

Russell Wilson Reveals 'Best Part' of His Celebrity Wedding Day

By

Nicole Caico

Ciara and Seattle Seahawks QB Russell Wilson said “I do” at their celebrity wedding in England last week. According to EOnline.com, Ciara wore a custom Roberto Cavalli Couture by Peter Dundas and there were over 100 guests in attendance. In front of many friends and family members, this celebrity couple took their celebrity relationship to the next level, and Wilson said the best part was “just to see her face and the long train she had. And then Earth, Wind and Fire took the night away.”

This celebrity wedding story has us swooning. What are three reasons to have a large wedding celebration?

Cupid's Advice:

Take a page out of the Wilson's book and plan a large wedding celebration. All of their friends and family were in attendance, and yours should be, too. There's no reason to skimp on your big day, so here are three reasons to have a large wedding celebration:

1. Lower stress: Having a large wedding celebration may sound more stressful, but it just might be less stressful. There is nothing worse than sitting down to make a guest list, deciding it's too long, and having to cross people off. Chances are if you put the person on the list, you don't want to cross them off. Planning a large wedding will save you the terrible feeling of crossing a friend off your list, and will also save you and your betrothed many arguments over the number of guests.

2. All the pieces of the puzzle: Whether a large wedding celebration refers to the actual number of people in attendance or just the general grandeur of the event, go big. Plan a budget that is within your means, but also allows you to have everything you want on your big day. Planning a large wedding celebration will ensure that every aspect will be the way you pictured it. You shouldn't skimp on your guest list, dress, food, or decor if you don't have to.

3. Party time: If there is no other reason, plan a large wedding celebration because at the end of the day, it's a party! Let loose and celebrate this new chapter in your life with all the people who are important to you. You can't have an awesome party with only 50 people, so just go for it!

Celebrity Interview: 'Famously Single' Star Dr. Darcy Reveals Her Favorite Cast Members & Those Who Surprised Her Most

By

Rebecca White

Over a year ago, Dr. Darcy Sterling received an email inviting her to audition for a new reality TV series, Famously Single, which focuses on helping eight single celebrities work through their relationship problems. Having made her television debut on E! in 2011, the network was familiar with her, so she flew out, auditioned, and the rest is history. Her experience as a licensed clinical social worker and relationship expert facilitates her work to help individuals and couples who want more out of life. She hosts workshops focused on psychology and runs a Q&A blog. In our exclusive celebrity interview, Dr. Darcy dishes on the Famously Single cast members, from who was her favorite to who surprised her the most, and shares her best relationship advice.

Dr. Darcy Dishes On Famously Single Cast In This Celebrity Interview

In the latest celebrity news, before filming the show began, Dr. Darcy reveals that she was most concerned about working with Jersey Shore star Pauly D. “Based on what I knew of him, which was very little, he's a big prankster always making wise cracks. I thought he was going to be the difficult, oppositional child in the classroom," the social worker shares. "He actually turned out to be one of my favorites! Not that a mom really has favorites, but he was a delight to work with. He came in so earnest and really showed up with an openness to the process that made it so easy to work with him." However, now that she's finished filming the show, Dr. Darcy says that Somaya Reece surprised her the most. On the show, Reece shared her story of domestic abuse and became a poster child for resilience. "How she bounced back from that was mind-boggling," Dr. Darcy says. "It speaks to human resilience and she is such an inspiration."

The main premise of the reality TV series is to teach relationship skills to celebrities who are infamous for being single. But since filming ended, the celebrities who have the best chance of finding love after this experience are those who were able to learn about themselves. "Those celebs that walked away learning about themselves, taking personal responsibility, recognizing that they've made mistakes in the past that having nothing to do with being famous are the ones who have the best chance at finding love," the therapist says. While being famous supersedes relationship problems, notoriety doesn't create problems that didn't pre-exist. With Dr. Darcy leading the group therapy sessions, these celebs can't use fame as the reason for their relationship issues. "The fact that they're famous is not justification for why they're single," the psychologist shares. After discussing their issues and teaching them relationship skills, the celebrities have had a chance to practice these skills through interacting with each other and mock dates.

The celebrity couple who made the biggest splash in the headlines was Brandi Glanville and Calum Best, who began dating on the show. Although their courtship has ended, Dr. Darcy says both celebrities have learned a lot about themselves from the experience. “Brandi is much more aware of certain things she’s done and Calum has thrown himself into yoga, which is major progress for him,” she adds. “The show wasn’t meant to create long-term sustainable change, though. It was intended to provoke a level of awareness in everyone and ignite a desire in each individual to go on their own journey and do their own work.” After working with the celebs, the therapist says that Glanville does tend to pick the wrong people for her, but that there is a reason she’s attracted to certain types of people. “Brandi has done a lot of work on herself and her work’s not done,” she says. After all is said and done, Dr. Darcy said filming Famously Single was an amazing and challenging experience, saying, “I would love a second season.”

Reality TV Therapist Shares Best Relationship Advice

From filming a hit reality TV show to managing time with her clients, Dr. Darcy has a busy schedule. However, she knows that her relationship needs to be her top priority. “You cannot give everything you have away at work,” she says. “You have to come home with a little reserved. It’s unacceptable to come home on empty.” The reality TV therapist says that relationships require work every single day and that it’s a fallacy that relationships “shouldn’t feel like work.” If you’re struggling to manage your relationship and busy lifestyle, think back to what created your relationship. Think back to the beginning when you courted, seduced, supported, encouraged, and admired your partner. After the honeymoon phase, relationships are about self-discipline. “You have to incorporate it into your everyday life,” Dr. Darcy says. “This is the person you want to show up most for, not the least.” In her own relationship with her wife Stephanie, it is all about self-care. The duo makes sure they are highly involved with hobbies, such as yoga, dance, meditation, and CrossFit. “Steph and I try to walk the walk,” she shares. “There have been times when we haven’t engaged in the level of self-care we need to and our clients reflect that. They don’t absorb the information if we don’t walk the walk.”

The most important skill to maintaining a healthy relationship is communication. “You have to be willing to listen to your partner, even when you’re tired and feel like they’re picking on you,” Dr. Darcy says. It is crucial that you actively listen, remain quiet, and control the impulse to be defensive. You have to mirror back and paraphrase what they said so they know you listened to them and you know you understood. Most of the time, your partner just wants to be heard. “If you can deliver that to your partner, you have a basis of a great relationship,” she says. Once you learn the basic relationship skills, all of your relationships will improve because you will use these same skills with your family and friends. “I really hope people are motivated to learn about relationship skills because the quality of our lives is predicated on the quality of our relationships,” Dr. Darcy reveals. “It’s the most important thing in our lives and nobody teaches us.” At the end of the day, the best love advice from Dr. Darcy is the metaphor: “Use the good china every night.” Relationships are about showing up for your partner the same way you would for a stranger or company that you’re trying to impress. Make every day a date and bring romance into everything you do.

Celebrity Wedding: Christian Siriano & Brad Walsh Marry in Romantic Ceremony

By

Nicole Caico

On Saturday, July 9, designer Christian Siriano married his fiancé Brad Walsh. The celebrity wedding took place outside in Danbury, Connecticut and was officiated by actress Kristen Johnston. Siriano, season four winner of Project Runway, and his betrothed wore all black and it was requested that guests wore all white. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple had the receptions catered by Certe and Siriano's favorite food, lobster, was among the dishes served.

This celebrity wedding was unique and personalized. What are some ways to personalize your nuptials?

Cupid's Advice:

The Siriano-Walsh wedding had tons of style and incorporated so many personal touches. Take a page out of this celebrity couple's book, and personalize your nuptials:

1. Venue: If you're looking to personalize your wedding, start at square one—with the venue. Where you chose to have your wedding can say a lot about you and your betrothed. If you're traditional or religious, you may choose to get married in a place of worship. If you're both outdoorsy, have your ceremony on a beach or in a field. If you're adventurous, plan a destination wedding. Let the setting of your ceremony be the backdrop for who you two are as a couple.

2. Food: Personalizing your food is a basic, but important part of your wedding. If you grew up in a family that is connected to their culture, let it shine through in the cuisine. Whether it's traditional Indian, Chinese, or Italian, your heritage is a big part of who you are, and the food was no doubt a big part of your life growing up. If you want to personalize your food in a more small scale way, consider picking out a custom cake topper.

3. The wedding favor: Aside from photos, the wedding favor may be the longest lasting piece of your wedding. Choose something that will stand the test of time and that reflects your personality. It could be as simple as flower seeds for guests to plant and grow, or a monogrammed bottle opener for guests to use in the future.

Former Celebrity Couple Kate Hudson & Matt Bellamy Reunite for Son's Birthday

By

Nicole Caico

On July 9, actress Kate Hudson and her rockstar ex-fiance,

Matt Bellamy, joined forces to celebrate their son's fifth birthday. UsMagazine.com reports that the former celebrity couple took their celebrity kids, Ryder (12) and Bing (5), to Palace Theatre in London to see the new Harry Potter and the Cursed Child play. Since calling off their engagement in 2014, Hudson and Bellamy have redefined their celebrity relationship. The two remain amicable for their children and continue to run a joint wine company, Hudson Bellamy Wines.

This former celebrity couple isn't letting their differences get in the way! What are some ways to remain civil with your ex for the sake of your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone can remain as friendly as Kate Hudson and Matt Bellamy. Remaining civil with an ex isn't easy. You parted ways for a reason, and it definitely wasn't because you just loved each other too much. Though you may want to run in the other direction every time you see your ex, that won't help your children at all. Here are some basic ways to remain civil with your ex:

1. Take responsibility: Chances are that when you split from your ex, some ground rules were laid out—either on your own or in court. Follow them. Do not deviate from the schedule, and be sure to hold up your end of the deal. This will help avoid additional issues and show that you respect your ex's time with your kids.

2. Mind your business: Whether your ex is telling you about a date he or she went on, or your kids are relaying information, if it doesn't have to do with you or your children, stay out of it. You may feel entitled to weigh in, but don't do it. Staying out of your ex's personal life or love life will keep everyone's lives more simple.

3. Play nice: Maybe you two couldn't stand each other at the time of the split, but now that you've parted ways, tensions should die down. Remain polite when dealing with your ex, especially in front of your kids. If you respect each other, say "thank you" when you can, or do a favor here and there. Co-parenting will work out much more nicely.

Celebrity Interview: E!'s 'Famously Single' Dating Coach Laurel House Says "Every Episode Has Drama!"

Inter

viewed and Written by Cortney Moore.

Last month, E! debuted its newest reality TV show, Famously Single, which features one of Cupid's own, Laurel House. As an experienced relationship expert, House has had the opportunity to work closely with celebrities to fix their love lives, so it was only natural that E! selected her as one of the dating coaches to bolster their celebrity cast. In our exclusive celebrity interview, House opens up about her experience on the show and the relationship advice she offered the celebrity cast members.

Celebrity Interview: Laurel House Talks E!'s Newest Star-Studded Reality TV Show 'Famously Single'

Famously Single explores the dating lives of eight celebrities: Brandi Glanville, Aubrey O'Day, Pauly D, Jessica White, Willis McGahee, Somaya Reece, Calum Best and Josh Murray. With House's expertise and guidance, each celebrity is able to examine their behavior and past experiences in order to understand why their relationships have failed. But why do celebrities often experience failed relationships in the first place? House says, "The reality is that just because they're celebrities, doesn't mean that they're really all that different when it comes to entertaining difficulties and insecurities." She went on, saying, "Anyone can relate to the dating problem the celebrities are struggling with." In her expert opinion, celebrities are relatable because their insecurities stem from fear. Their careers require them to have both public and private personas, which sometimes conflict and are damaging if revealed.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Reality TV Matchmaker Carmelia Ray Says, "Take Actions That Are Consistent With Your Commitments"

Prior to meeting the cast, House expected the celebrities to be "high maintenance or catty," but was pleasantly surprised when she was able to work with them. "They were all truly amazing human beings, with the most gigantic hearts," she says. She also expressed how delighted she was to see these stars open up and reveal their more vulnerable sides. Two celebrities who stood out in her mind when discussing authenticity and kindness were Pauly D and Calum Best, both of whom are known for their wild party sides. "There is so much more than that," she reveals, referencing who they truly are. As far as which cast member inspired her, House says it was Somaya Reece who opened her eyes. She adds, "She's been through a tremendous amount of pain and difficulty in her life, and she's overcome it more than anyone I've ever seen." House believes the challenges in Reece's life made her fragile, which is similar to the stories of many celebrities. "There is some fragility with these celebrities. Yes, they're very strong and put up strong exteriors, but that's for public consumption. They do have a very fragile and soft side, and that's the beauty of them."

Though House was able to get most of the celebrities to open up, her experience as their dating coach was not all smooth sailing. A number of the celebrity cast members gave her a difficult time at some point or another while filming. Two such celebrities were Willis McGahee and Josh Murray, both of whom she met in episode 2 during the cast's outing to a club. "I was personally very surprised by Willis's request to join him in the bathroom," House admitted when asked about the incident. Although she was surprised by his invitation, she wants audiences to understand that a situation like this isn't uncommon for a professional athlete. "In the sports industry, women are throwing themselves at you," she explains. "So while it was surprising to me, it's not a surprise that it happened. And it's not reflective of Willis as a human being because he's a really good man; it's just that he has been shown that this is the norm throughout his life as a football player." Murray's standoffish behavior towards her, on the other hand, was very disheartening. "Instead of taking the connection that we had and turning that into a conversation, he took the connection and immediately thought that I was conniving," House says about their interaction at the club. Despite Murray's harsh treatment, she understood where he was coming from. "He's the newest celebrity in the house and he's not used to all this additional attention," House says. She went on to explain that many celebs are defensive because they're unsure of people's ulterior motives.

Another challenge House faced while trying to mentor the celebrities were changed personas when the cameras were rolling. With Calum Best in particular, House's skills were tested in getting him to show his real self while the cameras were on. Aside from changing personalities, House reveals that the most challenging and fun celebrity to mentor was Aubrey O'Day. "She didn't just take my advice and do what I said. She wanted to discuss it and really come to wrap her head around it and understand the theory behind it and why," House explains in our celebrity interview. "The questions that she asked showed me that she was invested in making change and analyzing herself so she could be in a real sustainable, loving and happy relationship, which she found in Pauly D.” And O’Day isn’t the only celebrity who has found love through the show. According to House, Reece has also found love with a woman where there is “mutual respect and mutual adoration,” which were essential pieces she was missing in her past relationships.

House hopes the other, currently single, celebrity cast members will be able to find love through the relationship advice she provided for them during the show. The piece of advice she believes is crucial to their success is having real and substantive conversations. For celebrities, she says it’s important “to get away from the ‘I’m a celebrity’ conversation and get into the real conversation where the celebrity no longer feels like a celebrity, but feels like a normal person.” Aside from valuable love advice, House assured us that Famously Single is still a reality TV show packed with entertaining drama. “Every episode has a big surprise, every episode has drama. Truly every single day I could not wait to get into that house and see what was going on.” But despite having fun on set, cast members on the show took their roles very seriously. There was not a single person House doubted and she hopes viewers will see how pure everyone’s intentions were. “Everyone at their core is looking for love and connection. No matter what they say, that’s the desire.”

Famously Single airs Tuesdays on E! at 10 p.m. EST.

Celebrity News: Justin Bieber Hangs with Selena Gomez Look-alike in Miami

By

Cortney Moore

Justin Bieber is making celebrity news once more, after being spotted with model Alexandra Rodriguez, who some believe shares an uncanny resemblance to his ex-girlfriend Selena Gomez! The public watched Bieber and Gomez's rollercoaster on-and-off celebrity relationship from 2009 to 2015. However, it seems that Bieber has moved on to become a celebrity couple with Rodriguez, though they have yet to confirm whether or not they're official. According to UsMagazine.com, Bieber was seen getting very close to Rodriguez in Miami this week. Onlookers told Us that "Bieber affectionately held onto the brunette beauty's waist," which indeed sounds like this pair could actually be a celebrity couple!

This celebrity news proves that old habits die hard. What are some ways to determine your "type"?

Cupid's Advice:

When we're dating, there are always a few common traits that we gravitate towards. We often look for these traits in a partner and then call them our "type." For those who are unsure of what their type is, Cupid is here to help you determine which is best for you:

1. Shared interests: A simple and straight forward way to determine your type is by finding interests you both share. If you tend to like people who like the same things you do, then you can determine that your type must be compatible with your hobbies and lifestyle. At the very least, your type should show an interest in the things you do.

Related Link: Former Celebrity Couple News: Selena Gomez Spotted at Justin Bieber Concert After Kissing Post

2. Similar energy levels: Another important trait in finding your type is knowing how energetic you want them to be. If you like being active then you want someone that will be active with you. If you prefer low energy activities, you'll need someone who likes doing that as well. Dating a person who has an opposing energy level from your own is not the right type for you.

Related Link: New Celebrity Couple: Justin Bieber Reveals New Romance with Hailey Baldwin

3. Mutual desire: Hopefully if you're trying to get into a serious relationship, you want someone who is attracted to you the same way you are to them. Don't try to force anything that isn't there. If you're not desiring to be in another's presence then they are not your type. A relationship without desire or passion is a friendship, go find someone who can satisfy your romantic needs.

Celebrity Interview: Brandi Glanville Is More Than a Housewife on 'Famously Single' view by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Stephanie Sacco.

Inter

Brandi Glanville is more than a “real housewife” and reality TV star. She’s also a single mother looking for a good man. Known mostly for her infamous (drinking) escapades on The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills (RHOBH), the mother of two has joined the cast of the new reality television series, Famously Single. The new E! series centers around eight single celebrities living in a house together with the goal of mending their broken hearts and relationship issues once and for all. The singles are advised by relationship coaches, practice dating techniques and attend group therapy sessions throughout the season.

Glanville opened up to CupidsPulse.com in an exclusive celebrity interview, where she gave us the scoop on her recent Instagram booty post, filled us in on her tryst with Calum Best and dished on all things marriage, love and her experience on the new reality TV show, Famously Single.

Reality TV Star Brandi Glanville reveals who the booty Instagram & Tweet were for in our celebrity interview.

Glanville has kissed a lot of frogs in her dating life but last week she addressed her most recent (ex) flame on social media by sharing two pictures of her booty on Instagram and on Twitter, where she reclaimed her body and said it no longer belonged to him. The photo created a lot of celebrity news headlines but Glanville gave us the real scoop on who that booty shot was intended for saying, “There’s always that guy that you go back and forth with and you know it’s not good for you, but he’s there when no one else is.”

She says the relationship was on again, off-again for about a year before she decided to end it for good on social media.

“We would just hook up but we would never really go out together,” explained Glanville. “He’s an actor and he didn’t want to be seen with someone on a reality show because I guess it makes him less legitimate as an actor.”

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Virtually in Love’s Kansas Discusses Falling in Love Online

Glanville decided to go along with the half-relationship and let it play out. But last week, on her way to his Fourth of July party, her love interest called and told her not to come because it wasn’t the best idea that she be there. Her response? “I got a bottle of rosé, I went to my gay husband’s house, we made Instagram videos, and I taught him how to walk on a runway, and that was my Fourth of July.” Instead of letting her flames rejection consume her, she took to social media and ended it-her way!

Reality TV Star Addresses Recent Celebrity Gossip

The most recent celebrity gossip has focused on the fact that Glanville claims she never wants to get married again and while she admits that to be true she also says that she “would love to meet someone who changes her mind.” Glanville says that she is open to the possibility if it happens but “she doesn’t need a paper to define the relationship.” I guess never say never. On RHOBH, Glanville says that she wasn’t seen as a mother with emotions and a woman with a romantic side, but instead as ‘your drunk friend Brandi.’ Famously Single shows a different side to the former model and allows her to be herself.

The former RHOBH star says that she was skeptical about doing another reality show and unsure how open she should be about the process. “I used to be very touchy feely, and I used to snuggle and now for seven years I don’t do PDA, I don’t snuggle,” she says. Her doubts proved unnecessary because she did connect emotionally on the show with her new Bestie, Calum Best. “Luckily I met someone in the house that I ended up having feelings for,” says the Famously Single star. “It made me feel good again. It made me feel like I’m ready for this again and I don’t have to be so tough and scare everyone off. I really just need to put myself out there and if I get hurt, I get hurt.” The most important part of life is learning how to cope with change and moving on after hard times.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Virtually in Love’s Iyanya Discusses His Online Relationship

Famously Single taught Glanville a lot about herself, although she didn’t find lasting love in the end. She says Best, her equally famous and single love interest, played a huge part in helping her figure things out. “Ultimately I love him, I adore him. If he was five years older and lived here, things would be different.”

This celebrity couple news has us smiling. What are some ways a good relationship can change your life for the better?

Cupid’s Advice:

While being on your own can be extremely rewarding, being in a relationship that helps you grow can be equally rewarding. Getting into a relationship is always a risk, but when things go well the pay off is huge. A good relationship can change your life for the better:

1. Expanding your horizons: Much like Kruger expressed, being in a relationship with someone who is different from you can help you gain new perspective. From hobbies to political views, you never know what you might learn when you let your guard down and let the person you're dating talk.

Related Link: New Celebrity Relationship: Torrey Devitto & 'DWTS' Artem Chigvintsev Are Dating

2. Help me help you: A good relationship provides a feeling of security. Feeling support from the person you are dating will allow you to try new things on your own. Whether it's taking a new job, getting a new haircut, or realizing something about yourself the support from your SO can help get you over the hump of hesitation that has been holding you back from your true potential.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Get Details on Taylor Swift & Tom Hiddleston's Intimate Dinner Date

3. Get excited: A good relationship doesn't mean you have to soul search and have some sort of major epiphany. If it does, awesome. If not, fine. The major perk of being in a good relationship is that you get to be who you are, and get excited to do things with someone else. A good relationship can change your life for the better by simply making everyday activities more fun because you're sharing them with someone else. Revolutionize food shopping or binge watching Netflix by sharing it with the person you love.
