Cupid's Advice:

There's no lack of love advice to choose from, especially with the internet at your disposal. That being said, it's important to weigh whose relationship advice should hold the most importance. Cupid has some tips:

1. Those who have known you for the longest: There's definitely merit to trusting advice from those in your life who know you the best. If someone you don't know is pretending to have in depth insight into your relationship, it's probably red flag. Take whatever those types of people say with a grain of salt.

2. Certified/trained professionals: Some people dedicate their lives to helping people and giving advice. 1. Set a budget: Before any decisions are made like the venue or DJ, set a budget that you two promise to follow. That way arguments about unnecessary expenses or over the top gowns won't come up.

Bristowe Talks Nick's

Arrival, Date with Ben H., and Joshua Drama

By: Maria N. Capalbo

According to People.com, The Bachelorette Kaitlyn Bristowe has started her mission to find celebrity love! On the most recent episode to air, she believes she made the right choice in having Nick stay, but the other men were not too fond of it! Only a few expressed their opinions though. Bristowe had a great time going on her other dates, like dancing it up with Ben H. and singing along with a group of the guys to a mariachi band. She did run into a bit of drama with Joshua, who could not hold back his opinion about Nick. Bristowe thought of holding back on giving out a rose on the group date, but went with her heart and gave it to Nick. Things definitely got a bit confusing, so maybe she needs a bit of love advice herself! Stay tuned to the show for more on Kaitlyn's celebrity relationships.

The drama isn't about to let up on The Bachelorette! What are some ways to keep your relationship drama-free?

Drama causes problems everywhere! The last thing anyone needs are problems within their relationship. It can be difficult to avoid sometimes, but there is always a solution! Below are a few ways to keep drama away from your relationship:

1. Communicate: Most of the time, drama can be avoided if your partner and you just communicate! Tell each other about problems, and talk about possible solutions. Stay away from accusations, and have a regular conversation.

First dates can set the tone of how the rest of the relationship and love will continue, so it's important to start off on the right foot. Great dates don't have to be extravagant or over the top, but creativity does count. Here are a few relationship tips for planning a fun and unique first date:

The new 'Bachelorette' Kaitlyn Bristowe is ready to risk it all for love! What are some ways to take risks for a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, we get comfort out of our day-to-day relationship routine. However, in order to keep things fresh, it's important to take relationship risks. Below are a few pieces of relationship advice regarding ways you can take your relationship to the next level by taking risks:

1. Disagree with their opinion: Obviously, you don't want to disagree with everything your partner has to say. But, if you don't have the same view as they do on a big topic like politics, speak up. Nobody wants a partner that says "yes" all the time.

2. Do you own thing: When you're in a relationship, it may be hard to pull away from the other person and spend time on your own. However, make sure that you do make time for yourself outside of the relationship. This can help you strengthen your independence, and if you're not spending every waking hour with your partner, you'll have time to miss them.

3. Bring forward relationship issues: A lot of people think it's best to keep quiet and "pick and choose their battles" when it comes to relationship arguments. However, it's best to say something if there's a specific issue that you've been having with your partner for a long time. If you keep quiet, you'll eventually resent the other person.

By Emma L. Wells

For the first time in Bachelorette history, the men have the power...at least for for the May 18th premiere. 25 lucky lads will get to vote on which two ladies – Kaitlyn Bristowe or Britt Nilsson – will be the Bachelorette for season 11. After the men make the decision, the power will transfer back to The Bachelorette who will pick 19 of them to move into the house. And who are these special guys? See the full list on UsMagazine.com.

Bachelorette stars Kaitlyn Bristowe and Britt Nilsson will have their pick of well qualified men come May 18th. Why is it a good idea to consider your partner's occupation before starting a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

There are many factors to consider when deciding whether someone is a good romantic match for you. While you might be inclined to think that occupation isn't important Cupid has some love advice on why this factor shouldn't be ignored:

1. Time is money: Can your significant other give you the time commitment you're looking for? If you're new beau has a high-powered career that probably means long hours and less time with you. If you're looking for a serious relationship, then this probably isn't an ideal situation.

2. Get down to business: No matter what the fairy tales say research shows that relationships between people with similar education levels usually have a higher rate of success. While there are always exceptions to the rule it can be prudent to look for a partner who has had a similar education and work path as you. This way you'll automatically have a better understanding of each other's situations.

3. Work hard, play hard: Knowing a potential suitor's career ambitions can be very important. Are they up for a promotion that's going to take them to an office out of state? Are they looking for a job where they have to travel consistently? If you're looking to stay put then this isn't an ideal match. Minimize the possibility for heartbreak by making sure you and soon-to-be sweetheart have similar life goals and plans.

New Photos: The Countdown to 'The Bachelorette' Begins With Britt and Kaitlyn

By Emma L. Wells

The countdown begins for The Bachelorette season 11 premiere and in order to get us even more pumped up for the reality TV show ABC released some stunning photos from a shoot with the two Bachelorettes, Kaitlyn Bristowe and Britt Nilsson. People.com reports that Bristowe and Nilsson have ditched the usually colorful gowns we're accustomed to seeing on Bachelorettes and opted for some silvery grey numbers which fit the season's tagline, '50 Shades of Cray.' The two girls, who battled for Chris Soules on season 19 of The Bachelor, will once again face off for relationships and love in a two part premiere on May 18th.

Britt Nilsson and Kaitlyn Bristowe let their personalities shine through their grey dresses for 'The Bachelorette' promo shoot. How can you make a good impression and pick the perfect first date outfit?

Cupid's Advice:

Most people don't like to admit it but we often judge others based on their appearance the first time we meet them. That's why a first date outfit can have a big impact on whether or not someone asks you out again. Have no fear, here is some love advice on how to put together the right ensemble...

1. Be appropriate: The first thing you should consider when picking your first date outfit is what you're going to be doing on the date. Different outfits are more appropriate for dinner and a movie versus a hike and a picnic. You may have a great pair of sparkly stilettos but you probably shouldn't wear them if you and your date are headed to a street fair. If you don't know where you're going then try to pick a neutral outfit such as a loose dress or jeans and a nice top.

2. Be yourself: If you're the type of girl who wears jeans and a t-shirt 99% of the time, you'll give the wrong impression of yourself if you show up to your date wearing your roommate's body-con dress. When you're picking your outfit select something that represents the "real" you. If the date you're going on doesn't really allow you to dress like yourself, consider asking him nicely if you can do possibly do something else.

Be on time: Being fashionably late is acceptable for a large party but not for a one-on-one date. It's easy to overthink a decision like this. Don't get anxious and wrapped up in your head. If you can't find the perfect first date outfit don't worry, just be sure to wow him with your personality!

Will Chris Soules Be Tuning in to Watch His Celebrity Exes on 'The Bachelorette' Season 11?

By Emma L. Wells

The premiere of The Bachelorette season 11 is less than three weeks away. We know we'll be watching, but what about former Bachelor Chris Soules? It's understandable that he may not want to tune in to the reality TV show to watch two of his celebrity exes – Kaitlyn Bristowe and Britt Nilsson – search for a relationship and love. “Kaitlyn and Britt were obviously a part of my life, and I’m interested to see how their journey goes,” Soules told People.com. “Honestly, right now, I’m okay with that part of my life being behind me.” Since The Bachelor, Soules certainly seems to have moved on to a happy celebrity engagement with his fiancé Whitney Biscoff. However, just because Prince Farming is busy with Dancing with the Stars doesn’t mean he’ll be able to avoid The Bachelorette. “Whitney will definitely be watching, so I’ll probably be watching,” he joked.

Former Bachelor Chris Soules says he still cares for his celebrity exes. What are some ways you can be friends with your ex after your relationship and love ends?

Cupid’s Advice:

When it comes to relationships and love, just because you have ended your romantic partnership doesn’t mean you don’t want to see your ex anymore. Being friends after a break-up isn’t easy, but Cupid has some tips on how you can make it work:

1. Don’t force it: You shouldn’t force a friendship on anyone, ex-lover or not. Similarly, forming a platonic relationship with your ex has to happen naturally. If romantic feelings or resentments remain, it won’t be possible. Give yourself time to grieve and move on. Once you’ve adjusted to life apart, then it may be time to offer your friendship. Don’t rush into this phase immediately following a split.

2. Think about your language: It'll be easier to be friends if you don't refer to them as your ex anymore; you're heading in the right direction once you can introduce them simply as your friend. You should be prepared for a bit of an awkward phase to start out. Recognize that it's an adjustment; eventually, you two will figure out how to act around each other.

3. Consider your new significant other's feelings: If you are able to form a friendship with your ex, keep in mind that your new partner may not understand. Be mindful of their feelings. Additionally, if you feel yourself getting jealous of your ex's new boyfriend or girlfriend, you might be harboring some residual romantic feelings. In this case, it's probably best to take a step back from the friendship until you can work through them.
