Falling in love can be new and exciting, but it doesn't always end well. In the end, sometimes half of the couple has a harder time finding their way out than the other, just like with this celebrity news. Cupid is here to help:

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Guy Cut by JoJo Fletcher in Fantasy Suite

By Nicole Caico

At the beginning of this week's episode of The Bachelorette it seemed like all three guys still had a fair shot at a celebrity relationship with JoJo Fletcher, but by the end, one of them was sent packing. Jordan, Robby, and Chase were the three lucky men who made it to the fantasy suite. It turns out that Chase was the one unlucky man to be sent home. UsMagazine.com reports that Chase proclaimed his love for JoJo, and she responded with, "When you said that to me, in my heart and in my gut, I don't think I felt what I thought I was gonna feel. I don't know if I'm in the same place as you. I don't know if spending this night together would change that feeling, and I almost feel like it would be unfair." Chase, rightly upset, left the show. JoJo made it clear that she is not interested in becoming a celebrity couple with Chase.

This celebrity news has us cringing a bit! What are some ways to let someone who is interested in you go?

Cupid's Advice:

It's always endearing to know that someone is interested in you. As flattering as it may be, there comes a time when you've got to let the person know that the feeling isn't mutual. No use putting it off. Cupid is here with some dating advice:

1. Remain unavailable: Before jumping into the full on "it's not you, it's me" convo, see if the person crushing on you can take a hint. When they text you, don't answer right away—and sometimes don't answer at all. Answering immediately and consistently usually conveys that you're interested, so doing the opposite may allow the person to catch on to your lukewarm feelings.

2. The other man: If the person pursuing you is someone you're friendly with or talk to regularly, get on the topic of relationships and try to casually mention another guy you're interested in. If you make it seem like you're confiding in this friend for advice on another guy or girl, they'll have to understand that your interest is elsewhere.

3. Be honest: As awkward as the conversation might be, being honest is the best way to go about it. Just telling the person, "Hey, it seems like you're interested in me, but I'm not looking to date anyone" will clear up the whole situation. Being honest is also the best way to avoid hurting someone. Be honest, and remember—don't apologize—you're just not interested.

Celebrity News: Find Out Why Rob Kardashian Lashed Out at Blac Chyna

By Jessica DeRubbo

There's never a dull moment in the world of the Kardashians! Most recently, the social media world has been buzzing about the drama happening between celebrity couple Rob Kardashian and his fiancée Blac Chyna. According to EOnline.com, Kardashian removed all trace of Chyna from his Instagram account, but according to sources, it's nothing to be alarmed about. Apparently it's just the aftermath of a fight the two had. A source said, "Rob and her have been getting into little tiffs and Blac Chyna flipped on Rob. He was so pissed at how she spoke to him, so he deleted everything about her to hurt her." So, it looks like there may be trouble in paradise. We'll have to see what happens next in this duo's celebrity relationship!

This celebrity news has us getting drawn into Kardashian drama again!

What are some ways to keep your relationship issues private?

Cupid's Advice:

There's no doubt that though relationship drama between the Kardashians may be entertaining, it's not very pleasant when you experience it yourself! Plus, it gets even more taxing when those around you know your private business. Cupid has some tips to keep things between you and your partner:

1. Avoid social media: Social media is good for a lot of things, but keeping your private life private isn't always one of them. Avoid social media when you've just had a disagreement with your partner at all costs. You may be tempted to air your dirty laundry, but you'll almost always regret it in the end.

2. Keep details from your friends: Again, it may seem therapeutic to air your frustrations to those closest to you, but resist the temptation! Often times, word will get around. Other times, your friends will simply get the wrong impression of your relationship and think it's bad all the time if you complain too much and fail to tell them about all the good things to balance it out.

3. Come to an agreement with your partner: The fact is, just because you don't tell people about any relationship issues you may be having, that doesn't mean your partner won't. When you're both calm, have a conversation about some relationship ground rules. Come to an agreement that you will not speak to those around you about any relationship issue you're having, unless you agree on it.

Celebrity News: Calvin Harris Hangs with Tinashe After Split from Taylor Swift

By Nicole Caico

The drama between Calvin Harris and Taylor Swift has only just begun winding down, and already there are celebrity dating rumors circulating about Harris and Tinashe. According to EOnline.com, a source said, “They have always kept in touch, but recently more since his breakup with Taylor. Work and feeling healthy is number one for him now. He wants the storm to pass with Taylor before he can even think of dating another woman seriously.” It seems Harris and Tinashe aren’t exactly in a celebrity relationship yet, but Swift is definitely out of the picture.

In celebrity news, it may be time for Calvin to move on from Taylor! How do you know when you’re ready to move on from a past relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Moving on from a relationship can be difficult, especially if you’re like Calvin Harris and Taylor Swift and have a lot of lingering drama. But, change can be a good thing. Cupid has some tips:

1. Looking back: If you can reflect on your past relationship without breaking down, you’re ready to move on. Being able to appreciate the good parts of a past relationship, and being able to acknowledge what you’ve learned from the bad parts means that you have enough emotional distance from the relationship to move on.

New Celebrity Couple? Iggy Azalea & French Montana Get Cozy at Vegas Club

By Nicole Caico

Rappers Iggy Azalea and French Montana were spotted partying together Saturday night into Sunday morning. Are they possibly a new celebrity couple? Azalea, who recently ended her celebrity relationship and engagement with basketball player, Nick Young, was seen leaving with Montana from the Jewel nightclub at Aria Resort & Casino. According to EOnline.com, the two celebs “attended Jennifer Lopez’s All I Have residency show at Caesar’s Palace together” beforehand.

There may be a new celebrity couple in the works! What are some ways a one night fling can turn into a long-term relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

The number of people you know who ended up engaged because of a one night stand might be a very low number, but that doesn’t mean a hook-up can't turn into a relationship! Here are some ways to turn your one night fling into an every night fling:

1. All about the follow up: Make sure you've got a name and a phone number, and once you, do don't be afraid to use it. Wait a day or two, then text or call your one-night-boo. Let her or he know you had a good time, and make plans to meet up again. If you don't contact your hook-up, there is no way a relationship will form between the two of you.

2. Make your intentions clear: Ideally this would have been done before the one-night festivities began, but it's never too late to define the hook-up. Let the person know that you may be looking for something long-term. Who knows? Maybe they are, too.

3. Play it cool: If you put yourself out there and the person you hooked up with isn't responding at all, drop it. Coming on too strong after a one night fling could freak the other person out. Give them some time before you get angry.

Johnny Depp Files to Keep Celebrity Divorce Proceedings Private

By Cortney Moore

Johnny Depp is making celebrity news once more with his motion for privacy in his celebrity divorce against Amber Heard. The couple surprised everyone when they ended their celebrity relationship back in May, and since then, there have been rocky court hearings. According to UsMagazine.com, Depp filed for confidentiality on July 15, with papers that state, "All documents produced by [Depp] in this action and/or any third parties subpoenaed in this action ... shall be designated as 'Confidential Information' herein." Sources close to Depp say his desire for privacy comes after Heard's request to obtain personal and financial documentation. "Amber has inexplicably refused to sign any agreement to maintain confidentiality in this action," Depp's filing claims. "Johnny is therefore asking the Court to issue a protective order." Despite Heard's claims that their celebrity relationship was abusive, Depp seems to be handling the divorce proceedings well.

This celebrity divorce is definitely going to be one for the books. What are some ways to keep the details of your divorce private?

Cupid's Advice:

Divorces are never fun, especially with the court proceedings that are required for a legal separation. At times, people will ask how you're holding up and may want to know the details of your divorce. At no point are you obligated to provide an explanation. Let Cupid help you keep the details of your divorce private:

1. Privacy lawyers: The best way to ensure that details of your divorce will not leave the courtroom is by hiring a lawyer who takes confidentiality seriously. Find a lawyer who is good at what they do, and will put your needs first. You don't want a lawyer who will use your case to bolster their public profile.

2. Spousal collaboration: Another great way to keep your divorce private is to communicate this desire with your spouse. Working together to maintain privacy will help keep sensitive details from escaping into the public. Even if your relationship ended on bad terms, privacy may be a top priority you both can agree on.

3. Loose lips sink ships: The absolute best way to make sure that details of your divorce remain private is by keeping it all to yourself. Though you may want to talk to close friends, family, or even coworkers about what you're going through, don't let them know sensitive information. Sharing details opens the chance for rumors and changed opinions that could hurt your case, which is the exact opposite of what you want.

divorce.” Neither Frankel nor Hoppy commented, but legal representatives for the former celebrity couple vouched for their relief upon settling. Frankel is looking forward to selling her Tribeca apartment.

This celebrity divorce has been 4 years coming. What are some ways to streamline your divorce proceedings?

Cupid’s Advice:

Making the decision to divorce from your partner is difficult enough, but when the divorce process drags on for years, that’s about as bad as it gets. Making your divorce as swift a possible subsequently makes it as painless as possible. Cupid has some tips:

1. Stay on top of it: Know what papers you need to have, communicate with your legal team, and show up on all necessary dates. Staying organized and making it to all court dates will eliminate bumps in the road and setbacks.

3. Be patient: When it comes down to it, you can be 100% on relationship out of your new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter how long or short a past relationship lasted, pieces of what happened between you and your ex can bounce around in your mind for a long time after. Don't let side effects from your last relationship spoil something good you have going on now. Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Cut ties: If you haven't already, cleanse your life of your ex. Unfollow your ex on social media, block them if necessary, and delete the contact information in your phone. Communicating with your ex, or seeing posts, will keep re-opening your history. In order to keep your past relationship out of your new relationship, follow an "out of sight out of mind" based strategy.

2. No deja vu: Don't bring up the topic of your ex to your new significant other out of the blue. If you're visiting a place you used to go with your ex, try to keep that to yourself. If you're in a fight and your new significant other says or does something that your ex used to do, don't point it out. The moral of the story is, you're in a new relationship with an entirely new person. Your new boo shouldn't have to feel constantly compared to or reminded of the last person you dated.

Courtney Stodden Suffers Miscarriage of Celebrity Baby

By Nicole Caico

Celebrity couple Courtney Stodden and Doug Hutchison are coping with the loss of their unborn celebrity baby. Stodden, 21, recently confirmed that she was expecting in May. According to UsMagazine.com, Stodden's rep put out a statement addressing the miscarriage on July 17, saying, "It is with a heavy heart to inform you that last week Courtney Stodden suffered a heartbreaking miscarriage. Courtney and her husband, Doug, are at an emotional loss for words and are using this time to grieve with their close family and friends."

Courtney Stodden is broken hearted over the loss of her celebrity baby. What are some ways to support a mother who has experienced loss?

Cupid's Advice:

It is no secret that miscarrying is emotionally traumatic for an expecting mother or couple. Unfortunately, there is no way to change the situation, but supporting a woman or couple going through this experience can make a difference:

1. Share stories: Miscarriages are more common than many people know, and even though many women do not talk about their miscarriages, there is still a stigma. In order to help a mother who has experienced this loss, have other women share their experiences with miscarriages. Whether you read stories online together or have friends and family talk about it, sharing this information should help her realize that her miscarriage is not her fault, and that she is not alone.

2. Don't dwell: It is extremely important to acknowledge and talk about the emotional pain that your friend or family member is going through after this loss, but do not harp on it. Let her start the conversation. You won't know if she is ready to tell you about it, or if she can emotionally handle talking about it, unless she starts the conversation. Constantly revisiting the topic might make her feel worse.

3. Look toward the future: A miscarriage does not mean the end of hope for parenthood. Encouraging this woman or couple to continue hoping for the baby they've always wanted will hopefully lift their spirits. Remind them that this loss is not a failure and that they should continue looking forward.

Celebrity Interview: 'Botched' Star Dr. Paul Nassif Discusses Being Single, Skincare and Spin-Off Shows

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Stephanie Sacco.

Dr. Paul Nassif is more than a doctor on reality TV. He's a renowned facial plastic surgeon and skincare specialist. Though people may remember him from The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills, he's even more recognizable for his E! reality series, Botched which he co-hosts with former RHOC star, Dr. Terry Dubrow. The success of Botched has even led to a few upcoming spin-off shows, Botched By Nature and Botched Post-Op. Last week, Nassif spoke to us in an exclusive celebrity interview about the upcoming spin-off shows, his new anti-aging skincare line and his very single relationship status.

Reality TV Star Dr. Paul Nassif Talks 'Botched' Success

Back when Nassif first developed the concept for Botched and pitched the show, his co-host was doubtful, calling Nassif "crazy" for wanting to put plastic surgery on TV. "Now look at us," the former RHOBH star says. Botched is in its third season and the show has led to multiple spin-off series. One of the many reasons for the show's success is that all the cases are legitimate, and Nassif and Dubrow are passionate about their clients. The doctors really enjoy helping their patients through their issues. Nassif says the role of a plastic surgeon is "part doctor and part therapist." Although extreme cases are common in this line of work, the reality TV star shares that the worst is yet to come. "For me personally, once you see the episodes of Botched By Nature, those are going to be the most riveting and the hardest cases we've had to do," he admits.

One of the differences between Botched By Nature and Botched is the client's reason behind getting plastic surgery. "Some people got struck by lightning, went through severe accidents, and had deformities," the plastic surgeon says about the spin-off series. This brings the doctors even closer to the clients. "You really get into the heart of it by going into these people's homes," he shares. "You see their families and loved ones, and you're allowed to discuss these incredible human interest stories about what they've had to go through their entire life." That added personal layer is something the fans haven't seen before. Due to the extreme cases that they're dealing with, Botched By Nature has the surgeons on the road, traveling all over the country. But it's not all serious business. The two friends have some adventures along the way. Nassif explains, "We'll be going to different parts of the country and doing something fun in each city." Being on the road has its perks and these two won't disappoint. "You're going to see more of a reality between Dubrow and I because we're traveling. So you get to see a little bit more of that bromance," Nassif says.

Reality TV Star on Dating & His New Skincare Line

Though he's always been successful in the operating room, Nassif hasn't been as successful with romance. He admits that he isn't dating anybody right now and that he's found that dating takes a lot of time and energy. "I cleared my slate so I could come home, work out earlier, and get more sleep. Dating is fun, but it's very taxing," shares the father of three. He's already been a part of a celebrity couple for many years, and he isn't interested in having it again at the moment. While his career flourishes, he's putting his love life on hold and is focusing on his new skincare line. The NassifMD Bio-Rhythmic and Bio-Clock Dermaceuticals skincare lines are out already, and Nassif uses the collection. When asked how the products differ from others on the market, he explains that he has an understanding of the face and body, and is qualified to know what works. "As a plastic surgeon, I look at skin differently than a dermatologist," he says.

Than a Housewife on 'Famously Single'

As a facial reconstruction specialist in Beverly Hills, Nassif also knows that there are many different motivations for getting plastic surgery. The idea that women get work done for their man sometimes happens, but when it comes up in his office, Nassif is strongly against it. "If there's a wrong reason, I simply won't do the surgery," he shares. Typically, his clients are aware of the problem and want to fix it for their own health. "When it comes to facelifts, eyes, and noses, my patients are pretty spot on about wanting to do it for themselves." The reality TV star has also had some work done himself, such as some reconstruction surgery on his nose here and there. But, the most recent celebrity news is that the doctor hinted he may potentially get Botox on television. He says, "You gotta watch the show. Watch Botched By Nature to see something different regarding me."

Botched By Nature premieres on August 3rd at 9/8c.

You can follow Dr. Paul Nassif on Twitter and watch Botched on Tuesdays at 9:00 on E!

Baby fever is a real thing. Having multiple babies is popular in this day and age, but that requires a lot of tender love and care. Cupid is here to help:

1. Hand-me-downs: Hold onto everything that you used and needed for your first baby. It'll be easier if you have a head start on supplies. You'll find that it's one less thing to worry about as your oldest kids grow out of their belongings.

1. Walk away: You don't have to shake hands or hug it out in the final stages of your break-up, but it doesn't hurt to walk away. Instead of prolonging a fight, just get up and leave. Forget about closure, and worry more about your mental health.

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups are rough. At some point you'll get over the split and will go on with your life. Your ex may not be as fortunate and may try to cling onto the past. Let Cupid help you get rid of your obsessive ex:

1. Tell the truth: Be honest with your ex and let them know that you no longer see a future with them. Telling the truth might be hard, but it's unfair to mislead and string them along. Your ex may finally let you go in peace if they understand there's no hope for a relationship.

2. Cut them off: Another great option is to cut off all communication with your ex. This includes ignoring texts and calls. 3. Move on: If for whatever reason you still want to stay in contact with your obsessive ex, another option you may have is to show that you moved on from them. Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Star JoJo Fletcher Says Goodbye to Two Suitors Pre-Hometown Dates

By Nicole Caico

On this week's episode of The Bachelorette, JoJo Fletcher sent home Alex and James. According to UsMagazine.com, while Robby got the rose at the end of this week's group date, Jordan is looking like the front runner in the competition to become the other half of JoJo's celebrity couple. Remaining competitors Chase, Robby, Jordan, and Luke will have to pull out all the stops in the upcoming hometown dates when JoJo will travel with them to meet their families.

In celebrity news, the hometown dates on The Bachelorette are almost upon us! What are some ways to prepare to meet your partner's family?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter who you are, meeting your partner's family is probably one of the most nerve wracking things you'll ever have to do. Even if you know that the family who raised the amazing person you're with must be the nicest people on the planet, being nervous comes naturally. First impressions are important, so it's best to prepare as much as you can before meeting your partner's family:

1. The family tree: Before meeting your partner's family, ask your partner some questions about them, especially if you're meeting extended family and not just Mom, Dad, and siblings. Hearing some names beforehand will help you to feel familiar upon arrival, and some background won't hurt either. Who is on what side of the family? What ages are your partners' siblings? Get some info.

2. Contribute: Most people consider showing up to a first meeting with the family empty handed a mistake. First impressions are important, and it's beneficial to be as polite as possible. Bring your significant other's family flowers or a dessert. What you bring does not have to be extremely personal or a gift wrapped present, just bringing something to show you made an effort can go a long way.

3. Take a deep breath: Above all, just be yourself. It is worth it to prepare, but there is only so much you can do. Put on some nice clothes, grab a small gift, review names of family members, and just breathe.
