Celebrity News: A Brand New Episode of 'Lucky Dog' with Host Brandon McMillan Will Warm Your Heart

By Noelle Downey

Animal lovers, it's time to rejoice! In the latest celebrity news, there's a brand new and particularly sweet episode of the hit CBS show Lucky Dog coming out this Saturday, May 13th. It will have your heart swelling with love for an adorable dog named Frankie, not to mention for Brandon McMillan, the handsome host and passionate dog trainer.

Watch Lucky Dog on Your Next Date Night

The show follows McMillan as he rescues dogs from shelters and pounds who have hours left before they're put down and then trains them at his famed Lucky Dog Ranch to prepare them for life with a fantastic family. It's the perfect heart-warming fare to cuddle up and watch with your dog-loving significant other for a date night! This weekend's episode, sponsored by The Outdoor Power Equipment Institute's (OPEI) TurfMutt environmental education and stewardship program, will feature a rescue dog named Frankie, a Beagle mix that's training-shy and anxious around humans after a series of negative experiences in his past. "He's basically written off all humans because of what they've done to him," the host confesses in a teaser clip from the episode.

McMillan goes above and beyond to help this damaged doggy find his way back to a trusting, loving connection with humans, while OPEI's Kris Kiser visits a potential dream home for Frankie. Unfortunately, he discovers that their yard is anything but dog-friendly, filled with packed-down dirt instead of lush turfgrass, which, Kiser advises to dog owners, is the best option for keeping a cool temperature and a dog-friendly softness in your yard. The team at Lucky Dog sets to work to make the potential owner's yard more appealing with a massive landscaping makeover. "We thought it was a good conversion opportunity," Kiser explains, "where we could give the owner a living landscape and a much better spot for her family and her adopted dog." With the help of an adorable fluffy pal named Olive, Frankie starts the long process of learning the commands and obedience training he'll need to thrive in his new home.

So why does McMillan feel so passionate about training dogs who might not otherwise get a shot at a second home? In a 2013 celebrity interview with CupidsPulse.com, the television host explained, “I read the facts, and they blow my mind. Every year in America, over 1.5 million dogs are euthanized because they can’t find homes. I wanted to find out why this was happening.”

Related Link: ‘Lucky Dog’ Host Brandon McMillan Shares Dating Advice: “Plan Your Moments For and With Each Other”

Still, this passionate drive to save furry friends has taken its toll on his free time, in particular his love life. In the same 2013 interview, McMillan shared his insane schedule, saying, “I’m so consumed by the show that I go to bed at around 9 p.m. because I have to get up at 4 a.m. We start every morning around 6 a.m. because I want to make sure we work the dogs before the heat kicks in every afternoon.”

Still, that didn’t prevent him for sharing some great dating advice in our 2014 celebrity interview with him. It’s clear his busy schedule has caused him to think carefully about what he’ll do when he does have more free time to spend with a special someone. “No sitting on the couch watching trash television,” McMillan advised any couples out there. “Really plan your moments for and with each other. Saying ‘I’m too tired’ leads to trouble.”

Stanton also mentioned another red flag for her, which involved mentioning her previous ex Nick Viall. "I guess, a red flag for me was, if he was falling for me, he should've just been happy," she said. "Instead, he focused so much on Nick and what everybody else was saying." has been really, really hard on me and the aftermath has been really hard on me.” For now, Stanton explains that she is focusing on her kids, keeping up with her blog, and writing a book.

This celebrity break-up was anything but drama-free. What are some ways to keep the drama to a minimum mid-breakup?

Cupid’s Advice:

Messy break ups are far from easy. Here are some tips to remain drama free during this hard time:

Celebrity Couple News: 'The Bachelor' Stars Nick Viall & Vanessa Grimaldi Defend 'After the Final Rose' Interview

By Whitney Johnson

The Bachelor star Nick Viall may have moved on to his next reality TV adventure – he’s appearing in season 24 of Dancing with the Stars with pro partner (and new celebrity mom to baby Shai!) Peta Murgatroyd – but that doesn’t mean fans have forgotten about his awkward After the Rose interview with fiancée Vanessa Grimaldi. According to UsMagazine.com, during a recent interview for The Ellen DeGeneres Show, DeGeneres commented, “I didn’t see the After the Rose because I could not commit to four hours of television” and then added, “I heard that some people thought it was awkward, that y’all were awkward together.” Grimaldi jumped in and replied, “I think we both went in it wanting to be honest and open about couples, you know, sometimes things can get tough. But we’re very committed to each other, we love each other, and that’s what we’re focusing on.” The celebrity couple has recently relocated to Los Angeles for Viall’s current gig.

There's no denying that this celebrity couple came across as awkward in this season of The Bachelor's After the Final Rose. What are some things to keep in mind when introducing your new love to your friends?

Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity couple's love story was in the public eye from the very beginning, but they still had to introduce each other to their loved ones – on national television, no less! If you're ready to introduce your new partner to your friends and family, consider the dating advice below:

1. Keep it casual: There's already enough pressure on the first meeting of your boyfriend and your loved ones; don't add to it by planning a fancy dinner or letting your friends interrogate your man with an intense game of 20 questions. Instead, keep it simple with coffee or cocktails and encourage your pals not to grill your beau. They can ask you for all the intimate details afterwards!

2. Be yourself: Don't let your nerves get the best of you. Remember that everyone at the table is there because of you. Just be yourself! Show your friends why you and your partner are such a good fit, and show your beau why your pals are so special.

By Whitney Johnson

Fourth time's a charm for The Bachelor alum Nick Viall! After two rounds on The Bachelorette and one trip to Bachelor in Paradise, the reality TV star finally found The One on The Bachelor season 21 finale, which aired on Monday, March 13th. According to UsMagazine.com, Viall proposed to Montreal native Vanessa Grimaldi. After breaking up with runner-up Raven Gates, he began his heartfelt proposal. "So much about me being here has to do with the past, but when I look at you, all I see is my future," he said through tears to a beaming Grimaldi. He then got down on one knee before asking Grimaldi to marry him. This will be the first celebrity engagement for both reality TV stars.

We can't wait to see if this celebrity engagement lasts. How do you know if you're ready to pop the question?

Cupid's Advice:

For Viall, this celebrity engagement was a long time coming – after all, he thought he found his future wife in both Andi Dorfman and Kaitlyn Bristowe! So how do you know if you're ready to propose? Consider this relationship advice:

1. You want the same things: Before you're ready to walk down the aisle, it's important to know if you both envision a similar future together. How many kids do you want? Do you want to live in the city or suburbs? Will you both always work? Marriage is a big deal, but talking about what comes with it should be easy.

2. Your friends and family approve: If you're ready to say "yes" to forever with someone, make sure your loved ones support your decision. Their opinions matter, so give them the chance to get to know your partner and hear them out if they have concerns or worries about your relationship.

Celebrity News: 'The Bachelor' Alum Juan Pablo Galavis Is Close to Getting Engaged

By Whitney Johnson

According to the latest celebrity news in UsMagazine.com, former Bachelor Juan Pablo Galavis may be off the market soon! Multiple sources confirm that the reality TV star is ready to propose to his girlfriend, Venezuelan beauty queen Osmariel Villalobos. "She'll definitely say yes," the insider reveals. “They spend all their time together, and she gets along amazingly with his 8-year-old daughter, Camila. All of Juan’s family and friends love her. They have talked about marriage, and both know it’s what they want.” The celebrity couple has been dating since last summer and are “perfect” for each other. Despite this happy celebrity news, we can’t ignore Galavis’s shaky relationship history: The ex-soccer star is known for his inability to commit, infamously giving his final rose to Nikki Ferrell on the season 18 finale of The Bachelor but refusing to propose or even say “I love you.”

This celebrity news has us skeptical. What are some ways to know you’re ready to get married?

Cupid’s Advice:

Only time will tell if this celebrity couple makes it down the aisle! If you think you’re ready to tie the knot with your partner, consider the relationship advice below:

1. You no longer want to change him: In the beginning of a relationship, it’s tempting to want your beau to be the type of guy who surprises you with a dozen roses, always picks up after himself, and can make a new friend anywhere, but as time passes, you may realize that’s just not who he is. Before you get hitched, you need to accept him as he is.

Related Link: Are ‘Bachelor’ Nation’s Josh Murray & Amanda Stanton a Celebrity Couple Again?

2. You’re willing to compromise: Sure, happy relationships are all about compromise, but marriage gives the word a whole new meaning. If your families live in different states, you can’t spend Christmas with both of them, so you need to be willing to come up with a solution that works for both of you. Once you truly understand what it means to compromise – and you're willing to do so – you're one step closer to be ready for marriage.

3. You bring out the best in each other: When it comes to forever, you want to be with someone who makes you the best version of yourself – and you want to do the same for him. Do you feel like you're glowing when you're together? Do people ask you why you're so happy? If so, he may just be The One!

Every relationship goes through rough patches, but that doesn't mean your love is doomed. If you and your partner, like this celebrity couple, can use the tough times to your advantage and grow from them, you may have a bright future ahead of you. Consider this dating advice:

1. Be patient: Conflicts don't get resolved over night. It's hard to practice patience when you're in a heated argument, but if you find yourself getting worked up, stop and take a few deep breaths. Patience is a quality that will help you get through so much more than a fight with your boyfriend!

Cupid's Advice:

The thought of talking to your ex can be extremely nerve racking. However, giving both you and your ex closure after the breakup can end up being a positive for both of you:

1. Stay vulnerable: One of the hardest things you can do is be vulnerable with the person that caused you so much pain. You have most likely already put up walls to try and protect yourself from more pain. But, this is only going to hinder you from actually talking about your true feelings and leaving with closure.

2. Be honest: Don't be rude or mean, but don't sugar coat your words either. This may be the last time you get the chance to speak to them and it is important you leave feeling like everything is out on the table.

This celebrity couple is giving love another chance! How do you know if you should get back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

It's often tempting to give your ex a second chance. After all, you feel comfortable together, know each other well, and know that you can make each other happy. If you, like this celebrity couple, are thinking about reconciling with a past love, consider this dating advice:

1. You want the same things: It's not every day that you meet someone who you share passionate feelings, values, and longterm goals with. If you still can picture a life together – one that makes both of you happy – even after your break-up, you should sit down and discuss what went wrong and what you can change to make sure things go right this time.

Even those of us who don't share our relationship on reality TV can still deal with gossip from time to time. So how should you address rumors about your love life? According to the latest celebrity news on UsMagazine.com, after a successful one-on-one date, the group date took a disastrous turn. None of the six women felt like they were getting enough quality time with Viall, and after a lot of tears, the bachelor deemed the day "pretty much a disaster." keep drama to a minimum in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

This week's episode of The Bachelor wasn't easy for Viall: In only three days, he said goodbye to six women! Of course, drama is expected on reality TV, but that doesn't mean you need it in your own love life. If you're looking for ways to keep drama to a minimum in your relationship, it starts with you. Consider this love advice:

1. Keep yourself in check: Sure, you want to believe that you're always rational and calm, but we all get caught up in drama occasionally. Before you lash out and blame your partner, take a look at your recent behavior and make sure you're not at fault.

2. Communicate your feelings: As much as you may want him to, he can't read your mind. It's up to you to tell him what he needs to know. Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Break-Out Star Corinne Olympios Opens Up About Nanny & Promiscuous Behavior

By Cortney Moore

It seems like season 21 The Bachelor star Corinne Olympios can't stay out of trouble! The 25-year-old business woman and reality TV personality is making celebrity news once more for her appearance on The Ellen DeGeneres Show. Olympios went on to explain what she meant when spoke of her nanny. "Raquel actually works with my family. She's been with us for 18 years. She moved with us to Florida from New Jersey. She's kind of like my everything," Olympios elaborates. "Nanny is a word that I use for her because I have a lot of respect for her and she's kind of a mother figure for me, so I don't like saying cleaning lady or housekeeper." Nanny Raquel is only one reason why fellow Bachelor contestants have been skeptical of Olympios, but her sexually aggressive attempts to win over Nick Viall have also made the women in the house guarded. When asked why she's done the stuff she has on the show, Olympios says, "That is the real me. It definitely is a real side of me. But there are many other sides to me." And ex-boyfriend Keith Berman agrees that there's more to Olympios that meets the eye. In an interview with UsMagazine.com, Berman said, "They're trying to portray her as some stupid girl, but she's really not that dumb. She knows exactly what she's doing."

This celebrity news has drama written all over it. What are some ways to know that someone wants a relationship with you for the right reasons?

Cupid's Advice:

Throughout your lifetime, different people will try to woo you into a relationship. Although it's a sweet gesture, not everyone will want to be with you for the right reasons. Let Cupid help you determine which ones want to be with you for honorable reasons, and who to stay clear of:

1. Obsessed with your appearance: Everyone wants to be with someone that finds them attractive, however it can be bad if that's all a person wants you for. Someone who only talks about the way you look doesn't care for you. They just want you as arm candy to boost their ego or make others jealous. Find someone who likes you for you.

2. Doesn't want to be alone: Be careful when you're approached by someone who recently ended a relationship. They may be using you as a rebound without even realizing it. You can give them a chance if you want, but look out for any signs that show they legitimately like you. There's no reason why you have to waste time being with someone who can't handle being single.

3. Only wants that one thing: This seems obvious, but it should still be acknowledged. Someone who only wants to have sex with you is not relationship material. A healthy and functional relationship requires partnership and genuine love. Sure, physical intimacy is important in a relationship, but it shouldn't be the only thing.

Have you ever thought someone wanted to be with you for the wrong reasons? What did you do about it?

Celebrity News: 'The Bachelor' Nick Viall Calls Two-on-One Date with Corinne & Taylor a 'Disaster'

By Whitney Johnson

On Monday night's episode of The Bachelor, reality TV star Nick Viall says his two-on-one date with Corinne and Taylor is "pretty much a disaster." For viewers of this season of ABC's hit reality show, this celebrity news, as reported by UsMagazine.com, shouldn't come as a surprise: The two ladies fought at the end of last week's episode as Taylor questioned Corinne's "emotional intelligence." On their two-on-one date, Corinne, this season's villain, tells Viall that Taylor “emotionally attacked” her, and Taylor later reveals that Corinne lied to him. Talk about drama!

Not many of us can relate to a two-on-one date scenario like in this celebrity news. What are some factors to consider when you're deciding between two potential partners?

Cupid's Advice:

On this season of The Bachelor, fan favorite Viall has to pick between 30 women – what a challenge! Luckily, for those of us not on reality TV, the choice is often between only two potential partners. But what factors should you consider to determine who is the best fit for you? Check out our dating advice below:

1. Compatibility: Physical attraction will only take you so far. Do you enjoy spending time together? Do you share the same values? Do you want the same things out of your relationship? Determine if you're truly compatible before moving forward.

2. Common interests: Sure, opposites attract, but for a long-term partnership, it's equally important to have similar hobbies and passions. If you enjoy spending a lot of your free time outdoors, it'd be difficult to main a relationship with someone who'd rather be on the couch!

3. Compromise: A relationship will never last unless you're both willing to compromise. You want to be with someone who will take your needs into consideration and meet you halfway.

In recent celebrity news, The Bachelor is back, and this year on Nick Viall's season, the villain of the season is stirring up a lot of drama! According to UsMagazine.com, Corrine Olympios "showed up to the cocktail party in a trenchcoat and nothing else before asking Viall, 36, to lick whipped cream off her body." While that wasn't seen by the other contestants, later on in the episode, a few of the other contestants saw "Viall jumping around in Olympios' inflatable bouncy house one too many times and called him out: Is he here for the right reasons?" So while some of his other relationships are progressing on the show, it seems the villain of this season is really making some of the girls question his motives.

Cupid's Advice:

Finding the difference between lust and love can be very difficult, especially when the two blur so easily. Use this dating advice to differ between love and lust:

1. Emotional connection: A good way to determine if you are in lust and not love is to ask yourself if you enjoy talking with them and spending time outside the bedroom. Learn if there is an emotional connection.

Cupid's Advice:

It can be extremely awkward to unexpectedly run into a past fling who you haven't spoken to in a while. Maybe things ended after only one night, or maybe it was a little longer than that. Either way, Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Be direct: You might be in shock, but the best approach is to simply be direct about things. If this person is no longer an interest of yours, tell them. There's no point in skirting around the issue, as it will just prolong the inevitable.

Chalk up another celebrity break-up for this Bachelor Nation couple. What are some pieces of advice for breaking the news about your break-up to family and friends?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you’re in a new relationship, it’s exciting to think about introducing your loved ones to your partner, but no one ever thinks about the potential reverse side of that. Rightfully so. But when that time does come to help soften the blow, here are some tips to keep in mind:

1. Don’t be embarrassed: Love’s a gamble. Breaking up can be mortifying, especially if you’ve had major plans and expectations. If a break-up hits you abruptly, take it in stride and know that things happen, especially in relationships. There's no reason to be embarrassed, because it's a normal part of life.

2. Be strong in your decision: Make sure this is a serious breakup and not a petty disagreement. If it's serious, give it some time before you make any major denouements. Don't let the sighs and the sad faces break you down. If you've made the decision to breakup, either collaboratively or independently, don't forget that you've already accepted that.

3. Allow your loved ones to have their feelings: Although they weren't the ones who were in the relationship, it's obvious they'll feel some sort of emotion (be it good or bad) towards the breakup, especially if they were close with your partner. Respect that and allow them some time to register the break-up.
