Celebrity Exes Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray Flaunt their Search for Love Online

By Meranda Yslas

On the latest season of The Bachelorette we all watched and cheered when Andi Dorfman chose Josh Murray to be her fiance. Unfortunately, their celebrity love story didn't last long. Now, the celebrity exes are on the hunt for a new love and are showing it on social media. According to Fashion&Style, Murray posted an adorable picture of his dog on Instagram with #mommyHunting. The reality star is also open about dating when she posted a photo of her new man on Instagram. Even though it looks as if the two have moved on, Dorfman still speaks kindly and optimistically about her celebrity ex. “I never say never,” she shared, “I’ve learned that for a really long time, to never say never, but I think I’m really happy with the life I’m living right now and all I can say is I hope for happiness with him too.”

Celebrity exes Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray aren't shy about publicly displaying their search for love. What are three reasons exes should not openly flaunt their dating life in front of one another?

Cupid's Advice:

There's always the question of how long you should wait from the break-up to going back out and looking for love. Once you do start a new romantic relationship, are you suppose to let your ex know? Here are three reasons why it's better to keep your dating life away from a past lover:

- 1. It could look like competition: If it seems like you're purposely bragging about your new love life just to make your ex jealous, it may be difficult to start a real and true new relationship. Both your new guy and your ex will think the relationship is only for attention.

2. Maintaining a friendship: Although some break-ups make it impossible for any form of friendship to last, that's not always the case. If you still want to have your ex in your life, it's better not to bring up the subject of dating and new mates. It's uncomfortable and can put a strain on the new friendship.

3. Picking a side: If you two have dated for a long it is likely that you have mutual friends. If you're flaunting all over Facebook or Twitter about your new partner, your ex may get curious and try to get the details from one of those mutual friends, placing them in an awkward situation. Rather than making your friends feel like they have to chose a side in the break-up or play the messenger between the two, it's better to just keep that part of your life private.

The Gossip Girl star explains, "I've never been dumped I guess, but I've been hurt." Hopefully the fear of experiencing a split has gone since tying the knot with her husband actor Adam Brody. According to E! Online, the two celebrated their celebrity wedding back in February 2014 and remain madly in love. Since then Meester has been focusing a lot of her attention on her friends and family. She shares, "My values have shifted greatly in terms of what I find important. It's my family, my friends and having a personal life. Those are the things that need nurturing."

This piece of celebrity news makes us jealous! How can you prepare for a big break-up if you've never been dumped before?

Cupid's Advice:

Although the latest celebrity news shows that some people don't experience being dumped, that's normally not the case. Break-ups hurt and if you're not prepared for them, they can catch you off guard. Here are some relationship tips to prepare yourself for a split:

1. Remember your hobbies: If your life has become centered around your beau, it may be time to pick up some of your old hobbies that you left in your past. Join a book club, start hiking again, or volunteer. It's important to make sure you still have a life if one day your relationship ends.

full list on UsMagazine.com.

Bachelorette stars Kaitlyn Bristowe and Britt Nilsson will have their pick of well qualified men come May 18th. Why is it a good idea to consider your partner's occupation before starting a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

There are many factors to consider when deciding whether someone is a good romantic match for you. While you might be inclined to think that occupation isn't important Cupid has some love advice on why this factor shouldn't be ignored:

1. Time is money: Can your significant other give you the time commitment you're looking for? If you're new beau has a high-powered career that probably means long hours and less time with you. If you're looking for a serious relationship, then this probably isn't an ideal situation.

Related Link: Exclusive Celebrity Interview: 'The Bachelorette' Star Desiree Hartsock Says Confidence is Key to Finding Mr. Right

2. Get down to business: No matter what the fairy tales say research shows that relationships between people with similar education levels usually have a higher rate of success. While there are always exceptions to the rule it can be prudent to look for a partner who has had a similar education and work path as you. This way you'll automatically have a better understanding of each other's situations.

3. Work hard, play hard: Knowing a potential suitor's career ambitions can be very important. Are they up for a promotion that's going to take them to an office out of state? Are they looking for a job where they have to travel consistently? If you're looking to stay put then this isn't an ideal match. Minimize the possibility for heartbreak by making sure you and soon-to-be sweetheart have similar life goals and plans.

Rumors are swirling that these celebrity exes are back together! What are some things to consider before reconciling with your ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Back and forth with an ex can be emotionally draining. Here are some way to decide if reconciling is right for you:

1. How did things end: Reflect back to your break-up. Was there a lot of turmoil and chaos leading up to the inevitable end or was it peaceful and friendly? This alone might be a good indication if it is a good idea to try again.

2. Fun verses drama: Cupid uses the scale 70/30 to measure the worth of a past relationship and love. Fun, love and happiness together should be the 70 percent. Arguments and hardships would make up that 30 this should hopefully be the max. If you feel like bad times outweigh the good then you should maybe rethink getting back together.

3. Future is bright: Look into your future, do you see your ex as a potential life partner sharing important milestones that you wish to live out. If certain steps (having children, getting married, moving in together etc.) were holding you back in the previous relationship, how can you be sure this time will be any better? Celebrity Interview: 'American Idol' Winner Nick Fradiani Is Single!

By Rebecca White

And the winner of American Idol season 14 is...Nick Fradiani! While the 29-year-old singer started out on the reality TV show as the underdog, in recent weeks, he quickly worked his way up as one of the front runners in the vocal competition. As he became more confident, he also became more comfortable on stage and finally began to break through his shell like the mentors and judges have been telling him to do all season. In our celebrity interview, the reality TV star talks about relationships and love and how he will remain relevant as an artist in the future.

American Idol* Winner Talks About His Relationship and Love Life

We first got to know Nick Fradiani when he auditioned for this season of American Idol with his girlfriend Ariana Gavrilis. However, the now famous couple has not been seen together in recent months, and Gavrilis wasn't even at the finale. So all the ladies want to know: Is Nick Fradiani single? Sure enough, during our celebrity interview, the performer confirmed that he is currently single and that being a musician and maintaining a relationship and love is hard. "Being in music has always made it difficult to have relationships, especially if I've been traveling a lot," the singer shares.

Winning will also put his love life on hold for a while. "I'm sure it will make things more difficult, but I try not to look for those things. Hopefully, the right thing just happens," he says. Still, Fradiani knows exactly what he wants in a future girlfriend. He has three must-haves in a partner: humor, trust, and comfort. "I like to laugh and have fun, so I need to be with somebody who is funny," he adds. "I also need someone that I can be myself around."

Nick Fradiani Talks About His Post-Idol Plans

Now that the winner has been crowned and signed to Big Machine Records, how will he avoid the fate of recent American Idol winners and actually stay relevant? “To me, the biggest thing is the songs,” the singer says. “I think winners that come off the show and don’t have a hit song have a tough time. The time of coming out with a new single can be damaging.” Fradiani has no reason to worry though: His single “Beautiful Life” is already at number two on iTunes. “I think this single will do well,” he explains. “I’m really confident as an artist in my songwriting ability and my ear for pop music, so I think I’ll be able to succeed because of that.”

Next, the star will meet with Scott Borchetta, Big Machine Records founder, to discuss where they will go with the new album. “Beautiful Life” is the type of music that he wants to play and put out in the world. “I lucked out big time – I love the song,” he shares. “I’m hoping to write with some cool co-writers as well.”

He may even branch into country music. Borchetta and Fradiani have talked about him going country, but the singer says that won’t happen for a while. “Maybe in a couple years that could be an option,” he says.

Celebrity Interview: 'American Idol' Runner-Up Clark Beckham Says, "Right Now, It's Like I'm In a Relationship with Music"

By Rebecca White

The American Idol season 14 runner-up Clark Beckham first started singing in a gospel trio with his parents when he was 8 years old. Now, the 22-year-old finishes the reality TV competition with a platform large enough to become as famous as season 2 runner-up Clay Aiken...or as forgotten as previous contestants who have had no luck gaining fame after the show. In our celebrity interview, Beckham says he wants to model his career after singers like Bruno Mars, Robin Thicke, and John Mayer, although he plans to take his own approach to balancing his career and relationship and love life.

American Idol* Runner-Up Talks Relationships and Love

Beckham leaves the reality TV show with fond memories of being a finalist in one of the top vocal competitions in the country. On Tuesday night, the singer had one of his best performances with “Ain’t No Sunshine,” leaving the judges and America very impressed. Jennifer Lopez commented on the song by asking who Beckham was singing to because of the passionate performance. “I remember her asking that, and I was like, ‘Oh Lord, do not ask me that,’” he shares.

But don’t worry, ladies: The blushing Tennessee native is single and not in a committed relationship and love. “The song is about the person being gone, so maybe it is appropriate because there is no one,” the star says with a laugh. “I think I was really able to get into that heartbreak, but there was no one specific that I was thinking of.”

Related Link: ‘American Idol’ Eliminated Finalist Rayvon Owen Says Love “Is the Most Universal Thing”

In terms of how being a musician has impacted his dating life, Beckham says that sometimes it’s helpful because of the initial attraction people feel towards musicians. However, it’s not always easy. “In the past, when I’ve been dating someone, she was worried that I would choose music over her, and that’s an interesting balance,” the singer reveals in our celebrity interview. “Right now, it’s like I’m in a relationship with music. I really am in love with her, and I can’t imagine a life without her.”

He adds, "Sometimes, being a musician can get in the way of my relationships, but I believe that, when it is right, it won't be conflicting. Instead, it will elevate and help the relationship."

Clark Beckham Reveals What He Learned on American Idol

During season 14 of American Idol, the runner-up has faced many critiques from the judges and Big Machine Records founder Scott Borchetta. The mentors and judges have often stated that Beckham's musical style isn't modern, and they've told him to perform for the audience instead of himself. However, the singer disagrees. "I think the most modern is when an artist can understand and play music that is coming right now and is just on the brink and is right around the bend," he explains. "I really believe the music I put out is what's going to come around the bend."

Related Link: 'American Idol' Eliminated Contestant Tyanna Jones Takes Us Through Her Emotional Journey

While the performer stayed true to himself and his music, he did learn a lot from the judges and mentors. "Keith Urban said, 'Don't sing and play what you can; play and sing what you must.' That's the best advice from the judges that I got," Beckham shares. Now that the show is over, the musician says that he's learned to be more conscious of pitch and that he's transformed as an artist from this experience: "I'm able to get more into the song emotionally and get into the music and get into character."

New Photos: The Countdown to 'The Bachelorette' Begins With Britt and Kaitlyn

By Emma L. Wells

The countdown begins for The Bachelorette season 11 premiere and in order to get us even more pumped up for the reality TV show ABC released some stunning photos from a shoot with the two Bachelorettes, Kaitlyn Bristowe and Britt Nilsson. People.com reports that Bristowe and Nilsson have ditched the usually colorful gowns we're accustomed to seeing on Bachelorettes and opted for some silvery grey numbers which fit the season's tagline, '50 Shades of Cray.' The two girls, who battled for Chris Soules on season 19 of The Bachelor, will once again face off for relationships and love in a two part premiere on May 18th.

Britt Nilsson and Kaitlyn Bristowe let their personalities shine through their grey dresses for 'The Bachelorette' promo shoot. How can you make a good impression and pick the perfect first date outfit?

Cupid's Advice:

Most people don't like to admit it but we often judge others based on their appearance the first time we meet them. That's why a first date outfit can have a big impact on whether or not someone asks you out again. Have no fear, here is some love advice on how to put together the right ensemble...

1. Be appropriate: The first thing you should consider when picking your first date outfit is what you're going to be doing on the date. Different outfits are more appropriate for dinner and a movie versus a hike and a picnic. You may have a great pair of sparkly stilettos but you probably shouldn't wear them if you and your date are headed to a street fair. If you don't know where you're going then try to pick a neutral outfit such as a loose dress or jeans and a nice top.

2. Be yourself: If you're the type of girl who wears jeans and a t-shirt 99% of the time, you'll give the wrong impression of yourself if you show up to your date wearing your roommate's body-con dress. When you're picking your outfit select something that represents the "real" you. If the date you're going on doesn't really allow you to dress like yourself, consider asking him nicely if you can do possibly do something else.

Be on time: Being fashionably late is acceptable for a large party but not for a one-on-one date. It's easy to overthink a decision like this. Don't get anxious and wrapped up in your head. If you can't find the perfect first date outfit don't worry, just be sure to wow him with your personality!

meant a lot to you, you may still want them in your life some way. Here are some ways to know if you are ready to build a friendship with an ex:

1. You have forgiven: A great sign that lets you know you're still not bitter about the ending of the relationship is if you have forgiven your partner. Matthew McConaughey Credits

Celebrity Wife Camila Alves for His Happiness

By Meranda Yslas

Working in Hollywood isn't an easy task. There are long hours, meaning sometimes you will be away for weeks or months at a time. For Matthew McConaughey, he is able to endure this thanks to his celebrity wife Camila Alves. According to E! Online.com, the actor shared, "Now I get to wake up next to someone who I know loves me the way she does-my wife-who gave birth to our three beautiful, healthy children." Being a celeb and a parent can be tough, but the Dallas Buyers Club star hopes that it will be a learning experience for his kids. "What they learned is not that if you go to work you get a trophy, but if you do something really good today, you can be rewarded for it later."

This celebrity wife sure isn't lacking an appreciative husband! What are some ways to show your thanks to your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

It's not only celebrity wives who get praised; all partners should! When you've been in a relationship and love for a while, it can be hard to think of new ways to show your partner that you appreciate them. Here is Cupid's love advice on showing thanks to your beau:

1. Pen and paper: With sending a quick email or text becoming the new norm, hand written letters are becoming obsolete. Break out the stationary set, and write your partner a sweet love letter, including how much you appreciate them. This small gesture can mean a lot.

Later she came forward clarifying this was a hippie joke, but ultimately the damage was done and the Rancics decided to ride out the storm. Bill spoke to their celebrity marriage during the chaos, saying, "We made a plan. We were gonna just kinda weather it. We've got a strong marriage. We love each other. Sofia Vergara Breaks Silence on Frozen Embryo Saga with Celebrity Ex Nick Loeb

By Maggie Manfredi

Let's hear it, Sofia! According to UsMagazine.com, Sofia Vergara finally came forward about her frozen embryo drama with celebrity ex Nick Loeb. Vergara and Loeb broke off their celebrity engagement a year ago, and with that came a contractual agreement on what to do with the frozen embryos the celebrity exes produced. The founder of Crunchy Condiment Company wrote an Op-Ed in the New York Times about his strong feelings that these embryos should be thawed. The Modern Family star, who is happily engaged to Joe Manganiello, spoke on the matter with Howard Stern on his radio show. Vergara stated, "Joe and I try not to even talk about it," she said. "We have lawyers. We're having so much fun right now. We just moved into a new house. We're planning a wedding. We try not to think about this, we can't do anything. It's signed, it's done, and that's it."

These celebrity exes are still fighting! What are some ways to keep the drama at a minimum post break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Not all break-ups end amicably. Dealing with the backlash can be a little stressful, but Cupid has some tips on how to keep the drama to a minimum:

1. Avoid commentary: Don't go sharing every thought and feeling about your ex with the world, especially if the wounds are still fresh. Sofia waited it out and commented when it was appropriate, so you can exude patience, too.

2. Don't mix new with old: Have you moved on to a fetching new love (here's hoping you're having as good of luck as Joe and Sofia)? Try to keep the paths from crossing, as the last thing you want is to bring in drama to your new relationship or pile more on to your old one.

Celebrity Interview with Founders of 'Reality TV Awards': "We're Not Going to Hide Anything!"

By Jenna Bagcal

On any given day of the week, millions of people sit down on their couches with some good snacks, and tune into their favorite reality TV shows. But what many people might not know is the amount of hard work and dedication that goes into the production of each show. Whether it's Keeping Up with the Kardashians, American Idol, or The Bachelor, massive teams of people put in hundreds of man hours every week to make these shows possible – and the cast and crew of these shows will be honored at the 3rd annual Reality TV Awards on May 13. In this celebrity interview, the founders of these awards, Kristen Moss and Andrew Ward, discuss the production of the award show, who we can expect to see, and the future of reality TV.

Reality TV Awards Founders Discuss Awards Show Process

As it approaches its third year, plans for The Reality TV Awards are bigger than ever. Moss and Ward, the founders and executive producers of these awards say that there is a lot to expect in terms of number of guests and a few other surprises.

“This year we’re going to have over 700 attendees.” Says Ward. “The first year we had about four or five hundred, so it’s grown a lot. We even have the cast of Dance Moms coming and the full cast of Deadliest Catch. It’s really exciting to see the variation of cast members that are coming to this because all of your favorite reality TV shows in one room is almost like a reality TV show in itself!”

Moss adds that in addition to reality television stars, a great number of networks and production companies will be in attendance that night. “Essentially how we start out is we call production companies and networks, and we have them submit their shows to the categories.” She says. “So as we’ve grown, we’ve seen the support of each of those production companies and networks, which is really important to us. We’re inviting all of them to come this year to show how it [the awards] benefits their shows, their company, the networks, and how their fans are really supportive of them.”

Another development in this year's awards is the increase of fan involvement. This year marks the first time when fans can attend the award show as well as stream it live online. The venue for the show is the Avalon Hotel in Beverly Hills, which Ward says makes this possible. "The great thing about this year is being in a bigger venue, so we added a fan section. We have a very limited amount of tickets on sale to the public, but this gives the public a chance to see what's actually inside the show, which has never been done before."

In addition, Ward says the live stream of the awards will not only give fans a chance to feel like they're guests, but also to get a backstage look of the event. "It's going to be the nitty gritty, we're not going to hide anything, and we know that people love to see everything there is to do backstage."

Moss and Ward are two people who know the world of reality television very well, especially how much work goes into the production of a TV show. Although audiences only get to view the final product, they reveal that there are hundreds of people working to make things run smoothly.

"I worked on Master Chef for a couple seasons," says Ward, "and a lot of people don't realize that you have 150 crew members working behind [the scenes.] There's actually so many people that it takes to film a given episode, which is why we do these awards. It's recognizing the talent on screen, but also the entire team of people that work behind them."

Moss says that for this reason, her favorite award show category is "Bad Ass Crew," which honors the behind-the-scenes crew of reality TV. "It really gives a nod to the production crew who has to endure the hours and temperatures of whatever world they're put into. A lot of time when people are watching these shows, they don't think about the guy who's capturing these moments. But there is somebody out there capturing the moments and putting their own life in danger, whether they get recognized or not."

Kristen Moss and Andrew Ward Discuss the Future of Reality TV in Celebrity Interview

After being in the reality television industry, Moss says that the new trend for future shows will be "risk" based shows, specifically in the realm of dating shows. She discusses that the show Married at First Sight falls into this category. "I think what it is with Married at First Sight is, it's a wedding, but what's going to be so shocking at this wedding is that these people are meeting for the first time."

Ward adds that the show has a huge fan-base who are extremely active on social media. "There are a lot of fan groups for it, and we follow them. I saw a post today that people wanted to know how the couples from season 1 are doing because it's such a faux pas concept, and that's what reality TV really is. They want to see if something like that can actually work."

When asked about the future of reality show concepts, the pair said that creators will never run out of original ideas. "Any time I think they're going to run out of ideas, somebody approaches us or with a new idea, even if it's a game show, that I had no idea could be possible." Says Ward.

Cupid's Advice:

Are you having a baby and can't decide how to announce the big news to family and friends? Cupid has some “out of the box” ways to announce the birth of your child:

1. Gender reveal party: In today's society, it is becoming a common pattern to have a gender reveal party when you and your partner are expecting a baby. Typically people will have a cake, and inside will be dyed either pink (girl) or blue (boy). People tend to invite family and friends over, and then during the party they cut the cake and reveal the gender. It's a fun way to announce you're pregnant and what gender you will be bringing into the world soon. Super cute!

2. Newborn photo announcements: A common practice still today is newborn photo announcements that parents mail to all of their friends and family following the birth of their infant. Get creative with the announcements. For example, put the message and newborn photo in arts and craft eggs that say “just hatched” or choose a funny theme on the announcement. A great way to capture this happy time is by having family photos taken now that the baby has arrived. Go have a portrait session with your favorite photographer!

Famous Couple Tiger Woods and Lindsey Vonn Become Celebrity Exes

By Jenna Bagcal

Not all celebrity relationships have fairytale endings. In the latest celebrity news reported in UsMagazine.com, famous couple Tiger Woods and Lindsey Vonn ended their three-year relationship, as confirmed on Vonn's Facebook account. The celebrity exes seem to have had an amicable celebrity break-up, with Vonn saying she will always "admire and respect" Woods and that she will always hold him and his family in her heart.

Famous couple no more! What are some ways to minimize gossip surrounding a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether it's between a pair of celebrity exes, or you and your ex flame, breaking up can be a tough thing in terms of rumors coming from numerous "sources." But don't worry! Cupid has some tips to reduce or avoid the gossip completely:

1. Don't post things on social media: Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and other forms of social media are the last places you want to turn after a break-up, because you never know who's lurking on your pages. Instead of writing long, sappy posts about how you miss your ex or re-Tweeting break-up Tweets, refrain from posting your relationship details on social media completely. Posting things on social media will only add fuel to the gossip fire.

2. Delete toxic people: Despite your best efforts, word may still get out about your break-up. Then the next thing you know, your frenemy from college is posting subliminal Tweets about how your ex "can do better." If toxic people are posting things they have no knowledge about, delete them from your social media outlets to keep gossip and drama to a minimum.

3. Talk to family and close friends: To make sure that people know your side of the break-up story, talk to your family and close friends about it. If you and your ex have been in a longterm relationship, the people close to you might be inclined to talk about the cause of the break-up. Setting the record straight for them, or even letting them know to respect your break-up by not talking about it will help stave off any rumors.
