There may be a new celebrity couple in the Kardashian clan! What are some ways to take first steps with a crush?

Cupid's Advice:

At some point in time, you'll end up thinking of someone you know more often than you used to. Eventually you'll realize that your frequent musings are more than the friendly kind. When you discover you've developed a crush, it can be intimidating to move forward with a relationship. For this reason, let Cupid be your guide on getting your crush to notice you:

1. Be a detective: Before you declare your newfound infatuation, it might be best if you do some investigating. Ask mutual friends if your crush has mentioned you, or look closely at your interactions with your crush. You might be able to find out if they feel the same way by snooping around a bit.

2. Make it known: If you think your crush likes you back, then make a move. Your crush might not even realize you're attracted to them, so either tell your crush outright how you feel or make really obvious hints. Don't miss out on an opportunity to turn your relationship into something more just because you're afraid of rejection.

3. Get together: This can either be in the form of a date or a regular hang out. If you want your crush to see you as more than a friend, then you need to spend time with them. Free up your schedule and make plans to be together. After being around each other so much, your crush may consider entering a more romantic setting.

y Justin Thomas

After endless social media surmising, there's a new celebrity couple trending. In celebrity news, The Bachelor's Becca Tilley has finally set the record straight about her relationship with fellow Bachelor Nation star, Robert Graham. Tilley confessed to UsMagazine.com, saying, "I am dating Robert" at the 2016 iHEARTRADIO Jingle Ball on Friday, December 2. She continued, saying, "It's fun. We've been friends for a long time and it was just a natural progression, and he's just amazing and been patient with me.... I need someone that's patient and willing to deal with me, and he's been that way. So it's been fun, it's been an easy transition." Rumors ignited when affectionate photos of the now couple surfaced on Tilley's Instagram featuring some suggestively cute captions. But things really began to heat up when she posted a shirtless photo of Graham as her "Man Crush Monday." The couple seems to be on the up and up as Tilley went on to mention she's introduced him to her family. She said, "He met all of my family Sunday night, except for my brother. Everyone loved him."

This celebrity couple news was a long time coming. How do you know when you're ready to introduce your partner to your family?

Cupid's Advice:

Timing is everything when it comes to introducing your partner to your family. Cupid has some tips:

1. Make sure you're exclusive: The bottom line is that you want to make sure your relationship is serious before you introduce your family and friends. That means all the "you's" and “me’s” have turned to “us” already. Don’t put your family through the process meeting, getting know, and potentially liking someone you know almost for certain won’t be around for much longer.

Related Link: 5 Tips for Meeting Your Partner’s Family Stress-Free

2. Don’t rock the boat: Meeting someone’s family is a substantial jump in a relationship and when appropriate could make your relationship much stronger. But it’s not necessarily a right of passage. Evaluate your partner’s relationship with their family, and don’t pressure them if they don’t feel like it’s the right time to introduce you. However, don’t be naive. Three months is very different than three years when it comes to meeting the family.

Related Link: What to Wear to Meet His Family

3. Be realistic in your expectations: Everyone’s family dynamic is unique, so try to think less romantic comedy and more “Hi, nice to meet you.” As palm-sweating as it is, first impressions are more important than you might think, but only in the context for setting the tone for family interactions down the line. People often latch on to the first perspective they’re offered, so the first impression you make might be the impression you keep.

Celebrity News: Mariah Carey Gets Close with New Love Bryan Tanaka on Stage at NYC Tour Stop

It looks like Mariah Carey is over her heartbreak and onto a new love. In celebrity news, after what seemed to be an abrupt celebrity break-up with her billionaire fiancé, Australian businessman James Packer back in October, Carey has already involved herself with a new beau. According to People.com, Carey's romance with her 33-year-old back up dancer Bryan Tanaka hit the ground running behind the scenes and on stage. Recently, during her performances of "All I Want for Christmas is You,” “Fantasy” performer and dancer got intimate on stage holding hands and locking eyes during her performance. From Tanaka’s noteworthy appearances on Carey’s new docu-series Mariah’s World (which premiered Sunday night on E!) where one of her team members revealed Tanaka’s long time attraction to Carey to their Hawaii beach photo op, it’s safe to say Tanaka has the diamond studded diva feeling some emotions. Here’s to our new celebrity couple!

This celebrity news shows Mariah is officially moving on. How do you know when you’re ready to move on from a past relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Dating someone new can be very exciting, but if you’re not careful with your timing, that excitement can come to a screeching halt if things turn sour. So, it’s important to let things fully or at least semi-develop before you make things exclusive. There are a lot of factors and people to consider when deciding to go public with your significant other. Here are some tips:

1. Rally the troops: The holidays are the perfect time for introducing that special someone to your friends and family, but make sure that someone is really special. In other words, bringing the date you met for the first time Saturday night to your parents’ Christmas dinner might not be the most noble choice in timing. Make sure your new love has the same expectations as you do in regards to meeting loved ones and going public before you make any moves or post that cute “usie”. Remember: it’s a process.

2. Take your time; you've got plenty of it: Developing a rapport is one of the most necessary parts to a new relationship. Learning how to (or if you can) keep effective communication going is very telling of where your relationship is headed. Read the fine print. Look for significant signals and red flags along the way, because there's no smoke without fire.

Related Link: Mariah Carey Reunites with Celebrity Ex-Husband Nick Cannon for Easter with Twins

3. Let the excitement die down: New love shouldn't be conceptually strict, but when it comes to matters of the heart it's important not to be too capricious. Allow time to acclimate to each other as individuals once the honeymoon phase is over with. Once you feel solid in your relationship open up as you feel necessary. You don't have to shout it from the rooftops (unless you feel compelled to) but don't hide your new partner either. There's a fine line between discretion and secrecy.

Cupid's Advice:

Knowing how to be a parent doesn't come naturally. You're going to learn new things and make mistakes, but that's part of being a parent. Cupid has some parenting advice to make sure you and your partner are ready:

1. Stable relationship and stable mind: If your relationship is strong, and your partner shows that they are mature, strong and well-minded, then it's a sign they can be a parent. You don't want to bring a baby into the world if your relationship is on the rocks. You also want to make sure your partner can handle the tough times, like not sleeping or changing that stinky diaper.

Cupid's Advice:

It's tough when you can't see your partner every day. However, it doesn't mean your love should go unnoticed. Cupid has some relationship advice for when you want to show your appreciation, even when they're not there:

1. Put your initials somewhere: Like Markle, your partner can be wrapped around your neck with their initials. It can be any piece of jewelry, their name on a t-shirt, or if you really want to, a tattoo. Just two letters can mean a lot, especially if there's a personal, emotional connection with them. Always have their initials close to your heart with a personal touch.

When to announce your pregnancy can be a big deal, because you want to do it when you and your partner are ready. Sometimes, the announcement doesn't always go as planned. Don't worry, Cupid is here to help you get through those unexpected announcements:

Cupid's Advice:

You're about to choose a name for your child that they are most likely going to have for the rest of their life. You and your partner want to make sure that you find the perfect name.

1. Family honor: If you're like Kunis and Kutcher, there may be an important family member in your life that you want to honor by giving your child their name. It could be your family member's first, middle, or last name. Whatever name it may be, your child now lives on a family name that is significant and meaningful.

Make room for number two! Mila Kunis and Ashton Kutcher welcomed celebrity baby number two to the world. According to EOnline.com, the celebrity couple had a baby boy on November 30. Kutcher accidentally spilled the beans on the gender of the baby when making a guest appearance on the Today show, and also joked that their daughter was still wrapping her head around the concept of pregnancy and how she's becoming an older sister.

This celebrity baby makes number two for Mila and Ashton. What are some ways to prepare differently for a second child versus the first?

Cupid's Advice:

Word on the street is that having a baby the second time can be much less nerve-wracking than having your first. Cupid is here with some parenting advice to make sure you are in for an easier time:

1. Hand-me downs: If the products are still working, then you don't have to spend more money on the same things. If your child is old enough to be out of the crib, use the crib for the second child. Same gender? Wear the same clothes your first child wore. Finding anything to reuse again is cost-efficient and less of a hassle to find.

2. First mistakes are over: You learn a lot about how to be a parent with your first child. You're very cautious about everything you do. Celebrity Break-Up: Gerard Butler & Longtime Girlfriend Morgan Brown Split

Looks like they're going their separate ways. After their off-again, on-again relationship, celebrity couple Gerard Butler and longtime girlfriend Morgan Brown have split up. According to UsMagazine.com, the former pair started their relationship in September 2014 when they were seen on a PDA-filled trip to a beach in Malibu. They then often showed themselves for the next two years, including in July when they were spotted on a

These two were in an on-again off-again relationship before their celebrity break-up. What are some factors to consider before finding yourself in an unsteady relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships can be tricky, especially if you're trying to convince yourself that you want this relationship to work out. However, you may not be finding yourself as happy as you wanted. Cupid has some relationship advice to make sure you're in a steady place with your partner:

1. Fighting: How often do you fight with your partner, and what is it usually about? Are they just little things, where you start to get annoyed with each other for anything they do? Or are they bigger issues? If the arguments are constant, and nothing seems to be getting fixed, that may be a red flag telling you to back away. You probably wouldn't want to get back together and keep the same pattern of fighting.

2. Happiness: You may think you love your partner because you've been together for so long. You also need to ask yourself if you are happy in the relationship you're in. If you've been dating your significant other for a long time, but you seem to be feeling worse, or you're at this constant, steady, boring state and you can't get out of it, you should rethink where you stand in the relationship.

Related Link: Does Your Past Interfere with Your Present?

3. Past Relationships: Take a look at who your significant other had dated in the past. Did the relationship end rocky? Or was it a relationship where they were on and off again? Maybe you also had a past relationship that is too similar to the unsteady one you're in now. Don't let history repeat itself and jeopardize a healthy relationship.
