Amy Duggar's parents are divorcing, though their celebrity relationship has been on/off for quite some time. This celebrity news came as a shock to Amy. According to UsMagazine.com, her father broke the news via text message on Christmas day. Luckily, Duggar's celebrity love, Dillon King, has really been there for her during this time.

This celebrity news is definitely not uplifting. What are some ways to announce your divorce to friends and family?

Cupid's Advice:

Divorce can always be a sticky situation. It can be even harder to tell your friends and family about it. Cupid has some advice on the best ways to announce your divorce to friends and family:

1. Dinner: Ask your closest family and friends to go out to dinner with you. There you can let them know what is going on in your life and have a nice talk about the divorce and your plans.

Celebrity News: Ben Affleck & Jennifer Garner Have 'Cordial Relationship'

By Dejha

Carlisle

In the latest celebrity news, former celebrity couple Ben Affleck and Jennifer Garner have decided to remain cordial, if only for the sake of their children, according to a source. The pair has the option to opt out of seeing each other unless necessary, but they spent their Christmas together on the same property. Affleck has no problem with residing in the guest cottage on their 3-acre property, though it's a less than ideal situation. The kids are pretty content about the living situation, and sources from UsMagazine.com says everyone is happy this way. This celebrity news is humbling, but it shows how even famous divorced couples can get along.

This celebrity news is disheartening for fans. What are some ways to stay cordial with your ex for your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Keeping the little ones in mind is a very important thing to consider when you've recently had a split. Cupid has a few ways to help you remain cordial:

1. Give it time: The best way to deal with a split is to give it space and time. Your kids need the time to let the divorce sink in, and by doing this you can help them understand that you are all still a family.

By

Jessica DeRubbo

In latest celebrity news, The Bachelor prepares to premiere on January 4th. In the meantime, we're soaking up every last piece of information about the season as we can. What are Bachelor Ben Higgins' hopes for the end of the season? "Ideally, I would love to walk away from this with a fiancée," he said. "I'm excited about that next step of seeing her walk down the aisle towards me." With that kind of attitude, this season is sure not to disappoint longtime fans! Maybe we'll have a new married celebrity couple on our hands.

In latest celebrity news, we're so excited about the new season of The Bachelor! How do you know when you've found the love of your life?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be tough to know when you've found the person you want to spend the rest of your life with. How do you know there's not someone better out there for you? Cupid has some relationship advice:

1. You can't live without them: If you can't imagine your life with your partner, that's a good sign that he or she is "the one." Think about never seeing them again. Does this cause you some major depression? If so, save yourself the depression and commit.

By

Jessica DeRubbo

Best known for her role in Crouching Tiger, Hidden

Dragon, Zhang Ziyi welcomed her first celebrity baby with rocker husband Wang Feng, according to UsMagazine.com. The celebrity couple posted a photo to her Weibo, a Chinese social media site, that depicts her hand and her husband hand holding their daughter's tiny fingers. Though this is Ziyi's first child, it is the third child for Feng, who shares two daughters with his ex-wives.

News of the birth of celebrity babies is always welcome! What are some ways to balance your love life with your family life?

Cupid's Advice:

It's easy to get wrapped up in your baby's life so much that you forget about your relationship. Cupid has some tips:

1. Schedule a date night: If you're so busy that it's not realistic to naturally come up with some quality time with your partner, then schedule it ... at least for now. That way you'll have time for just the two of you to reconnect and keep the spark alive.

According to UsMagazine.com, Penn is currently suing Empire creator Lee Daniels for defamation after he alleged that Penn is abusive toward women while defending Terrence Howard during an interview with the Hollywood Reporter. In a new declaration submitted via Penn's amended lawsuit, Madonna denies all reports of abuse, calling them "outrageous, reckless, and false."

This celebrity news show that past love dies hard. What are some reasons to stay in contact with an ex partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Just because you break it off with someone, celebrity couple or not, that doesn't mean it makes sense to cut all ties with them. Cupid has some relationship advice:

1. Networking: If your partner has been a big part of your career, then it may not make sense to cut ties with them. You can keep things professional civil without being emotionally invested.

Related Link: Celebrity Families: Stars Who Have Adopted Children

2. You're close friends first: Sometimes it may not be possible to get past the hurt of a break-up, but other times it's possible to remain friends. There's no reason to throw away a good friendship if it doesn't hurt you emotionally, so make sure you know what you're throwing away before you make a concrete decision.

Celebrity News: Khloe Kardashian Responds to Criticism About James Harden's NBA Season

By

Jessica DeRubbo

In latest celebrity news, Khloe Kardashian is pissed, and she's speaking out about it. The Keeping Up With the Kardashians star gave her feedback during a live chat on her website Thursday, according to UsMagazine.com. Apparently there are haters out there saying that Kardashian is the reason her boyfriend James Harden isn't having a good NBA season. "Someone's giving me too much power," she said, among other more vulgar things during a pretty aggressive rant. This celebrity couple is still going strong and sticking together!

This celebrity news isn't surprising, given that Kardashians seem to be prone to drama. What are some ways to show support for your partner amid criticism?

Cupid's Advice:

It's important to stand up for your partner when he or she has been wronged, but there are ways to do it that won't rub people the wrong way. Cupid has some relationship advice:

1. Speak with actions instead of words: This is by no means an original idea, but it's worth mentioning. It can be easy to lose your cool and lash out with your words when you're mad about something that's happening to your significant other. Consider showing your support instead of causing that kind of drama. If your partner is under fire at work, attend work functions with him or her and praise his or her accomplishments to those you meet.

Celebrity News: Jennifer Lawrence Almost Asked Seth Meyers Out When He Was Engaged

By

Jessica DeRubbo

According to UsMagazine.com, Jennifer Lawrence recently revealed an interesting piece of celebrity news on Late Night with Seth Meyers. She admitted that when she hosted SNL several years ago, a crush she had reached its peak ... and that crush was on Seth Meyers himself. Though they never became a celebrity couple, Lawrence reminisced about how it all went down. "I had this whole plan. I was going to ask you out," she said. "I started – thank God – I talked to the wardrobe lady about it. I was like, 'I'm going to ask Seth Meyers out. I'm going to give him my number.' And she was like, 'Honey, he's engaged.'"

This celebrity news tickles our funny bones! What are some ways to know if your crush is currently involved with someone else?

Cupid's Advice:

There's nothing worse than having a crush on someone who is already otherwise involved with someone else. Cupid has some tell tale signs your crush isn't up for grabs:

1. He's standoffish: Obviously being standoffish can mean more than one thing, but if you know he's a friendly guy and he shies away a little when you try to flirt with him, that's a red flag. At that point, you should probably ask around to those close to him to see if he's got a significant other or at least a love interest already.

Switching career paths can definitely be difficult. Williams advice for anyone wanting to branch into something new would be “you only live once, so push yourself through it.” He agrees that in this day and age, professionals need to be able to do everything, not just what their job description entails. “You need to explore all facets of your abilities,” he says. “Don’t be scared. Take the leap of faith and your work ethic will proceed you.” And yes, there may be challenges with the transition. “I don’t see them as difficulties, but more as experiences and challenges,” says Williams. “Performing on-stage and performing for the camera are different and each comes with its own challenges, but I like challenges.” While difficulties aren’t always something to shy away from, there’s no doubt there are certain fears and anxieties that come along with them.

However, Williams says there wasn't much anxiety for him when signing on to this particular project. "Truth be told I didn't really know what I was getting into," he says. It wasn't until he started auditioning that he realized Moira Walley-Beckett was the writer of the series, the same writer and producer of the top rated hit show Breaking Bad. It wasn't until the dance portion of his audition among some of the best dancers in New York City with cameras recording the whole thing that the aspiring actor realized what a big deal and opportunity he was immersing himself in.

This opportunity worked out in the dancer's favor, as he landed the role of Trey, a trendy, feisty, free spirit in the ballet world. "Trey and I are completely different," he says. "He's mean and bitchy, and I'm not really like that." However, he will admit that him and Trey share the same trendy style. Trey certainly brings the drama in the show, so Williams gave us some dating advice on how to deal with drama in real life, specifically when it comes to relationships and love. He says he lives by the quote "society has become so fake the truth actually bothers people." His best relationship advice is "to be appreciative and present in your relationship and never forget to communicate. Never mute who you are to make someone else comfortable. You have to be true, be real, be vulnerable, and be authentic."

When it comes to making time for your partner in order to put this relationship advice to the test, the busy actor says it's as simple as prioritizing. "Yes I'm busy, but I'm not the busiest man in the world," he says. "If Obama can tuck in his kids and give Michelle a kiss goodnight, then I have no excuse!" he added with a laugh. "You have to make sure you make time for what comes first, the people who mean the most to you, or your career.” In our celebrity interview, Williams says he will be prioritizing his friends and family this holiday season. He admits he rarely cooks, so potlucks with a few of his best friends will be as good as it gets.

Karell Williams Talks Date Night

Holiday dinners aren't the only things he likes to keep simple. Williams also believes less is more when it comes to winter date ideas. His dating advice is to “keep it simple, Netflix and chill baby! At the end of the day it's all about who you're with, not what you do.” We can definitely agree that as long as you're with someone you love and care about, you're guaranteed a great time. As Williams liked to put it, “it's not about location, it's about company.”

Don't have a Netflix subscription? No worries, you can Starz and chill for the Flesh and Bone season finale. “I'd say expect the unexpected,” the show's star excitedly tells us. We can also expect a big dance number at the end of the episode! The finale airs on December 27th at 8 p.m. on Starz.

Celebrity Divorce: Yolanda Foster Addresses Pain of

Divorce in Instagram Post

By

Jessica DeRubbo

Yolanda Foster recently spoke out about the pain of her celebrity divorce from David Foster via an Instagram post on Sunday, Dec. 13. According to UsMagazine.com, the caption of the photo is, "Note to self. Sometimes your heart needs more time to accept what your mind already knows." A source said, "It didn't make sense to stay together," adding that David is the one who pushed for the divorce because he felt that the union "wasn't a marriage." Despite the former celebrity couple's split, Yolanda still looks back on the relationship positively. "We had a beautiful love story that I will treasure forever," she said.

Celebrity divorce or not, a marriage dissolving is painful business. What are some ways to cope with heartbreak in the wake of a divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

When marriage ends, there's no getting around the pain. That being said, there are certainly different ways to cope with it. Cupid has some relationship advice:

1. Know you're not alone: The worst thing you can do is hole up at home with a tub of ice cream with no one you love around you. Okay, maybe it's okay for the first day or two, but then consider inviting some friends or family over to hang out! They know you well, and just their presence will remind you there are other people out there who care. Plus, you're not the only one who has gone through a divorce. If they can get through it, so can you.

Kris Jenner Has a Celebrity Pregnancy Scare

By Kyanah

Murphy

Say what?! Kris Jenner has a celebrity pregnancy scare? Now that's unexpected celebrity news. UsMagazine.com shares a clip from the latest Keeping Up With the Kardashians episode where Kris Jenner talks to oldest daughter Kourtney Kardashian about some rather...TMI stuff. Needless to say, Jenner's pregnancy didn't end up happening. She and her gal pals were curious to see if Jenner could have another celebrity pregnancy because of her estrogen cream. Confirmation from Jenner's doctor on that topic was “absolutely not.” So, that settles that!

Some potential celebrity pregnancies aren't exactly welcomed with open arms. What are some ways to deal with a surprise pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

This is definitely one celebrity pregnancy that would have been a bit weird (and even controversial). Here are some ways to deal with a surprise pregnancy:

1. Allow yourself to be upset: If you truly aren't thrilled about having a baby, allow yourself time to be upset as you process the information. Pushing away emotions usually means they'll bottle up and explode on you at a later date (which could mean a meltdown).

2. Don't give up: If at this point in your life you weren't planning on having a baby because you had other plans taking priority, don't give up on them! Talk to your partner about the situation and your dreams. Make a plan together on how to achieve those dreams. Being pregnant doesn't mean you have to give everything up.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Ben Higgins Opens Up About Insecurities & Kaitlyn Bristowe

Gray

By Katie

In latest celebrity news, newest Bachelor Ben Higgins has spoken out about not letting his insecurities get the best of him as he makes his way on the reality show. Higgins was the runner up on The Bachelorette with Kaitlyn Bristowe. According to UsMagazine.com, he is a devout Christian and he has a preference that whomever he chooses be into her faith. Higgins explained, "I would really like to find a woman that has a similar faith as I do – I think that would be important as we raise a family, as we move forward in life." If you were to take relationship advice from him, that would be it. Perhaps there will be a celebrity wedding and celebrity baby in the future for him! Stay tuned.

This celebrity news is exciting for fans of The Bachelor! What are some ways to overcome your insecurities related to a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Although it's completely natural to have insecurities, it is imperative that you don't let them keep you from succeeding and being happy. Finding ways to overcome those fears and insecurities are the first steps on your pursuit of happiness, whether that means talking to your loved ones or taking drastic measures. Cupid has some advice on how to get past your relationship insecurities:

- 1. Vent sessions: Sometimes we all just need a little reassurance to feel better. If you are feeling insecure about something in your relationship, talk with your family and friends to get their opinion about it. They are likely to tell you that it's all in your head and that everything will work out.

2. Trust: At the end of the day, it all comes down to trust. You have to trust yourself and your instincts, always. You also need to trust your partner, and if you can't honestly trust them, then you need to be with someone you can. It's common to have trust issues, so first try communicating with your partner and maybe even go to couples' therapy for it. Many say this tactic works.

3. Imperfections are perfection: It's important to always remember that nobody is perfect, and no relationship is perfect. Although we all have that fantasy in our heads, remember that real perfection lies in the imperfections. Cherish your relationship for its strong suits and its flaws. When you accept all of this, the insecurities are sure to fall.
