In latest celebrity news, MTV's Jersey Shore star Ronnie

Ortiz-Margo has separated from his celebrity relationship with Jen Harley. If you have been keeping up with the new series, Jersey Shore: Family Vacation, then you may have been expecting this. This break-up is occurring just weeks after the two welcomed their celebrity baby girl, Ariana Sky, into the world. Why did their relationship come to a close? Well, over the weekend, no one could deny the stress they were feeling from witnessing the social media fight that went down between the two. “Note to self, can’t turn a natural born HOE, into a HOUSEWIFE, if you find them in the gutter then leave them in the gutter,” Ronnie wrote on his Instagram story. But then, he later apologized for that. We then saw the pair fighting vigorously on Instagram live and Jen even took a swing at Ronnie. “He apologized for everything and admitted where he had been wrong, but he also wants what’s best for his daughter and he realizes this is not a healthy environment for her,” an insider told EOnline.com. “They have split, but for now they are both living in his Las Vegas house. Jen will most likely be moving out.”

This celebrity break-up seems to have been a long time coming. What are some ways to ease fighting for the sake of your child?

Cupid’s Advice:

We can’t deny that sometimes you will get into fights with your partner. But, you don’t want your young children to be negatively affected by this. Cupid has some advice:

1. Stray away from social media: Whether your child is old enough to be on social media now or not, whatever you put out there will stay out there. If you are going through struggles with your partner, try your best to keep it between you two and don't impulsively post negativity.

Celebrity News: Ronnie Ortiz-Magro Still Loves Ex Sam 'Sammi Sweetheart' Giancola

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Ronnie Ortiz-Magro allegedly still loves his celebrity ex Sam Giancola. According to UsMagazine.com, a source stated: "Ronnie still loves Sam. Everyone knows it." This news comes after Ronnie's recent celebrity break-up with Jen Harley, who is pregnant with his first child. The celebrity exes broke up over the weekend via Instagram for all to see, apparently over the lack of faithfulness in the relationship from both sides. On an episode of Jersey Shore Reunion, Ronnie said that he wasn't planning on marrying Harley. The reason seems to be because she just isn't Sam. Ouch! Sammi Sweetheart actually didn't go back to the Jersey Shore house because of Ronnie, and she is currently dating Christian Biscardi. We wonder where this whole situation is headed.

This celebrity news conveys a concept that many of are not foreign to. How do you deal with realizing you are still in love with your ex.

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it takes us longer than others to fall out of love with someone. It can depend on who that ex is, how the relationship was, or how it ended. However, cupid has some love advice on how to deal with still loving your ex:

1. Analyze your feelings and the situation: Be sure of what you feel. Sometimes we think we feel one thing when in reality we actually feel another. We are only human, so we do make mistakes. Also, evaluate the situation, think with your mind and not your heart. Only because you love an ex does not mean that you should be with them, or even have them in your life for that matter. Evaluate everything carefully.

2. Keep busy: Be productive. Keep yourself distracted while bettering yourself, that's the best thing you can do after all. This can also detain you from taking any decisions that you may regret later. Give your mind some time away from your ex and do what you have to do. After giving it some time, take it from there.

3. Get closure: When the time is right that is! Don't move too quickly. Sometimes what we want is to contact an ex, just for the hell of it. If you need closure, get some. Sometimes instead of closure, things may possibly get fixed, but don't go into it with expectations. After giving yourself the adequate amount of time and you're in a place that's as good as it's going to get for the moment, go for it.

Why Sam 'Sammi Sweetheart' Giancola Avoided 'Jersey Shore: Family Vacation'

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, “Sammi Sweetheart” did not go back to Jersey Shore: Family Vacation because she was afraid that celebrity ex Ronnie Ortiz-Magro would try to get back together with her, according to UsMagazine.com. On Thursday’s episode, Ronnie went off about not caring about Sam not showing up because he has a baby on the way with his girlfriend Jen Harley. Deena Cortese, another Jersey Shore member and Sam’s close friend had something to say in a confessional on the show: “Ron needs to stop talking about Sam and move the f–k on ... Sam told me that he used to call her on blocked numbers, and used to like, be really weird. She was afraid she was gonna get in the house and he would get drunk and spiral and try and get back with her or something.” Arguments about Sam have erupted in the Jersey Shore house regardless of her not being present. The former celebrity couple are a topic of discussion because of their dramatic roller coaster relationship that kept fans watching. Let’s see if Sam decides to make an appearance after all.

In celebrity news, it seems Sam knows what she wants, and she doesn't want to get back with her ex. What are some ways you know you should not get back together with an old flame?

Cupid's Advice:

A lot of the time we think of reasons to get back together with an ex, but neglect to reflect on the reasons we shouldn't. Cupid has some love advice:

1. They're involved with someone else: This is something that may seem obvious. However, there are some people that decide it's time to compete and win their former lover back. This is not the best idea. Once someone is involved with someone else, it will most likely just bring problems into a relationship that you may rekindle. Just remember, if it's meant to happen between you guys, it will.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Tristan Thompson Is Asking Khloe Kardashian for Another Chance After Cheating Scandal

2. You have not forgiven them: If you have yet to forgive your ex for any wrongdoings, then getting back together won't be the brightest idea. You will just have the same problems all over again, which is something you want to avoid. If you can't forgive, then it's time to move on – avoid yourself all the stress.

3. They're still not trustworthy: If you can't trust them, then why go back to them? You would not want to enter a relationship with distrust, it just won't end well. It would be a different story if you didn't trust them before, but you feel like you can now. Remember, when there is no trust (for a good reason), it's best to keep things pushing.

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it is beyond our control when negative rumors start to arise in regards to your own relationship. The most important thing to do is stay calm and laugh at the silliness of these rumors. Although, it is important to make sure that this gossip doesn't get into you and your partners heads. Here are some ways to keep negative rumors from affecting your relationship:

- 1. Show affection: Make sure your partner knows that there is no truth to these rumors. If there is a rumor going around that you and your partner are going to split, your partner may think that you might have told people that you want to break-up and that is why these rumors are going around. Although, that is probably not the case. Ensure that your partner feels secure despite these unsatisfactory lies that are stirring. Show them that you love them so much and all that matters is that you two know the truth.

3. Take the higher moral ground: Even though you and your partner may be upset about these rumors being spread, don't stoop to their level. It may be tempting to begin spreading other rumors because you feel upset that there are rumors being spread about you. This will just create more chaos and strain on your relationship and life in general. We cannot control what others do, but we can control our reactions. Be positive and remember that everything is going to be okay. As long as you and your partner love and support each other, these rumors should not be detrimental to your relationship.

1. Stay busy: This is an important factor because it tests and shows your true inner strength. Baby number two on the way and a wedding is on its way, too for this reality star. Nicole "Snooki" Polizzi is putting her wedding plans into action. According to People.com, the Jersey Shore alum celebrated the upcoming big day with a Great Gatsby themed bridal shower in her native, Poughkeepsie, New York, on Sunday. Amongst the 100 party guests were costars Jenni "JWoww" Farley, Sammi Giancola, and Deena Cortese. Polizzi's 18 bridesmaids were indeed festive in costumes to represent the roaring '20s. Set to wed in the fall, Snooki uploaded photos of the event on Instagram, including a picture of her seating card, reading “Bride to Be,” followed by the caption, “That’s me!” Although the room was filled with ladies, one guy made a special appearance: Her little one, Lorenzo. In another photo shared was her and her 22-month-old son: “With my prince,” she captioned. She later Tweeted to fans, “Had such an amazing day with friends and family. Blessed to have genuine & beautiful people in my life.”

What are three unique themes for a bridal shower?

Cupid’s Advice:

The big day is approaching and you are celebrating it to the fullest. In the midst of all the planning, you are putting together a bridal shower, but running low on ideas. Should it be themed? Should it be coordinated by a specific color? These may be just a couple of questions you have been asking yourself. Cupid has some suggestions to help:

1. Pretty & Pamper: What better way to treat yourself and the ladies than with a nice pampering session? Manicures, pedicures, facials, massages . . . complete bliss! Throw some food, drinks, and a few wedding games in the mix and stamp it as a bridal shower.

2. Gold Glamour: Looking for something with lots of glam and glitter? Set up a themed shower that is the epitome of just that. Roll out the red carpet, feathered boas, sparkly jewelry, and cameras.

3. Pick a Decade: If there is a period in time that you are nearly obsessed with, try to revolve your shower around it. Example: If you choose the 1960s, go with a ‘mod’ look. You will be sure to represent the decade well.

Jenni 'JWoww' Farley Welcomes Daughter Meilani Alexandra Mathews

By Shannon Seibert

This past Sunday Jenni 'JWoww' Farley gave birth to her first born child and daughter Meilani Alexandra Mathews. Farley and fiancé Roger Mathews welcomed their happy and healthy baby girl into the world after many long months of waiting. Farley had recently posted her final picture of her baby bump, commenting on how excited she was to see her daughter. According to UsMagazine.com, the former Jersey Shore reality star initially didn't take well to pregnancy, but was overjoyed to meet her daughter.

How do you support your partner through the final days of pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

Just as Roger Mathews supported his fiancé Jenni Farley, a man can help make his partner's pregnancy more comfortable during its' final days. With the end in sight, each day seems to drag on, delaying the delivery of your little miracle into the world. In this crucial time it is imperative that each partner reaches out to each other for support in order to be fully prepared to make this wonderful addition to your family.

1. Have the birthing plan ready: Though sometimes things don't go according to plan, it's always best to be ready for anything. Pack the hospital bag, make the necessary arrangements, and have your list of people to call at hand so you can be out the door at a moment's notice. This will be one more thing you can check off your to-do list, and it never hurts to pack things ahead of time.

2. Get plenty of rest: The best thing you can do for your partner is to be fully rested and functional for when the special day comes. No one wants to be half-asleep or at 50% the day their child is born. This also limits the amount of stress you may be feeling with the approaching due-date. A minimum of eight hours a night may seem impossible, but for the sanity of you and your partner, and for the health of your baby, sleep is absolutely necessary.

3. Be there emotionally for each other: The thought of bringing a baby into the world can be terrifying at times. You're about to be legally and morally responsible for another human being. Not only will you love and cherish your child, but you'll constantly be worried about whether or not you're doing what's best for them. In these last few days of pregnancy emotions are at an ultimate high, so be there to calm each other down and support one another as your due-date approaches.

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you're thinking about getting pregnant, or you're already well on your way to giving birth, there are a few things you should prepare for and consider before you raise a child on your own. Cupid is here to help:

1. Eat the right foods: Help your body prepare for its physical journey by eating all the right foods. No more caffeinated beverages, seafood, canned foods, etc. Stick to eating plenty of fresh fruits and vegetables. When it comes to your source of protein, try to limit yourself to chicken and other lean meats.

2. Check your finances: Are you financially ready to take care of a child? Take a look at your bank account. Can you afford to miss a few months of work, while you're pregnant? You have to be realistic about what you're capable of doing right now at this point in your life. You're not ready for a child if you're not 100 percent sure you can afford to take care of one.

What are some ways to prepare your relationship for a child?

Cupid's Advice:

You are at that point in your relationship where having a child is or will be the next step. However, it is vital you and your partner know what is tied to a baby. Here are ways to brace your relationship for this life changing event:

1. Acknowledge: You must come to terms with knowing nothing will ever be the same. You must take on the full-time role as a provider and nurturer. Those spontaneous dates or something as simple as having bed space might even disappear for a little while. Also, take into mind that you and your partner are forever joined by the child, not just for 18 years.

2. Finances: As we know, taking care of baby is far from inexpensive. Limit your nonessential spending habits. You and your partner may find that minimizing certain activities will reduce the headache as you all begin to baby shop.

What are ways to prepare your relationship for a child?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you're newly engaged or have been with your partner for several years, having a child is a huge step in any relationship. Though beautiful creatures, a child will challenge and push you to your limits. The best thing you can do for your relationship when expecting a child is knowing what's ahead and preparing yourself for the future:

1. Expect change: It's no longer just you and your significant other; you have a new family member to take care of and think about. And this member doesn't care how much sleep you got before, how you gave up your home office for a nursery, or the weekend getaways you can no longer go on. Accepting early on that there will be changes in your lifestyle will make the transition easier.

2. Prepare yourself for the worst: Being a parent is difficult, especially in the beginning. You'll often feel over-worked, sleep deprived, and helpless at times. This can lead to fighting and even feeling disconnected from your partner. Knowing that this is normal and just a phase, can keep you from over-analyzing it, adding to your stress.

3. Budget for your baby: Setting financial boundaries ahead of time can prepare you for the costly reality of a child. Discussing specific sacrifices you each will make – whether it be giving up trips to the nail salon or a membership at the golf club – can reduce financial worries for both of you.

What are some ways to stay involved in your child's life after a breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is always a difficult time in any relationship, but breaking up when a child is involved is even tougher. So what are some ways that you can stay involved in your child's life after the break up? Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Call: If it's hard to see your child every day make sure you call or Skype with them as often as you can. Taking the time to talk to your child keeps you updated on what he or she is doing or how they are doing.

2. Take them out: Make time to spend time with your child. Make sure you take them out to dinner, the movies or the park so you get to spend some quality time with each other. It doesn't matter what you are doing as long as you are spending more than once a month with them.

3. Holidays: You and your ex should take turns spending time with your child on different holidays. One should get to spend Christmas with your child and the other gets to spend Thanksgiving together. You and your ex can plan a schedule of what holiday's you each get and try and switch off every year.

Former 'Jersey Shore' Star Angelina Pivarnick Is Engaged

Let's do a fist pump for a Jersey Shore engagement! Angela Pivarnick is officially engaged, following her boyfriend David Kovac's very public proposal on the red carpet outside of STYLE360 Sachika's fashion show Wednesday. "She was completely surprised [and said], 'Are you serious?'" She looked really happy and shocked," an onlooker told People.

Should you propose at a public event?

Cupid's Advice:

Proposing in a public setting generally has two outcomes – successfully romantic or embarrassing rejection. The best proposal settings tend to have a tie to your relationship. Here are some things to consider when planning your proposal:

1. Avoid clichés: Instead of sticking with the old ‘romantic candlelit dinner, flowers and hiding the ring in champagne’ routine, make it unique and personal. Take your mate to the restaurant where you had your first date or your first kiss. Something that holds significance to your partner shows thought.

2. A romantic strikeout: Unless you plan on running across Wrigley Field or standing on the 50-yard line of Ohio Stadium, don’t take a cue from the Jared commercial by proposing during a sporting event. It’s unoriginal and the last thing you need are crazy fans surrounding your special moment.

3. Make sure it’s right: Don’t make the move if you have doubts. Proposing is a big step in a relationship, and it’s important that you have no doubts.

JWOWW’s Ex-Boyfriend Speaks Out About Her Dating Advice Book

Jersey Shore star Jenni “JWOWW” Farley is catching some heat in response to her new relationship advice book called, The Rules According To JWOWW, according to RadarOnline. Her ex-boyfriend, Tom Lippolis, is anything but supportive of her newest endeavor, as he calls her book “laughable.” “How could she write a book about dating when she’s done nothing but cheat on her boyfriend on national television?” Lippolis asks. Although Lippolis and JWOWW were the only couple to last through more than one season, that ended during season 3 of the hit reality show when Lippolis saw a picture of his girlfriend kissing tattooed trucker, Roger Williams. “If her dating book is about infidelity, disrespect, and/or lack of self-respect in a relationship then I think it will do well, definitely her expertise!” says Lippolis.

Who should you trust to give you reliable relationship advice?

Cupid’s Advice:

Choosing who to love and spend your life with is an incredibly important decision, and wanting to get advice and opinions on the matter is a natural result of that. There’s no lack of opinions in this world, however, so make sure you only trust reliable sources when it comes to relationship advice:

1. Longtime friends: It takes a long time to truly get to know someone. Instead of trusting the advice of someone who has only known you for a short while, seek the opinions of those who have known you the longest. Plus, they're likely to have your best interests at heart.

2. Family: Your family members have not only known you your whole life, but they're more likely to be straight with you. Instead of the "tactful" filter that's in place with your friends, they'll be blunt with you about their true feelings on the relationship in question.

3. Experts: Check credentials. When you're in the market to hire someone for a job, that person must submit a resume of past experiences to prove he or she is qualified. Take the same approach with relationship advice. Make sure the person giving you advice has experience to draw from.

Jersey Shore's JWOWW Releases Dating Advice Book

The Jersey Shore empire is once again expanding. According to iVillage, Jenni “JWOWW” Farley is now doing her part to advise the ladies on love with the release of her new book, The Rules According to JWOWW. The book contains her self-proclaimed shore-tested secrets to landing a “mint” guy. For those looking to “smoosh” or to find true love, JWOWW just may hold to secrets to success. The reality star describes her debut book as “empowering advice for a new generation of self-assured women.”

What makes a reliable dating expert?

Cupid’s Advice:

A dating expert can really be anyone. Cupid has some suggestions on what to consider when you’re looking for relationship advice:

- 1. Who knows you best: Trust the advice of the people who know you well, such as family and close friends. At least you know that they always have your best interests at heart.
- 2. Credentials: Bloggers, authors and talk show hosts have usually gotten to where they are by proving their understanding of relationships. Consider their resume before trusting their advice.

3. A gut feeling: Your own gut is probably the best dating expert to consult!
