Cupid's Advice:

Being single again can be as exciting as getting into a new relationship, and you'll want people to know. There are plenty of ways to announce that you're single and ready to mingle without coming off as desperate or obnoxious:

1. Relationship status: This is probably the most 2016 way to announce that you're single again. Log on to your Facebook account, and change your relationship status to single, or go onto your Instagram and take your boyfriend's initials out of your bio. These changes are extremely subtle, but people do take notice.

Since the pictures of Swift and Tom Hiddleston have surfaced, celebrity gossip has skyrocketed. Harris reportedly unfollowed Swift on social media accounts and has now responded to a few fan comments. According to UsMagazine.com, he's been quite vocal saying things like, "I cared too much and then I didn't care at all. I am a real person remember," in response to unfollowing her and then refollowing her. The DJ also said Swift "controlled the media and this situation. I had no idea what was going on. This celebrity news has us questioning what we thought we knew! What are some ways to respond to criticism or questions from family and friends post-split?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups can be messy and awkward, or both. The backlash can be even worse so it's important to have somebody in your corner. Cupid is here to help you cope:

1. The truth: When asked a specific question about the break-up, answer honestly and hope that your family and friends will understand. If they're supportive, they'll show you compassion and give you the space you need to move on. Being vulnerable isn't easy, but with the right people on your side you'll be just fine.

relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

New relationships can be exciting, but also a little scary. Jumping into a partnership takes a little bit of courage. Cupid is here to help with some dating advice:

1. Ask questions: Since you know little to nothing about the person at the start of a relationship (unless they're your friend first), ask lots of questions on the first date. It's important to know things about your partner, but also to see that you are compatible. If he's going on and on about topics that don't interest you, it's best to be aware from the start.

2. Go on dates: Try out different hot spots and restaurants at the start of your relationship. See which activities excite your partner and which you wouldn't try again. It's a great way to see if he's spontaneous or if he's more routine oriented.

3. Tell it like it is: Be outright when it comes to what you like, too. Don't just nod and agree with everything he says, but put in your two cents. If he won't let you share your opinions, it's not going to be a fun run.

These celebrity exes are making celebrity news again! What are some ways to move on after a fresh break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Contrary to popular belief, not every break-up deserves a grieving period. Just because a relationship ends, doesn't mean your happiness has to. Cupid is here to help you move on from your most recent break-up:

1. Date again: Take a page out of Taylor's book and start dating again. Sometimes the best way to get over a relationship is by getting into a new one. You won't find your special someone by staying home and fixating on an ex. Put yourself out there!

2. Go party: This is a great time to go out and have fun! Make time to see your friends and spend a night out on the town. Act like it's your birthday and let loose on a dance floor or bar. Remind yourself that you can have a good even while you're single.

Celebrity Couple Gwen Stefani & Blake Shelton Enjoy 'Honey Moon' After Birthday Celebration

By Nicole Caico

Celebrity couple Gwen Stefani and Blake Shelton took a birthday trip that will give you date night envy for a lifetime. According to UsMagazine.com, to celebrate Shelton turning 40, Stefani decorated a private jet that took the couple to Shelton's farm in Oklahoma. While there, the couple took a ride on Shelton's speed boat and enjoyed the 'Honey Moon' on the night of the summer solstice. Since getting together in November 2015, this celebrity relationship has continued to blossom, as evidenced by Stefani's tweet to Shleton, ""Happy birthday to my favorite person I ever met @blakeshelton gx ☺☺☺#superbabe."

This celebrity couple is finding new and exciting things to do together. What are some adventurous date ideas to plan for your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Though most of us won't be riding a private jet for a birthday trip anytime soon, there are still many ways to keep things exciting. Date night doesn't have to be dinner and a movie. Cupid is here to help you think outside the box for your next date night:

1. Something you'd never do: If you're like most couples, there is probably something your partner loves to do that you really don't care for. Whether it's horseback riding, sports, or shopping, plan a day of that activity. Your partner will be impressed that you went out of your way and out of your comfort zone, to do something they really love.

2. Adventures close to home: Wherever you live, especially if it's in the U.S., there is a good chance that there is a park near to where you live that you've never visited. State parks in the U.S. range from beach to mountain depending on where you live, and they normally don't cost more than ten dollars. Find a place close to home that you've never been to and make a date. And, if the outdoors isn't your thing, search for an indoor rock climbing facility or even take a dance class. The definition of adventure will vary by couple.

Celebrity News: Iggy Azalea Sets Record Straight About Moving Out of Nick Young's House

By Nicole Caico

Iggy Azalea used Twitter as her platform to shut down rumors about the end of her celebrity relationship with NBA player

Nick Young. The celebrity couple had gotten engaged in June 2015, but, as UsMagazine.com reports, an alleged cheating scandal exposed by Young's NBA teammate D'Angelo Russell earlier this year has driven them apart. Recently, pictures of the L.A. home Azalea lives in have shown a car being towed and locks being changed. On Twitter, Azalea made it clear that she was not behind this, saying, "I never had anyone's car towed nor did I kick nick out of 'my' house. The home belongs to nick, I am the one moving. Thanks."

This celebrity news has us holding our breath a bit. What are three ways to completely detach yourself from your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

After a messy split, two people want nothing to do with each other. The most important thing to do after getting out of a long relationship is to distance yourself from the other person. Detaching yourself from your ex may be difficult, but it's necessary. Cupid has some tips:

1. Social media detox: In this day and age, you can do everything to cut ties with an ex, but if you don't remove them on social media, they'll be popping up forever. Delete traces of the relationship from your own pages and unfriend them on all of your accounts.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Taylor Swift Caught Kissing Tom Hiddleston Two Weeks After Split

2. Cut off communication: If you're finding yourself wanting to text your ex, take the extra step to delete the contact in your phone. If you don't have your ex's number, you can't contact them—simple, yet effective. Then if they contact you at some point, you'll seem totally over it when you reply, "Who's this?"

3. Material things: Whether you live in your ex's house or have photos and gifts all over your apartment, make a change. If you lived together you'll definitely have to move out, and if you live on your own, take some time to find things from your ex and clean them out of your space. If you're a very sentimental person and can't bear to throw the items away, at least pack up the gifts and photos into a box and stow them away. Out of sight, out of mind.

Celebrity Couple Iggy Azalea & Nick Young Call it Quits

By Stephanie Sacco

Iggy Azalea and Nick Young have called off their engagement. This celebrity couple have had their ups and downs, including a recent cheating scandal on Young's part. According to UsMagazine.com, it didn't start off well for this pair. Azalea told The Daily Telegraph, "[We'd met] a few years prior to that, and I didn't know and I hated him." She continued, saying, "I thought he was an a-hole." In celebrity news, things were looking up when Young proposed to Azalea on his 30th birthday with a fancy ring! Unfortunately, she had to postpone the wedding while she was touring. Then came the cheating scandal where Azalea lost all trust in her man, and the now celebrity exes have called it quits for good.

This celebrity couple is no more. What are some ways to re-establish trust when it's lost?

Cupid's Advice:

Trusting a person is hard enough, but when they break that trust, it's a long road to trusting them again. Cheating especially causes a rift in a relationship. Cupid is here to help:

1. Honesty: If you aren't being loyal, the least you can do is admit your faults and come clean. Even if you do something wrong or hurt your partner, there has to be open and honest communication. When you lose that kind of connection, there's no going back.

2. Slowly let them back in: Don't go telling them your secrets and true feelings until you feel like they've earned it. Backtrack into the relationship as if you're starting fresh. Never forgive and forget.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Calvin Harris Unfollows Taylor Swift on Social Media

3. Don't gloss over it: It's a big deal if your partner is unfaithful or has done something untrustworthy. You can't just ignore the fact that the trust between you is gone. Tell them how it really made you feel and that they're walking on thin ice, if that.

'Bachelorette' Villain Chad Johnson Defends Bad Behavior

By Stephanie Sacco

One of the biggest villains in the history of The Bachelorette came from JoJo Fletcher's season. Chad Johnson, the luxury realtor and nobody's favorite housemate, had something mean to say about just about everyone in the house. He also threatened one or two of them. However, according to UsMagazine.com he told Jimmy Kimmel post-elimination, "At the end of the day, it is a show so things are amplified. We try to be ourselves and we try to be who we are, but at the same time, whoever you are is amplified up about a million times." In celebrity news and gossip, Johnson has been seen with an ex of one of his fellow competitors, Robby Hayes.

He'll be sure to start some trouble this August when he appears on Bachelor in Paradise. We'll have to wait and see.

This celebrity news has us skeptical about Chad's sincerity. What are some benefits to avoiding the bad boy?

Cupid's Advice:

The idea of a bad boy is always better than the reality. You see them in movies and books and believe that deep down they have a soft spot. Cupid is here to set the record straight:

1. Nice guys finish first: Bad boys might look nice (think James Dean), but deep down they may not always be the right guy. If you're looking for fun and no commitment, maybe you'll find that in a bad boy. However, most of the time it's just trouble. A nice guy will always treat you well.

2. Less heartbreak: A bad boy doesn't always stick around, and you need somebody who isn't going to break your heart (at least not on purpose). Find a guy who is all about you and who won't let you down. Don't settle for anything less than the best.

3. They're immature: Wearing a leather jacket or riding a motorbike isn't cool forever. After a while, it just gets old. There's nothing cool about being treated badly, and if your bad boy isn't respecting you, kick him to the curb.

By Nicole Caico

In the latest celebrity news, this past Saturday Khloe Kardashian took to Instagram to share some wise words that may or may not have had to do with her celebrity divorce from Lamar Odom. According to UsMagazine.com, Khloe refiled for divorce in May, and has kicked Odom out of the California home she leased for him during his recovery. A portion of her post, that was later deleted, read, “We often take for granted the very things that deserve our gratitude the most. We do this with both people and material possessions. The problem is many people do not realize this until it’s too late.”

In celebrity news, these celebrity exes are heading for divorce. What are some ways to appreciate a past relationship in the midst of a split?

Cupid’s Advice:

Whether it’s a break up or divorce, things can get pretty messy in the midst of a split. When the end of a relationship is upon you it’s easy to dwell on the sad or frustrating aspects of the situation, but it will serve you much better to make an attempt to reminisce on good times:

1. Walk down memory lane: Take time to indulge in the memories from your relationship. Look at old pictures and ticket stubs and realize that even though the relationship is ending it was fun while it lasted. Taking time to remember the good things may give you a better chance of having a peaceful split and a better chance of moving on more quickly after.

2. Say it out loud: If your split is friendly enough, reminisce with your soon to be ex. There is nothing better for the both of you than to sit down and talk about the good parts of your relationship. Leave each other happy and walk away knowing you both felt good about the relationship and the split.

On Sunday, Rose posted a picture of Khalifa and their 3-year-old son, Sebastian, for Father's Day. In her caption, praising Khalifa's parenting, she wrote, "Happy Father's Day to Sebastian's Dad @mistercap Thee most Awesomest Dad in the World!!! (Besides my Daddy). According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple filed for divorce in 2014 after just over a year of marriage, but have always maintained a good relationship.

This celebrity news has us realizing there are some good ex relationships in Hollywood after all. What are three ways to show appreciation for your child's parent?

Cupid's Advice:

Staying friendly after a divorce is not an easy feat, but if you have children, it's ideal. Co-parenting makes everyone's lives easier, parents' and children' alike. There are many ways to show appreciation for the parent of your child:

1. Hold up your end: Some divorces result in more rules and regulations than others. However it plays out, be sure to fulfill your responsibilities. Contribute the money you're supposed to, and follow the schedule to a tee. Strictly sticking to the conditions of your divorce will show respect to the parent of your child, and prevent additional issues.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Calvin Harris Unfollows Taylor Swift on Social Media

2. Do a favor: Parenting is difficult; that is a universal fact. If you see the parent of your child struggling with something and you're in a position where you can help out, do it. Doing a favor for the parent of your child will help everyone involved in the long run. Just because you're no longer married doesn't mean it is right to sit back and watch your ex flounder when you can help.

Related Link: Khloe Kardashian Looks Forward to Having Kids Post Celebrity Divorce from Lamar Odom

3. Say "thank you": It's basic, but it works. Thank the parent of your child for being on time, for being a good parent to your kid, and for trying. There is no easier way to show your appreciation than to thank them.

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups are never fun. And, seeing your ex move on before you do can sometimes be painful. Cupid is here to help you cope:

1. Reflection: Your relationship is over now. Take some time to think about why that is. Reflect on what made you and your ex break up in the first place. Analyzing what went wrong while you were together can help you avoid repeating the mistakes that made your spark fizzle out.

Related Link: Khloe Kardashian Looks Forward to Having Kids Post Celebrity Divorce from Lamar Odom

2. Keep busy: Depending on how long you were in a relationship, you can find yourself feeling a bit lonely after your breakup. Don't dwell on the negatives! Cupid's Advice:

While it doesn't seem that any woman from the Kardashian/Jenner family is currently dating French Montana, never say never. Falling for the ex-flame or current crush of a friend or sibling tends cause issues, but in some cases can't be helped. Before you go falling for the same person as a friend or sibling, think about it:

1. This relationship will hurt your friend/sibling: Even when a friend or sibling plays it cool about you crushing on the same person they are or have in the past, they're most likely not okay with it. If you're crushing on the same person, chances are your jealous and competitive sides will be on full display. Think about the importance of your relationship with your friend or sibling, and realize that pursuing this romantic relationship will hurt the relationship you already have with your them. Chances are the crush isn't worth it.

2. History repeats itself: If you're crushing on the ex of a friend or sibling, do some research on the reason they broke up. If the person treated your friend or sibling badly at the end of their relationship, that should warn you to stay away.

3. Girl code: It can be as simple as this—who saw the person first? If your friend or sibling was crushing first, you should have the courtesy to back out. In situations like this, it's important to be open with your friend or sibling so you're on the same page and can avoid fights.

It would seem that specialized dating websites are no longer the only tool for making a connection online. In an unlikely series of events, the photo sharing app, Instagram, brought Kansas and Natiece together. “Well, when I saw her, she had posted something sad,” Kansas said regarding their first online encounter. “When I see people post sad things I just let them know that if they need someone to talk to, they can talk to me. And she wanted to talk, so that’s what happened.” Their initial interactions were platonic. Kansas helped Natiece get through a break-up she was going through, and as time went on, the pair eventually found themselves in a relationship.

Kansas, who also happens to be a Kansas state native, wasn’t worried about meeting the North Carolina basketball star. She admits that she was more concerned about whether or not she could fulfill Natiece’s expectations. In regard to her first reality TV appearance, Kansas said, “It was fun in a sense.” However, at the same time, she was there to meet Natiece and get to know her better. “We had stuff that we wanted to talk about, and it kind of felt like we were talking to everybody.” Despite the cameras following their journey, Kansas expresses gratitude at having an opportunity to share her story.

As seen in past episodes of Virtually in Love, the couples aren’t only meeting each other for the first time, but they are also facing their issues head on. Online video teasers released by Oxygen show that Kansas and Natiece have been keeping secrets from each other. For instance, Natiece refrains from telling Kansas that she was engaged before and still holds on to her ring. Also, Kansas doesn't tell Natiece that she had been seeing someone else for a time, while also keeping her relationship with Natiece a secret from her mother. To shed some light on her actions, Kansas explained, saying, "I didn't know what to expect, that's why I wasn't really ready to say anything." Pertaining to the situation that involved her mother, who doesn't approve of same-sex relationships, Kansas said, "I thought it'd be better to have [Natiece] there." Kansas went on to say that having Natiece present when she talked to her mother would force her to tell the truth about her sexuality.

When asked whether or not a long distance relationship impacted her views positively or negatively, Kansas said that her experience has been both. "I've had, with dating online, good experiences and bad experiences. I think it could be very similar to dating someone in real life, except they're not there." Additionally, Kansas expresses her sadness at the tragedy that unfolded in Orlando this past week at the Pulse nightclub. "It didn't just affect the victims and their families; I feel that it affected the whole United States." Kansas also went on to express that she believes the world needs to stop hating and start loving. "We just got to figure out where to start."

After her experience on the show, Kansas stresses honesty as the best policy, but of course online daters need to do their research to avoid instances like catfishing. "Be yourself," she advised. "If you start off being yourself there won't be any surprises.”

By Nicole Caico

Former Bachelorette, Desiree Hartsock, has a new book out that is full of wedding planning tips. In her book, My Fairytale Wedding, Hartsock promises to help brides achieve their own fairytale weddings “without breaking the bank.” According to a celebrity interview for UsMagazine.com, Hartsock spoke about wedding planning, saying, “It’s very stressful and a lot of people don’t realize how stressful it is.” She had her own celebrity wedding in January 2015 and now brides everywhere can get Hartsock’s wedding planning advice.

This Bachelorette alum already planned her own celebrity wedding! What are three important wedding tips to keep in mind as you plan your nuptials?

Cupid’s Advice:

Hartsock is definitely right on this one. Couples spend thousands and thousands of dollars on their weddings, but creating the same experience for much less money is possible. Whether you're financially splurging or trying to save money where you can, there are always things to keep in mind during your wedding planning:

1. Keep your eyes on the prize: As Hartsock says, wedding planning can be stressful. It's important to remember during the planning process what you're really planning for. Don't get so stressed out that you fight with your betrothed on a daily basis. The reason your wedding is happening is because you love each other. You also want to remember that the wedding is about your love not how much you spent on flowers and impressing your guests.

2. A little piece of you: A surefire way to make your wedding special on a big or small budget is to include personalized aspects in the ceremony and the reception. Talk to your parents or in-laws and see if there is anything from their weddings that you might be able to incorporate for your own—from the actual gown, to a piece of jewelry or a recreation of the bouquet. When planning, remember that you can personalize any part of your wedding, there is no real wedding rule book. Get creative with invitations, decorations, or your wedding cake.

3. Looks aren't everything: What is most important to keep in mind during wedding planning is that as long as you and your fiancé feel good about the plan, that's all that matters. Whether you're writing your own vows and DIY-ing your decorations, or reserving a luxurious reception hall and covering every inch of it in flowers, your wedding should reflect you as a couple and make you happy on your special day.

This celebrity divorce has been a long time coming. How do you know when it's time to pull the plug on your marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Not all relationships work out, celebrity relationships and normal relationships alike. It is important to know when to call it quits, whether that means a break up or a divorce. Cupid has some tips:

1. Try and try again: If you both know that you've tried over and over to fix issues in your relationship, anything ranging from money to friends to communication, and nothing is getting better it may be time to consider a split. If a true effort was made and no positive changes came out of it, that is just foreshadowing for how the rest of the marriage will go.

2. Trust issues: If you have any reason to believe that your other half is cheating, that needs to be investigated. If your husband or wife cheats on you, that may be your cue to walk out the door. Such a severe break in trust may mean the end for your marriage.

3. No laughing matter: If your husband or wife develops an issue too serious to handle, you may need to consider divorce. A drug or drinking addiction, or violent/abusive behavior, may be something that is too big for you to handle. If the issues of your husband or wife become dangerous to you, pulling the plug on your marriage may be in your best interest.

Being in a relationship with someone who has anxiety takes a bit of extra work and consideration. Gigi Hadid made sure to show her support on Twitter, and there are other ways to show support for a significant other with anxiety as well:

1. Patience: The most basic, but possibly most effective, way to support your anxious significant other is to be patient. Anxiety attacks can happen anywhere at any time, and nothing could make an attack worse than being criticized for needing some time to calm down.

2. Get a better understanding: Take time to learn if there are certain things that trigger your significant other's anxiety. Taking time to understand your partner's anxiety will make your significant other feel supported and loved.

3. Acknowledge their struggle: Anxiety is not the only mental challenge out there. Whether it is anxiety, depression, OCD, or any other challenge your partner may face, these steps apply. No new celebrity couple this time around! What are some ways to keep rumors about the status of your relationship on the DL?

Even if you aren't dating somebody, the rumors could still fly. People talk regardless of the status of a relationship and whether it's a friendship or a partnership, it's not safe from rumors. Cupid is here to help:

1. Confirm it: If someone asks you about the status of your relationship, tell the truth. Don't let the gossip weigh you down, but turn it around! Spread the word so that everybody gets their facts straight.

3. Embrace it: Take it as a compliment that people are interested in your love life. If they aren't being nasty about it, it's harmless fun. When the gossip is cruel, that's when you need to consider their insecurities and see that it's not your fault or problem that they're involving themselves.
