1. Earn respect: Whether you’re being open about honesty to earn respect or because you want to gauge how much your potential partner will respect your views on intimacy, being open about your sex life can tell you a lot about someone by the way they react to the conversation. Would it make you feel better if you're both tested before you take the next step to play it on the safe side? The only way you will be able to communicate any of this is to be open about intimacy.

In any relationship, romantic or otherwise, anger is normal. Feelings of resentment, jealousy, or sadness can bubble up in a red hot rage. Knowing the right course of action to deal with an angry partner can be a challenge. Here are tips to calm the emotional forest fires in your partner:

1. Be patient: When your significant other is losing their cool it's important to remember this isn't about you. It can be easy to take offense to yelling or hurtful tones, but instead focus on what they're trying to say. Chances are they're truly hurt and not expressing it properly.

3. Know when to call it quits: If your partner's always operating at the red hot level and you're left feeling hurt, it's time to end it. Anger is a normal response in small doses. However if your partner's always running off the rails and you feel more bullied than loved, it's not healthy. go.

2. Shut down negative influencers: Not everyone will say the negative things they think in front of your partner. Some will save their opinions to share with you when your partner is not around. Do not feed their negative opinions by listening and allowing them to say whatever they want. Shut down their negative talk right away, and make them aware that you won't tolerate it in the future. You chose your partner for a reason; don't let other people's negativity influence your feelings in your relationship.

3. Be on their side: There could be times when someone in your circle of friends or family says or does something to your partner that upsets them when you're not there to stop it. If your partner lets you know they've been hurt by something a family member or friend did or said to them, make sure they know you have their back. Call the friend or family member and discuss the incident and make it clear it was upsetting and unacceptable. You don't have to be mean; have a respectful conversation, but make it clear that such actions cannot continue.

1. Act your age: Some people like to act immature or childish to get someone's attention. That is not the way to do it. While using a childish voice or teasing a potential partner may get you temporary attention, it's no way to keep them interested for the long term.

Rachel Lindsay Says That If Blake Doesn't Win on 'The Bachelorette,' Becca & Garrett Are In Trouble

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, reality TV star Rachel Lindsay hopes that contestant Blake Horstmann will win Becca Kufrin's heart on The Bachelorette. In Lindsay's weekly blog on UsMagazine.com, she wrote about Kufrin's date with Horstmann, saying, "After watching this date, I really hope Becca picks Blake because it is going to be really hard for the other guy to get passed how deep and expressive her feelings are for Blake.” Lindsay also wrote that she thinks “It is clear that Blake is truly in love with Becca and she is smitten with him. It is clear he does not want to lose her. So it is also clear that he is insecure about the fact that there are two other men in her life. This is a very real moment for me. I appreciated that he was vulnerable enough to express that to her rather than hiding behind a smile.” Lindsay also appreciated when Hortsman said “I look for reasons to stay and not reasons to leave.” Regarding Kuftrin’s date with contestant Garrett Yrigoyen, Lindsay said, “He tells Becca he loves her and I have to say I did not feel it. I heard the man, but I did not feel him. It did not come out as smoothly or as sincerely as Jason and Blake’s ‘I love you’ did. Garrett also just doesn’t seem like a smoother operator so there’s that.” Lindsay also said, “I feel like there is something we are missing from Garrett.”

In celebrity news, Rachel Lindsay is hoping Blake wins Becca’s Heart on The Bachelorette. What are some ways to know you’re choosing the right partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Having trouble knowing if you’re choosing the right partner? Cupid has some ways to help you know if it’s right:

1. You only have eyes for them: If you are really in love with someone, then you should only be interested in being with them and no one else. If you think you’ve got a wandering eye or budding feelings for someone else, then it’s probably not right to stay with your partner. They deserve honesty and if you're not feeling it, they might not be the right person for you.

Celebrity News: Rachel Lindsay Bashes Tia in 'Bachelorette' Recap Post

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, reality TV star and former Bachelorette Rachel Lindsay criticized Tia Booth's behavior on the latest episode of The Bachelorette. In her weekly recap post for UsMagazine.com, Lindsay discussed how Tia told current Bachelorette Becca Kufrin that she still had feelings for contestant Colton Underwood, whom she had previously dated. Lindsay called Booth a "Judas in the midst" and said, "I do really believe Tia really does like Colton, but there is a time [and] a place for everything and that place for you Tia was weeks ago when Becca confronted you about it the first time." Lindsay added, "The reason this moment bothered me so much was that it took away, once again, from Becca. This is Becca's season and subpar story lines and people are constantly overshadowing it. Tia, there is a place for you and it is called Paradise. You should have just let their relationship play out and if it is meant to be then Colton will see you there. All I know is that after this moment, Colton has to be thinking WTF. And surprise, surprise, Colton went home during the rose ceremony."

In celebrity news, Rachel Lindsay isn't a fan of the way Tia behaved on the recent episode of The Bachelorette. What are some things to consider about dating a friend's ex partner?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're contemplating dating a friend's ex partner, Cupid's got some things for you to consider:

1. Talk to your friend: Before doing anything, it's important that you talk to your friend about dating their ex. You must consider their feelings first and it's important you get their blessing before moving forward with anything. If they still have feelings for your ex, you should back off.

2. Will it affect your friendship: Even if your friend does give you their blessing, dating your friend's ex can still cause a rift in your relationship. Know that you probably won't get to gush about your emotions while dating to your friend because it might hurt them. Dating their ex can definitely cause awkwardness and hurt feelings, even if your friend said it was okay.

3. Is the ex worth it: It's important you consider if this person is really worth jeopardizing your friendship. If they are amazing and you have incredibly strong feelings for them, then it might be. But if you think it'll just be a short fling, the risk likely isn't worth it.

Celebrity News: Rachel Lindsay Says Colton's Passion Isn't There for Becca on 'The Bachelorette'

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, former Bachelorette Rachel Lindsay said she doesn't think contestant Colton Underwood has any passion for current Bachelorette Becca Kufrin. In a blog for UsMagazine.com, the reality TV star wrote that Kufrin and Underwood's one-on-one date was dry and a hot tub scene was only introduced to switch it up. Lindsay was not in favor of the date, saying, "Every time Colton opened his mouth he talked about Tia. How awkward it must be for Becca to sit in the hot tub and talk about another woman also known as her "best friend." Way to kill the mood, Colton. Becca literally had to shut him up by kissing. Lindsay also disapproved of Underwood telling Kufrin he was falling in love with her after telling her earlier in the night that he did not take telling someone he loves them lightly, as he had only said it once before. Lindsay added, "So, I love you's are sacred to you yet you conveniently drop the phrase in a couple of weeks? Well that was a quick change of events. I feel like Colton is saying the routine and 'right' things with no passion behind them. His eyes are saying one thing and his mouth is saying another. I want Becca to hop on whatever is faster, that big bus or the camel, and get as far away from Colton as possible. We don't believe you, Colton."

In celebrity news, former Bachelorette Rachel Lindsay is pretty sure Colton isn't passionate about Becca on this season. What are some ways to know if your partner is passionate about you?

Cupid's Advice:

It's definitely important that your partner is passionate about you in a relationship. Cupid has some tips on how to tell if they are:

1. Your partner compliments you: One good indicator that your partner has some serious passion for you is if they frequently compliment you. This shows that not only do they notice special things about you, but they want to remind you how much they care about you and how fondly they think of you.

Celebrity Break-Up: The Bachelorette's Luke Pell & Girlfriend Holly Allen Split Again

By Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, The Bachelorette's Luke Pell and Holly Allen are calling it quits. According to Usmagazine.com, this celebrity break up isn't much of a shock. The celebrity couple seem to break up to make up often. Although Pell has dated other people on and off the screen, the couple always seem to find their way back to each other.

This isn't the first time a celebrity break-up has occurred between these two. What are some things to consider before having an on-again off-again relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes space is needed in a relationship, but too much space can hurt your relationship. Cupid has some advice on some things to consider before having an on-again-off-again relationship:

1. Time: Having a permanent on and off relationship is never healthy. You can't spend most of your time broken up because it poses the question of why you are even together in the first place. When deciding to break up, make sure you pay attention to how much time you are spending apart. Remember, when you are apart, you are teaching each other how to live without each other. Be careful; you might end up falling in love with the single life instead of your partner.

Related Link: Dating Advice: 4 Signs Your Partner Is the Right One for You

2. Respect: If you and your partner anticipate getting back together, make sure you both respect your relationship. A break is not meant for one or both of you to be out partying and hooking up with other people. Remember, a break is because things aren't working and if you are considering getting back together, then you need to spend the time working on yourself. Sometimes space is needed, but don't do anything you will regret.

Compromise: Being in an on and off relationship is hard enough, but remember to work through the issues. Relationships are two sided so as you're working through things, keep in mind that sometimes you have to negotiate. While you shouldn't have to put up with disrespect or cheating, simple things like communication and quality time problems can easily be solved.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Becca Kufrin Feels 'Sick' When She Finds Out Colton Underwood Dated Friend Tia Booth

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, Bachelorette Becca Kufrin said she felt “sick” after finding out contestant Colton Underwood dated her friend and former Bachelor contestant Tia Booth. On the second week of Kufrin’s season of The Bachelorette, there was already plenty of drama, including when the former NFL player told Kufrin on a group date that he had a short-lived relationship with Booth. According to People.com, on the show, Underwood told Kufrin about his time with her friend in January, “We had a weekend together and we had a good time, but for me the timing wasn’t right to grow what was a spark into a flame. If my feelings were strong enough, I wouldn’t have come on [the show]. I think that from what I know of you, we could build something awesome. We could have the time. Whereas it wasn’t there, moving forward, with her.” Kufrin was shocked by the news, telling the former San Diego Chargers player “I’m not going to lie – I don’t know how I feel about it. “It makes me feel a little bit sick. I’m very attracted to you, I really like where our conversation was on night one and I feel like we had a lot in common, but it’s a very tricky situation. It puts me in a very strange position. It’s just a lot to take in right now.” By the end of the episode, Kufrin did end up giving Underwood a rose, but the issue clearly won’t be put to rest. Next week, it was revealed Booth will appear on the show alongside Kufrin’s other Bachelor girl friends.

In this celebrity news, The Bachelorette is already drama-filled after only the second episode. What are some things to consider before dating a friend’s ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Dating a friend’s ex is a tricky situation. Cupid has some tips to help you decide whether or not you should do it:

1. Is your friend over it?: Before dating your friend’s ex, it’s important to assess how your friend feels about the old relationship. If your pal is still devastated by the break-up and harbors feelings for their former partner, dating their ex would likely really hurt their feelings. Along with this, it’s important a lot of time has passed between when you start dating this person and when your friend dated them.

2. It’s worth it: If you’re considering dating a friend’s ex, you should make sure you truly see a future with him or her. If you’re willing to risk a friendship for this person, it’s important your feelings for them are genuine and very strong. Don’t go for it if you don’t think the relationship will last long.

3. You have your friend's blessing: After contemplating whether or not to date your friend's ex, the best thing you can do to give yourself peace of mind is just to talk to your friend. See how they feel about you having a romance with their ex. If they are okay with it, then that's great! If they aren't, you should consider their feelings about the situation strongly.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Alum Rachel Lindsay Reveals the Most Awkward Part of Finding Love on Reality TV

By Jessica Gomez

Bachelorette alum Rachel Lindsay opened up about the most awkward part of finding love on a reality TV show, according to EOnline.com. And, it's not necessarily what you would expect. Lindsay got engaged to Bryan Abasolo in 2017 on the finale of her Bachelorette season. The celebrity couple do not have a definite date for their celebrity wedding as of yet, but what Lindsay believes is the weirdest part of the process is the moment the show is over and the cameras stop rolling. "I tell people the most awkward day is the day the cameras go off. Not even your first date. It's like, 'I've been proposed to.' It's this amazing experience. And then they're like, 'That's a wrap.' Like, show's done, and then you're just standing with each other," the bride-to-be explained. "And once we got past that, everything else was a breeze... Because you don't know if the person is really the same person they showed you on camera – and I think that's what's scary."

This celebrity news shows that there are awkward moments even when it comes to finding love on TV. What are some ways to reduce those awkward moments on your quest to finding love?

Cupid's Advice:

Oh, the journey of finding love, how wonderful and scary it can be. Alas, not to worry, Cupid has some advice on reducing awkward moments that could be avoided with a few steps:

1. Don't rush: Take things at a good pace – not too fast, not too slow. When rushing into things, we often miss signs that we should be looking out for in order to avoid making the mistake of further pursuing a relationship or to avoid certain awkward moments. Things should happen in their own time and not be rushed by you or the other person. Love isn't a race, it takes time. You need to learn the way the person is and the way your new relationship is in order to avoid negativity and awkwardness. After that, then the trust needs to roll in, which is why taking things steady is many times a good idea.

2. Don't try too hard: Impress others, but don't stop being yourself. Pretending to be someone you're not is bound to end in an awkward moment. It's important to put energy into trying to putting your best foot forward and being the best version of yourself. However, in the process, make sure to stay true to yourself. Don't let your mind roam too far, causing you to act out of desperation. It's understandable to maybe not want to be your whole, total self – just remember to not stray away from what really makes you you. Insecurities can easily pop up when you're playing a role that isn't like you.

3. Don't worry: Like said before, love and relationships take time. Sometimes certain concerns creep up on us and we become worrywarts. The unknown can be terrifying, and you may not feel completely comfortable because of that. However, don't let unvalidated feelings take over. Get to know the person without judging them from past experiences you've had that have nothing to do with them. As time passes by, you will also build emotional intimacy, which should ease the worrying due to having a more open relationship with one another.
