

Celebrity Baby News: Bristol Palin Reveals Baby Name is Same as Kristin Cavallari's New Daughter

By

Kyanah Murphy

Celebrities put a lot of thought into naming their celebrity babies, but sometimes there are still repeats! According to UsMagazine.com, the latest celebrity baby news is at that Bristol Palin is naming her daughter Sailor, which also happens to be the name of Kristin Cavallari's celebrity baby, only spelled Saylor. In fact, it was mere hours after Cavallari revealed her celebrity baby's name that Palin revealed hers. Was it mere coincidence or the sign of a copy cat?

These celebrity babies are going to have something in common! What are some ways to be sure your baby's name is unique?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrities love to name their celebrity babies odd names like Apple, Bandit, Blue Ivy, and now Saylor/Sailor (and these are only a couple of examples!). Of course celebrities aren't the only ones who want to make sure their babies have unique names; you might want a unique name for your child, too. Cupid has some tips:

1. Choose a unique spelling: Look at the name 'Kyanah' – it's a different spelling of 'Kiana'. There's also 'Saylor' as opposed to 'Sailor', 'Geoff' instead of Jeff ... honestly, the list is endless. If you want your baby to have a unique twist on a name, consider alternative phonetic spelling.

2. Pick a name that hasn't been used in awhile: If you're thinking of naming your future daughter 'Katniss', don't do it. Every new mother and their mothers are going to be naming their girls 'Katniss' to give their kid an edgy and unique name. Because it's a practice to name your child after a cool character, if one is incredibly popular like 'Katniss', your baby's name won't be unique at all. Try choosing a name that hasn't been done in awhile.

3. Do some research: If you do your homework, it's entirely possible to find a name that is unique and captures the style you want associated with your child's name. 'Caelum' (Kay-lum) is from the Latin meaning of 'sky' and 'Orion' is a constellation (much like 'Sirius'). Or, you can be completely out there and go the celebrity and video game route and name your child something completely different, like Lightning.

Contrary to popular belief all of the “nice guys” haven’t fallen off the face of the Earth just yet. Cupid is here to help you find a man worth falling for:

1. Be yourself from the very beginning: By never hiding your true self a guy will know immediately the expectations he has to live up to and the standards he has to meet. On the first few dates women tend to let a lot of things slide in order to come off as easy-going, but sometimes letting the guy know exactly who you are and what you want will make it clear to him how to act like a gentleman.

2. Stop playing games: After middle school there’s no valid reason why men and women should continue to play mind games with each other. Making your partner guess if you like them or calculating when to text back is feeding into this concept that dating is a game. Nice guys won’t want to participate in these games so just leave them at home.

3. Respect yourself: Treating yourself with dignity will be a great example for any man to follow. Say no when you want to say no and don't allow yourself to be stepped on. Don't ever bend over backwards trying to please a guy because a relationship should be a two-way partnership with balance.
