According to UsMagazine.com, Corrine Olympios "showed up to the cocktail party in a trenchcoat and nothing else before asking Viall, 36, to lick whipped cream off her body." While that wasn't seen by the other contestants, later on in the episode, a few of the other contestants saw "Viall jumping around in Olympios' inflatable bouncy house one too many times and called him out: Is he here for the right reasons?" Celebrity Exes: Find Out How Bella Hadid Feels About The Weeknd & Selena Gomez's New Romance

By Cortney

Moore

It looks like everything is going well for The Weeknd and Selena Gomez. However, it seems that not everyone is happy about the celebrity couple's new romance. According to EOnline.com, Bella Hadid isn't happy about her celebrity ex moving on without her and has even unfollowed Gomez on Instagram in retaliation to the new couple's PDA photos. "She is actually not over The Weeknd. She still loves him," a source shared with E!. "It really hurt her seeing Selena be all up on her man. She still feels like they have a connection." Though Hadid and Gomez have been cordial to each other on Instagram, the pair are also not good friends, so Gomez has no issue enjoying her dates with The Weeknd. However, the plot thickens with this love story since another source told E! that The Weeknd has always "had a thing for Selena." Only time will tell if Hadid can get over her celebrity ex.

These celebrity exes probably aren't on the best of terms at the moment. What are some ways to keep things civil when your ex moves on with someone else?

Cupid's Advice:

Dealing with exes can be tricky. Although you may be angry or hurt about the breakup, there's no need for additional drama. If you've noticed that your ex has moved on with someone else, then let Cupid help you keep things civil between you and your ex with the following tips:

1. Cut them off: People struggle with this, but cutting off communication with your ex is the best way to get over them, especially if you notice they've been dating again. Speaking to an ex regularly or stalking their social media accounts are just a way of latching on to the "good old times." Remember that you broke up for a reason, so it's important to not fixate on them. And don't worry about being the "uncool" ex; you don't have to be friends with an ex!

Related Link: New Celebrity Couple: Why Selena Gomez & The Weeknd Went Public With Their Relationship So Soon

2. Get your date on: If cutting them out of your life isn't an option, another great way to be civil towards your ex is to date other people. Going out and having fun will release endorphins in your body that will help you forget the heartache you experienced during the break-up. However, make sure you're out dating for your own enjoyment, not because you're in competition with your ex and their new partner.

3. Find a focus: Being single can be also be a good thing. It allows you the freedom of making those big changes in your life. Take on a new hobby, find a job you love, study something that you've always found interesting. Whatever it is you've wanted to do, pursue it and make it a priority. Distracting yourself from the breakup will allow time to heal your heart. And with a healed heart, it'll be much easier to keep things civil with your ex.

Longtime Celebrity Couple
Zoey Deutch & Avan Jogia
Break Up

Moore

It appears that another one of Hollywood's young celebrity couples have parted ways. According to reports from EOnline.com, Zoey Deutch and Avan Jogia have "amicably" broken up after being together for five years. Apparently this celebrity news has been kept quiet for some time since Deutch and Jogia split about four months ago. Jogia, 24, said in an interview with Glamoholic, "Maybe I've been lucky but I think that it's mostly a choice. I think if you continuously choose to court the public's attention to your relationship, you run the risk of asking them to pry more out of it, but it would also be a bit strange to totally ignore your significant other's existence in public as well." That would explain how this celebrity news was easily kept under wraps. Deutch, 22, has yet to comment on their break-up. Perhaps some insight of what caused the split can be seen in Deutch's recent film appearances in Why Him? and Before I Fall.

This duo is no longer a celebrity couple. What are some major reasons to call off your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups can be rough, but sometimes they're necessary. If you've noticed issues in your relationship, you might wonder if parting ways is the best option. Let Cupid help you figure out whether you should call off your relationship before it's too late:

1. If there's been harm: Whether it's been physical, emotional or verbal, if you've been hurt by your significant other, it's a clear sign that the relationship needs to be ended. You don't have to risk your health over someone who doesn't care about your well being. Don't be afraid to rally help if you need it, as your safety is top priority.

Related Link: Former Celebrity Couple Angelina Jolie & Brad Pitt Agree to Seal Divorce Documents

2. Thinking of someone else: Don't succumb to infidelity; if you're thinking of dating someone else or other people, just end the relationship. There's no use in prolonging something that is no longer working out. The sooner you part ways, the sooner you can find the person who is right for you, and the same goes for the person you're breaking up with.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Reunited: Demi Lovato Is Back Together with Guilherme Vasconcelos

3. Always unhappy: Nobody wants to be in a miserable relationship. If you've given it a real shot and things aren't working out, and haven't in a long time- then it might just be time to end it. Your partner is probably feeling the same way you are. Life is too short to stay in an unhappy relationship.

Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie, popularly known as “Brangelina,” galvanized fans when news of Jolie filing for divorce hit the tabloids back in September. The celebrity couple had been together since 2005, although they’ve been married for only two years. The split has been publicly scandalous, with the couple going back and forth with serious allegations against one another. Pitt was investigated and cleared of child abuse by the FBI and the L.A. County Department of Children and Family Services in November after allegations came up in reference to an alleged incident with son Maddox. In December, a judge denied Pitt’s request to seal documents in his custody battle, but the new arrangement came last week after reports of Jolie agreeing to seal the court documents were issued by TMZ. The story of this celebrity divorce will no longer be the gift that keeps on giving.

This former celebrity couple is obviously seeking some privacy. What are some ways to keep your break-up details on the down-low?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is definitely hard to do, but sometimes keeping things under wraps can give you that personal space to keep the peace and a clear mind. Here are some helpful tips to keep your break-up private:

According to UsMagazine.com, Stanton was on Twitter commenting on the current season of The Bachelor, when she said, "Poor Nick! That slap looked like it hurt haha I could definitely think of someone more deserving of that... #thebachelor." This celebrity

news has us believing that the comment was directed at her recently single ex, Josh Murray. The duo met on Bachelor in Paradise, and Murray moved to California to be with Stanton. Recently, the news came out that the two couldn't make it work, and Murray moved back to Atlanta, Georgia.

In celebrity news, this pair is still experiencing some fall-out from their break-up. What are some ways to keep the fall-out after a break-up to a minimum?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is never easy, and there are always at least some residual effects. That being said, you don't have to experience major negative fall-out. Cupid has some tips:

1. Make sure there's closure: Sometimes when break-ups happen, there's no closure. Whoever has done the breaking up simply runs away without an explanation. This isn't good when it comes to fall-out afterward, as the other person is no doubt going to want some answers. Make sure you leave everything on the table when you're going through a split.

2. Keep the gossip to a minimum: It can be tempting to gossip about your ex to your friends and family right after a break-up, but try to refrain from doing that. It will no doubt get back to your ex, and may cause him or her to retaliate.

3. Tell your friends and family to play it cool: Your close friends and family are no doubt on your side after your split, and they may want to stir things up with your ex on your behalf. Make sure to communicate with your friends and family and let them know that you'd simply like everyone to move on instead of causing any issues.

By Justin

Thomas

In celebrity news, Dancing With the Stars pro Val Chmerkovskiy and model girlfriend Amber Rose have been at the receiving end of a lot of hate as they've gone public with their new found love. According to UsMagazine.com, rumors about the celebrity couple started flying while Rose was on this past season of DWTS dancing alongside Val's brother, Maksim Chmerkovskiy. Val and Amber didn't confirm their relationship until they were sure it was the real deal. Amber even took to her podcast to say, "It's been four months now and it's awesome. I love his family and everyone's so great. He's great." But that hasn't stopped the haters from trolling. Val went on Twitter to concisely say, "It matters 0% what people who don't know you think about you. All that matters is what the people who really knowU and loveU think about you." He also went on to say it's "not surprising, but still fairly disappointing how ignorant and vile people are." Being the public figure she is, Amber is more than likely used to the hateful comments, while Val seems to be somewhat shocked.

This celebrity news shows that Val can stand up for his woman! What are some ways to stand up for your partner in the face of adversity?

Cupid's Advice:

Standing up for your partner in any capacity definitely shows people how serious you are as a couple. But, it's especially hard in a social media driven world where comments can be thrown at you at any time, from anyone, at any place. Here are some helpful tips for standing up for the one you love:

1. Be supportive: Before addressing any haters on your significant others' behalf, make sure you first let them know that you've got their back through this.

January Jones Opens Up About Being a Single Celebrity Mom

By Justin

In a recent celebrity news from Red Magazine, Mad Men actress and proud single celebrity January Jones opened up about the only (little) man she needs in her life. That, of course, being her 5-year-old son, Xander. She has never revealed the identity of Xander's father to the public, saying that that information is strictly the business of her son. Jones, 38, said something a lot of modern day single moms might need to hear: "It's good to have strong women around a man. To teach him to respect women. He doesn't have a male person in his life saying 'don't cry' or 'you throw like a girl.' All those s—ty things dads accidentally do." She went on to say, "I just don't feel I need a partner. Do I want one? Maybe. But I don't feel unhappy or lonely,".

This single celebrity is totally fine being alone! What are some ways to embrace your single lifestyle?

Cupid's Advice:

It can sometimes be hard to walk in a single person's shoes but it doesn't always have to be. Here are some tips to help make the stride a little easier:

1. Single doesn't mean alone: Keep family and friends close to you heart. Make sure you make and spend time with loved ones. Don't underestimate the value of family and friendship and all of the love and support they offer. We all get by with a little help from our friends.

By Justin

Thomas

EOnline.com broke the news on December 15 that celebrity couple Jonathan Rhys Meyers and fiancé Mara Lane welcomed a precious baby boy into the world right from the comfort of their own home, adding to 2016's long list of celebrity babies. Uniquely named Wolf Rhys Meyers, the bundle of joy was long anticipated through a series of charming social media pregnancy posts on Lane's Instagram account, beginning in September when the couple announced their pregnancy. The celebrity couple started dating in 2014 and got engaged December of that year. Jonathan has been struggling with alcohol addiction for years now, but it is said that his fiancée has been a driving force behind his journey to sobriety, even through a brief relapse in 2015 in which he took to Lane's Instagram account to address the issue and apologize to his fans.

There's another celebrity baby to add to the mix! What are some ways to prepare for a baby boy specifically?

Cupid's Advice:

There are some obvious differences you could imagine when preparing for baby boy as opposed to a girl, so here are some pointers on what to expect when you're expecting ... a boy!:

1. Pink or blue?: Telling a little girl to put down the football is vastly different than telling a little boy to put down a doll. Gender roles are a vital part of parenting from the very beginning so be mindful of gender roles and identity, and what they mean to you as a parent.

Cupid's Advice:

It can be extremely awkward to unexpectedly run into a past fling who you haven't spoken to in a while. Maybe things ended after only one night, or maybe it was a little longer than that. Either way, Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Be direct: You might be in shock, but the best approach is to simply be direct about things. If this person is no longer an interest of yours, tell them. There's no point in skirting around the issue, as it will just prolong the inevitable.

Cupid's Advice:

When you're in a new relationship, it's exciting to think about introducing your loved ones to your partner, but no one ever thinks about the potential reverse side of that. Rightfully so. But when that time does come to help soften the blow, here are some tips to keep in mind:

1. Don't be embarrassed: Love's a gamble. Breaking up can be mortifying, especially if you've had major plans and expectations. If a break-up hits you abruptly, take it in stride and know that things happen, especially in relationships. There's no reason to be embarrassed, because it's a normal part of life.

2. Be strong in your decision: Make sure this is a serious breakup and not a petty disagreement. If it's serious, give it some time before you make any major denouements. Don't let the sighs and the sad faces break you down. If you've made the decision to breakup, either collaboratively or independently, don't forget that you've already accepted that.

3. Allow your loved ones to have their feelings: Although they weren't the ones who were in the relationship, it's obvious they'll feel some sort of emotion (be it good or bad) towards the breakup, especially if they were close with your partner. Respect that and allow them some time to register the break-up.
