy and plan in order to find love. You cannot go into dating without a plan for how, where, and when you plan to be dating.”

An Inside Look at Celebrity Relationships

Since Ray has been coined “the celebrity matchmaker,” it’s only fitting that we asked her a few questions regarding the most popular couples in Hollywood. As for Selena Gomez and the Weeknd, the dating expert totally understands why the public adores their relationship. “They get each other’s lifestyle and understand the hardships of dealing with their lives constantly being under scrutiny,” she says. “This musical pair is an undeniable force and notable power couple.” The matchmaker adds that “there’s something incredibly undeniable about young, attractive, talented, celebrity couples, especially when they combine forces and publicly display their affection and respect for each other.”

Jared Padalecki is a father of three, now that he welcomed his youngest celebrity baby! What are some things to consider before adding another child to your family?

Cupid’s Advice:

Children can fill your heart with so much love. That’s why the term “baby fever” is a very realistic and relatable term. Here are some things to consider before taking the plunge again:

1. Space: Do you have the room to accommodate another little one? While you may have the means to provide a roof over their head, keep in mind that children at different ages need different types of space. Consider upgrading or expanding your home to suit the needs of all your children.

2. Time: Consider the small amount of free time you have now with children. As they grow up, they become more involved in activities. Be sure to keep your growing family balanced with activities and socializing measures. A new baby might take time away from older children, so be ready to seek help getting the kids to school and soccer practice!

Celebrity News: Angelina Jolie & Brad Pitt Are Talking Again

By Noelle Downey

This week in celebrity news there's an item that will have many Brangelina fans breathing a sigh of relief; Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie are talking again. According to EOnline.com, after a six-month period of silence when news of the celebrity divorce broke, the former couple has finally put aside their differences enough to open up some direct lines of communication. While the exes' relationship is still strained, a close inside source says their recent move to connect personally is a "significant step" away from only speaking through lawyers. The source also claims that things are less "tense" now between the former power couple and that "they've both agreed to put the kids first." No doubt Pitt and Jolie's six children, Maddox, Pax, Zahara, Shiloh, Knox and Vivienne are just as relieved as we are that their parents have taken a step from sour to civil.

This former celebrity couple are working through their issues for the benefit of their kids. What are some ways to keep children out of the crossfire when it comes to messy divorce proceedings?

Cupid's Advice:

There's no way around it; divorces can be painful and frustrating. But never fear, as that doesn't mean they have to pull apart families for good. Cupid's on the case to give you just a few key ways to make sure your divorce won't demolish your children's sense of security:

1. Try your best to stay civil: If there's constant animosity between you and your former spouse, your child will pick up on it. While anger and sadness are normal responses to a life event like divorce, it's important to remember that your child is also likely experiencing these emotions, and keeping your relationship with your ex civil will help smooth the transition for them.

If the circumstances of the separation allow it, try to make room in your new routines for your child(ren) to spend time with the other parent. the change.

By Christa Ganz

In latest celebrity news, Drake unveiled his long-awaited playlist project "More Life" this past weekend. The 30-year-old rapper from Toronto gave fans a 22-track playlist through OVO Sound Radio. To no surprise to his fans, Drake starts his playlist with a reference to his most recent ex, Jennifer Lopez. The opening track, "Free Smoke," suggests that Lopez changed her number without notifying her ex. In the song, Drake raps "I drunk text J.Lo / Old number, so it bounce back." According to UsMagazine.com, the couple had split after just two months of dating, claiming their relationship had "died down a bit" shortly after the start of Drake's European tour. Clearly Drake had his 47-year-old ex on his mind throughout the formation of his whole playlist. Further down on the track list, he samples Lopez's 1999 hit "If You Had My Love" in his appropriately titled song "Teenage Fever." Not long after going public as a celebrity couple in December, Drake and J Lo hinted the possibility of a collaboration. After listening to his new track, Drake's fans are disappointed to see the song "Get It Together" on the playlist, with vocals replaced by Jorja Smith.
