Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes love is not enough to keep a marriage going strong. If you are wondering if it is time to let go, here are some signs to look out for:

1. Loss of respect: One of the most important parts of a relationship is mutual respect. When respect for one another is lost, there is no reason for either partner to have interest in trying to get back to a healthy place. An environment lacking respect is a toxic situation that is susceptible to chaos and turmoil. Take time to see if there is a lack of respect between you and your partner, and address it if there is.

Celebrity Interview: Blake Cooper Griffin Gives Relationship Advice & Says, “Don’t Be Reckless With Other People’s Hearts”

By Rebecca White

From the small screen to the big screen, actor Blake Cooper Griffin has garnered success through diverse roles in shows like 90210 and JESSIE and Hollywood films including Ride and Life of a King. His new film Love Is All You Need challenges societal norms and showcases a world where homosexuality is accepted and heterosexuality is bullied. In our exclusive celebrity interview, the energetic and charming actor talks about his new film, the #OscarsSoWhite controversy, and his best relationship advice.

Blake Cooper Griffin Opens Up About New Movie

The modern day Romeo and Juliet, Love Is All You Need is a tale of star-crossed lovers, Ryan and Jude, who fall in love in a world where being gay is the norm and being straight, like they are, is looked down upon. Although Griffin plays the antagonist and is not the most likable character, he says the script was innovative and featured a fascinating concept that he had never seen before. “When you take the universal story of falling in love, on top of the flipping of the worlds, and combine all of the talented people I worked with, it turns into a dynamite movie,” he says.

The film is inspired by true events, and each person involved with the movie had a mission to tell a story that would change people’s lives. In order to prepare for a dynamic and complex role like Bill Bradley, Griffin did a lot of research including reading articles and watching videos. “I didn’t want to play a stereotype or archetype of a bully,” he explains. “I wanted to play it truthfully and figure out why somebody would have these hateful feelings for another person.”

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: ‘Newlyweds: The First Year’ Stars Talk Love & Celebrity Relationship Struggles

But it wasn’t entirely imagination that helped the actor prepare for his role. “I certainly, like most people, have had situations in my life where I was excluded,” he shares. As a child, his family moved around a lot, and he was often “the new kid” in school. “I knew what it was like to be cast out and not have someone to sit with at lunch,” he reveals in our celebrity interview. So when he saw someone being bullied, he would always try to stick up for the other kids. “I would encourage people to do the same because instances of bullying goes down when people say something,” he adds.

Although he plays the bad guy, Griffin says that he does share similarities with his character. “He’s very passionate; he’s a perfectionist; and he has a lot of energy,” the star says. “Unfortunately, Bill is putting all of his energy behind something I wouldn’t, but I connected with him on those levels, which is important.” The actor says he never judges where a character is coming from; instead, he focuses on finding the truth. The antagonist of a film is usually coming from a complex place because there is some conflict within that is leading them to take another route. “It is essential for the story that the character be played truthfully so people can learn from it,” he says. “We have to ask ourselves why Bill Bradley is taking the action he’s taking. He is told by some extreme forces in the world about intolerance and hate, and those forces exist in our world too.”

Love Is All You Need shows people how to resist that negativity and recognize that everyone wants to live their life being who they are without persecution. “If love is your guide, you can’t go wrong,” he says. “When we divide each other, that’s when we fail. But when we come together, that’s when we do great things.”

While the movie tackles some serious societal issues, that doesn’t mean the cast and crew didn’t have a blast making the film. Griffin and co-star Emily Osment had Pop Tart eating competitions, while he and Briana Evigan would play basketball during the night shoots. “I’m closer to this cast than I have been with any other cast I’ve worked with,” Griffin says. “We all became a family.”

Celebrity Interview: Young Actor Discusses #OscarsSoWhite and Diversity in Film

Love Is All You Need directly addresses current controversies of discrimination and diversity. Recently, Hollywood has been under scrutiny since #OscarsSoWhite started trending. In 2016, only white actors and actresses were among the chosen few in the top four categories, for the second year in a row. Griffin believes that Hollywood directors need to seek out a diverse cast in their films. "We're telling stories about the world, and the world is diverse, so the stories we tell should be just as diverse," he says.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Gwen Stefani Wears Sheer Dress with Blake Shelton at Oscars After-Party

This message of diversity and the apparent discrimination is showcased in the new film as well. "No matter the difference, we're all human beings, and we're all a part of the same human story," the actor shares. "We can all connect on that. There's no need to say us versus them."

Whether it be sexuality, race, or even religion, the film promotes tolerance, love, and respect. "Extremism in any form can be harmful," Griffin says. "The movies calls out the misuse of religion to divide people." It's also important to note that the film displays characters finding refuge in their faith, which leaves the audience to ask themselves which is more appropriate and which is the more loving way to approach faith.

Love Is All You Need* Star Shares

Relationship Advice

Of course, the main theme of the new film is love, and the star says there's something to be learned from watching fictional characters on-screen. "The message of any love story you watch is that we all want love," he says. "People need to take that seriously and not be reckless with other people's hearts. Everyone has a desire to be loved, and we should treat that with respect." In particular, with Love Is All You Need, viewers witness a couple deal with the heartache of not being accepted by their parents and peers. If this happens to you, Griffins love advice is to have courage. "You deserve to love whomever you choose, and if anyone tells you differently, that comes from their own fear and their own problems," he says.

In his personal life, the famous actor avoids relationship problems by seeking out someone who is loyal, has a sense of humor, and is trustworthy. "I have a rule for myself," Griffin says. "I try to control what I can and let the rest go." Although love isn't easy, at the end of our lives, we will remember those we love over anything else. "I would encourage people to hold that idea in mind and know that the experience of loving another person is one of the greatest experiences one can have."

Now that Love Is All You Need continues to be released in select film festivals and theatres, the busy actor is finishing up his next project, romantic comedy Before You Say I Do. You can also catch him on an upcoming episode of House of Lies on Showtime.

This celebrity news is eye opening for many reasons. What are some ways to help your partner heal from a tragedy in their past?

Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity news is truly tragic yet presents room for some relationship advice and some love advice. When you are in a relationship, your partner could have gone through something tragic in the past that still might bother them present day. Here is some relationship advice and some love advice that will help your partner heal from a tragedy in their past:

1. Ask them to talk about it: Let your partner know that you are always willing to listen to their past, including their tragedies. Talking about it with them will allow them to not only vent, but it's a healing process. Sometimes when we go through certain issues, we just want someone to talk it out with. Listening is key!

2. Seek counseling: Do not be afraid of going to counseling with your partner. Going to counseling together does not mean that your relationship is terrible. Celebrity News: A Tale of Two I Love You(s) on 'The Bachelor'

By Emily Hoff

In celebrity news, it was a tale of two “I love you(s)” as Bachelor Ben told two ladies that he loved them last night. Which, giving my own personal relationship advice, is a horrible thing to do. Ben Higgins and the final three ladies Caila, Lauren B. and JoJo all headed to beautiful Jamaica. The ladies had a chance to have an overnight date, but of course this left two ladies hopeful and one lady heartbroken. With only a couple of episodes left on the reality TV show, Ben has to make up his mind about who he wants to be his wife, and this episode really showed viewers who he could really pick.

Celebrity News: Ben Higgins Chooses the Final Two On ‘The Bachelor’

According to celebrity news, Ben had three overnight dates with the final three ladies in Jamaica. Caila, Lauren B. and JoJo all told Ben that they love him, however he only returned the sentiment with Lauren B. and JoJo. Even though he doesn’t tell Caila he loves her, she says she just knows that he does.

Ben starts to think about how to tell Caila that he doesn't love her. Then out of nowhere she surprises him and asks him to hang out. Ben is so shocked to see Caila there, but he realizes he has to tell her that he doesn't love her, so that is exactly what he does. Caila is shocked and while she is in the car about to go back to the hotel, she jumps out of the car to ask Ben some questions. She gets her answers, which is basically that Ben doesn't love her, but really cares about her. She jumps back in the car and cries her way home. At the rose ceremony Lauren B. and JoJo are the only two left. They wonder where Caila is, however when Ben comes to the rose ceremony he explains to the ladies that he let Caila go, and they are the last two ladies left, meaning that Ben will propose to Lauren B., JoJo, or be a single man once again. Next week the women tell all before The Bachelor and we can't wait to see what that episode has to bring.

Now for Stay or Go:

Lauren B.: I've been saying since the beginning that I think Ben has had the most chemistry with her and it really showed in last night's episode.

Stay or Go: Stay, which means the final rose for Lauren B.!

JoJo: I think Ben and JoJo have great chemistry, but her family caused too many problems for the hometown date.

Celebrity News: Kylie Jenner & Kourtney Kardashian Hang with Rob's Ex

By Jessica DeRubbo

Apparently there are no hard feelings in the mix with this scenario! According to UsMagazine.com, Kylie Jenner and Kourtney Kardashian were recently spotted hanging with Rob Kardashian's ex girlfriend, Adrienne Bailon. This celebrity news comes on the heels of Kylie's Instagram post picturing the three girls, with the caption, "Cause we are sistersss." Celebrity exes Rob Kardashian and Bailon dated for two years, from 2007 to 2009, when their celebrity relationship ended. In a 2010 episode of Keeping Up with the Kardashians, Kardashian admitted he was unfaithful to Bailon. Apparently Bailon doesn't have hold that against Rob's two sisters!

This celebrity news comes amidst a lot of Rob Kardashian happenings lately. How do you know whether you can be friends with your family member's ex or not?

Cupid's Advice:

It's a dicey situation when it comes to your family and their exes. If you're on the fence about whether it's okay for you to keep a connection with your family member's ex, Cupid has some tips:

1. Time since the split: If it's been a long time since the break-up occurred, your family member has probably had plenty of a chance to cope. The best way to find out if that coping period is over is to simply ask. You probably know your family member well enough to detect if there's any hesitation in his or her answer whatsoever. If they seem okay about it, then go for it.

2. The reason for the break-up: If the reason for the break-up is that the relationship simply ran its course and it was a mutual parting, you're probably more okay keeping contact with your family member's ex than if something horrific happened at the end of the relationship, like a cheating scandal. Definitely consider the facts before making a decision.

3. How “over it” your family member is: It’s not necessarily all about time. Your family member may have good reason to be completely and utterly over the relationship he or she was in. It may have only been a month, but your brother or sister has already moved on to greener pastures. If they’re over it, they shouldn’t have an issue with you continuing to remain friends with their ex.

Cupid's Advice:

We all hope to find true love one day, especially after experiencing a tragedy. There are going to be times where love is not going to work out the way we hope. Unfortunately, this happens to many people more frequently than desired. However, you should always remember that there is somebody out there for everybody, and it's the matter of patiently waiting your turn. Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Are you happy by yourself?: This means, are you happy without the addition of someone else in your life? One should be able to enjoy their life as an individual before dating. This allows you to open your heart to other possibilities instead of trying to fill an empty hole in your heart by using someone else.

Celebrity News: Meet the

Families on 'The Bachelor'

By Emily Hoff

In the latest celebrity news, it was meet the family week on The Bachelor. Ben Higgins visited the ladies hometowns and met the most important people in the ladies lives. Of course the families gave a lot of relationship advice, and some were even skeptical of Ben. However, the girls ended the episode saying they knew they were in love with him and wanted to express their love to him.

Celebrity News: Meet the Families on 'The Bachelor'

This week, in reality TV, Ben went to Laguna Beach to see

Amanda's hometown and met her two beautiful daughters. He also got to see the girls throw a few temper tantrums. Amanda's family was concerned about Ben being a dad right away and to be honest, Ben is a little worried too. Then, he went to visit Lauren B's hometown which is Portland, Oregon. She took Ben to a few local food trucks and a whiskey library. Lauren feels like she's falling in love with Ben, but wants her family's approval first before saying anything. Her sister is skeptical, but it seems like the family won't be an issue.

Ben then goes and visits Caila in Hudson Ohio. Caila also feels like she is falling in love with Ben and wants to tell him but decides against it. JoJo's meet the family had an interesting start. Her ex showed up and gave her roses and a letter to tell her that he still loves her. She tells her ex that she is done with him, then ends up talking to Ben about it. Ben is a little worried, saying that past relationships with girls are always something to worry about it. With JoJo's family, her brothers are worried about Ben and don't want her to get hurt. In celebrity news, Amanda is sent home this week in the rose ceremony and Ben even tears up when she's leaving. So who do we think will stay or go this week?

you both may be, you'll still be looking up at the same sky. Some relationships are worth weathering the storm. Cupid is here to share some ways to handle the separation:

1. Constant communication: With the technological advancements nowadays, texting, video chatting, and phone calls can make the mile radius dramatically decrease. Keep your partner in the loop with everything going on in your life, however mundane it may seem.

By Emily Hoff

In celebrity news, former celebrity couple Ben Affleck and Jennifer Garner and current couple Tom Brady and Gisele Bündchen were spotted vacationing together in Big Sky Montana on February 15th, according to UsMagazine.com. The group went skiing at one of the Yellowstone Clubs where they enjoyed drinks and nachos. In past celebrity relationship news, Affleck had a fling with Christine Ouzonian, Ben Affleck and Jennifer Garner's nanny. Many people think that Ouzonian contributed to the celebrity divorce.

This former celebrity couple isn't letting their split affect their family life! What are some ways to keep your family life strong after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

1. Communicate: Good communication is key to anything in life. You need to communicate to your family what is going on. Communicate especially if there are kids involved. A split can cause a lack of communication, but it is vital, especially if you want to keep a strong family unit.

2. Be open about how you are feeling: If you are the one going through the divorce, communicate with your friends, family, or ex-spouse, how you are feeling. Celebrity News: Gwen Stefani Says She's 'Only Had Two Boyfriends'

By Jessica DeRubbo

In latest celebrity news, it turns out that Gwen Stefani doesn't have a type, because, well, she's only had two boyfriends, ever! According to UsMagazine.com, Stefani said, "You know I've only had two boyfriends, right? So I'm not like – when you say that, it just sounds funny. It’s just so limited. No, I do not [have a type]. That’s a funny question. I’m gonna just stop right there.” Blake Shelton’s current love was in a celebrity relationship with and married to Gavin Rossdale for 13 years (whom she apparently doesn’t count as one of her two boyfriends). Prior to both Shelton and Rossdale, she dated her bandmate Tony Kanal for seven years.

This celebrity news is pretty surprising! How do you know when you’ve begun dating around too much?

Cupid’s Advice:

There are definitely merits to playing the field, but then again, too much of a good thing doesn’t usually turn out positively. Cupid has some signs that you’ve been dating around too much:

1. You can’t name your last three dates: If you’re having a hard time remembering who you last went on a date with, and who was before that, and who was before that, you might have an over-dating problem. If you’re looking for a relationship and aren’t just dating around to date around, consider taking things a little bit more slowly and trying to get to know your dates prior to going out with them.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Are Gwen Stefani and Blake Shelton More Than Friends?

2. Kissing has begun to lose its meaning: At the end of most of your dates, you’re no doubt giving them a kiss goodbye, if there’s at least a little spark of attraction there. If this is just run of the mill for you and no big deal, then it’s probably time to take a step back and reassess your dating life. Kissing should be meaningful!

3. He never called, and you didn't notice: If, after a date, someone doesn't call you, usually you're hyper aware of that. If you don't even notice, that's a bad sign! It means you're not invested in the dates you go on and you're just playing the field for no reason. Consider pumping some feeling back into the game!
