According to EOnline.com, a few hours after the first Instagram post, saying she got proposed to on a beach in Mexico, she took a couple more shots of the bling."I felt like the other pictures didn't show how beautiful the ring was. Another Jersey Shore alum is ready for her celebrity wedding ... now that she has her engagement ring! What are some ways to pick the perfect ring for your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

When it's time to put a ring on it, the biggest question is what the ring is going to look like. You found the right partner, now all you need is the right ring. Here are some ways to help figure out the perfect one:

1. Sneak a peak at her jewelry: Look at the other jewelry your partner is wearing to give a sense of what they like. Is it mostly gold, are there a lot of jewels or sparkles? What is their favorite gem? Or are the jewelry pieces simple? This can give you an idea of what they prefer as to what they'd never be seen wearing.

2. Figure out the ring size: It's not the worst situation if you put the ring on your partner's finger and it doesn't fit, but it makes for a bother to bring it back and get it adjusted. Have a close friend of theirs ask about the ring size, and make sure you can find a ring in that size. It also may help narrow the ring selection when you're searching!

3. Let them pick: If you really are unsure, maybe your partner has a better idea. Get engaged first, and pick the ring out later. What type of ring have they always imagined being placed on their left finger? Let them get the chance to choose. This way, your partner is happy with the choice, and you are happy because they are.

This celebrity baby is coming into an uncertain relationship. What are some ways to prepare for a baby if you are no longer with the other parent?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, babies are born from a relationship that didn't work out. It doesn't mean that the gift of a child is any less exciting or less important! Cupid has some relationship advice to make sure you prepare for your baby in the best way possible:

1. Be there for each other: It's hard going through the pregnancy process alone. If you are still in contact or on good terms with your ex, then it's best to keep each other on speed dial, so whenever your ex needs you, you're there. You're going to want to be there during the birth of your child, so it's good to be there in the steps leading to it.

2. Create space in your home: If you aren't together anymore, you're probably not living together, either. Your baby is going to be shared between your house and your partner's, so make sure you get that extra room going for when your baby takes over the house. You want your precious gem to be comfortable and in a happy environment!

3. Keep significant others away: If you're already back in the dating pool, things may get a little complicated if your new partner wants to get involved with your soon-to-be child. What happened with you and your ex should stay between the two of you, and only you both can really solve the situation. It makes for less stress!

This celebrity news sheds some light on how Angelina is doing amid her divorce. What are some ways to deal with divorce drama in an effective way?

Cupid's Advice:

Emotional hurt won't last forever, which is something to think about if you've gone through divorce. Cupid is here to make the drama a little easier to manage:

1. Ignore the petty communication: If your ex is not trying to solve a solution, but rather egg on a fight, then it's not worth a response. For example, if you dropped off your child, and your ex-partner sends you a text negatively commenting on the parenting you did, you do not have to answer. This will take out some of the fight, and you will be the more positive person.

When a couple breaks up, it may not always be because they want to, but because they have to. Busy schedules, like what happened with Bella Hadid and The Weekend, may affect your relationship. Cupid wants you to be happy, so here are some ways to feel better:

1. It's not goodbye, it's "see you later": Just because you're broken up now does not mean that you won't get back together. If your schedules end up working out in the future, and you still have those feelings for one another, then you can go forward in your relationship. It doesn't mean you should sit around and wait, but once you're both on with your lives, see if you can rekindle that flame.

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships can be tricky, but it is good to always have an open mind when you're with someone. Cupid is here with some relationship advice:

1. Act, don't react: If your partner is trying to confront you about a problem the two of you are facing, it is best to act upon it instead of getting upset over it. Reacting in a negative way can cause a fight, and you don't want that happening! Maybe there's something you can do to change for the better, as opposed to getting defensive.

2. Be flexible: In a relationship, not everything is going to go as planned. You can walk in with high expectations of how you perceived your partner to look and act, but they may not always be who you planned, and that's okay. When you meet someone new and you feel a connection, don't judge the other person based on a preconceived notion of what you wanted.

Interview:

'Hollywood Medium' Star Tyler Henry on His New Memoir & Career: "This is Fundamentally What I'm Meant To Do"

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Kayla Garritano.
Tyler Henry is best known as the young, Macaulay Culkin look-alike who talks to spirits of deceased celebrity relatives on his hit reality show, Hollywood Medium. Now on a small break from filming during season two, the E! superstar has published his first book, Between Two Worlds: Lessons from the Other Side.

Released just last week, Henry's memoir walks us through his journey and talks about the stars he has worked with and the spirits who have come through. "I'm only twenty, so I don't have the longest of memoirs," the California native says with a laugh. "But it does tell my story and answers a lot of those questions that I get on the street every single day." Lucky for us, the majority of the clients he reads are everyday people, not just the celebrities we see on his show.

Hollywood Medium* Reality Star Releases New Memoir

In his exclusive celebrity interview with CupidsPulse.com, the newly-minted author explains how his book will help others understand what it's like to be a clairvoyant. "I think we all have an intuition, and the book covers that idea," he explains. "I always say, getting in touch with your intuition isn't really an additive process; it's a subtractive one. It's about trying to be present and be in the moment."

He adds, "I hope that everyone who reads the book is able to find a sense of relatability in that healing and finds a sense of healing through other people's stories."

While discussing his method for connecting with the other world, he mentions that Between Two Worlds can teach readers how to channel spirits themselves, "We all have this inner intuition and a capability to connect information and find a deeper sense of guidance in our own lives," Henry shares. Given that his waiting list for readings is 100,000 people deep, buying his book and learning to channel spirits on your own may be a lot faster.

When asked if his mother came with him on his East Coast book tour, the reality star laughs while rolling his eyes and waving his hand. “No, I left her home,” he says. Anyone who has ever watched the show knows that Henry’s mother plays a very important role, driving her son from place to place for readings and often times getting starstruck when she hears which celebrity he just had the privilege of meeting.

An only child, Henry tells us after our celebrity interview that he has finally moved out of his parents’ home and bought a home of his own in Malibu. Then, he adds, “Now, my parents live with me!”

Tyler Henry Talks About His Career as a Medium in Celebrity Interview

Henry has read everyone from Sarah Paulson (his first off-camera celebrity reading!) to Jaime Pressly and Boy George and is now known as a celebrity himself. In fact, having previously read the Kardashians, he was recently contacted by Kris Jenner to help the family identify the person responsible for Kim’s robbery during Paris Fashion Week. Sources have reported that he refused to help. However, Henry says that he has helped families connect with members who have gone missing. “I would like to do more of that,” he admits. “It’s something that is very sensitive, and I think that there’s a way to do it.”

The reality star never knows who he is reading until he shows up at their home, and even then, he sometimes doesn’t know who they are or what they do – and he actually prefers it that way. “I don’t get starstruck. I don’t get distracted,” he shares. “Fundamentally, it just feels like two people connecting on a very deep soul-to-soul level.”

Even at such a young age, Henry knows that being a medium is his calling and is something he will do for the rest of his life. “This is fundamentally what I’m meant to do,” he passionately says.

For others still searching for their life path, he adds this piece of valuable advice: “If we can follow our calling in being compassionate, being caring, helping the world, and enjoying ourselves along the way, then anything is possible.”

Splitting up with someone who has been in your life for a long time is a difficult decision to make. Cupid is here to help you decide about the right time:

1. Silence: Sometimes it can be easy to say a relationship is over when there is a lot of fighting and screaming going on. While fighting isn't necessarily a good thing, when a relationship becomes silent and there is no longer any communication, this can be the clearest indicator it is over.

Former 'Bachelor' Ben Higgins Feels 'Disconnected' from Celebrity Wedding Planning

By

Kayla Garritano

Will the wedding drama ever stop? In the Tuesday, November 1 episode of Ben & Lauren: Happily Ever After? Ben Higgins and Lauren Bushnell made another attempt at wedding planning, then quickly moved on to to other things to avoid more planning. According to UsMagazine.com, the little bit of planning they did included Lauren's sister, Mollie, helping the celebrity couple with their wedding registry. Ben immediately became defensive over everything and didn't want anything that they don't need. Mollie and Lauren ignored most of Ben's negative comments and continued making the registry. As the episode continued to show them arguing and disagreeing with things such as houses and what they "don't need," Ben took a moment to admit to the camera, "I'm very disconnected from wedding planning."

This former Bachelor is feeling isolated from celebrity wedding planning. What are some ways to involve your partner in wedding plans?

Cupid's Advice:

A wedding is a joint ceremony, where you learn a lot about your partner and deal with the craziness of planning a wedding together. You want to make sure neither of you feel isolated in the planning, especially if you both want to be involved. Cupid will tell you how you can plan your wedding together:

1. Take them on the hunt: When you're testing out cakes, or trying out the food, or picking out your wedding registry, make sure your partner is there with you. Show them the journey you're going on, and let them experience what you're experiencing. Your partner should be allowed to try what it is that you're trying, and have the same opportunity to plan out the wedding that you're both a part of.

Televised Celebrity Wedding

2. Let them have opinions: When you have a dream wedding in mind, you don't want to let anyone else's opinions in. Well, what if your partner has something to say about the situation? What if they prefer something different? Make sure their voice is heard, and that you consider what they say. You should learn to talk to each other about what you're thinking. If you don't, that may foreshadow some problems in the marriage.

Related Link: Learning to Compromise: My Way or the Highway!

3. Compromise: Marriage is about compromise, as is a wedding. You are taking two lives and melding them into one. You are creating a new life for yourself the minute you say "I do" to each other. Do something for each other that seems fair. Take something out of the wedding that you love in exchange for putting in something your partner loves, and they should do the same for you.

For the next several days, including Halloween night, the celebrity couple stayed in Markle's suburban pad, staying in and cooking together at home, all while playing with her rescue dogs. A pal of Harry said, "It's very serious."

This new celebrity couple is trying to keep their interactions low-key! What are some ways to ease into a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

New relationships are a big deal! They can sometimes be scary as well, especially if you're new to it or haven't been in a serious one in a while. Cupid is here to help you ease into your relationship with some dating advice:

1. Take it slow: Easing into a relationship may mean not seeing each other every day, or only hanging out a few times a month. Still make sure there's time apart to focus on yourself. You may need some space in order to get closer. Get to know your new partner and enjoy your time together, all while keeping yourself going in the right path. There's no need to jump into it.

Related Link: How to Communicate to Get What You Need

2. Communication always: As per usual, communication in a relationship is a major key. But when you're in a new relationship, it's best to lay out everything and let your partner know what you want. This way, there are no secrets, and questions you may have later on can be answered ahead of time. Also, make sure your partner knows that you want to take the relationship slow at first and ease into things. They should respect your decisions.

3. Be honest: Honesty is the best policy. There's no sense in lying in your relationship, it's unhealthy for future progression. If you don't like something, let your partner know. If you need space, let them know. It's your life, make sure you're comfortable with your relationship.
