Fourth time's a charm for The Bachelor alum Nick Viall! After two rounds on The Bachelorette and one trip to Bachelor in Paradise, the reality TV star finally found The One on The Bachelor season 21 finale, which aired on Monday, March 13th. According to UsMagazine.com, Viall proposed to Montreal native Vanessa Grimaldi. After breaking up with runner-up Raven Gates, he began his heartfelt proposal. "So much about me being here has to do with the past, but when I look at you, all I see is my future," he said through tears to a beaming Grimaldi. He then got down on one knee before asking Grimaldi to marry him. This will be the first celebrity engagement for both reality TV stars.

We can't wait to see if this celebrity engagement lasts. How do you know if you're ready to pop the question?

Cupid's Advice:

For Viall, this celebrity engagement was a long time coming – after all, he thought he found his future wife in both Andi Dorfman and Kaitlyn Bristowe! So how do you know if you're ready to propose? Consider this relationship advice:

1. You want the same things: Before you're ready to walk down the aisle, it's important to know if you both envision a similar future together. How many kids do you want? Do you want to live in the city or suburbs? Will you both always work? Marriage is a big deal, but talking about what comes with it should be easy.

Celebrity News: 'The Bachelor' Alum Juan Pablo Galavis Is Close to Getting Engaged

By Whitney Johnson

According to the latest celebrity news in UsMagazine.com, former Bachelor Juan Pablo Galavis may be off the market soon! Multiple sources confirm that the reality TV star is ready to propose to his girlfriend, Venezuelan beauty queen Osmariel Villalobos. “She’ll definitely say yes,” the insider reveals. “They spend all their time together, and she gets along amazingly with his 8-year-old daughter, Camila. All of Juan’s family and friends love her. They have talked about marriage, and both know it’s what they want.” The celebrity couple has been dating since last summer and are “perfect” for each other. Despite this happy celebrity news, we can’t ignore Galavis’s shaky relationship history: The ex-soccer star is known for his inability to commit, infamously giving his final rose to Nikki Ferrell on the season 18 finale of The Bachelor but refusing to propose or even say “I love you.”

This celebrity news has us skeptical. What are some ways to know you’re ready to get married?

Cupid’s Advice:

Only time will tell if this celebrity couple makes it down the aisle! If you think you’re ready to tie the knot with your partner, consider the relationship advice below:

1. You no longer want to change him: In the beginning of a relationship, it’s tempting to want your beau to be the type of guy who surprises you with a dozen roses, always picks up after himself, and can make a new friend anywhere, but as time passes, you may realize that’s just not who he is. Before you get hitched, you need to accept him as he is.

2. You're willing to compromise: Sure, happy relationships are all about compromise, but marriage gives the word a whole new meaning. If your families live in different states, you can't spend Christmas with both of them, so you need to be willing to come up with a solution that works for both of you. Once you truly understand what it means to compromise – and you're willing to do so – you're one step closer to be ready for marriage.

In celebrity news, there's nothing like facing over 20 exes at one time! What are some ways to deal with an ex who wants to talk?

Cupid's Advice:

The thought of talking to your ex can be extremely nerve racking. However, giving both you and your ex closure after the breakup can end up being a positive for both of you:

1. Stay vulnerable: One of the hardest things you can do is be vulnerable with the person that caused you so much pain. You have most likely already put up walls to try and protect yourself from more pain. But, this is only going to hinder you from actually talking about your true feelings and leaving with closure.

2. Be honest: Don't be rude or mean, but don't sugar coat your words either. This may be the last time you get the chance to speak to them and it is important you leave feeling like everything is out on the table.

Cupid's Advice:

Introducing someone to your parents is a big deal and it can be even more stressful to be introduced to someone's. We have the perfect way to handle meeting your new partner's family:

By Whitney Johnson

Amid celebrity break-up rumors, The Bachelor star Lauren Bushnell posted a picture on Instagram of her hugging fiancé Ben Higgins with the caption, “We ain’t perfect but we tryin.” According to EOnline.com, fans first noticed the celebrity couple spending less time together after their reality TV show Ben & Lauren: Happily Ever After? came to a close in 2016. After Bushnell took a recent birthday trip to Mexico without Higgins, the rumor mill really started churning, but still, the reality TV duo is standing by one another.

Despite reports of a break-up, this celebrity couple is standing firm in their love for each other. How should you respond to rumors about your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Given their life in the spotlight, rumors are inevitable for a celebrity couple like Bushnell and Higgins. Even those of us who don't share our relationship on reality TV can still deal with gossip from time to time. So how should you address rumors about your love life? Consider this relationship advice below:

1. Work together: If your parents have heard gossip about your relationship or your BFF is worried about you, it's time to deal with the untruths. But before you do so, talk to your partner and make sure you're both on the same page. If you tackle the rumors as a team, it'll be easier to shut them down.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Nick Viall Causes Drama After Disastrous Group Date

By Whitney Johnson

On Monday night's episode of The Bachelor, reality TV star Nick Viall and the remaining nine ladies headed to St. Thomas, which frontrunner Raven called "the perfect place to fall in love – and the perfect place to send people home." According to the latest celebrity news on UsMagazine.com, after a successful one-on-one date, the group date took a disastrous turn. None of the six women felt like they were getting enough quality time with Viall, and after a lot of tears, the bachelor deemed the day “pretty much a disaster.” That evening, things continued to go poorly as Viall listened to each woman open up about her feelings and sent Jasmine home on the spot. The only one to actually enjoy this disastrous date? Raven, who got the rose at the end of the night.

This celebrity news has us cringing. What are some ways to keep drama to a minimum in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

This week's episode of The Bachelor wasn't easy for Viall: In only three days, he said goodbye to six women! Of course, drama is expected on reality TV, but that doesn't mean you need it in your own love life. If you're looking for ways to keep drama to a minimum in your relationship, it starts with you. Consider this love advice:

1. Keep yourself in check: Sure, you want to believe that you're always rational and calm, but we all get caught up in drama occasionally. Before you lash out and blame your partner, take a look at your recent behavior and make sure you're not at fault.

2. Communicate your feelings: As much as you may want him to, he can't read your mind. It's up to you to tell him what he needs to know. Something to remember: It's important that you understand your own emotions before you open up to your partner and expect them to understand. Write down what you're thinking, and make sure you're prepared for what may be a tough conversation.

Celebrity News: 'The Bachelor' Nick Viall Calls Two-on-One Date with Corinne & Taylor a 'Disaster'

By Whitney Johnson

On Monday night's episode of The Bachelor, reality TV star Nick Viall says his two-on-one date with Corinne and Taylor is "pretty much a disaster." For viewers of this season of ABC's hit reality show, this celebrity news, as reported by UsMagazine.com, shouldn't come as a surprise: The two ladies fought at the end of last week's episode as Taylor questioned Corinne's "emotional intelligence." On their two-on-one date, Corinne, this season's villain, tells Viall that Taylor "emotionally attacked" her, and Taylor later reveals that Corinne lied to him. Talk about drama!

Not many of us can relate to a two-on-one date scenario like in this celebrity news. What are some factors to consider when you're deciding between two potential partners?

Cupid's Advice:

On this season of The Bachelor, fan favorite Viall has to pick between 30 women – what a challenge! Luckily, for those of us not on reality TV, the choice is often between only two potential partners. But what factors should you consider to determine who is the best fit for you? Check out our dating advice below:

1. Compatibility: Physical attraction will only take you so far. Do you enjoy spending time together? Do you share the same values? Do you want the same things out of your relationship? Determine if you're truly compatible before moving forward.

2. Common interests: Sure, opposites attract, but for a long-term partnership, it's equally important to have similar hobbies and passions. If you enjoy spending a lot of your free time outdoors, it'd be difficult to main a relationship with someone who'd rather be on the couch!

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Villain Corinne Temps Nick Viall with Surprises on Latest Episode

3. Compromise: A relationship will never last unless you're both willing to compromise. If you're always going to his favorite restaurant or seeing whatever movie she wants, it may be a sign that you don't belong together. You want to be with someone who will take your needs into consideration and meet you halfway.

deciding between two potential partners?

By Mallory McDonald

In recent celebrity news, The Bachelor is back, and this year on Nick Viall's season, the villain of the season is stirring up a lot of drama! According to UsMagazine.com, Corrine Olympios “showed up to the cocktail party in a trenchcoat and nothing else before asking Viall, 36, to lick whipped cream off her body.” While that wasn’t seen by the other contestants, later on in the episode, a few of the other contestants saw “Viall jumping around in Olympios’ inflatable bouncy house one too many times and called him out: Is he here for the right reasons?” So while some of his other relationships are progressing on the show, it seems the villain of this season is really making some of the girls question his motives.

In celebrity news, The Bachelor just got more drama-filled, thanks to Corinne! What are some ways to know if you’re in lust or love?

Cupid’s Advice:

Finding the difference between lust and love can be very difficult, especially when the two blur so easily. Use this dating advice to differ between love and lust:

1. Emotional connection: A good way to determine if you are in lust and not love is to ask yourself if you enjoy talking with them and spending time outside the bedroom. Learn if there is an emotional connection.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Nick Viall Meets a Past Hook-Up on First Night

By Jessica DeRubbo

In celebrity news, the newest Bachelor, Nick Viall, had an eventful first night at the mansion. In fact, one of the women who stepped out of the limo happened to be someone he had hooked up with at Bachelor Nation's prized celebrity couple Jade and Tanner's celebrity wedding. According to UsMagazine.com, when Liz, 29, a doula, stepped out of the limo, Viall had a bit of a confused look on his face, and when she walked away to head into the mansion, he seemed thoughtful, like he was trying to figure something out. Chris Harrison took the opportunity to ask Viall about his strange look, and Viall admitted that he was 99 percent sure he'd "met" Liz at Bachelor in Paradise alums' Jade and Tanner's wedding. During that meeting, Liz had refused to give Nick her number, and hadn't spoken to him again. Drama!

This celebrity news has drama written all over it. What are some ways to handle running into a past fling?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be extremely awkward to unexpectedly run into a past fling who you haven't spoken to in a while. Maybe things ended after only one night, or maybe it was a little longer than that. Either way, Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Be direct: You might be in shock, but the best approach is to simply be direct about things. If this person is no longer an interest of yours, tell them. There's no point in skirting around the issue, as it will just prolong the inevitable.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Nick Viall Confirmed as the Next 'Bachelor'

2. Keep it lighthearted: There's no reason to get into a drama filled or heated conversation when your fling with this person was short-lived. Obviously you've both moved on since you had your fun, so making light of things and indulging in just a little small talk before moving on is all that it takes.

Celebrity Couple News: 'Bachelor' Alums Becca Tilley & Robert Graham Are Getting Serious

By Justin Thomas

After endless social media surmising, there's a new celebrity couple trending. In celebrity news, The Bachelor's Becca Tilley has finally set the record straight about her relationship with fellow Bachelor Nation star, Robert Graham. Tilley confessed to UsMagazine.com, saying, "I am dating Robert” at the 2016 iHEARTRADIO Jingle Ball on Friday, December 2. She continued, saying, “It’s fun. We’ve been friends for a long time and it was just a natural progression, and he’s just amazing and been patient with me.... I need someone that’s patient and willing to deal with me, and he’s been that way. So it’s been fun, it’s been an easy transition.” Rumors ignited when affectionate photos of the now couple surfaced on Tilley’s Instagram featuring some suggestively cute captions. But things really began to heat up when she posted a shirtless photo of Graham as her “Man Crush Monday.” The couple seems to be on the up and up as Tilley went on to mention she’s introduced him to her family. She said, “He met all of my family Sunday night, except for my brother. Everyone loved him.”

This celebrity couple news was a long time coming. How do you know when you’re ready to introduce your partner to your family?

Cupid’s Advice:

Timing is everything when it comes to introducing your partner to your family. Cupid has some tips:

1. Make sure you’re exclusive: The bottom line is that you want to make sure your relationship is serious before you introduce your family and friends. That means all the “you’s” and “me’s” have turned to “us” already. Don’t put your family through the process meeting, getting know, and potentially liking someone you know almost for certain won’t be around for much longer.

Related Link: 5 Tips for Meeting Your Partner’s Family Stress-Free

2. Don't rock the boat: Meeting someone's family is a substantial jump in a relationship and when appropriate could make your relationship much stronger. But it's not necessarily a right of passage. Evaluate your partner's relationship with their family, and don't pressure them if they don't feel like it's the right time to introduce you. However, don't be naive. Three months is very different than three years when it comes to meeting the family.

Related Link: What to Wear to Meet His Family

3. Be realistic in your expectations: Everyone's family dynamic is unique, so try to think less romantic comedy and more "Hi, nice to meet you." As palm-sweating as it is, first impressions are more important than you might think, but only in the context for setting the tone for family interactions down the line. People often latch on to the first perspective they're offered, so the first impression you make might be the impression you keep.

Rumors of the two not making it after this decision are completely untrue. UsMagazine.com learned how Higgins feels about their relationship status, as he said, "I think at this point, Lauren and I are focusing on our relationship, which is obvious. We're definitely together – we are happily engaged. The wedding in our mind – 'Where's your ring at?' – is still on, but we are just taking some time to help plan that where it's not stressful or overwhelming." Bushnell shared, "Any couple feels the same pressures – you get engaged, and everyone asks when is the wedding. ... We've navigated it relatively well and [are] doing things on our own timeline, honestly." The stress of the show may have definitely changed the dynamic in this celebrity relationship!

We sense a little bitterness when it comes to the planning of this celebrity wedding. What are some ways to deal with a partner who is reluctant to tie the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Tying the knot is a serious step in a relationship and for many, it can feel overwhelming. Use this relationship advice to help ease your partner into marriage:

1. Be understanding: It can be hard to be understanding of your partner when they are putting the breaks on a wedding and you are ready to move forward. But you have to always be supportive of your partner's feelings.

Cupid's Advice:

It's your wedding! You want to make it your own and give it a personal touch. You and your partner should be planning a night to remember. Cupid is here to help with ways you can personalize your wedding:

1. Picture perfect: What better way to personalize your wedding than by putting your face everywhere? You and your partner must have plenty of memories leading up to your big day, and there must be pictures to prove it. Lying pictures on tables or around the walls makes the party feel inviting. You're inviting your guests into your personal journey, which is a heart-warming gesture.

Celebrity Couple Ben Higgins & Lauren Bushnell Celebrate Bachelor and Bachelorette Parties Together

By Kayla Garritano

From The Bachelor to the bachelor party! Celebrity couple Ben Higgins and Lauren Bushnell celebrated their upcoming marriage with bachelor and bachelorette parties this long weekend. According to UsMagazine.com, the Bachelor alumnae threw a joint party with all of their friends in Las Vegas! A picture shows them poolside with all of their friends on Thursday, October 6, just hanging out and celebrating before the big day.

This celebrity couple did not want to celebrate separately! What are some ways to bring all your friends together before the big day?

Cupid's Advice:

You don't need to have a traditional "all girls" bachelorette party or an "all guys" bachelor party. Sometimes, the best way to celebrate your last days of not being married is to celebrate together. Here are some ways to conjoin your celebration:

1. Wedding party field day: Have your wedding party get to know each other a little better by battling it out. Team Bride vs. Team Groom. This will let your party bond over fun activities all while having some friendly competition. Plus, it's kind of fun seeing your future spouse duel against you.

2. Vacation: Instead of a "party," why not take a trip somewhere together? It's just like a party, except you get to take a couple extra days off and relax for a little bit more. You still get to drink (responsibly, of course), and you get to enjoy each others' company, while celebrating the same thing.

3. Separate rehearsal dinner: You definitely need a rehearsal dinner the night before the wedding. The one with your parents and other family members, as well as the wedding party. But what about a dinner for just your friends? Get together with them all and enjoy a dinner. Make some last-minute wedding plans, and organize the aisle situation; who's walking with who? Just take it easy with your friends before the official events begin.

This celebrity couple doesn't have an issue mingling with their exes apparently! What are some ways to move past hurt from your ex partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Exes can cause great pain that takes time to move on from. Hurting is common when dealing with a break-up and coping isn't always easy. Cupid is here to help:

1. A new relationship: The best way to get over somebody, is to get under somebody else. While this isn't always the case, sometimes it takes another person to distract you from your ex. Once you can accept the break-up and feel for somebody else, you'll be able to move on.

2. A new hobby: Distractions come in all forms and focusing on something new can keep you from dwelling on the past. Pick something you've always wanted to do or something you've never done before and put all your energy into that. Channeling your emotions into a painting or creating something can give you a sense of contentment.

3. A new look: Don't ever change for somebody, especially a guy, but doing your hair the way you like or wearing your favorite clothes can make you feel better. relationship questions?

1. Know your friend: When giving your friend relationship advice, it is important to remember key things about them. Your job is to serve as their conscience when they're being swayed by emotions. Try to lead them to a decision they'd make on their own.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' JoJo Fletcher Has Another Ben In Her Life

By Cortney Moore

If you aren't up to date on the latest dating show celebrity news, ABC's season 12 of The Bachelorette will star JoJo Fletcher, the 25-year-old who had her heart broken in the season 20 finale of The Bachelor with Ben Higgins. Fletcher and her illustrious Texan family are no strangers to reality TV. Aside from appearing on The Bachelor, she is also sister to Ready For Love reality star Ben Patton, who we had the chance to interview twice at Cupid's Pulse! See here and here.

This celebrity news has us realizing that reality TV stars JoJo Fletcher and her brother Ben Patton share more than bloodlines. Cupid discusses below.

Last time we spoke with Patton, he was set on pursuing a relationship with his final pick and former Miss Texas winner,

Angela Zatopek. He even proposed to her in the final episode of Ready For Love. Side note: Zatopek wrote episode recaps for us at CupidsPulse.com (see here). Unfortunately, the magic didn't last for this celebrity couple and they separated shortly after the season finale. Zatopek, beauty queen and self-proclaimed virgin, opened her heart for Patton and all of America to see, going as far as to make the first move with a bold kiss in episode 4. "I've never done anything like that in my life," she told us. "As I watch it back on television, I realize it wasn't the smoothest move..but hey, I was a rookie."

Patton may have hinted that his relationship with Zatopek was on the rocks when he told us, "I keep telling her that we shouldn't force the relationship for the sake of the show or to prove America wrong. If it's not working, then it's not working." Will this be the advice he gives to his sister? Surely his experience would be a great asset to her as she tries to weed out potential suitors that are interested in her for not so genuine reasons.

Is it a coincidence that Patton's younger sister has followed in her big brother's footsteps, or should it not be that much of a surprise since Fletcher had a role in helping her brother on Ready For Love? According to recent reporters, she's friends with other reality TV stars, like the infamous Bachelor Jake Pavelka. It looks like reality TV stars run in the same circles, and family is no exception.

We all know that big brother Patton was extremely tough on Higgins when they met on the hometown dates, so we're sure that wasn't the last we'll see of him. If he's looking for more air-time, no doubt he'll be appearing on Fletcher's upcoming season of The Bachelorette. In fact, if Patton is still single, would ABC reconsider changing the format to a brother/sister season? Now, that's something we would all like to see!

Regardless of what happens or who ends up winning Fletcher's heart in this season of The Bachelorette, we cannot wait to see more of this sister/brother tag team. Maybe Patton and Fletcher can convince their brother Matt to join their pursuits next!
