So what’s next on Soules’ agenda? According to OkMagazine.com, he said, “We’re just looking forward to getting into our normal lives. There’s no doubt in Bischoff’s mind that parenthood is in the future for this celebrity couple. What are some ways to pick out a name for your baby?

Cupid’s Advice:

There are so many big decisions that come up after you get pregnant, but picking out a name for your little bundle of joy is perhaps the one with the longest impact. Your name says so much about you, and parents should put careful thought into it before settling on one. Cupid has some tips on how to make the best baby name choice:

1. Ignore the trends: Everything goes out of style eventually. Right now, it’s a fad among celebrity couples to use really unique names for their kids – think Apple Martin or North West. Instead of thinking way outside the box, consider looking into the past. Check out the social security website of popular baby names that goes back over 100 years. There are many names in the list that, although they aren’t common right now, are beautiful and timeless.

2. Honor someone: It can be a great idea to name your baby after someone you love. Not only is it a wonderful gift to give that person, but it provides a legacy your child will appreciate when they grow up. It's always special to pick a name of a family member or friend. If you can't find one that you like, then consider the name of your favorite book character or a historical figure you admire.

3. Try it out: Before you and your partner decide on a name, think about how your child will grow up with it. Ask yourselves these questions: Does it sound good with their last name? What will their nickname be? Is this a name that will be relatively easy for your kid to learn to spell? These questions should help you narrow down your list.

1. They call or video chat their parents and/or siblings: Even though your partner may not live with their family anymore, they still take the time out of their day to give them a quick phone call to say "hi" or ask them about their day. Celebrity Interview: At Home in Hollywood Founder Lisa Johnson Mandell Reveals Secrets of Kim Kardashian and Kanye West's Hollywood Home!

By Meranda Yslas

Without a doubt, celebs live extraordinary lifestyles. From the designer clothes they wear, the expensive cars they drive, and the luxurious parties and dinners they attend, it's natural to want to take a peek into their world. Luckily, thanks to our celebrity interview with Lisa Johnson Mandell, we're able to get an inside look at the homes of some of the most famous celebs.

A Look Inside Celebs' Homes

The HGTV Los Angeles correspondent has toured the houses of many stars, including the home of Hollywood couple Kim Kardashian and Kanye West. One of Mandell's favorite parts of their Hidden Hills house was the master bedroom. "The master suite is fabulous and enormous. It's like 3,000 square feet, which is bigger than most of our homes," she reveals. "It has a sitting room, a kitchenette, his-and-her bathrooms, his-and-her closets, and his-and-her dressing rooms." That's not the only impressive room in this 50 million dollar mansion: It also has a spa room, a gym, a courtyard with a fountain, and a backyard that can easily hold 500 people.

Related Link: Famous Couple Kim Kardashian and Kanye West Show PDA After Brit Awards

Without a doubt, their house is gorgeous, but this famous couple was also guilty of “the worst celebrity purchase” that the founder of At Home In Hollywood has ever seen. The two bought “an absolute rundown shack.” She elaborates, “It was a ranch style home that had fallen into disrepair. Nobody lived there; weeds were growing inside of the house; and everything was dilapidated.” Even with such an unflattering descriptions, the married celebrity couple paid three million dollars for it. The reason for this seemingly outrageous purchase was for security purposes. This “awful shack” overlooked their beautiful new home, so they bought it and “will probably just tear it down and keep the lot so that nobody can peer into their backyard,” the real estate agent shares.

The decision to move into a home in Hidden Hills is not that shocking, especially for a Kardashian. According to Mandell, their new house is really close to momager Kris and sisters Kourtney and Kendall. Celebs tend to buy homes in exclusive neighborhoods like this one because “it’s a great community, especially for families. It’s super private.”

For the most part, stars usually hire professionals to help decorate and make interior design decisions. It makes a lot of sense, considering they are constantly traveling or working and don’t have a lot of down time. However, that’s not always the case. Mandell shares that there are some celebrities who “really have a flare for decoration.” Annie Potts from Designing Women is one of them. “She just put her house on the market a couple of months ago, and it is absolutely gorgeous,” she divulges.

Real Estate and Relationship Advice

Not only is Mandell an expert in all things related to celebrity real estate, she is also familiar in offering relationship advice. As the author of two relationship books How to Snare a Millionaire and its sequel How to Snare a Millionaire Now, she is able to combine both of her areas of expertise and share some great real estate tips for couples.

Related Link: What You Need to Know Before You Move In Together

For couples deciding to move in with each other, “it’s really a good idea to get a new space.” She further explains, “There are things that will remind your new partner of your ex, so I think it’s definitely best to start fresh if possible.” She jokingly adds, “If you can’t afford to move, at least get a new bed!”

When it comes to raising a family, there are a few things a couple should look for in a home. The relationship author believes the school district should be the number one priority. Although she does admit that buying a house in a good school district is going to cost a little bit more, “it ends up being a good investment.” She explains, “If you’re paying to put kids in private school, tuition can be 30,000 dollars or more a year. It’s going to be pricey. The extra money you’re putting in your home, you’ll make up later in school costs.”

She also makes a note of caution regarding the stairs. “If there is a staircase in your home, you’ve got to make sure it can be carpeted if you’re going to have little ones,” she says.

Related Link: ‘Million Dollar Listing’ Star Josh Altman Says, “Relationships are Harder Than Owning a House”

The journalist shares a few tips to offer anyone who is single and house hunting. Reminiscing about her own bachelorette pad, she suggests that it'd be "really great if your home can be within walking distance from nightlife, restaurants, coffee shops, and stores. If you could walk home at night without having to worry, that's always good," she says.

One thing that singles shouldn't stress out about when looking for a new home is the size. Mandell explains that "square footage is less important than location." If you do end up entering into a new relationship and love, living in a smaller house makes it more convenient for you. "The fewer possessions you have, the easier a move is and the freer and less encumbered you can be," she shares.

New Celebrity Couple? Reality TV Stars Josh Murray and Ashley Iaconetti Party Together in NYC

By Emma L. Wells

Last Monday, The Bachelorette season 10 winner Josh Murray and The Bachelor season 19 contestant Ashley Iaconetti were seen with a large group partying in New York City, prompting rumors that these reality TV stars are a new celebrity couple. Murray posted a picture of the mostly gal group on his Instagram, saying, "Had a great time, NYC, it's always nice meeting new friends." Only Iaconetti and one other woman were tagged in the shot of 13 party-goers. People.com reported that Murray was in New York working for fitness and nutrition brand AdvoCare. Despite sitting close and looking like a cute famous couple, both Murray and Iaconetti insist they aren't dating.

These two reality TV stars have denied being a celebrity couple, but given their similar experiences, we think they'd be a good pair! Find out how a common background can help your relationship and love be a success.

Cupid's Advice:

We've all heard that opposites attract. While a little disparity in a relationship can add some spice, being with someone who shares a similar history is a strong foundation for a new relationship and love. Cupid explains why below:

1. You have a better understanding: People are a product of their experiences. Understanding someone's experiences firsthand will help you better understand them and their intentions. Being on a reality TV dating show is not something a lot of people can relate to, which is one reason why Murray and Iaconetti could potentially match well as a celebrity couple.

Related Link: 'The Bachelorette' Winner Josh Murray Says He Doesn't Miss Celebrity Ex Andi Dorfman

2. You share a common perspective: In most cases, having a similar background means that you will also have a similar perspective on certain issues. Whether it be politics, religion, finances, or family, when you share the same opinions, you'll be able to communicate better. These types of discussions can be difficult to have, but if you're of the same mind, you'll come to an agreement much easier.

3. There's an easier learning curve: If you are from different ways of life (religiously, culturally, socio-economically, etc.), it doesn't mean your relationship and love won't succeed, but it does mean that you'll have to take more time and effort to learn about your beau's background. When you date someone who has shared experiences, you get to skip that step.

Former 'Bachelor' Chris

Soules Regrets Making 'DWTS' Partner Witney Carson Cry

By Emma L. Wells

It was a tough week for reality TV star Chris Soules. While preparing for his quickstep routine, the leading man on The Bachelor season 19 injured not only his calf muscle but also his partner's feelings. During a difficult rehearsal, he lost his temper with professional dancer Witney Carson. Thankfully, the dancing duo were able to hug it out and move on. According to People.com, Soules said, "It was a tough week. People don't really understand how hard we work. We have a close relationship. But we were just both getting on each other's nerves. I wasn't getting it down, and she was getting frustrated with me. That happens in any partnerships in life.

I don't know any partnership where two people don't have a little bit of a disagreement. It only made us stronger."

As the former star of The Bachelor can attest, it's easy to get annoyed with your partner. What are some ways to handle frustration in your relationship better?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter how much you click, when you spend a lot of time with someone, you're bound to butt heads occasionally – like this Bachelor star and Carson did this week. It's all too easy to let little annoyances build into big problems. Cupid has some love advice on how to deal with your frustration:

1. Talk it out: Don't like the way your partner loads the dishwasher or leaves their shoes by the front door? Tell them! Simply say, "It bothers me when you..." Remember to be careful with your tone. You don't want to start a fight, but you do want to make them aware of your feelings. Your significant other is not a mind reader; they can't fix the problem if they don't know it's there.

Related Link: Celebs Turn to DWTS to Heal Heartbreak

2. Get active: When both partners are frustrated, fighting comes easily. But nagging and getting angry won't solve the problem. You need to find a way to get rid of your pent-up energy so you can have a discussion, not a battle. Try embracing your combative energy and go paint balling or go-cart racing. It may sound silly, but a playful, regulated, competition will get out your frustration and leave you in a better mood.

3. Don't let it defeat you: No one mesh's with their partner 100 percent of the time. If you and your sweetheart agreed on everything, life would probably be a little boring! Your relationship and love won't be doomed just because you get a little irritated with each other. In fact, when you work through these moments of difficulty together, your partnership only gets stronger.

David Arquette Celebrates Celebrity Wedding with Christina McLarty with Intimate Ceremony

By Jenna Bagcal

Celebrity weddings are seen on gossip websites and magazines, and many of them are extravagant events with tons of well dressed A-listers gathered in an exotic location. But some Hollywood couples prefer to keep their ceremonies a bit more low-key. In the latest celebrity news from UsMagazine.com, famous couple David Arquette and Christina McLarty celebrated their celebrity wedding in Los Angeles this past Sunday, April 12. The newly married celebrity couple held an intimate nuptial ceremony in front of their families and closest friends. The couple got engaged in July of 2014, and have an 11 month old son, Charlie West.

There was no lack of intimacy in this celebrity wedding! What are some advantages to keeping your wedding small?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're not a millionaire or part of a Hollywood couple, a lavish and expensive wedding may be pretty difficult to pull off. Plus, small and intimate weddings definitely have their perks. Here is Cupid's advice for why you should keep your wedding small:

1. Save money for the honeymoon: Not only will your special day be more intimate, but cutting down on the cost of the wedding will allow for you and your significant other to splurge on an awesome romantic honeymoon. Spend a week soaking up the sun in Bora Bora, or explore a whole host of European cities while drinking expensive wine and feasting on the local cuisine.

2. Give your guests awesome wedding favors: It's the end of the wedding reception and you're saying your goodbyes, when the bride hands you a set of personalized coasters commemorating "Jessica & David's Everlasting Love," which will probably gather dust in a junk drawer at home. But having a smaller wedding will allow you to give your guests thoughtful and cool gifts they'll actually use. Wrap up the supplies for your guests to make a delicious cocktail, or gift them some beautifully scented candles in mason jars.

3. Have food that's actually delicious: You've probably been a guest at a wedding where the standard fare was dry and less than appetizing. Instead of serving your guests the regular steak, chicken, or fish options, a small wedding will allow you to feed your guests some really delicious and unique food. If you know that your guests like Japanese food, get a variety of sushi and sashimi and make a DIY sushi bar, or serve up some fancy mini sliders and french fries in paper cones.

This celebrity couple is keeping things casual. Why is it smart to keep a relationship low-key at first?

Cupid's Advice:

A reason relationships and love sometimes fail is because things are rushed. Keeping a relationship casual – like this celebrity couple – can be a fantastic idea, especially when it's new. Cupid has some love advice to consider:

1. No pressure: When people are dating, they often feel unnecessary pressure from their partner, their family and friends, and even themselves. There is no need to rush into marriage though; you should go at your own pace!

Scott Eastwood Says Ashton

Kutcher Cheated on Former Celebrity Love Demi Moore with His Girlfriend

By Katie Gray

Oh no he didn't! On a recent episode of Watch What Happens Live, Scott Eastwood announced that Ashton Kutcher cheated on his former celebrity love and wife, Demi Moore. How does he know that? He says it was with his girlfriend at the time. According to UsMagazine.com, "Married Kutcher rang in his sixth wedding anniversary on Sept. 24, 2011, without his wife at a raucous San Diego party at the Hard Rock Hotel which culminated in a sexual encounter with two women." Who knows what happened, but Eastwood isn't currently mad about the situation, as famous couple Ashton and Mila seem to be enjoying life together with their daughter, and Demi appears to be happy in life as well.

The drama in Ashton's former celebrity love life just intensified! What are some signs that your partner isn't being faithful?

Cupid's Advice:

One of the worst things that can happen to you when you're in a relationship and love is if your partner isn't being faithful to you. The feelings of sadness and betrayal are hard to bare. Sometimes these situations do arise, so it's good to look for the signs. Cupid has some tips:

1. Distant: When your partner starts to grow distant, that is potential sign that he or she is growing closer to someone else. Try and spend quality time together and focus on communicating. Plan a date night! Rekindle the spark and romance in your relationship.

2. Defensive: If your partner begins to guard their cellphone and put password protection on it, then they very well may be hiding something. If they always had a passcode on their phone, then don't worry – but if they are becoming extra protective of their phone, then start being aware. If they are defensive when you ask questions, they may be lying to you. The important thing is to find out what is going on and addressing it!

3. Negative: Relationships and love go through good times and bad times. It's not always a honeymoon phase in a healthy relationship, so you can't expect your partner to be happy and positive 24/7. That being said, they should not be negative and rude to you constantly. If this is becoming a pattern and they are insulting you, something is definitely going on in their lives and you should figure out what it is. They may just be going through some issues. Be supportive and find out what is happening!

I was thinking, 'Wait until the show's

Reality TV Star Lea Black Says, "Once You Find the Right Person, You've Really Got to be Committed to Having Equal Power"

By Sarah Batcheller

The ever-glamorous Lea Black has appeared on The Real Housewives of Miami since season 1. Her charm and sass – not to mention her whirlwind lifestyle among Florida’s elite – have drawn audiences in. With a steady celebrity marriage and beloved thirteen-year-old son, the reality TV star has also balanced a cherished domestic life with all the glitz. She hosts an annual charity gala to raise money for troubled teens and, in addition to her philanthropic efforts, is the president and CEO of The World of Lea Black, a multi-brand company that offers everything from jewelry and handbags to beauty products.

Now, in her upcoming novel Red Carpets & White Lies, Black has penned a fictional depiction of the scandalous, unpredictable lives of Miami’s top socialites. In this exclusive celebrity interview, we had the chance to speak with the newly-minted author about her book, the Housewives, and her best love advice.

Reality TV Star Discusses Her Glamour-Filled Upcoming Novel

The spunky Texas native believes that the city of Miami is one of the best in the world, so it's no surprise that she wanted to capture its essence in her novel. "Miami is a very complex city, and it's very international – there's a very diverse crowd," she explains. "So I think it is one of the most exciting cities in the world because it really is a gateway to Central and South America. It's so multi-cultural; you get everything from the really serious intellectuals to the people who came here wanting to live the American Dream to the riff-raff who come and go and sort of reinvent who they are."

Of course, the best people to inspire the characters in Black's novel were none other than herself and her intriguing social circle. So we had to ask: Are her characters based off of real people? "They all are in a way," she confirms. "But they're compositions of people. I would take the personality traits of one person along with the character of another and kind of camouflage them."

Whether or not we'll see the The Real Housewives of Miami stars, whom readers may be able to identify in Red Carpets & White Lies, grace the small screen again is still up for debate. The reality TV star says, "Bravo continues to say they haven't made any decisions, and I think that's totally true. Our ratings were certainly close to some of the other shows that were renewed, so they could justify bringing the show back."

The network may be rethinking the cast too. "I think that some of the personalities on the show weren't as well-received by the audience as they would've hoped...and that may include me!"

she adds. Having formed friendships with other Housewives, including Lisa Vanderpump, whom she did business with in Los Angeles, and Kathy Wakile, it's safe to conclude that Black won't be falling off the radar anytime soon.

Despite her busy career, her number one focus is always her family. Not only do the jewelry designer and her husband Roy love to have date nights when they travel, but they work to raise their son to be a respectable young man. "It's funny; I've sent my son twice now to etiquette and charm school! As for my husband, he does good and bad, so I point it out to my son when he does something that's not acceptable!" she reveals with a laugh. "I put a big effort into teaching my son manners. I think if you don't have an ounce of manners, then later in life, people will view you differently." As for their summer vacation plans, the family of three are planning to travel to Los Angeles, something they do each year.

Lea Black Shares Best Love Advice

The reality TV star's happy celebrity marriage can be attributed to her commitment to working at her relationship every day. She believes that communication is key. "You should communicate before things escalate, not after," she insists. "And you need to be on the same page in life. If you focus on the 'me' instead of 'we', then that relationship is not going in the right direction."

The beauty guru believes that, after you find the right person, you need balance. "Once you find the right person, you've really got to be committed to having equal power, an equal balance," she asserts. "That's why I'm so against guys who make girls sign prenups – because it situates the guy to have more power through money. You have to go in expecting both people to have an equal say."

Black also thinks that, if you're facing disapproval from your friends and family, you need to make a decision about who's worth keeping in your life. "You have to tell your friends to support you unconditionally. If not, you can be friends with them at a distance and be amicable, but they can't be in your daily life," she believes. "If they're judging your relationship, then it'll just cause problems. If they're going to be in your life, they need to be supportive. They don't get to criticize your spouse unless it's something very serious that requires an intervention."

Mark another celebrity engagement down in the books! What are some ways to surprise your partner with a special marriage proposal?

Cupid's Advice:

Dave Abrams and Jennie Garth have been sharing their celebrity engagement with the public and we could not be more thrilled!

Here are some ways to surprise your partner with a perfect proposal:

1. Lead them away from the trail: If you've been together for awhile your partner might be expecting a proposal any day now which really throws off any element of surprise. So drop false hints about a big "date" in the future or making the next upcoming holiday "one to remember." This way when you take your partner to a nice dinner or a trip for two they won't suspect a thing.
