

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Contestant Chase McNary in the Running to Become Next Bachelor

By

Stephanie Sacco

Chase McNary was a fan favorite on this season of The Bachelorette. Unfortunately for McNary, JoJo Fletcher didn't seem to feel as strong of a connection as he did. In celebrity news, she sent him home straight from the fantasy suite after he dropped the L-bomb. According to UsMagazine.com, McNary has decent odds at the coveted position of The Bachelor. He said, "The discussions are there, but I don't know – there's a lot of weight there." He also admitted that it would be challenging to open up emotionally to that many women all at once, especially after how it ended with Fletcher. Only time will tell.

This celebrity news could provide him with a fresh start. How do you start over after heartbreak?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrity couple relationships don't work out just as much as ordinary couples fail. Heartbreak can creep up on you anywhere, and everybody goes through it at one point or another. Regardless of if you're the breaker or the breakee, Cupid is here to help you cope:

1. Confide in someone: Don't go through a break-up alone. Involve your friends and family who will be on your side. They'll know exactly what to say to make you feel better or at the very least will bring you ice cream and tissues.

2. Meet new people: Not everybody can be on The Bachelor, but you can still go out and meet new people. Don't jump right into bed with someone, but don't shy away from people either. Never give up! There is somebody out there for everybody.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Guy Cut by JoJo Fletcher in Fantasy Suite

By

Nicole Caico

At the beginning of this week's episode of The Bachelorette it seemed like all three guys still had a fair shot at a celebrity relationship with JoJo Fletcher, but by the end, one of them was sent packing. Jordan, Robby, and Chase were the three lucky men who made it to the fantasy suite. It turns out that Chase was the one unlucky man to be sent home. UsMagazine.com reports that Chase proclaimed his love for JoJo, and she responded with, "When you said that to me, in my heart and in my gut, I don't think I felt what I thought I was gonna feel. I don't know if I'm in the same place as you. I don't know if spending this night together would change that feeling, and I almost feel like it would be unfair." Chase, rightly upset, left the show. JoJo made it clear that she is not interested in becoming a celebrity couple with Chase.

This celebrity news has us cringing a bit! What are some ways to let someone who is interested in you go?

Cupid's Advice:

It's always endearing to know that someone is interested in you. As flattering as it may be, there comes a time when you've got to let the person know that the feeling isn't mutual. No use putting it off. Cupid is here with some dating advice:

1. Remain unavailable: Before jumping into the full on "it's not you, it's me" convo, see if the person crushing on you can take a hint. When they text you, don't answer right away—and sometimes don't answer at all. Answering immediately and consistently usually conveys that you're interested, so doing the opposite may allow the person to catch on to your lukewarm feelings.

2. The other man: If the person pursuing you is someone you're friendly with or talk to regularly, get on the topic of relationships and try to casually mention another guy you're interested in. If you make it seem like you're confiding in this friend for advice on another guy or girl, they'll have to understand that your interest is elsewhere.

3. Be honest: As awkward as the conversation might be, being honest is the best way to go about it. Just telling the person, "Hey, it seems like you're interested in me, but I'm not looking to date anyone" will clear up the whole situation. Being honest is also the best way to avoid hurting someone. Be honest, and remember—don't apologize—you're just not interested.

'Bachelorette' Contestant
Robby Cries About JoJo
Fletcher Hearing Rumors About

Past Relationship

By

Nicole Caico

Contestant Robby Hayes is one of the last men standing on this season's The Bachelorette. Hometown dates were on the July 18 episode, and according to UsMagazine.com, Hayes' mother informed him while he was home, "Your ex's roommate has made it look like you broke up to go on the show." This isn't the first time Hayes' past relationship with Hope Higginbotham has threatened the possibility of his new celebrity relationship with JoJo Fletcher. Higginbotham's roommate, Alex, and ex-contestant Chad Johnson have both claimed that Hayes ended the relationship to go on The Bachelorette.

This celebrity news has us indulging in the reality TV drama. What are some ways to keep things that happened in your past relationship out of your new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter how long or short a past relationship lasted, pieces of what happened between you and your ex can bounce around in your mind for a long time after. Don't let side effects from your last relationship spoil something good you have going on now. Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Cut ties: If you haven't already, cleanse your life of your ex. Unfollow your ex on social media, block them if necessary, and delete the contact information in your phone. Communicating with your ex, or seeing posts, will keep re-opening your history. In order to keep your past relationship out of your new relationship, follow an "out of sight out of mind" based strategy.

2. No deja vu: Don't bring up the topic of your ex to your new significant other out of the blue. If you're visiting a place you used to go with your ex, try to keep that to yourself. If you're in a fight and your new significant other says or does something that your ex used to do, don't point it out. The moral of the story is, you're in a new relationship with an entirely new person. Your new boo shouldn't have to feel constantly compared to or reminded of the last person you dated.

3. Move on: Focus on what makes your new relationship different or better than your last and dwell on that. You should be looking ahead, and planning new experiences with the person you're involved with now. Remind yourself that what's done is done and move forward without baggage.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Star JoJo Fletcher Says Chad 'Wasn't Meant to Be My Husband'

By

Cortney Moore

In the latest Bachelorette celebrity news, JoJo Fletcher reflected on saying goodbye to her prospective beau Chad Johnson. According to People.com, Fletcher opened up about her celebrity relationship with Johnson, saying, "Chad Johnson was one of my top guys, but I started hearing about drama." The 25-year-old reality TV starlet was truly surprised by Johnson's behavior in the house. "When I finally saw, it blew me away," she said. Fletcher went on to say that Johnson wasn't meant to be her husband, but she wishes him the best. However, it appears Johnson isn't too broken up about the split and is scheduled to appear on the reality TV spin-off Bachelor in Paradise.

This celebrity news isn't exactly shocking. What are some ways to get rid of an obsessive ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups are rough. At some point you'll get over the split and will go on with your life. Your ex may not be as fortunate and may try to cling onto the past. Let Cupid help you get rid of your obsessive ex:

1. Tell the truth: Be honest with your ex and let them know that you no longer see a future with them. Telling the truth might be hard, but it's unfair to mislead and string them along. Your ex may finally let you go in peace if they understand there's no hope for a relationship.

2. Cut them off: Another great option is to cut off all communication with your ex. This includes ignoring texts and calls. 3. Move on: If for whatever reason you still want to stay in contact with your obsessive ex, another option you may have is to show that you moved on from them. If you're happily single, make sure your ex can see that. And when you're finally dating again, make sure your ex is aware of that too. A happier and busier you may deter your ex from pursuing a romantic relationship with you.

Celebrity News: Patti Stanger Talks 'Bachelorette' and Dating Tips

By

Stephanie Sacco

This season of The Bachelorette has been slow going. Some of the guys have been hesitant to kiss JoJo Fletcher and others haven't been getting the time they need. In celebrity news, Patti Stanger of Millionaire Matchmaker had something to say to them. According to UsMagazine.com, she says when it comes to kissing, "Take her hair, throw her against the wall and give her a big one! What is the problem? You're a man. Go in there and grab your wench." Stanger doesn't have patience for shy guys. Her top three dating advice tips are: Don't talk about your exes, don't be a sloppy drunk and make sure to say please and thank you.

In celebrity news, Patti Stanger says the first kiss is super important. What are some things you can learn from a first kiss?

Cupid's Advice:

Kissing is the first step to finding a romantic connection. It can create the spark between you and your partner. Cupid is here to help you find it:

1. If there's a connection: When the two of you decide in the moment that it's right to kiss, you can see if there's a connection between you. The first kiss can make or break a relationship. Take your time and really build up to it, but only if you feel something real.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Star JoJo Fletcher Says Goodbye to Two Suitors Pre-Hometown Dates

By

Nicole Caico

On this week's episode of The Bachelorette, JoJo Fletcher sent home Alex and James. According to UsMagazine.com, while Robby got the rose at the end of this week's group date, Jordan is looking like the front runner in the competition to become the other half of JoJo's celebrity couple. Remaining competitors

Chase, Robby, Jordan, and Luke will have to pull out all the stops in the upcoming hometown dates when JoJo will travel with them to meet their families.

In celebrity news, the hometown dates on The Bachelorette are almost upon us! What are some ways to prepare to meet your partner's family?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter who you are, meeting your partner's family is probably one of the most nerve wracking things you'll ever have to do. Even if you know that the family who raised the amazing person you're with must be the nicest people on the planet, being nervous comes naturally. First impressions are important, so it's best to prepare as much as you can before meeting your partner's family:

1. The family tree: Before meeting your partner's family, ask your partner some questions about them, especially if you're meeting extended family and not just Mom, Dad, and siblings. Hearing some names beforehand will help you to feel familiar upon arrival, and some background won't hurt either. Who is on what side of the family? What ages are your partners' siblings? Get some info.

2. Contribute: Most people consider showing up to a first meeting with the family empty handed a mistake. First impressions are important, and it's beneficial to be as polite as possible. Bring your significant other's family flowers or a dessert. What you bring does not have to be extremely personal or a gift wrapped present, just bringing something to show you made an effort can go a long way.

3. Take a deep breath: Above all, just be yourself. It is worth it to prepare, but there is only so much you can do. Put on some nice clothes, grab a small gift, review names of family members, and just breathe.

Celebrity News: ‘Bachelorette’ Star ‘Bad Chad’ Johnson Claims Contestants Are Cheating on Their Girlfriends

By

Nicole Caico

In the latest celebrity news, Chad Johnson, a former contestant on the current season of The Bachelorette, continues to cause drama. Though star JoJo Fletcher has already eliminated Johnson from the competition for his bully-like behavior toward the other guys, he's not done yet. UsMagazine.com reported that in a celebrity interview with Andy Cohen on Monday, June 27, Johnson claimed that guys on the show are "acting all nice and like they're such good guys when at the end of the day, they're cheating on their girlfriends, half of them broke up with girlfriends to go on the show." On June 20th, Johnson posted a picture of himself kissing contestant Robby Hayes' ex-girlfriend. Johnson chalks his behavior up to the fact that the show is a competition, saying, "It's a competition ... I'm going to do what I have to do. I treat my women very well. That's my thing, like yeah, I'm willing to do what I gotta do to get what I want when it comes to competition, but I'm very nice to my girls."

In celebrity news, The Bachelorette drama continues! What are some ways to tell that your crush is still attached to a former fling?

Cupid's Advice

It's clear that Chad isn't letting go. While causing drama on a reality television show is not something people do on the regular, falling for someone who is still attached to a former fling is a pretty common occurrence. Here's how to tell if your crush's heart isn't up for grabs:

1. Wearing your heart on your sleeve: If your crush is still wearing the clothes his or her ex left behind, the attachment is probably still there. If the person you're crushing on has made no attempt to remove or get rid of reminders of an ex, take it as a warning sign.

2. Topic of conversation: If all your crush can talk about is an ex, watch out. Whether your crush is praising or bashing the past relationship, the fact that it is being frequently brought up means it's still on his or her mind.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Villain Chad Johnson Defends Bad Behavior

By Stephanie Sacco

One of the biggest villains in the history of The Bachelorette came from JoJo Fletcher's season. Chad Johnson, the luxury realtor and nobody's favorite housemate, had something mean to say about just about everyone in the house. He also threatened one or two of them. However, according to UsMagazine.com he told Jimmy Kimmel post-elimination, "At the end of the day, it is a show so things are amplified. We try to be ourselves and we try to be who we are, but at the same time, whoever you are is amplified up about a million times." In celebrity news and gossip, Johnson has been seen with an ex of one of his fellow competitors, Robby Hayes. He'll be sure to start some trouble this August when he appears on Bachelor in Paradise. We'll have to wait and see.

This celebrity news has us skeptical about Chad's sincerity. What are some benefits to avoiding the bad boy?

Cupid's Advice:

The idea of a bad boy is always better than the reality. You see them in movies and books and believe that deep down they have a soft spot. Cupid is here to set the record straight:

1. Nice guys finish first: Bad boys might look nice (think James Dean), but deep down they may not always be the right guy. If you're looking for fun and no commitment, maybe you'll find that in a bad boy. However, most of the time it's just trouble. A nice guy will always treat you well.

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Guys Share Embarrassing Sex Stories with JoJo Fletcher

2. Less heartbreak: A bad boy doesn't always stick around, and you need somebody who isn't going to break your heart (at least not on purpose). Find a guy who is all about you and who won't let you down. Don't settle for anything less than the best.

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' JoJo Fletcher Deals with Chad's True Colors

3. They're immature: Wearing a leather jacket or riding a motorbike isn't cool forever. After a while, it just gets old. There's nothing cool about being treated badly, and if your bad boy isn't respecting you, kick him to the curb.

Celebrity Wedding Tips: 'Bachelorette' Alum Desiree Hartsock Offers Wedding Tips in New Book

By

Nicole Caico

Former Bachelorette, Desiree Hartsock, has a new book out that is full of wedding planning tips. In her book, My Fairytale Wedding, Hartsock promises to help brides achieve their own fairytale weddings “without breaking the bank.” According to a celebrity interview for UsMagazine.com, Hartsock spoke about wedding planning, saying, “It’s very stressful and a lot of people don’t realize how stressful it is.” She had her own celebrity wedding in January 2015 and now brides everywhere can get Hartsock’s wedding planning advice.

This Bachelorette alum already planned her own celebrity wedding! What are three important wedding tips to keep in mind as you plan your nuptials?

Cupid’s Advice:

Hartsock is definitely right on this one. Couples spend thousands and thousands of dollars on their weddings, but creating the same experience for much less money is possible. Whether you're financially splurging or trying to save money where you can, there are always things to keep in mind during your wedding planning:

1. Keep your eyes on the prize: As Hartsock says, wedding planning can be stressful. It's important to remember during the planning process what you're really planning for. Don't get so stressed out that you fight with your betrothed on a daily basis. The reason your wedding is happening is because you love each other. You also want to remember that the wedding is about your love not how much you spent on flowers and impressing your guests.

2. A little piece of you: A surefire way to make your wedding special on a big or small budget is to include personalized aspects in the ceremony and the reception. Talk to your parents or in-laws and see if there is anything from their weddings that you might be able to incorporate for your own—from the actual gown, to a piece of jewelry or a recreation of the bouquet. When planning, remember that you can personalize any part of your wedding, there is no real wedding rule book. Get creative with invitations, decorations, or your wedding cake.

3. Looks aren't everything: What is most important to keep in mind during wedding planning is that as long as you and your fiancé feel good about the plan, that's all that matters. Whether you're writing your own vows and DIY-ing your decorations, or reserving a luxurious reception hall and covering every inch of it in flowers, your wedding should reflect you as a couple and make you happy on your special day.

This celebrity news has us cringing for the guys on The Bachelorette! What are some ways to be open and honest with your potential partner?

Cupid's Advice:

As terribly awkward as it is to dig up your most embarrassing intimate stories, chances are you won't be doing it on television like these guys—so what do you really have to lose?

Not being honest with a potential partner will most likely lead to another embarrassing story, so it's important to remember that honesty is the best policy:

1. Right from the start: The best way to open up and be honest with a potential partner is to establish open conversation from the beginning. Before things get too serious, or too steamy, talk about your sexual histories and desires.

2. Lead with a joke: Conversations about intimacy with a potential partner are no laughing matter, but they're also not strictly business. Joke around to break the ice and in the end, the truth will come out. If you have a positive and lighthearted take on the situation, your potential partner won't feel threatened or judged and the conversation will flow.

3. Make it about them: If you have a feeling that an open conversation about intimacy isn't going to go over well with your potential partner, make the conversation about them. Aside from appearing on The Bachelor, she is also sister to Ready For Love reality star Ben Patton, who we had the chance to interview twice at Cupid's Pulse! See here and here.

This celebrity news has us realizing that reality TV stars JoJo Fletcher and her brother Ben Patton share more than bloodlines. Cupid discusses below.

Last time we spoke with Patton, he was set on pursuing a relationship with his final pick and former Miss Texas winner, Angela Zatopek. He even proposed to her in the final episode of Ready For Love. Side note: Zatopek wrote episode recaps for us at CupidsPulse.com (see here). Unfortunately, the magic didn't last for this celebrity couple and they separated shortly after the season finale. Zatopek, beauty queen and self-proclaimed virgin, opened her heart for Patton and all of America to see, going as far as to make the first move with a bold kiss in episode 4. "I've never done anything like that in my life," she told us. "As I watch it back on television, I realize it wasn't the smoothest move..but hey, I was a rookie."

Patton may have hinted that his relationship with Zatopek was on the rocks when he told us, "I keep telling her that we shouldn't force the relationship for the sake of the show or to prove America wrong. If it's not working, then it's not working." Will this be the advice he gives to his sister? Surely his experience would be a great asset to her as she tries to weed out potential suitors that are interested in her for not so genuine reasons.

Is it a coincidence that Patton's younger sister has followed in her big brother's footsteps, or should it not be that much of a surprise since Fletcher had a role in helping her brother on Ready For Love? According to recent reporters, she's friends with other reality TV stars, like the infamous Bachelor Jake Pavelka. It looks like reality TV stars run in the same circles, and family is no exception.

We all know that big brother Patton was extremely tough on Higgins when they met on the hometown dates, so we're sure that wasn't the last we'll see of him. If he's looking for more air-time, no doubt he'll be appearing on Fletcher's upcoming season of The Bachelorette. In fact, if Patton is still single, would ABC reconsider changing the format to a brother/sister season? Now, that's something we would all like to see!

Regardless of what happens or who ends up winning Fletcher's heart in this season of The Bachelorette, we cannot wait to see more of this sister/brother tag team. Maybe Patton and Fletcher can convince their brother Matt to join their pursuits next!

Bachelor* franchise alums are well-versed in love advice! Whose love advice should you trust when it comes to your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

There's no lack of love advice to choose from, especially with the internet at your disposal. That being said, it's important to weigh whose relationship advice should hold the most importance. Cupid has some tips:

1. Those who have known you for the longest: There's definitely merit to trusting advice from those in your life who know you the best. If someone you don't know is pretending to have in depth insight into your relationship, it's probably red flag. Take whatever those types of people say with a grain of salt.

2. Certified/trained professionals: Some people dedicate their lives to helping people and giving advice. Though it's certainly true that you shouldn't trust every single person who says they are professionally trained, it's definitely more valuable that trusting someone who you just met and who isn't certified or trained.

'The Bachelorette' Stars Kaitlyn Bristowe and Shawn Booth Talk Wedding Plans

By

Meranda Yslas

Monday night, The Bachelorette Kaitlyn Bristowe gave her final rose to Shawn Booth, crowning him the winner of the reality TV's 11th season. Now the Hollywood couple are talking celebrity wedding plans. As UsMagazine.com reports, Bristowe shared her thoughts about getting married in Vancouver while her celeb love joked, "Either there or Vegas with Elvis, we're still trying to figure that out." During a press conference they even added that there's a possibility of a televised wedding, much like The Bachelor couple before them Sean Lowe and Catherine Giudici.

This Bachelorette couple is looking to the future. What are some ways to compromise on wedding plans with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

In honor of The Bachelorette wedding talk, it's important to know how to plan for your big day. Cupid has some tips on how you and your partner can work together in planning this celebration:

1. Set a budget: Before any decisions are made like the venue or DJ, set a budget that you two promise to follow. That way arguments about unnecessary expenses or over the top gowns won't come up.

Related Link: 'The Bachelorette' Kaitlyn Bristowe Chooses Her Top 2 and Meets Families

2. Focus on the fun: Some wedding decisions are going to be harder to make than others and you and your partner may get in fights about it. It's important to have some other topics that you two can switch too that are easier and more fun to make, like the food you want to serve or your dance song, that will help you cool down.

Related Link: ‘The Bachelorette’ Kaitlyn Bristowe Opens Up About the ‘Men Tell All’ Episode

3. Hear each other out: It may be easy to immediately say ‘no’ to a seemingly ridiculous idea your mate suggests, but that will only cause hurt feelings. Listen to their reasoning and acknowledge what they want, after all weddings are a celebration of a relationship between two people, not just one.
