

Celebrity Exes: 'The Bachelor' Star Lauren Bushnell Says She Hasn't Spoken to Ex Ben Higgins Recently

By

Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, The Bachelor star Ben Higgins, 30, and fiancé Lauren Bushnell, 30, ended their engagement last May, and they haven't talked much since. Bushnell spoke to UsMagazine.com while attending a FabFitFun event in West Hollywood. When asked about the celebrity break-up, Bushnell responded saying the split was difficult since the two “are in the same circle and same world.” That being said, she admitted that she has only spoken to him to congratulate him on the launch of his new coffee company, Generous.

These celebrity exes split up amicably, but they aren't necessarily on speaking terms. What are some benefits to a clean break after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

There's something to be said for a clean break after a break-up. Cupid has some reasons to consider:

1. Piece of mind: Although you may miss your ex, a clean break often helps to heal faster. Those miserable, “should've, could've, would've” thoughts won't hound you for as long, and you can start to move on. No headaches are always a plus.

2. Breathe: Whether it was a mutual split or not, you can now relax and breathe. You will have more “me” time. Spend this time “catching your breath” and give your mind, heart, and body a rest.

3. Rearrange: Now that you are newly single and will have more time on your hands, mix things up! Sign up for that yoga class you've thought about, but didn't have time for. You can now rearrange things in your life, and the best part is, you can start whenever you're ready!

Celebrity Break-Up: Jersey Shore's Ronnie Ortiz-Margo Splits From Jen Harley After Baby Birth

By

Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, MTV's Jersey Shore star Ronnie Ortiz-Margo has separated from his celebrity relationship with Jen Harley. If you have been keeping up with the new series, Jersey Shore: Family Vacation, then you may have been expecting this. This break-up is occurring just weeks after the two welcomed their celebrity baby girl, Ariana Sky, into the world. Why did their relationship come to a close? Well, over the weekend, no one could deny the stress they were feeling from witnessing the social media fight that went down between the two. "Note to self, can't turn a natural born HOE, into a HOUSEWIFE, if you find them in the gutter then leave them in the gutter," Ronnie wrote on his Instagram story. But then, he later apologized for that. We then saw the pair fighting vigorously on Instagram live and Jen even took a swing at Ronnie. "He apologized for everything and admitted where he had been wrong, but he also wants what's best for his daughter and he realizes this is not a healthy environment for her," an insider told EOnline.com. "They have split, but for now they are both living in his Las Vegas house. Jen will most likely be moving out."

This celebrity break-up seems to have been a long time coming. What are some ways to ease fighting for the sake of your child?

Cupid's Advice:

We can't deny that sometimes you will get into fights with your partner. But, you don't want your young children to be negatively affected by this. Cupid has some advice:

1. Stray away from social media: Whether your child is old enough to be on social media now or not, whatever you put out there will stay out there. If you are going through struggles with your partner, try your best to keep it between you two and don't impulsively post negativity.

2. Have a getaway: If you and your partner really need to hash things out, take a little weekend trip. Have your parents or a close friend watch over your child while you guys spend some time elsewhere to work out your differences. This way, your child won't have to experience the yelling and screaming. Sometimes, the best thing to do is have some time alone with your partner to figure out what is best for your family as a whole.

Celebrity News: Ronnie Ortiz-Magro Still Loves Ex Sam

'Sammi Sweetheart' Giancola

By

Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Ronnie Ortiz-Magro allegedly still loves his celebrity ex Sam Giancola. According to UsMagazine.com, a source stated: "Ronnie still loves Sam. Everyone knows it." This news comes after Ronnie's recent celebrity break-up with Jen Harley, who is pregnant with his first child. The celebrity exes broke up over the weekend via Instagram for all to see, apparently over the lack of faithfulness in the relationship from both sides. On an episode of Jersey Shore Reunion, Ronnie said that he wasn't planning on marrying Harley. The reason seems to be because she just isn't Sam. Ouch! Sammi Sweetheart actually didn't go back to the Jersey Shore house because of Ronnie, and she is currently dating Christian Biscardi. We wonder where this whole situation is headed.

This celebrity news conveys a concept that many of are not foreign to. How do you deal with realizing you are still in love with your ex.

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it takes us longer than others to fall out of love with someone. It can depend on who that ex is, how the relationship was, or how it ended. However, cupid has some love advice on how to deal with still loving your ex:

1. Analyze your feelings and the situation: Be sure of what you feel. Sometimes we think we feel one thing when in reality we actually feel another. We are only human, so we do make mistakes. Also, evaluate the situation, think with your mind and not your heart. Only because you love an ex does not mean that you should be with them, or even have them in your life for that matter. Evaluate everything carefully.

2. Keep busy: Be productive. Keep yourself distracted while bettering yourself, that's the best thing you can do after all. This can also detain you from taking any decisions that you may regret later. Give your mind some time away from your ex and do what you have to do. After giving it some time, take it from there.

3. Get closure: When the time is right that is! Don't move too quickly. Sometimes what we want is to contact an ex, just for the hell of it. If you need closure, get some. Sometimes instead of closure, things may possibly get fixed, but don't go into it with expectations. After giving yourself the adequate amount of time and you're in a place that's as good as it's going to get for the moment, go for it.

Why Sam 'Sammi Sweetheart' Giancola Avoided 'Jersey Shore: Family Vacation'

By

Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, “Sammi Sweetheart” did not go back to Jersey Shore: Family Vacation because she was afraid that celebrity ex Ronnie Ortiz-Magro would try to get back together with her, according to UsMagazine.com. On Thursday’s episode, Ronnie went off about not caring about Sam not showing up because he has a baby on the way with his girlfriend Jen Harley. Deena Cortese, another Jersey Shore member and Sam’s close friend had something to say in a confessional on the show: “Ron needs to stop talking about Sam and move the f–k on ... Sam told me that he used to call her on blocked numbers, and used to like, be really weird. She was afraid she was gonna get in the house and he would get drunk and spiral and try and get back with her or something.” Arguments about Sam have erupted in the Jersey Shore house regardless of her not being present. The former celebrity couple are a topic of discussion because of their dramatic roller coaster relationship that kept fans watching. Let’s see if Sam decides to make an appearance after all.

In celebrity news, it seems Sam knows what she wants, and she doesn't want to get back with her ex. What are some ways you know you should not get back together with an old flame?

Cupid's Advice:

A lot of the time we think of reasons to get back together with an ex, but neglect to reflect on the reasons we shouldn't. Cupid has some love advice:

1. They're involved with someone else: This is something that may seem obvious. However, there are some people that decide it's time to compete and win their former lover back. This is not the best idea. Once someone is involved with someone else, it will most likely just bring problems into a relationship that you may rekindle. Just remember, if it's meant to happen between you guys, it will.

2. You have not forgiven them: If you have yet to forgive your ex for any wrongdoings, then getting back together won't be the brightest idea. You will just have the same problems all over again, which is something you want to avoid. If you can't forgive, then it's time to move on – avoid yourself all the stress.

3. They're still not trustworthy: If you can't trust them, then why go back to them? You would not want to enter a relationship with distrust, it just won't end well. It would be a different story if you didn't trust them before, but you feel like you can now. Remember, when there is no trust (for a good reason), it's best to keep things pushing.

Celebrity Break-Up: 'Vanderpump Rules' Star Jax Taylor Explains Why He Broke Up with Brittany Cartwright

By

Carly Horowitz

The emotional celebrity break-up of Vanderpump Rules stars Jax Taylor and Brittany Cartwright aired on Monday. Taylor owned up to his shortcomings and suggested that they split because he was not happy with himself. This break-up was filmed in August 2017 and since then, the pair has actually been trying to make their relationship work, according to UsMagazine.com. On Tuesday, Taylor confirmed on Twitter that the two are indeed still a celebrity couple now and he added, "I was a mess but each day has gotten better. I'll never be perfect I know this, but I do know that I have the best partner a guy can ask for, and all I care about is being the best I can for her here on out." Taylor realized during their short split that Cartwright made him want to be a better man and he did not want to lose her. This celebrity relationship has been through many ups and down but right now they seem to be at an up!

This celebrity break-up left us with mixed feelings. How do you know when it's time to break up with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

There are clearly not any tell-tale signs that it is time to break-up with your partner. Jax thought it was the best idea at the time but then he realized he was wrong. Yet, there is not a right or wrong answer to anything. You can only do what feels right in your heart in the moment. But, there are some specific indications that the relationship you are in may not be the best for you right now:

1. You find yourself wanting to do other things than spend time with your partner: If you would seriously rather lay in your bed and watch Netflix alone then go out with your boo, then that may be a problem. It is understandable to want your alone time sometimes, but it should not feel like a chore to go spend time with the one you love.

2. You bicker about everything: It is okay to not agree with your partner all the time, but if it has come to a point where bickering is draining both you and your partner, you need to have a talk. Are you bickering about small things all the time because there is something big that is bothering you both deep down? Be open and honest with each other and try to get your relationship happiness back before it is too late.

Related Link: Celebrity Divorce: 'Vanderpump Rules' Star Lala Kent's Married Boyfriend Is Officially Divorced

3. You constantly think about what else is out there: Is there someone out there who likes painting as much as I do? Do all partners snore so loud? Your loved one's traits should be endearing to you. It definitely may be time for a break-up if you constantly fantasize about if other people may be a better fit for you. Remember that everything is what you make of it. If you find yourself feeling this way but you do want to make it work, you can! You two just have to try together to get back on the right track. But if you find yourself feeling like this and it makes you realize that you really do not see a future with this person, then end it and be confident that your true love is out there and you will find them soon.

Celebrity Break-Up: 'Bachelor Winter Games' Star Lesley Murphy Breaks Silence After Split from Dean Unglert

By

Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, The Bachelor Winter Games star Lesley Murphy and Dean Unglert have posted on their Instagram accounts in such a way that makes it seem as if they went through a celebrity break-up with each other. The former celebrity couple were spotted together at the Sundance Film Festival in January, and that's when we knew they were dating. Yet, Murphy wrote in an Instagram caption two days ago stating, "All we need is that same energy reciprocated, and despite how open and loving you attempt to be, people can only meet you as deeply as they've met themselves. Don't be afraid to be the one that loved the most and give everything you had, because you've got to find people who love like you do and who are ready." She also goes on to state that she is "out with the old, in with the TRUE." This definitely seems like the two went through a break-up. To add to the speculation, Unglert also wrote on Instagram, "As I've gotten older, I've learned that although everyone DESERVES love, it's not something we're entitled to. Love takes work. Love is compromise. Love is earned. I still have a lot of work to do on myself, a lot to prove to myself, before I'm ready for something like that." To conclude, a source informed EOnline.com that the pair did indeed break up recently. The aspects of distance and traveling are said to have had some effect on their relationship. The two plan to continue as friends.

This Bachelor Winter Games celebrity break-up wasn't really unexpected, but Lesley had some things to say about it. What are some benefits to getting your side of a break-up story out to your family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

When you and your partner break-up, speculation can occur. If you feel comfortable, the best thing to do is get your side of the break-up out to your family and friends. Here is why:

1. They will know the truth: You definitely want your closest friends and family to know the truth about why your break-up occurred. Fill them in on how you feel about it so that they are not left in the dust to wonder how you are doing. Your ex-partner may have a different side of the story, and that is okay. Both of you guys can expose your thoughts and feelings on the matter in order to make for a healthy, transparent split.

2. They will support you: During this time of a break-up, it is usually beneficial to have the support of your friends and family. How are they going to know to support you if you don't let them in on what is going on? Be open with them. This will help to both get your feelings out and inform the ones closest to you.

3. They will try to understand: Even though no one can ever feel the exact same way you do, people can at least try to understand. By doing something like posting an Instagram post detailing your feelings, it helps for your friends and family to see where you are coming from. The more they understand, the easier it is for them to continue to love and support you.

Carly Horowitz

In the latest celebrity gossip, rumors have been swirling about Nicole 'Snooki' Polizzi and her husband, Jionni LaValle, getting a celebrity divorce. It is confirmed that these rumors are not true. In fact, the pair has decided that they want to expand their family even more despite these negative reports. According to UsMagazine.com, Snooki said, "We are planning to have kids at the end of July. So hopefully I will have another baby by August/ September. I want two more babies," she continued. "I'm super excited. We will see." Snooki has also worked to make sure the public knows that her celebrity relationship with Jionni is going strong. "I love him to death," the reality TV star said. "I think people worry because we never take pictures together and post on Instagram. He hates pictures, he hates this fame life. He likes to be quiet and reserved, which humbles me." Snooki adds that she loves her husband to death and he's her best friend; he is just a little shy.

There's no truth to these celebrity divorce rumors! What are some ways to keep negative rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it is beyond our control when negative rumors start to arise in regards to your own relationship. The most important thing to do is stay calm and laugh at the silliness of these rumors. Although, it is important to make sure that this gossip doesn't get into you and your partners heads. Here are some ways to keep negative rumors from affecting your relationship:

1. Show affection: Make sure your partner knows that there is no truth to these rumors. If there is a rumor going around that you and your partner are going to split, your partner may think that you might have told people that you want to break-up and that is why these rumors are going around. Although, that is probably not the case. Ensure that your partner feels secure despite these unsatisfactory lies that are stirring. Show them that you love them so much and all that matters is that you two know the truth.

2. Be open and honest: As we know, communication is key. Respond quickly. Before the rumors get to a very negative point, communicate the truth to the people you associate with. If you are open and honest in the first place, hopefully rumors won't even begin to occur. Sometimes though, people just honestly enjoy making up stuff. You can only do so much to prevent them.

3. Take the higher moral ground: Even though you and your partner may be upset about these rumors being spread, don't stoop to their level. It may be tempting to begin spreading other rumors because you feel upset that there are rumors being spread about you. This will just create more chaos and strain on your relationship and life in general. We cannot control what others do, but we can control our reactions. Be positive and remember that everything is going to be okay. As long as you and your partner love and support each other, these rumors should not be detrimental to your relationship.

reasons to ignore scrutiny of your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

People will always have opinions about aspects of your life. That's okay if you learn how to deal with it and just let it go. Here are some reasons why you should ignore this criticism and not let it get to you:

1. They don't know your feelings: No one in this world is able to grasp your true feelings deep down. So how do they have the right to judge you? If you love someone and you want to be with them, that's all that matters.

It's hard to imagine how your feelings would conflict if you were in the same position as Arie. Nevertheless, marriage is a big commitment and you need to make sure you truly love this person before you embark on this incredible journey of marriage. Here are some things that can help you focus your mind and determine whether you're ready to propose or say "yes" to a proposal:

1. You've allowed yourself to be vulnerable: Before you devote yourself to a lifetime commitment, you need to make sure that your partner has seen every beautiful aspect of you and your personality. You're not worried that one day your partner might realize some insecure that you have and then not want to be with you anymore. Expert Dating Advice: How to Handle Heartbreak

By

Megan Weks

Arie Luyendyk Jr.'s point of view on negative commentary regarding his experience on The Bachelor holds a life lesson we may all be able to benefit from, especially related to finding The One. With regard to facing a backlash from viewers, the reality TV star tells E! News, "It's all about the ending, and finding that person for yourself. That's the important part." The takeaway, then, is that, even though he had to endure hardship, he knew it was all part of the journey to finding his soulmate. This thought process can offer us an intelligent and healthy way to approach heartbreak.

Dating Advice for Dealing with a Broken Heart

Related Link: Checklist for Dating from Different Decades: Get Love Advice from 'The Bachelor'

It seems as though Luyendyk will be seriously breaking some hearts this season, especially since he destroyed the “I love you” rule by saying that powerful phrase to two women. Still, the expert dating advice here is that you must take a risk to get the big reward in life.

In Luyendyk’s case, he risked facing all sorts of negative commentary by living the public lifestyle that is on reality TV. Going on The Bachelor was, for him, the ultimate matchmaking experience. He had twenty-nine handpicked women there, all pre-screened to match his criteria. It’s a big risk, but if we look at the results, there are a lot of successful love stories created through this process. Choosing the right woman certainly was a tough choice for him, though...

The women were less fortunate, as only one out of those twenty-nine would end up not feeling disappointed. A couple of them would be severely heartbroken. And one of them might feel badly embarrassed (spoiler alert!). When we face these devastating moments in our lives, how can we handle them? What can we do to keep our sanity?

The key is to look at heartbreak as a beginning and not an ending. The more we fight the flow of life, the more pain we will endure. Look for the opportunity in everything. If you were not someone’s choice, there is a better choice out there for you.

A couple of months ago, a woman approached me for help with news of a devastating break-up. Upon working together, she decided that it could be an opportunity for her to go out and get everything she had been dreaming of in a relationship. She wasted no time in her decision to adopt the Manfunnel Method of dating: She quickly put herself back out there and reported back in exactly one month’s time that she had met an incredible man. They are now planning their summer trip together with her family. She knew what she wanted and took the action to make it happen.

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice: How I Used a Manfunnel to Meet My Dream Husband

If you're not looking to date right away, that's okay too. What can you do to take even better care of yourself? Perhaps you commit to your yoga mat, get into that infrared sauna, and spend extra time in the steam room. Fill your body with the highest-quality foods. Take time to sort through what might have gone wrong on your end. If you sit still, reflect, and grow from your experiences, you will eventually attract higher-quality people into your world because of your heightened level of awareness.

Your break-up is an opportunity. It happened for a reason. Soon, you will find out the reason. You may end up being delighted and thankful. So for now, just allow everything to unfold as it is meant to.

Celebrity News: 'The Bachelor' Star Bekah Martinez Says She's More Ready for Marriage Than Arie

By

Karley Kemble

Bekah Martinez is one of the most talked about contestants on this season of The Bachelor, not because she caused drama, but because of her age! Though she just turned 23, this season's Bachelor, Arie Luyendyk, Jr., is 36, and he (along with many women on the show) felt Martinez was not ready to settle down. However, in the latest celebrity news, Martinez claims Luyendyk Jr. is the one who's not ready for marriage. In a recent interview with Entertainment Tonight, the reality TV star stated, "I think I'm more ready for marriage than Arie is, quite honestly. I don't think Arie knows what he wants, and I don't think he's serious about being with one person for the rest of his life," reports UsMagazine.com. Though she was mum about why she felt that way, Martinez assured all our questions will be answered during next week's finale. Sounds juicy!

In celebrity news, Bekah M. was accused of not being ready for marriage on The Bachelor. How do you know if you're ready for marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Age and marriage don't always coincide. When you're ready for marriage and to settle down, you'll know. Check out these tips from Cupid:

1. You're ready to commit: Marriage should be a natural progression in your relationship. In fact, it's better to begin any relationship with marriage on the back burner. Instead of pursuing a relationship with marriage on your mind, focus on being present in the now. As time passes and your love grows, the progression and desire to take the next step will be a fluid change

Related Link: Celebrity News: Arie Tells Two Women He Loves Them Ahead of 'The Bachelor' Finale

2. You aren't trying to fix or save them: All too often, people enter relationships and try to be the heroic figure. In these situations, the underlying thought is that the flaws or challenges the partner is facing will be fixed over time with careful guidance from the other partner. This is never a good idea, as it ultimately is romanticizing challenges and causes you to think things will work out eventually. It's better to find a partner that you see eye-to-eye with, and to keep your mind and heart in-sync with each other.

3. You know it won't be easy: The honeymoon phase of your relationship will come to an end, and finding romance will not always be a walk in the park. You and your partner will certainly have your fair share of struggles to keep the romance alive. If you are accepting of this, and feel ready to face the challenges that will arise, that is a good sign. Always be sure to grow together, because the only other option is growing apart.

Checklist for Dating from Different Decades: Get Love Advice from 'The Bachelor' Star Arie Luyendyk, Jr.

By

Megan Weks

There is a bit of a buzz going on about the age gap between some of the contestants and the leading man on season 22 of The Bachelor. Is it really a big deal? After all, significant age differences are often common in celebrity relationships. A notable one is Mary-Kate Olsen and French businessman Olivier Sarkozy, who is seventeen years older than the fashion designer. Celebrity couple Hugh Jackman and Deborra-lee Furness also seem to be handling the test of time: She is thirteen years his senior, and they have been married for nearly two decades.

Love Advice from Bachelor Star Arie Luyendyk Jr.

What should we look out for if we are dating someone from a different decade? Since Arie Luyendyk Jr. seems well-prepared to qualify the candidates on The Bachelor, we might be able to get some great love advice from his experiences. He has self-proclaimed “baby fever” and is therefore seeking a match who is ready to tie the knot and start a family.

Related Link: Celebrity News: ‘Bachelor’ Star Arie Luyendyk Jr. Justifies First Impression Rose Pick

A good relationship starts with good intentions – which means, if both people know what they want out of life and have similar values, there is a much better chance for success, regardless of a difference in age. Luyendyk knows what he wants, which will make it easier for him to see if the intentions of the women he meets match his own. When people do not have clarity on what they want out of life, they can easily veer away from one another on the path to self-discovery.

Regarding his decision-making process with regard to age, according to The Hollywood Reporter, Luyendyk said, “I only really addressed that if I felt it was an issue – if there was some immaturity or if I questioned whether they were really ready for marriage. It’s more about readiness and about being able to take that next step.”

Realize that, if you choose a mate from a different decade, there will be things you don’t have in common. My husband, who is ten years older than me, has different musical interests and grew up knowing different movies and shows. However, since I had an older sibling and am a person who likes all the arts, we find similarities among our tastes. This difference could become frustrating, however, for those who cannot connect through the arts because inevitably, you’ll be spending time listening to music and watching movies and shows together. Therefore, it’s ideal to be able to find some common ground in media that you can enjoy together.

Another thing to look out for: Either you or your partner will be aging at what seems like a faster rate. Your partner may be reaching the next stage of life – middle age or elderly – before you. This difference might start to be more noticeable for you if you're the younger half. You'll want to be sure you have enough of a soul connection that this situation won't matter to you.

Overall, if your goals, values, and soul connection are intact, then age truly is just a number.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Alum Rachel Lindsay Reveals the Most Awkward Part of Finding Love on Reality TV

By

Jessica Gomez

Bachelorette alum Rachel Lindsay opened up about the most awkward part of finding love on a reality TV show, according to EOnline.com. And, it's not necessarily what you would expect. Lindsay got engaged to Bryan Abasolo in 2017 on the finale of her Bachelorette season. The celebrity couple do not have a definite date for their celebrity wedding as of yet, but what Lindsay believes is the weirdest part of the process is the moment the show is over and the cameras stop rolling. "I tell people the most awkward day is the day the cameras go off. Not even your first date. It's like, 'I've been proposed to.' It's this amazing experience. And then they're like, 'That's a wrap.' Like, show's done, and then you're just standing with each other," the bride-to-be explained. "And once we got past that, everything else was a breeze... Because you don't know if the person is really the same person they showed you on camera – and I think that's what's scary."

This celebrity news shows that there are awkward moments even when it comes to finding love on TV. What are some ways to reduce those awkward moments on your quest to finding love?

Cupid's Advice:

Oh, the journey of finding love, how wonderful and scary it can be. Alas, not to worry, Cupid has some advice on reducing awkward moments that could be avoided with a few steps:

1. Don't rush: Take things at a good pace – not too fast, not too slow. When rushing into things, we often miss signs that we should be looking out for in order to avoid making the mistake of further pursuing a relationship or to avoid certain awkward moments. Things should happen in their own time and not be rushed by you or the other person. Love isn't a race, it takes time. You need to learn the way the person is and the way your new relationship is in order to avoid negativity and awkwardness. After that, then the trust needs to roll in, which is why taking things steady is many times a good idea.

2. Don't try too hard: Impress others, but don't stop being yourself. Pretending to be someone you're not is bound to end in an awkward moment. It's important to put energy into trying to putting your best foot forward and being the best version of yourself. However, in the process, make sure to stay true to yourself. Don't let your mind roam too far, causing you to act out of desperation. It's understandable to maybe not want to be your whole, total self – just remember to not stray away from what really makes you you. Insecurities can easily pop up when you're playing a role that isn't like you.

3. Don't worry: Like said before, love and relationships take time. Sometimes certain concerns creep up on us and we become worrywarts. The unknown can be terrifying, and you may not feel completely comfortable because of that. However, don't let unvalidated feelings take over. Get to know the person without judging them from past experiences you've had that have nothing to do with them. As time passes by, you will also build emotional intimacy, which should ease the worrying due to having a more open relationship with one another.

This celebrity baby news is great to hear! What are some ways to compromise with your partner on baby names?

Cupid's Advice:

Choosing your baby's name is exciting, but can also be a bit tedious considering you and your partner should be in agreement with the name chosen. Cupid has some advice on how to get on the same page when it comes to the name of your tiny loved one:

1. Try using a compromising tool online: Babynamester.com has this tool, along with many suggested baby names for you and your partner to check out. The way it works is you enter the sex of the baby, then you and your partner each type in what your top baby names are. Next, you choose which one you each like best from your partner's list. And lastly, the site generates a long list of combined baby name preferences. Try it and see if it may work for you!

2. The Middle Name: One of you can choose the first name and the other one can choose the middle name. Many couples compromise in this manner. ways to keep rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Uh oh, is your relationship the current talk of the rumor mill? Don't worry, love. This too shall pass. If rumors are bringing you down, Cupid has how to fight through these challenging times:

1. Stay busy: This is an important factor because it tests and shows your true inner strength. In time, the rumors should pass because people will realize you're way too strong to be affected by their nonsense.

2. Give the benefit of the doubt: When you hear something unnerving or seemingly unlikely about your partner, it's important to take a step back and not jump to conclusions. Your emotions will be running high, and you're definitely entitled to your feelings. Just think: are you going to jeopardize an entire relationship over the possibility of a rumor being true?
