

Celebrity News: Jordyn Woods Parties with Khloe Kardashian's Ex James Harden

By

Katie Sotack

It looks like more Kardashian exes are after Jordyn Woods! Model, Woods was seen partying at a Houston nightclub with NBA player James Harden, according to People.com. Celebrity exes Khloe and Harden ended things three years ago, but after Khloe's baby daddy Tristan Thompson made moves on Woods, the tensions between the superstar family and Jordyn over exes are high. Woods seems to be attracting all the same men as the Kardashian sisters, as she was spotted with Kim's ex Ray J as well. Though Woods claims she's as sorry and apologetic as she can be, Khloe maintains she never wants to see her again.

In celebrity news, Jordyn Woods may be asking for more drama with Khloe Kardashian. What are some basic rules when it comes to friends' exes?

Cupid's Advice:

According to Khloe Kardashian, her friendship with Woods is totally over. Yet with feelings still webbed between the two and their exes, does girl code still apply? Here are the laws of the land when interacting with a friend's ex:

1. Not too friendly: Unless this ex was part of the friend group before your bestie started dating them, it's best to pull back from that budding friendship. Don't go around commenting on their Instagram posts and bar hopping with them. It's better to let your friend know they're your number one. This doesn't mean you have to hit the unfollow button or that you can't be social at parties. Just try not to be their closest confidant.

2. Dating an ex?: You two really clicked and they might be, like, the love of your life. That doesn't make the situation as less tricky. Parse out if you really have feelings for this ex, that go beyond lust. Then if you're sure you need to be with them, go to your friend first. This doesn't mean you'll be free and clear from any negative fall out, but your friend will respect that you didn't go behind their back.

3. Take your friend's side: Even if you don't agree with their bitching they likely need to vent about the relationship. Don't use this time to point out that their ex wasn't all the bad. After the breakup let your friend blow off steam for the first few weeks. After that if they're still bitter, let them know it's not benefiting them to fret over the past.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Confronts Luke P. at 'Men Tell All'

By

Katie Sotack

This season's Bachelorette has been full of stories about Luke Parker. Yet, on Monday, Hannah Brown took the celebrity breakup narrative back and stood against Luke P's red flag behavior. According to UsMagazine.com, Hannah said she was "over being slut-shamed" and apologized to Bachelor fans for keeping Parker's face on their TVs for so long. Fellow contestants joined Hannah's #LukePIsOverParty with Devin coming on stage to confront Luke's need to control women to feel better about himself. As for Luke, he mostly minced words and contradicted himself in between commercial breaks.

In celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown faced Luke Parker after the explosive end to their relationship. What are some ways to get closure after a relationship ends?

Cupid's Advice:

At the end of the relationship, there are steps to be taken to ease the painful process. Instead of wondering "what if?" find ways to deal with your feelings and move on. Here are relationship tips to find closure:

1. Wallow: In the wake of your devastating breakup give yourself permission to wallow for an allotted time period. Take Friday off and watch your favorite movies while binging on ice cream. Or, call up your mom and talk about what happened. Allow yourself to feel all the confusing and painful emotions that come with ending a relationship so that you can make peace inside your head.

2. Seek socialization: After your weekend of wallowing, call your friends and go outside. Being around outside energy will widened your perspective and help you to see the world outside of your old relationship. Whether you want to go dancing or browse the local bookstore absorb the positive vibes around you and be mindful of the now.

3. Talk to your ex: When the time comes, speak to your ex to find closure. This step should only be taken after you've processed the bulk of your emotions and can be trusted to converse calmly without blame or aggression. Meet for coffee or somewhere else public to discuss the demise of your situation. Go in knowing that the goal is not to get your relationship back but rather to hear out the other person and grow from their experience with you.

Celebrity News: Ben Higgins Says 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown's Sex Confessions Are 'Confusing'

By

Katie Sotack

In Bachelorette news, former Bachelor Ben Higgins is confused by Hannah Brown's sex confessions in the most recent episode of her season. On a podcast interview with Bachelor Nation, Higgins admitted that Brown's statements on whether having sex on the show was a wise decision seem contradictory. According to UsMagazine.com, this news comes right after Brown and contestant Parker participated in a raging fight on screen and social media war off screen on the issue of sex with multiple partners.

In celebrity news, Ben Higgins is confused about Hannah's seemingly conflicting sex admissions. How do you know when it's the right time to get physical with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Have you ever been dating someone and wondered, "When's the right time to hookup?" What's too soon, and what will they think of me if we wait a long time? Here is relationship advice on getting intimate:

1. Are you turned on?: The number one requirement to figuring out the right time to be intimate is being aroused. If you're feeling your partner, the environment, and the contraceptive measures are at your minimum requirements at least, you might be ready to get physical. There is still some question on whether this is the right time for you emotionally, but desire is the number one box to be checked off.

2. Don't be pressured: Just because your friend slept with their partner on the first date and your other friend waits until the 10th to get it on, doesn't mean these timelines are right for you. Only you and your sexual partner can decide on the who, what, when, where, and why of your sex life.

3. Ignore all advice: Physical intimacy is different for everyone. Sexuality is like a snowflake – everybody's special and there's no one size fits all. Instead of feeling worried about outside context, be mindful. Consider yourself, what you want, and what you are comfortable with. Then, proceed from there.

In celebrity news, Tyler C. stole the hearts of Bachelor Nation. What are some ways to know your partner respects you?

Cupid's Advice:

The interaction between these reality tv stars shows us that chivalry is not dead, and respect is something everyone should expect from their partner. Cupid has some advice on ways to know your partner respects you:

1. They really listen to you: One great sign of respect is having a partner who listens to you. They don't just hear what you say but are actively engaged in listening when you talk and they carefully respond after taking time to think things through.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown's Sexy Windmill Scene Revealed

By

Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown's awaited sexy windmill scene aired. Fans were surprised to learn that the guy who'd landed in the windmill with Brown was Peter Weber and not Jed Wyatt. The unique location of the windmill scene made it clear who Brown had been referring to with her earlier statements, and according to UsMagazine.com, Brown confirmed she slept with Weber twice as he bragged the next morning, "We are one now."

In celebrity news, the now-infamous windmill scene on the most recent episode of The Bachelorette didn't feature who everyone expected. What are some ways to spice up your love life?

Cupid's Advice:

For these reality tv stars, a windmill added some spice to their romantic tryst. Whether it is location or just trying something new, everyone likes to spice things up in the bedroom from time to time. Cupid has some advice to keep the spice in your love life:

1. Change the scene: Every romantic encounter doesn't have to happen in the bedroom. Try moving things to the living room in front of the fireplace when it is cold out. Or you could just set the scene for romance with candles and romantic music.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Alum Colton Underwood Reacts to Hannah Brown's Sex Confession

By

Bonnie Griffin

In celebrity news, Bachelor alum Colton Underwood reacted positively to Hannah Brown's admission to having sex in a windmill on the current season of The Bachelorette. According to UsMagazine.com, Underwood says the differences between the seasons of The Bachelor and The Bachelorette are "what's so cool about the Bachelor franchise, [because] everybody has their own twists to things." In Underwood's season, he was scrutinized for being a virgin, the complete opposite of the scrutiny that Brown has seen over her admission to having sex with a contestant. These celebs show us that everyone makes different choices and has different tastes when it comes to sex, but it is nice to see these two owning their choices.

In celebrity news, former Bachelor Colton reacted to current Bachelorette Hannah's sex confession. How do you make sure you and your partner are on the same page with intimacy?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone has different sexual appetites. Sometimes those differences can happen between two partners in a relationship, but that doesn't mean you can't work things out. Cupid has some advice to help you make sure you're on the same page as your partner in the bedroom:

- 1. Talk about it: The number one way for you and your partner to ensure you're on the same page about intimacy is to have an open discussion. Tell them what you like and listen when they tell you the same. If you're both open to talking it through, the act can be much more pleasurable for both of you in the end.

Celebrity News: Rachel Lindsay Says She's Surprised 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown was 'So Bold' About Sex

By

Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity news, Rachel Lindsay said she's surprised Bachelorette Hannah Brown was "so bold" about sex after she admitted she slept with a contestant in a windmill on a celebrity date, according to UsMagazine.com. "I'm gonna assume that they're alluding to what happened in the fantasy suite. I mean, I was surprised she was so bold and forthcoming with it," Lindsay told Micheal Strahan and guest co-host KeKe Palmer on ABC'S Strahan and Sarah on Tuesday, July 9. "But I mean, she owns it, so more power to her."

In celebrity news, Rachel Lindsay is surprised that Hannah Brown was so bold and open about having sex on The Bachelorette. What are some positives to being open about intimacy?

Cupid's Advice:

There are some benefits to being open about intimacy with someone who has the potential to become your partner. Here are Cupid's tips on positives to being open about intimacy:

1. Earn respect: Whether you're being open about honesty to earn respect or because you want to gauge how much your potential partner will respect your views on intimacy, being open about your sex life can tell you a lot about someone by the way they react to the conversation. This can be the difference between finding your life partner or just another online date who will ghost you in after a few dates because you wouldn't sleep with them.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Jed's Mom Tells Hannah He's Not Ready to Get Engaged On 'The Bachelorette'

2. Get what you want: Being open about intimacy will ensure your partner or potential partner know what you expect. You need to have a conversation before you're intimate with them. What do you do if birth control fails? What if they want to do something weird you don't want to try in bed? Are you worried about sexually transmitted infections? Would it make you feel better if you're both tested before you take the next step to play it on the safe side? The only way you will be able to communicate any of this is to be open about intimacy.

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Admits to Intimate Relations in a Windmill

3 Self-confidence: Confidence is sexy. Just don't confuse it with being cocky, which can bring an opposite reaction than what you might expect when you're confident. Being open about sex will give you a sense of confidence you haven't experienced before. You know you're sexy and you know what you want from your partner. Don't dance around the subject: own it.

Celebrity News: Jed's Mom Tells Hannah He's Not Ready to Get Engaged On 'The Bachelorette'

By

Bonnie Griffin

In celebrity news, Jed Wyatt's family suggested on The Bachelorette he should follow his music dreams instead of focusing on his relationship with Hannah Brown. Wyatt's mother seemed to be skeptical of the couple, and according to UsMagazine.com, his entire family “was floored that Jed could be considering an engagement when his passion for his music was top of mind.” In relationships, our parents do not always have the same dreams for us as we do, and this is one celebrity couple that would be starting their relationship with Wyatt’s family trying to stand in their way.

In celebrity news, Jed Wyatt’s mom is skeptical of a potential engagement at the end of The Bachelorette. What do you do if your parents don’t support your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Relationships come with many obstacles, and unfortunately, family opposition sometimes plays a huge part. When your parents don’t support your relationship there are a few ways you can get past their opposition and keep your relationship strong. Cupid has some advice to keep your relationship strong even if your parents don’t support you:

1. Respect your parents: You may not agree with your parents’ disapproval of your relationship, but remember they are the people who raised you. They relied on their values and beliefs to raise you and help you become the person you are. Their concern is another sign of their love. You don’t have to leave your relationship because of their opinion, but try not to start an argument or be disrespectful.

3. Bring your partner around your parents more: If your parents don't initially approve of your partner give them the chance to get to know them better. Bring your partner around your parents more often. Take them to family dinner or invite your parents over for dinner with you and your partner. Give them a chance to get to know your partner better and hopefully they will begin to see how much you care for them and learn to be supportive.

What are some ways to spice up your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Keeping a relationship interesting and intimate can get put on the back burner as life gets busier, your relationship evolves and you're no longer in the honeymoon phase. It is easy to become complacent on the romantic front when things like work and children take up so much of your time. Spicing up your relationship can be done with the smallest gestures. Cupid has some advice to keep spice things up even in a long-term relationship:

1. Make eye contact: One of the most intimate things between partners is making eye contact. If you want to keep the intimacy alive try this easy tip and make eye contact with your partner when you say, "I love you."

2. Smile when you see them walk into the room: A big part of keeping things spiced up in your relationship is finding the small ways to make your partner happy; to make them feel appreciated and loved, even without words. Something as simple as a smile when they enter a room or you see them walk through the door when they come home at the end of their workday will make them feel warm and loved.

Celebrity News: Luke P. Loses His Temper with Garrett on 'The Bachelorette'

By

Katie Sotack

The drama never ceases on this season of The Bachelorette, and this week's episode was no exception. According to UsMagazine.com, Hannah Brown was forced to make a hard decision between Luke P. and Garrett after their fearsome fight. As usual, Luke had used the group date as a way to belittle the other men, and Garrett was fed up. After warning Luke that his "time was coming to an end," Garrett ended up with a lap full of bologna as Luke P. screamed in his face. The tension ran high at the rose ceremony when Luke P. and Garrett were the last two left without their red petals. Ultimately, Hannah gave a rose to Luke, who laughed as Garrett exited the set.

In celebrity news, Luke P. lost his cool with Garrett in the most recent episode of The Bachelorette, showing his true colors. What are some ways to handle an angry partner?

Cupid's Advice:

In any relationship, romantic or otherwise, anger is normal. Feelings of resentment, jealousy, or sadness can bubble up in a red hot rage. Knowing the right course of action to deal with an angry partner can be a challenge. Here are tips to calm the emotional forest fires in your partner:

- 1. Be patient: When your significant other is losing their cool it's important to remember this isn't about you. It can be easy to take offense to yelling or hurtful tones, but instead focus on what they're trying to say. Chances are they're truly hurt and not expressing it properly.

3. Know when to call it quits: If your partner's always operating at the red hot level and you're left feeling hurt, it's time to end it. Anger is a normal response in small doses. However if your partner's always running off the rails and you feel more bullied than loved, it's not healthy. You can't fix someone's emotional baggage, no matter how much you love them, and if this anger is dragging you down it's time to go.

Cupid's Advice:

When you're in a relationship, you want to see your partner happy. If someone is saying or doing things that hurt them, you want to stop what is causing their pain. Cupid has some advice when it comes to standing up for your partner:

1. Don't allow people to talk down to them in front of you: You may have fallen in love with your partner, but that doesn't mean your friends or family have. There may be times when someone in your circle treats your partner like they don't deserve you, or talks down to them. It is important that you step in right away. You want to set the precedent you will not allow them to treat your partner disrespectfully.

2. Shut down negative influencers: Not everyone will say the negative things they think in front of your partner. Some will save their opinions to share with you when your partner is not around. Do not feed their negative opinions by listening and allowing them to say whatever they want. Shut down their negative talk right away, and make them aware that you won't tolerate it in the future. You chose your partner for a reason; don't let other people's negativity influence your feelings in your relationship.

3. Be on their side: There could be times when someone in your circle of friends or family says or does something to your partner that upsets them when you're not there to stop it. If your partner lets you know they've been hurt by something a family member or friend did or said to them, make sure they know you have their back. Call the friend or family member and discuss the incident and make it clear it was upsetting and unacceptable. You don't have to be mean; have a respectful conversation, but make it clear that such actions cannot continue.

In celebrity news, Bachelorette front runner Jed had a girl at home when he left for the show and broke her heart. Jed and his ex, Haley Stevens, are both country singers who fell in love before Jed was accepted onto The Bachelorette. According to UsMagazine.com, Jed went on the show as a way to publicize his music, and Haley didn't want to hold him back from any show biz opportunity. However, the six weeks of filming and two weeks after with no phone call from Jed devastated Haley. When the ex celebrity couple ran into each other at CMA Fest, few words were exchanged and Haley knew they were finished.

In celebrity news, all may not be as it seems with Bachelorette favorite Jed Wyatt. What are some ways to know if your new partner is being genuine?

Cupid's Advice:

When falling in love there's no guarantee. The possibility of pain is around every corner. However there are tell tale signs that your partner is the real deal. Here is dating advice on how to tell if they're leading you on:

1. Listen to your gut: First things first, always listen to your gut. If there's a nagging feeling from something primal in your body, it's probably right. Do a little investigative work into what instinct is telling you.

In celebrity news, Real Housewives of Orange County alum and celebrity parent Alexis Bellino recently took the next step in her relationship with her boyfriend, Andy Bohns, and introduced him to her children. According to UsMagazine.com, the family merged together during a boat outing on Father's Day. Bohns has children of his own, making the decision to blend families extra challenging. Bohns' ex-wife recently pleaded through her crisis manager that the couple be extra considerate when posting on social media for all the children involved.

In this celebrity news, Alexis met her boyfriend's kids. How do you know when it's time to introduce your partner to your child(ren)?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrity couple Alexis and Andy are blending families. With consistency and thought your kid(s) may grow to love your S.O. as much as you do. Here are some tips to finding the right time to introduce your partner to your child(ren):

1. You see a future: If you're picturing your future and it has to have this person in it, it's time to introduce the family. You can't very well go on living two separate lives and your kids are a nonnegotiable. In time in getting the two parts of your life to be one.

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette Hannah Brown isn't afraid to get physical with her men, according to People.com. In fact, in yesterday's episode of the show, Bachelor Nation watched Hannah's three heavy make-out sessions with Peter, Jed and Tyler C. The current Bachelorette believes that being sexually attracted to your future partner is an important part of a relationship. While being a devout Christian, this reality tv star believes that her faith should not come into question when in a relationship. "I have had sex. And Jesus still loves me," Brown said in this season's trailer.

In celebrity news, sexual chemistry is clearly important to current Bachelorette Hannah Brown. What are some signs of sexual chemistry to be on the lookout for with your new crush or partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Sexual chemistry is a key part of any relationship, and it is important to figure out if you and your partner have that spark early on. Here are some of Cupid's tips on how to see if you and your new partner have that spark of sexual chemistry:

1. Making eye contact feels comfortable: While nerves can come into play, being able to keep eye contact with your partner is an important part of sexual chemistry. Eye contact lets you know that they are actively listening to you, and that they want to be there with you.

2. Body language: Eye contact and body language go hand in hand. If your partner is angling themselves toward you and not shying away, it is a good sign that sexual chemistry is there, and they are feeling that spark.

3. Follow your instincts: You know that phrase, "Trust your gut?" It really works! If you have an initial instinct about holding your partner's hand, follow through! If they don't reciprocate, you know the spark isn't there. Remember, consent is key in any relationship. If you're unsure about how your partner will respond, don't be afraid to ask! This way you can work out anything that may need to be said, and move on in your relationship.

Celebrity Baby News: 'Bachelor' Stars Arie Luyendyk Jr. & Lauren Burnham Welcome a Baby Girl

By

Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity baby news, Bachelor stars Arie Luyendyk Jr. and Lauren Burnham are parents. According to People.com, Luyendyk confirmed on Wednesday that the pair welcomed their first child together, a beautiful baby girl. After meeting and falling in love on The Bachelor, the celebrity couple has maintained their relationship in the public eye throughout the pregnancy, although they have not yet released the baby's name.

The latest celebrity baby news is that this Bachelor couple welcomed a baby daughter. What are some ways to work on your relationship while at the same time having a young child?

Cupid's Advice:

Having children is a beautiful gift, but that does not mean being a parent with young children is easy. Add the stress of now having a young child who solely relies on their parents to your relationship and you might find yourself asking how your relationship will survive. Cupid has some advice to keep your relationship working after having kids:

1. Have adult conversations: Just because you have a child doesn't mean all of your conversations have to revert to baby talk. You still need to communicate with each other, and as much as your young child is a very important part of your lives, they cannot be the only thing you discuss. Don't cut out your conversations just because you have a child, even if time alone is limited just have your conversations in front of your child because they will likely interrupt even if you try to take a moment and step out of the room.

2. Work as a team: It is important for both parties in a relationship to remember that you both had a child, and that means sharing more than those adorable baby grins. It means that you need to share the work with each other. You both have to help with the fun parts and the bad parts like when they have a meltdown. Be a united front when your child is having a tantrum because it will only add to your stress if you are not on the same team.

3. You both deserve time out: Every parent needs an occasional break. A break from your partner and even the occasional break from your child. We all need a little me time now and again. Give each other that time out and away to just be alone and revel in their own thoughts. Even though this time alone may seem like a strange way to help work on your relationship, your partner will love you for offering them a break.

Celebrity Parents: 'Teen Mom 2' Alum Jenelle Evans & David Eason Lose Custody of Kids

After Legal Battle

By :

Emily Green

In the latest celebrity news, Teen Mom 2 alum Jenelle Evans and her husband David Eason lost custody of Evans' three children on Tuesday, May 28, according to UsMagazine.com. The celebrity couple went before a judge in North Carolina, who ruled that Evans "failed to protect the children while in her care," which resulted in her oldest son (9), and daughter (2) being placed in the care of Evans' mother, while her youngest son (4) will stay with his biological father.

These celebrity parents lost custody of their kids after legal proceedings. What are three ways to keep custody battles from affecting your children?

Cupid's Advice:

Custody battles are hard times for any family. They can put enormous stress on not only the parents involved, but the children as well. Here are some of Cupid's tips to make sure that custody battles don't affect your children:

1. Remind them that it is not their fault: Some children may think that their parents splitting up may be because of something they did. Make sure your children know that they did nothing wrong, and the argument at hand is between you and your former partner, and they had no cause in getting to this point.

2. Tell them you love them: While you and your former partner may not be on good terms anymore, make sure your children know that no matter the outcome, it does not mean you don't love them any less. Even if your children won't be living with you after the fact, have them know that you will always be with them in their hearts, even if you are not able to be there physically.

3. Remind them and yourself, that this is in their best interest: A custody battle would not be occurring without viable reasons, whether it be on your part or your former partner's. Take the time to remind your children that doing this will only benefit them, and give them a chance for a better future.

Celebrity Break-Ups: Fans Speculate That Porsha Williams & Dennis McKinley Called It Quits

By

Amanda Sanders

In the latest celebrity news, fans are speculating that celebrity couple reality star Porsha Williams has split from her fiancé Dennis McKinley. According to UsMagazine.com, during Memorial Day weekend, her followers noticed that she was no longer McKinley on Instagram. Williams' sister Lauren and her mother Diane are also no longer following McKinley on Instagram. As of Tuesday night, the Bravo star began to follow McKinley once more, but her family members still aren't.

Fans have some opinions on what was behind this celebrity break-up. What are three good reasons to call off your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is a big deal and shouldn't be done lightly, but there are definitely some instances where it's warranted. Cupid has some good reasons it's time to call it quits:

1. They're too clingy: At first, it's nice to be with someone who showers you with constant attention. But if they get angry or disappointed every time you go out with your friends or when you need a night to yourself then its time to take a step back and re-evaluate how healthy this relationship really is.

2. They don't make time for you: Even Prince Charming might forget to respond to a text every so often or be forced to cancel plans when something important comes up. But if you're never able to pin down your guy to hang out, that doesn't give you much time to have an actual relationship. This kind of guy typically isn't looking for anything serious, and if you are, then it's time to move on.

3. You can't trust them: No one likes a liar. If you have serious doubts about where they were when they said they were working late or worse, you catch them in a lie, it's time to dump them.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown Confronts Luke P. About Red Flags

By

Amanda Sanders

In celebrity news this Memorial Day, viewers watched The Bachelorette's Hannah Brown continue her search for her happily ever after. The latest episode of The Bachelorette showed the single celebrity discovering some red flags in Luke P.'s attempts to woo her and eventually her confronting him on how it made her feel as a result. On a group date, Luke P. tried to get some extra time alone with Hannah at the photoshoot before offering to walk her back to her dressing room in a way that the reality star viewed as aggressive, calling him "cocky." This Bachelorette isn't afraid to stand up for herself.

What are some ways to confront your partner about something that is making you uncomfortable or upsetting you?

Cupid's Advice

Sometimes it's hard to communicate with someone about things they do that bother you. Cupid is here to help you figure out how to broach the subject:

1. Mentally prepare. If you're nervous about talking to your partner about their problematic behavior, evaluate all of your feelings and identify the real issue that you want to discuss with them. This will keep you from getting sidetracked on the small things.

2. Set the stage. Find a mutually convenient time and place to talk to your partner about what's bothering you. Don't blurt out that you need to talk publicly in front of all your friends. Find a quiet space to discuss the situation. Avoid confrontations online and on the phone unless you feel unsafe meeting your partner in person.

Celebrity Parents: Former 'Teen Mom' Star Jenelle Evans Is 'Exhausted' Amid Custody Battle

By

Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity news, former Teen Mom star Jenelle Evans and husband David Eason are back in court trying to regain custody of their children. According to what a source told EOnline.com, Evan and Eason are “hoping to get [their] kids back in time for summer.” The children were taken after allegations that Eason killed their family dog, Nugget. The celebrity couple plan to seek counseling after they regain custody of their children and life begins getting back to normal.

These celebrity parents are fighting for custody of their kids. What are some ways to avoid a custody battle amid a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Splitting up when you have children doesn't need to result in a custody battle. If both parents agree to be reasonable, then a custody agreement can be made without ending up in a conflict. Cupid has some advice to keep things amicable:

1. Get informed: A good place to start working towards an amicable custody agreement is to become informed in your state's custody laws. Learn what "a child's best interest" means based on the laws in your state because that is what the court will base their decisions on when it comes to the custody of your children.

2. Ask your family attorney questions: Your children are the most important people in a custody case, so don't be afraid to ask your attorney lots of questions, and do not let them pacify you with vague answers. This will not only help you better understand the matter at hand, helping you become more informed but will prepare you for all possibilities and help you fulfill the role of being reasonable so you can avoid an ugly battle in court.

3. Be open to working with your ex: Just like you want to spend time with your children, to be there for them and meet their needs, so does your ex. Children want and need both of their parents, so be reasonable when making demands during custody litigation and keep in mind that your children need time with you and your ex.

Celebrity News: Kelly Ripa Says She Is 'Disgusted' By 'The Bachelor' & 'The Bachelorette'

By

Megan McIntosh

Looks like there's some drama in celebrity news with Kelly Ripa. It turns out that she's "disgusted" by ABC's reality shows The Bachelor and The Bachelorette. According to UsMagazine.com, Ripa blasted the show, saying that she can't stand the idea of women fighting over one guy, adding that women "are too special to be arguing over a guy." Ripa thinks both reality shows are "creepy."

In celebrity news, not everyone has love for the Bachelor franchise apparently. What do you do if you're vying for the heart of someone another person is also interested in?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're first getting to know someone, there's no way to be sure that you're the only person they're seeing. There's always a little friendly competition at the beginning of a potential relationship. Cupid has some tips on what to do when someone else is interested in the person you're trying to snag:

1. Act your age: Some people like to act immature or childish to get someone's attention. That is not the way to do it. While using a childish voice or teasing a potential partner may get you temporary attention, it's no way to keep them interested for the long term.

2. Confidence: It doesn't matter what you do, what you wear, or what you say if you don't do it with confidence. Be confident in your walk, be confident in your flirting, just be confidence. Confidence is attractive because it shows that you know you've got what they're looking for.

3. Show interest: This might seem obvious but the best way to grab someone's attention is to show genuine interest in their lives. Ask them about their friends, their favorites, and maybe try out a hobby or two that they enjoy. This shows them you're interested and makes them want to get to know you better.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Star Blake Horstmann Talks Moving On After Becca Kufirin Split

By

Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity news, Bachelorette alum Blake Horstmann has had a hard time moving on from Becca Kurfirin since she broke his heart when she sent him home. According to UsMagazine.com, the most recent season finale of The Bachelor brought back memories for Blake after Colton Underwood ended his relationships with Hannah and Tayshia. Horstmann has now moved on, and even considers Garrett Yrigoyen a close friend despite his engagement to Kufirin

In celebrity news, Blake Horstmann didn't have an easy time moving on after his split from Becca Kuftrin. What are some ways to cope with a broken heart?

Cupid's Advice:

Heartbreak isn't easy, but here are a few ways you can cope with heartbreak:

1. Spend time with friends: Your friends—the close ones—are your number one support network after a heartbreak. Go see a movie, get ice cream, lobster and steak—whatever strikes your fancy with your besties. It's a way to take your mind off the heartbreak and to try to gather a sense of normalcy.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Colton Underwood Calls Cassie Rudolph His 'Future Fiancee' After Whirlwind Reconciliation

By

Megan McIntosh

It looks like Colton Underwood is officially off the market!

According to UsMagazine.com, Underwood reunited with Cassie Rudolph on the season finale of The Bachelor. Though it was difficult for Underwood to put into words his feelings for Rudolph, he posted on Instagram that he knows she's his best friend, girlfriend, future fiancée, and future wife. Colton has finally found "The One." Cassie, for her part, is on the same page. She posted on Instagram that Colton "has her heart." Though they're not planning a celebrity wedding just yet, the couple was presented with an engagement ring for future use.

In celebrity news, Colton is no longer a bachelor! What are some ways to know you've found "the one"?

Cupid's Advice

Sometimes it takes a while to figure out that you've got a keeper, like Liam Hemsworth and Miley Cyrus who had their share of celebrity break ups before they finally wed. Sometimes you figure it out right away that you're meant to be with someone like Chris Pratt and fiancé Katherine Schwarzenegger, who had only gone public with their relationship a month before their engagement. Whether you're getting married or moving in together, how do you know that you're with "the one?"

1. They really listen: Remember when you said you hated being late, and your partner made sure you always had time to get where you needed to go? That's because your partner listened to you. Whether it's big or small, habits or life goals, your lover knows and understands what's going on with you.

2. You don't drive each other crazy: Or if you do, it's in a good way like butterflies and corny jokes. Your partner should be adding to your life and making your life easier. If you find that while living together, you just click; that's probably because your partner is considerate of your needs. But even if you haven't moved in together just yet, you could try going on a trip so that you can see just how well you do when it's just you two together.

Celebrity News: 'The Bachelor' Colton Underwood Gets Dumped Once Again

By

Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity news, Colton Underwood has been dumped again, according to EOnline.com. First, it was Elyse, then Sydney, and now Heather. Underwood was supposed to go home with Heather so he could meet his parents, but she admitted to him that she wasn't secure enough in their relationship before she jumped on a train. He later took Hannah—who admitted she is in love with him—to meet his parents, but Underwood isn't sure if he feels the same yet. What in the world is going on with this season of The Bachelor?

In celebrity news, Colton Underwood is making headlines as the most dumped Bachelor ever! If you find yourself getting dumped more often than not, what are some ways to stay positive?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting dumped sucks big time. You shouldn't let this get you down. Here are a few things you can do to try to stay positive:

1. Realize they might not be the one: If the person you're dating is truly meant to be the one, they make an actual effort to be with you even if they have their own reservations about getting into a serious relationship.

2. Lean on friends and family: There's nothing like going out to the bar with your best friend or joking around with someone in your family after you get dumped. Surrounding yourself by people who love you can help you reassure yourself that you aren't necessarily the reason you keep getting dumped.

3. Admit that dating is hard: With online dating taking over more than the traditional ways couples used to meet, it can be pretty tough to meet someone who you're going to be happy with since so many options are out there. It's okay to admit to yourself that the chemistry just might not have been there if they dump you.
