

Celebrity Couple News: 'Bachelor' Alums Becca Tilley & Robert Graham Are Getting Serious

By Justin Thomas

After endless social media surmising, there's a new celebrity couple trending. In celebrity news, The Bachelor's Becca Tilley has finally set the record straight about her relationship with fellow Bachelor Nation star, Robert Graham. Tilley confessed to UsMagazine.com, saying, "I am dating Robert" at the 2016 iHEARTRADIO Jingle Ball on Friday, December 2. She continued, saying, "It's fun. We've been friends for a long time and it was just a natural progression, and he's just amazing and been patient with me.... I need someone that's patient and willing to deal with me, and he's been that way. So it's been fun, it's been an easy transition." Rumors ignited when affectionate photos of the now couple surfaced on Tilley's Instagram featuring some suggestively cute captions. But things really began to heat up when she posted a shirtless photo of Graham as her "Man Crush Monday." The couple seems to be on the up and up as Tilley went on to mention she's introduced him to her family. She said, "He met all of my family Sunday night, except for my brother. Everyone loved him."

This celebrity couple news was a long time coming. How do you know when you're ready to introduce your partner to your family?

Cupid's Advice:

Timing is everything when it comes to introducing your partner to your family. Cupid has some tips:

1. Make sure you're exclusive: The bottom line is that you want to make sure your relationship is serious before you introduce your family and friends. That means all the "you's" and "me's" have turned to "us" already. Don't put your family through the process meeting, getting know, and potentially liking someone you know almost for certain won't be around for much longer.

2. Don't rock the boat: Meeting someone's family is a substantial jump in a relationship and when appropriate could make your relationship much stronger. But it's not necessarily a right of passage. Evaluate your partner's relationship with their family, and don't pressure them if they don't feel like it's the right time to introduce you. However, don't be naive. Three months is very different than three years when it comes to meeting the family.

3. Be realistic in your expectations: Everyone's family dynamic is unique, so try to think less romantic comedy and more "Hi, nice to meet you." As palm-sweating as it is, first impressions are more important than you might think, but only in the context for setting the tone for family interactions down the line. People often latch on to the first perspective they're offered, so the first impression you make might be the impression you keep.

ways to deal with a partner who is reluctant to tie the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

1. Picture perfect: What better way to personalize your wedding than by putting your face everywhere? By Mallory

McDonald

Fans of The Bachelorette are wondering when celebrity couple JoJo Fletcher & Jordan Rodgers' are finally going to tie the knot. According to EOnline.com, there is one particular reason why the two haven't set a date yet. The two are stuck trying to decide on a location! "We're trying to figure out where it's going to be first," Jordan explained. "We have family in California, family in Dallas... we're just enjoying being together right now," JoJo chimed in, adding that living together in Texas is "so good." It seems that Fletcher is taking on a lot of the wedding responsibilities as Rodgers' feels that the wedding planning is all on her. But don't worry; Fletcher isn't planning alone! Rodgers' mother has been helping her out in the process. "His mom is always sending me wedding books, and we're like, 'We've gotta figure out where it's going to be first!'" However, despite all the drama, the couple does hope to be wed sometime in 2017!

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes marriage just isn't right for everyone. Use this relationship advice to help decide if that next step is right for your relationship:

1. Zero mention: If for months you and your partner have been discussing the wedding and the planning that goes with it, and then all of the sudden there is no mention of it, this could be a sign that you or your partner isn't ready for that step in the relationship.

Celebrity Couple Ben Higgins & Lauren Bushnell Celebrate Bachelor and Bachelorette Parties Together

By Kayla Garritano

From The Bachelor to the bachelor party! Celebrity couple Ben Higgins and Lauren Bushnell celebrated their upcoming marriage with bachelor and bachelorette parties this long weekend. According to UsMagazine.com, the Bachelor alumnae threw a joint party with all of their friends in Las Vegas! A picture shows them poolside with all of their friends on Thursday, October 6, just hanging out and celebrating before the big day.

This celebrity couple did not want to celebrate separately! What are some ways to bring all your friends together before the big day?

Cupid's Advice:

You don't need to have a traditional "all girls" bachelorette party or an "all guys" bachelor party. Sometimes, the best way to celebrate your last days of not being married is to celebrate together. Here are some ways to conjoin your celebration:

1. Wedding party field day: Have your wedding party get to know each other a little better by battling it out. Team Bride vs. Team Groom. This will let your party bond over fun activities all while having some friendly competition. Plus, it's kind of fun seeing your future spouse duel against you.

2. Vacation: Instead of a "party," why not take a trip somewhere together? It's just like a party, except you get to take a couple extra days off and relax for a little bit more. You still get to drink (responsibly, of course), and you get to enjoy each others' company, while celebrating the same thing.

3. Separate rehearsal dinner: You definitely need a rehearsal dinner the night before the wedding. The one with your parents and other family members, as well as the wedding party. But what about a dinner for just your friends? Get together with them all and enjoy a dinner. Make some last-minute wedding plans, and organize the aisle situation; who's walking with who? Just take it easy with your friends before the official events begin.

Cupid's Advice:

Exes can cause great pain that takes time to move on from. Hurting is common when dealing with a break-up and coping isn't always easy. Cupid is here to help:

1. A new relationship: The best way to get over somebody, is to get under somebody else. While this isn't always the case, sometimes it takes another person to distract you from your ex. Once you can accept the break-up and feel for somebody else, you'll be able to move on.

As to be expected, this young medium's life changed drastically after filming the first season of his show. One aspect Henry is still trying to get used to after his television debut is being recognized by fans in his coming and goings. "Getting stopped on the street by people who've been personally affected by the show has been one of my favorite experiences," the reality TV star shares in our celebrity interview, "I love getting to meet fans of the show and hear their stories – everyone has one." And speaking of stories, there's many to tell in this upcoming season of Hollywood Medium. "There are so many moments that are deeply profound, some of my favorites being with people who may have started off as skeptics," Henry reveals. He especially enjoyed conducting a reading for singer and songwriter Moby, who Henry assures received touching results. Other celebrities to keep an eye out for in season 2 include Melissa Joan Hart and Kris Jenner, both of whom left the medium starstruck. The young psychic revealed that he'd like to read Lana Del Rey and Cher because "both are amazing performers with intriguing stories."

In addition to being a medium to the stars, Henry finds time to do readings for non-celebrity clients as well. "The show only represents a small demographic of my overall clientele," he says, "I still read the public and people who need it. It's essential for me to have a balance during filming as readings can become physically and mentally draining." And despite having a busy schedule, this talented clairvoyant has written his first book, titled Between Two Worlds: Lessons from the Other Side that will be released in November. The book is a memoir of Henry's journey to becoming a medium, discussing life events that profoundly affected his upbringing, such as the passing of a childhood friend. "I think people will be surprised to see that many of the stereotypes people associate with don't apply to my situation," the psychic says. "In telling my story, I kind of demystify more of the outlandish ideas that people often assume mediums believe. It isn't like The Sixth Sense, and healthy skepticism is something I embrace." Henry hopes that readers will find resonance in his experiences and learn that we're all interconnected. The book will also go in-depth about the lessons people on the other side can offer to the world of the living. In five years, Henry hopes to still be working on Hollywood Medium, conducting readings cross-country and setting up a charity for young people who've experienced loss.

Thanks to his clairvoyant abilities, Henry's been lucky enough to avoid nightmare date nights. Though there have been times he's felt "more connected to a date's deceased grandmother," but he typically goes with the flow during these situations. The 20-year-old's career as a medium has helped keep his life free from relationship problems. "When I'm dating someone, I often find I know whether we'll be going on a second date before the first one even really begins." But he also says that he isn't opposed to having his mind changed. His abilities just simply provide intuition about people's intentions or motivations. However, this rarely happens since many with ulterior motives "run for the hills" anyway when they discover his abilities.

This celebrity news has us grinning a bit! What are some ways to give advice to a friend having relationship questions?

Cupid's Advice:

Friends give friends relationship advice. Knowing you have someone to help you navigate relationship issues is one of the best parts of a friendship, but it's also a lot of pressure. You don't want to steer your friend wrong:

1. Know your friend: When giving your friend relationship advice, it is important to remember key things about them. Your job is to serve as their conscience when they're being swayed by emotions. Try to lead them to a decision they'd make on their own.

2. Hands off: Give your friend as much advice as they will listen to, try to protect them, but remember not to smother them. Give the advice you have and then lay off for a while. You want the best for your friend but being overbearing can cause a fight between you two.

It's a celebrity couple Bachelorette engagement! What are some ways to propose in the most romantic way possible?

Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity engagement was not only heartfelt, but also extremely beautiful. Even if your proposal doesn't have a set designer, there are so many ways to have it be a memorable and romantic moment. Think outside the box to create a memory that will last a lifetime:

1. Just you two: Proposing in front of a lot of people may seem like a romantic move, but nine times out of 10, a one-on-one moment will be much sweeter. You'll have plenty of opportunity for attention after you announce the engagement, so consider proposing in a private setting or with just close friends and family in your audience. Plan a couples' vacation and propose at some point during the trip, or make a meal at home, set the room with flowers, and propose there. Let the moment be just for the two of you.

2. Speak from the heart: Nothing can make a proposal more romantic than letting your true feelings out. Think about what you want to say beforehand. It doesn't have to be written out, but you should know what point you want to make. Talk about your favorite memories, and why you love each other. No matter what setting you're in sweet words will make your proposal romantic, for sure.

3. Keepsake: Whether it's a video or photo documenting the engagement or a memento you used to propose, incorporate a lasting element into your proposal plans. Create a photo album of things you've done together, make a short storybook about your relationship, or simply have someone there to take a picture when you pop the question. Showing that you put a lot of thought into the proposal is super romantic, and having something to look back on after the moment has passed will preserve the romance forever.

Fingers crossed that this famous family gets reunited soon!

Cupid's Advice:

Children are a blessing. Although babies can bring joy, some couples simply just aren't ready to have them. Let Cupid help you determine if you're ready for parenthood before you actually get pregnant:

- 1. Available: Babies require a lot of time, care, and patience. Evaluate your schedule and goals to see if you can take care of another life besides your own, just like Money did in this celebrity news. Whether you're focused on your career or trying to figure out what to do with your life you need to be honest with yourself about having the time to devote yourself to this baby.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Guy Cut by JoJo Fletcher in Fantasy Suite

By Nicole Caico

At the beginning of this week's episode of The Bachelorette it seemed like all three guys still had a fair shot at a celebrity relationship with JoJo Fletcher, but by the end, one of them was sent packing. Jordan, Robby, and Chase were the three lucky men who made it to the fantasy suite. It turns out that Chase was the one unlucky man to be sent home. UsMagazine.com reports that Chase proclaimed his love for JoJo, and she responded with, "When you said that to me, in my heart and in my gut, I don't think I felt what I thought I was gonna feel. I don't know if I'm in the same place as you. I don't know if spending this night together would change that feeling, and I almost feel like it would be unfair." Chase, rightly upset, left the show. JoJo made it clear that she is not interested in becoming a celebrity couple with Chase.

This celebrity news has us cringing a bit! What are some ways to let someone who is interested in you go?

Cupid's Advice:

It's always endearing to know that someone is interested in you. As flattering as it may be, there comes a time when you've got to let the person know that the feeling isn't mutual. No use putting it off. Cupid is here with some dating advice:

1. Remain unavailable: Before jumping into the full on "it's not you, it's me" convo, see if the person crushing on you can take a hint. When they text you, don't answer right away—and sometimes don't answer at all. Answering immediately and consistently usually conveys that you're interested, so doing the opposite may allow the person to catch on to your lukewarm feelings.

2. The other man: If the person pursuing you is someone you're friendly with or talk to regularly, get on the topic of relationships and try to casually mention another guy you're interested in. If you make it seem like you're confiding in this friend for advice on another guy or girl, they'll have to understand that your interest is elsewhere.

3. Be honest: As awkward as the conversation might be, being honest is the best way to go about it. Just telling the person, "Hey, it seems like you're interested in me, but I'm not looking to date anyone" will clear up the whole situation. Being honest is also the best way to avoid hurting someone. Be honest, and remember—don't apologize—you're just not interested.

Cupid's Advice:

It's not always easy to support your partner if it means he'll be away from you. You can't always support their dreams wholeheartedly, but you can try. Cupid is here to help:

1. Stand by them: No matter what their endeavor is, it's nice if you make time for them. Whether it's a speech or a rec softball game, they'll appreciate the gesture and catching your eye in the crowd. Just the idea of your support will make them happy.
