Keeping things in your life private is sometimes important, depending on what it is. Cupid has some relationship advice:

Celebrity News: Josh Duggar Confesses to Cheating on Wife Anna

y Katie Gray

They say bad things happen in life so that we can truly appreciate the good times. In latest celebrity news, Josh Duggar has fessed up to cheating on his wife, Anna, the mother of his four children. According to UsMagazine.com, “Josh Duggar has confessed to cheating on his wife Anna Duggar, just one day after the emails of millions of users on infidelity website Ashley Madison were exposed, including the eldest Duggar son's information." He has issued apologies and since then has been silent on social media.

Not all celebrity news is good. What can you do to regain trust in relationships after someone cheats on you?

Cupid's Advice:

Scandal is swirling around Josh Duggar right now, and even when it comes to non-celebrities, rumors and scandal are never good things. Being able to regain trust in your relationship and love life after betrayal is tough, so Cupid has some love advice:

1. Open communication: If someone has cheated on you, then there was clearly a lack of honesty and communication. The best way to regain trust in your partner is by establishing an open line of communication. As long as you each know how one another is feeling, there will be no question about what the other wants. Therefore, there will be no reason for them to go out and cheat. You will both be on the same page!

2. Affirmations: Often times when people cheat, it's because they are looking for support, attention and compliments. If they aren't getting that, then they look elsewhere for it. It's like the saying goes, "You should always be like a girlfriend even when you're married, otherwise he's going to go out and get a girlfriend." Constantly remind your partner how much they mean to you, and use terms of endearment to show you care. Life is short, so let everyone know how much you love them!

3. Effort: If your partner has cheated on you, but is making an effort, then it may be time to trust them again. If they are being genuine and it's a two way street, then that is a good sign. Both parties involved should care and be making an effort to salvage the relationship. It's time to grow from the unfortunate experience.

Just when it seemed all hope was lost for celebrity couples, Julianne Hough and her boyfriend Brooks Laich prove love is still real in Hollywood. As UsMagazine.com reported, Hough announced her celebrity engagement on Instagram with a black and white photo of the adorable duo embracing in a kiss. She captioned the photo expressing her excitement for the “wedding planning adventures” to come. On her blog, she continued to show signs of complete bliss as she promised to share some “exclusive details and pics” with fans in the next few days.

We’re excited for some happy celebrity engagement news! What are some ways to creatively utilize social media to announce your engagement?

Cupid’s Advice:

After becoming engaged, one of your first instincts will be to frantically post on social media. However, by resisting that initial urge to ramble on social media with a blurry and unfocused picture, you can wait to post and produce a well-planned engagement announcement. Cupid has some suggestions to keep your engagement announcement on social media from being too cliché:

1. “How we met” caption: Everyone already knows you’re in love, but most people probably don’t know the story of how you and your fiancé fell in love. Caption your engagement photo with the heart-warming story of where, when and how you met each other, as it will be sure to capture the hearts of your audience members.

Pick one that perfectly describes your relationship, whether it be posing with your dogs or modeling at the beach, and you can create an engagement photo that is unforgettable.

Hollywood Couple Megan Fox and Brian Austin Green Separate

It's official! Another celebrity divorce is soon to be in the books, as Megan Fox and Brian Austin Green have called it quits. According to UsMagazine.com, the couple is breaking up after an impressively long Hollywood romance of 11 years together. They were married for five years and have two children together, Noah and Bodhi. Fox and Green spoke numerous times about the highs and lows of parenthood, even once saying that the most important part of a relationship and love life is to “respect each other as parents”. Ironically, Fox told reporters in August 2014, “I don’t want to be boastful and say that we would never divorce, but I can’t imagine a scenario we couldn’t work through...”

This Hollywood couple joined the ranks of celebrity break-ups this summer. What are some ways to balance parenting with your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Even Hollywood couples aren’t immune to the struggles of parenthood, so when you feel overwhelmed, it’s helpful to remember you’re not alone. Everyone wants to have it all, so Cupid has some tips to help you live a more harmonious life:

1. Family activities: An easy fix to balancing time between your lover and children is to combine the time you have with each and host a family outing. Heading to the zoo, traveling to an amusement park or having a picnic are all perfect ideas that the whole family can have fun with.

2. Set aside time for date night: The stress you get from taking care of children can put a damper on your relationship. This is why it’s crucial you and your loved one to set aside a day each week where you spend a few hours only with each other. It doesn’t have to be an extravagant night on the town. A simple Netflix marathon after the kids are asleep or a walk in the park is enough to enjoy each others’ company.

3. Help one another: Both of you in the relationship need to be equally committed to helping out. Contributing even in the smallest way, such as packing a lunch, can make all the difference and can help prevent many future fights. At the end of the day, don't forget to always thank your loved one for just being there. A simple "thank you" can help encourage more help in the future.

with regard to your children

Cupid's Advice:

Having children with an ex may be a sticky situation. Cupid has some suggestions on how to compromise with your ex with regard to your children below:

1. Children always come first: No matter what dispute or issue is going on between you or your ex, the child always comes first. In some instances, you may need to fake a smile, but you both being there for the child is much more important than not, just because you're in an argument with your ex.

Related Link: Ben Affleck Smiles and Wears Wedding Ring at First Appearance since Nanny Celebrity Cheating Scandal

3. Don't put the children in the middle: Never put the children in the middle or make them pick sides regardless of anything that is going on with you and your ex. That is immature and the children love both of you equally, so to make them pick sides is unfair.

Drama is unfortunately an unavoidable part of life. However, with the right attitude, most unpleasant situations can be diverted. Cupid has three love tips below to help keep your relationships drama-free:

1. Act only with good intentions: It's an unwritten rule that those who wreak havoc will ultimately face havoc of their own. Instead of seeking revenge on an ex, show them you're the better person by letting it go or even helping them out. When fighting with your current love resist the urge to intentionally do anything you know will make them angry because, at the end of the day, nothing good comes out of vengeance.
