

Exclusive Celebrity Interview: 'Bachelorette' Couple Ashley and J.P. Rosenbaum Are Divided on Who Will Win Chris Soules's Heart!

Interviewed by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Meranda Yslas.

The relationship between J.P. and Ashley Rosenbaum is a celebrity love story come true. This famous couple met on The Bachelorette season 7, and since then, they've gotten married and welcomed a new addition to their family, son Fordham (Ford) Rhys. The adorable pair, who recently moved to Miami, are getting the hang of being first-time parents and opened up about their experiences as a family of three in our exclusive celebrity interview. Plus, we found out they're a house divided when it comes to this season of The Bachelor!

'Bachelorette' Celebrity Couple Talks About Life as New Parents

Raising a baby – whether it's for the first time or the fifth time – is by no means easy, but for the celebrity couple, Ford has been a blessing. "He's a model angel baby," the proud dad shares. So far, there haven't been any big moments that the duo couldn't handle, but like any first-time parents, J.P. admits that they "just roll with the punches!"

At just five months old, Ford is already making huge progress in his development. "He rolls over and sits up. Of course, we have to put pillows around him, but he can sit up for a pretty extended period of time," Ashley gushes. "He's grabbing at things; he's eating semi-solid foods right now; and he's taking the packaging, putting it into his mouth, and trying to feed himself. It's a pretty exciting time right now!"

The celebrity mom has a prediction for an upcoming milestone in her son's life too: She thinks Ford's first word will be "Boo." She elaborates, "That's our dog's name, and he's always hearing us say 'Boo,' so we're pretty sure that's what he's going to say first."

Like most dads, J.P. is excited for his son to follow in his footsteps and play sports someday. "I grew up playing basketball, soccer, lacrosse, and baseball, so we're going to let him try out everything," the former

Bachelorette contestant shares. Noticing that Ford has been using his left hand more frequently, he adds, “We think he may be a lefty, so he may have an advantage as a pitcher. We’re definitely going to get a baseball in his hand pretty early.”

Now that Ford is a little bit older, the celebrity couple is feeling more comfortable with other people watching him so that they can have some alone time. “Ashley is going back to work soon, and we just hired a nanny about two weeks ago. We’re easing into the ‘leaving him with somebody else’ phase so that we can go on date nights,” J.P. reveals. “We’re almost there!”

A few months before their son was born, the reality TV stars packed their bags and headed south. Fortunately, the move to Florida was a great choice for them. “I don’t see us going back to New York. We’ve only been down here for about eight months, but we love it,” J.P. shares.

Lucky for them, the winter in Miami hasn’t been too severe, but just in case it gets blustery, the famous couple partnered with Puffs to make sure they’re prepared. “We thought it was a cool partnership. We’re just promoting staying healthy and putting your best face forward throughout the winter, Ashley explains in our exclusive celebrity interview. “What we love about Puffs is that it’s a campaign to promote taking care of yourself and providing comfort to you during cold and flu season, especially with such a harsh one this year,”

Being that The Bachelorette season 7 stars have some experience under their belts, talk of another baby has come up. “I had so much fun. I had a great pregnancy. I really, really enjoyed just having a baby and him being born,” the new mom says. “So who knows! Maybe we’ll go for a third, but right now, we’re really thinking two.”

Given their celebrity love story, it’s no surprise that they enjoy watching The Bachelor together. With the finale of Chris Soules’s journey tonight, we had to ask their thoughts on the remaining two ladies. The former Bachelorette is Team Becca. “I love both Whitney and Becca, but personally, I think Becca would be better for Chris,” she reveals. “I feel like she is more genuine. She hasn’t had a lot of love in her life, and she moves a little bit slowly, but I feel like there can potentially be a more real relationship between them.”

J.P. disagrees. “I’m on the other side. I think his relationship with Whitney has progressed so much more than his relationship with Becca. I think he would be leaning more towards Whitney,” he shares.

When it comes to the next season of The Bachelorette, the famous couple agree that ousted contestant Kaitlyn Bristowe is the best pick. “We like Kaitlyn a lot,” Ashley says. “She seems like a cool chick. She’s got a little edge to her, so we like that.”

J.P. adds, “She’s funny too. I think she’d make a good Bachelorette.”

You can keep up with the cute couple on Twitter @ashhebert and @JP_Rosenbaum. Be sure to tune in for The Bachelor season 19 finale tonight on ABC at 8/7c!

Former 'Bachelorette' Reality TV Star Desiree Hartsock Jokes About Being A 'Mama in Training'

By Emma L. Wells

The Bachelorette famous couple Desiree Hartsock and Chris Siegfried celebrated their celebrity wedding in January of this year, and they already have babies on the brain! Earlier this week, an Instagram photo sent rumors flying that the brunette beauty is on her way to becoming a celebrity mom. Inquisitr.com shared a photo of the reality TV star happily holding a baby with the caption: "Mama in training with @floridaray18 baby Jax. He's so precious I couldn't put him down!" Baby Jax belongs to new celebrity mom Renee Oteri Maynard, who is a former contestant from The Bachelor and good friends with Hartsock. Both Hartsock and Siegfried have talked about wanting to add kids to their relationship and love, but the newlywed quickly squashed the rumors by commenting in the thread that she's not currently expecting.

Desiree Hartsock isn't pregnant, but it looks like she's ready to become a celebrity mom! What are some signs that you're ready to have a baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a baby is one of the biggest decisions you can ever make, and there are many factors you should consider before taking that step. Cupid has some relationship advice on how to tell if the timing is right for you and your beau:

1. You have a strong partnership: Having a baby puts a strain on your relationship and love in many ways and for many reasons. If your partnership is already a little rocky, it might be a good idea to wait until you two are on more stable ground before embarking on this journey. You should be sure that you and your significant other can support each other throughout parenthood. After all, once you're a parent, you're a parent for the rest of your life! Be sure that's a commitment that both of you can make.

Related Link: Famous Reality TV Couple Desiree Hartsock and Chris Siegfried Reveal How Many Celebrity Kids They Want

2. Your finances are in order: Everyone knows kids aren't cheap! Recent estimates put the average cost of raising a child in middle-income America until they are 18 at 241,080 dollars, and those numbers are quickly rising. It can cost thousands of dollars during the pregnancy alone. Make sure you have a financial plan in place before getting pregnant.

3. It's for the right reasons: There are many reasons to have a child, and some make more sense than others. For instance, don't have a baby just because you think they're cute or because it's what people expect from you after marriage. It may be helpful for you and your partner to each make a list of why you want a baby and why you want one now. If your reasons are good and your lists match up, then it's a good sign the timing is right!

Celebrity Break-Up: Did Josh Murray Split with Former 'Bachelorette' Andi Dorfman for More Reality TV Fame?

By Emma L. Wells

Fans of The Bachelorette have been wondering why Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray called off their engagement. According to HollywoodLife.com, these celebrity exes were more interested in reality TV fame than in each other. Apparently, Murray never even wanted to win The Bachelorette season 10! “During the filming of the show, the producers kept telling Josh that if Andi didn’t pick him, he would be the next Bachelor,” a source said. “So he has been resentful towards Andi because he knows he could have been in the limelight as The Bachelor, so now [that he’s single] he is going to make a play to try to be the next Bachelor. Even though they are telling their friends [their split] was mutual, he ended it.” The source went on to say that there was an attraction between the reality TV stars, but in the end, they were more interested in being famous than being with each other.

Josh Murray may have put their reality TV fame first, costing them their relationship and love. How can you keep your career goals from getting in the way of your personal life?

Cupid's Advice:

A fulfilling career doesn't mean you have to give up a relationship and love, and similarly, a healthy relationship doesn't mean you have to sacrifice your career. Cupid has some dating advice on how to achieve this balance so your love life doesn't turn out like this celebrity break-up:

1. Include your partner: If your career is a big part of your life, then you shouldn't hide it from your significant other. Tell them about your job and invite them to work functions. Your partner should be part of your support system.

Related Link: 'The Bachelor' Host Chris Harrison Says He "Had No Clue" Andi Dorfman & Josh Murray Would Break Up

2. Be present: Neither of you want your entire relationship and love to revolve around your job. When you're with each other, it's important to be in the moment. Giving your partner your undivided attention is the easiest way to show you care, so put your phone away and ignore those e-mails until tomorrow!

Related Link: 'Bachelorette' Andi Dorfman Hands Out Final Rose and Confronts Runner-Up

3. Sort out your priorities: If work is your number one priority, then you need to be with a partner who understands. If your significant other can't see why you care about your job, then you clearly aren't clicking when it comes to some fundamental issues. It's important to have similar life goals and priorities.

Celebrity Break-up: Are 'The Bachelorette' Reality TV Stars Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray Fighting on Twitter?

By Emma L. Wells

The celebrity news that reality TV stars Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray split came as a shock to many. While we still don't know what caused this celebrity break-up, they have remained very amicable – but that might be changing. At the end of January, Murray tweeted, “Having to change all my passwords because someone keeps logging into my social media accounts SMH.” This left us wondering: Is former Bachelorette Dorfman cyber stalking her celebrity ex? Her response came very quickly – only 9 minutes later according to thetir.cafemom.com. She replied, “Join the club ... Got better things to do with my life #blessed.” While we can't say for certain who these tweets are directed at or what they really mean, we can assume that there's some tension following this celebrity break-up.

break-up, but it looks like their claws are coming out now! How can you move on after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

It's common to still be emotionally attached your ex after your relationship has ended, making it hard to move on. Moving forward is a process and won't happen overnight, but Cupid has some dating advice that will (hopefully) make it easier:

1. Remember that no one wins: These Bachelorette exes may feel a little competition at this point in their celebrity break-up. While it's natural to want to "win" by looking better, dating someone new first, and making sure the news of your success gets back to your ex, there's really no point. Focus on making yourself happy instead of making your ex jealous.

Related Link: 'The Bachelorette' Season 10 Couple Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray Call It Quits

2. End all contact: It's hard to let go of your connections to your ex, whether they be in real life or digital. If you've had a meaningful and serious relationship, you probably don't want to lose those memories. Still, moving on means looking forward, not backward, and constant reminders about your former beau will only make it difficult. While it may be difficult, cut your ties on social media and in real life too. You can consider a possible friendship after you've had some time apart.

3. Learn something from it: You may feel like you wasted your time with your ex or that it was all a big mistake, but you probably have a few good memories too, even if the relationship ended badly. Give your past relationship purpose by learning from it and allowing the experience to make you a better person. It'll be easier to feel happier if you don't regret your decisions.

Former 'Bachelorette' Desiree Hartsock Shares Celebrity Wedding Photos

By Emma L. Wells

There's another name to add to the list of successful love stories stemming from The Bachelorette! Former reality TV star Desiree Hartsock tied the knot with Chris Siegfried on Sunday, Jan. 18. While the church ceremony wasn't televised, they released exclusive photos of their celebrity wedding to UsMagazine.com earlier this week. They shared more than two dozen pictures from their special day, including the pretty invitations, the bridal party, and the salted caramel and Oreo cake (yum!). "In a relationship, you're always learning about someone, trying to figure out how they love, how they feel, how they think," Hartsock said following their big day. "I think it's the same with marriage. You continue getting stronger and growing with each other."

You don't have to be a reality TV star like this former Bachelorette to have photographs fit for a celebrity wedding. What are some ways to up the ante for your own wedding album?

Cupid's Advice:

You want to capture all the details of your wedding – from the dress to your first kiss as a married couple to the dancing. After all, these are memories you'll want to cherish and display forever! If you want a unique and special wedding album but don't have the budget of a celebrity wedding, Cupid has some tips:

- 1. Use disposable cameras: Add throwaway cameras as a part of your centerpieces and invite guests to get in touch with their inner amateur photographer. You can even buy customizable ones, so they match your color scheme and have your names and wedding date on them. Your loved ones will get involved and interact with each other while snapping candid photos all evening long. Not all of them will be Annie Leibovitz-impressive, but you'll end up with some really fun pictures for your album.

Related Link: ‘The Bachelor’ Runner-Up Lindsay Yenter Is Engaged

2. Rent a photo booth: Photo booths are becoming a really big trend at weddings: They're a great way to capture photos of all of your guests, and the strip of photos can be your wedding favor. You can rent one for the reception, or go the DIY route by hanging a black sheet for a backdrop, finding a friend whose willing to snap pics throughout party, and buying a travel printer. To make photos you'll still enjoy looking at in 20 years, hit a thrift store or costume store and pick up some fun accessories for your guests to wear while they pose.

3. Create your own hashtag: Getting your friends and family involved is a sure-fire way for you to see all of the special photos of your big day. Pick an event hashtag for your wedding; be creative and come up with a cute couple nickname or keep it simple with just your married last name and the year. Make sure it's not a popular hashtag though, or it will be harder to collect all of your photos. Post the hashtag somewhere in venue – like above the bar or on the cocktail napkins – and ask your attendees to use it whenever they Instagram, Facebook, or Tweet throughout the day.

Celebrity Pregnancy: Former 'Bachelorette' Emily Maynard is Expecting!

By Emma L. Wells

Emily Maynard shared some exciting celebrity pregnancy news last week, according to People.com. In a humorous Instagram photo captioned "too much pizza #july2015," the reality star revealed her growing baby bump. After unsuccessful engagements stemming from both the The Bachelor and The Bachelorette, the mom-to-be wed Tyler Johnson this past June. Now, the couple – along with Maynard's daughter Ricki

We love Maynard's cute celebrity pregnancy announcement. What are some creative ways to announce your pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

Baby news is happy news, and therefore, it should be announced in cheerful fashion. Take a cue from celebrity pregnancy announcements like Maynard's and come up with a fun way to share that your family is growing:

1. Take funny photos: Use your baby bump as a prop or punchline for a series of pictures. If you want to be really coy or aren't interested in being photographed, show how your family, your house, or your diet is changing. You can write that you won't be drinking alcohol for the next few months and accompany that with a picture of a baby bottle.

Related Link: 'Bachelorette' Alum Emily Maynard is Engaged to Tyler Johnson

2. Enlist the help of an older sibling: Instead of announcing a new baby is on the way, share that the child you already have is about to be a big brother or sister. Take a cute picture of your son or daughter and caption it, "I'm being promoted." Or dress up your kid like a superhero and make a sign that says, "Every superhero needs a sidekick," along with the due date. If it's your first baby, you can use your pet as a prop instead.

Related Link: Former 'Bachelorette' Emily Maynard Marries in Secret Wedding

3. Use word play: Take a picture of something baby-related – whether that be your blossoming belly, your pregnancy test, or some baby clothes you've already purchased – and write a pithy caption using a play on words. Maynard used the idea of a "food baby," but other common phrases to consider are "bun in the oven" or "ready to pop." You can also try using a movie or song title with the word "baby" in it.

Chris Harrison: Things Were “Awkward and Weird” Between ‘The Bachelorette’ Andi Dorfman & Josh Murray

By Maggie Manfredi

This man knows a celebrity break-up when he sees one! According to UsMagazine.com, Chris Harrison, the newly single host of The Bachelor and The Bachelorette series, knew something was up with former The Bachelorette star Andi Dorfman and fiancé Josh Murray before they split. Harrison said, “I knew things were a little off. They were being a little awkward and weird. But you know, they’re from Georgia. You know those people.” The celebrity exes announced their break-up just after they attended The Bachelor season 19 premiere together.

Celebrity exes Josh Murray and The Bachelorette star Andi Dorfman gave nothing away the day before their celebrity break-up announcement. How do you remain civil with an ex in the midst of turmoil?

Cupid's Advice:

Keeping the drama to a minimum is tough when you're in the midst of a break-up and feeling tense. Cupid has some tips on how to stay calm:

1. Stay off social media: The last thing you want to do during a break-up is cause even more tension and turmoil, which is exactly what spreading your feelings all over social media will do. Keep your thoughts to yourself. If you need an outlet, try writing down your thoughts in a personal diary or writing a letter to your ex (without the intention of sending it).

Related Link: 'The Bachelor' Host Chris Harrison Says He "Had No Clue" Andi Dorfman & Josh Murray Would Break Up

2. Respect your ex's privacy: A relationship means intimacy, admiration, and love. Even when the other elements fade, make sure that you continue to show respect, like these celebrity exes did. Don't share your former partner's secrets or betray the trust bestowed upon you during your relationship.

Related Link: 'Bachelorette' Season 10 Couple Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray Call It Quits

3. Talk about it: If things get bad and messy post-relationship, sit down and talk about it. Otherwise, your feelings will only fester, and you'll lose perspective on the situation. Maturity is an important factor in having a relationship, so continue that trait even after your break-up.

You may not be a celebrity couple, but there are many ways that you can make tying the knot an exceptional affair. In lieu of an expensive celebrity wedding, try these cheaper ideas for a day that will make your heart flutter.

Clue” Andi Dorfman & Josh Murray Would Break Up

By Rebecca White

Recently, the latest celebrity news and gossip centered on the sudden celebrity break-up of The Bachelorette couple Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray. According to UsMagazine.com, Chris Harrison, the host of The Bachelor, said he had no idea that the celebrity couple was about to split. When Harrison saw the soon-to-be celebrity exes, he asked about their wedding plans in an interview. “By no means did I know they were broken up and did that interview, because honestly, having been through a crappy breakup, I would’ve protected it more and stayed away from wedding talk and I wouldn’t have put them on the spot,” Harrison told TV Guide. Although Harrison usually knows the drama between The Bachelor contestants, he seemed out of the loop on this one!

Life isn't filled with as much drama as you see on 'The Bachelor,' but what are some ways to keep it out of your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

There are some relationships and love affairs where drama seems to take over and is almost unavoidable. Here are steps that you can take to minimize the amount of drama that you let into each conversation or fight.

1. Recognize when you might be creating drama: By recognizing that you might be creating some of the theatrics in your relationship, you allow yourself to scale back and understand that maybe everything doesn't need to be so over the top. Try to analyze why you might be creating drama in your own love life, and aim to find different solutions for the attention and adventure you might be seeking.

Related link: The Worst 'Bachelor' and 'Bachelorette' breakups

3. Don't feed other people's drama: When your partner starts to create unnecessary drama, don't fight back just yet. Let them cool down and have a breather. After they settle down, you two can discuss the true problem without getting into a fight. While our lives may not be as dramatic as celebrity exes, Dorfman and Murray, we can still minimize drama whenever possible!

'The Bachelorette' Winner Josh Murray Gets Out of Town with His Mom Following Split

By Emma L. Wells

The Bachelorette winner Josh Murray knows there's nothing like a mother's love to help you heal. In a tweet on Jan. 12, he told followers he was headed to his hometown of Tampa, Florida with his mother after his celebrity breakup from Andi Dorfman. The couple, who met during season 10 of the popular reality TV show, announced their split in a joint statement earlier this month. Murray had been living in Atlanta, Georgia with Dorfman. According to UsMagazine.com, his mother, Lauren Goodhart Murray, flew to see her son after the news went public, and now, the two are driving south together. Dorfman's final pick also expressed excitement about seeing his beloved dog Sabel again.

Taking a cue from this celebrity breakup, what are some ways to cope with broken heart after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups can be painful no matter the circumstances. It's important to give yourself enough time to grieve but not so much time that you start to wallow. You need to move on but not so quickly that you haven't fully healed yet. Cupid has some advice on how to handle a broken heart:

1. Surround yourself with people who care: There is nothing strange about wanting your mama when you are hurting, no matter how old you are. It's natural to feel lonely after a split. Being around people who see how wonderful you really are will help you see it too. Follow Murray's lead after his celebrity breakup and don't shut yourself off from the world! Take a weekend trip to see family or friends. Even though your significant other may no longer be in your life, you are not alone.

Related Link: 'Bachelorette' Andi Dorfman Hands Out Final Rose

2. Be active: You know what they say: Out with the old, in with the new! Use this time of change to better yourself by starting a new hobby or interest. Try taking a cooking or dance class or learning a new language. Exercise classes can be especially beneficial because of the endorphins your body releases when you workout. Get your mind off your hurt by setting a goal and hitting the gym.

3. Invest in yourself: You've just gone from being part of a twosome to being single again; you need time to adjust to that kind of change. # 'Bachelorette' Season 10 Couple Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray Call it Quits

By Emma L. Wells

Another one bites the dust! Earlier this week, reality TV couple Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray announced that they have ended their engagement. In a joint statement published by People.com, the pair, who met and fell in love during The Bachelorette season 10, said, "After several months of being engaged and working on our relationship, we have decided that it's best for both of us to go our separate ways. We are very sad that it has to come to this point, but this is what's best for both of us individually." The news of this celebrity breakup was a shock to many, as the couple appeared happy during their red carpet interview prior to Monday night's premiere of The Bachelor.

In light of this surprising celebrity breakup, how can you handle questions about your sudden split?

Cupid's Advice:

The trickiness and difficulty of a breakup doesn't necessarily end as soon as you and your significant other call it quits. After you admit that it's over, you then have to tell your loved ones. So how do you stay diplomatic when your friends want to hear about the drama? Cupid has some tips:

1. Just say "no comment": Breakups are private and potentially very painful for the parties involved, so there's nothing wrong with telling a questioner that it's none of their business. However, it's usually best to put it as nicely as possible. Thank the person for their concern and then simply say that it's a private affair and that you'd rather not talk about it.

Related Link: 'Bachelor' Winner Nikki Ferrell Confirms Split from Juan Pablo

2. Avoid pointing fingers: In most situations, a split is not the fault of just one person. Take a cue from this celebrity breakup and do your best not to place blame on your ex. After all, listing the faults of your former partner post-breakup isn't going to make you look any better.

Related Link: Can You Really Find Love on 'The Bachelor'?

3. Be on the same page: Right after your split, this may seem near impossible, but in the coming months, it will help the situation if you remain amicable. You can avoid drama by making sure your stories match and your facts are true. Have a quick conversation and answer the question, “What are we going to tell people?” This will eliminate a lot of the confusion friends and family may have about what happened and hopefully help dodge any hurt feelings by sharing something too private.

Cupid's Advice:

Are you and your love beginning to think about starting a family like this famous couple but aren't sure you're completely ready for what's in store? Cupid knows it can be tough, so here are three ways to know when you and your partner should have kids:

1. You both have pure motives: As much as we hate to say it, sometimes, people want children for the wrong reasons. Having kids isn't a bandage that will fix a relationship in distress. For these reality stars, decision-making can be a little tough since they've only known each other for a short period of time. By Emily Meyer

Although we know Trista and Ryan Sutter for being one of the most successful couples in Bachelorette history, their own children might not be as aware! According to Wetpaint.com, while Trista has been promoting her new book, Happily Ever After: The Life-Changing Power of a Grateful Heart, the 42 year-old confessed that her children don't know how their parents met. She admits, "They haven't seen it...I'm sure that we'll be answering questions, but I'm not ashamed of it by any means." The recent Marriage Boot Camp Reality Stars participant thinks her hubby will be the first one to show the kids their past. She revealed, "I'm much more protective. I'm very regimented. I like keeping to a schedule, and the reason I like it is because my children are happier if they get their sleep, if they do the things they are used to doing." It seems Ryan and Trista will have some explaining to do!

How should parents talk to their children about relationships?

Cupid's Advice:

Every kid looks up to their parents, and it's only natural for them to eventually get curious about their mom and dad's relationship. Parents, then, have the opportunity to explain to their kids how to have healthy and strong love. Here are three things to remember when it comes to talking to your children about happy relationships:

1. It's never too early: It's never too early to bring up the topic of romantic partnerships with your children. It is actually better to discuss it before they begin forming their own relationships with others, so don't be afraid to approach the topic.

'The Bachelorette' Star J.P. Rosenbaum Talks Celebrity Baby News, "Dad-chelor"

Party, and Moving to Miami!

By Lori Bizzoco

Long Island native J.P. Rosenbaum won Ashley Hebert's heart (along with the rest of the women in America) when he proposed to her on Season 7 of The Bachelorette. The fairy tale-esque celebrity couple married a year later and are now happily preparing for more marital bliss as they welcome the birth of their son this October, otherwise known as Baby R. We had the chance to ask the 37-year-old construction manager some questions about the upcoming arrival of "Rosenbump," as he likes to refer to the little guy on Twitter, as well as the reality TV couple's move to Miami a few weeks ago and tonight's "dad-chelor" party.

The Bachelorette* Winner Opens Up About Celebrity Baby News

When it comes to his celebrity baby news and becoming a father, the Hot Skates lover tells us, “I think I’m probably most nervous about the unknown. There’s only so much information you read about on the Internet or that’s told to you by friends and family.” He gives us an example by saying, “I’m not looking forward to the time where I’m sitting there with my son and not having a clue in the world what to do.”

Related Link: ‘Bachelorette’ Stars Ashley Hebert and J.P. Rosenbaum Tie the Knot

Understandable, given that the proud parents-to-be are choosing to “go at it alone” when it comes to taking care of the baby. The DIY dad tells us that they have a good support system in Miami and they will have family visiting in the beginning. “Ashley’s mom will be coming down for two weeks after the baby is born, and my parents will also be around for at least a week.”

Rosenbaum confirms that the Miami locals will follow some of the Jewish traditions when it comes to the birth. “We’ve already decided to give the baby a middle name using the initial of a family member who has passed,” he says in our exclusive celebrity interview. The reality TV star also tells us that they will definitely be having a Bris. “Chris Harrison is gonna be our moyel,” Rosenbaum half-jokes. Given that the Bachelor host officiated their wedding, one never knows if he’s kidding or not!

Related Link: Ashley Hebert and J.P. Rosenbaum Celebrate Holiday Traditions Together

But there was no joking around when it came to keeping tight-lipped on possible names for Baby R. “Ash has her favorite, and I have mine,” the dad-to-be shares. “I’m pretty sure her choice is going to beat out mine. At least I'll get dibs on picking the Hebrew name!"

In celebration of their celebrity baby news and to help calm Rosenbaum's nerves a little, Mike's Hard Lemonade is throwing the reality star a "Dad-chelor" party tonight on a gorgeous rooftop in NY. "This is my first Dad-chelor party experience, and I'm excited to get together with everyone for an evening of poker," the Herricks alum says. "We've got our own dealer, lots of food, and of course, Mike's Hard Lemonade, for a night of male bonding."

J.P. Rosenbaum will celebrate his Dad-chelor party with Mike's Hard Lemonade.

Rosenbaum will be celebrating the evening with his father, brother, and a few close friends, including Mikey McLean, who is also from The Bachelorette Season 7. He adds, "It's more than just a last night out – it's a way to celebrate my entry into parenthood."

Reality TV Star Shares Relationship Advice for Son

The well-known romantic hopes his son will pick up a few key pointers from him when it comes to the ladies. “Always treat a woman with respect. I grew up in a household where my mother was put up on a pedestal – and rightfully so,” he shares of his best relationship advice. “I have always tried to do that with Ashley and will certainly pass that along to my son.” (Can we clone this guy?)

With so much going on, we couldn’t help but ask how Boo was adjusting to all of the changes. “Boo is livin’ it up!,” Rosenbaum laughs.

Former 'Bachelorette' Desiree Hartstock Celebrates Upcoming Wedding with Bridal Shower

By Laura Seaman

Desiree Hartstock of the Bachelorette is celebrating her wedding, the date still undecided, with a bridal shower. The star had her shower with a group of her girlfriends, which included other former Bachelor contestants such as Ali Fedotowsky, Daniella McBride, and Jackie Parr. Hartstock's shower was at the Lombardi House and was posted all over social media in photos and tweets such as "BEST bridal shower anyone could ask for!!" According to People the couple now lives in Seattle had an engagement party back in February.

What are some ways to personalize your bridal shower?

Cupid's Advice:

A bridal shower is a great way to celebrate your upcoming wedding with girlfriends and family members. It showers the bride with love and affection, which is definitely needed to calm the wedding nerves and the stress of planning everything. If you want your bridal shower to be something special, make it unique to you! Every marriage is different, and of course every bride is different, so why not have a different bridal shower? Cupid has some advice:

1. Have a theme. Theme weddings don't always work, so maybe you could try to take it down a notch and still give the bride what she wants by doing a bridal shower theme. All of the guests should show up in the proper attire, the venue should be decked out appropriately, and the activities should be fun but with the theme. It's a great way to have fun and go all-out without having to go through the complications of a theme wedding.

Related: Sia Married Filmmaker Erik Anders

2. Play some games! This is a great way to have fun at any shower, and plenty of games revolve around the bride, so it's easy to personalize them. Trivia about the bride, Bridal Bingo, The (Almost) Newlywed Game, and Memory Lane are all examples of games where the guests get to know a little more about the bride while having fun at the same time.

Related: Avril Lavigne Receives 17-Carat Ring for Wedding Anniversary

3. Serve the bride's favorite food. Even if it doesn't fit the theme or is a bit weird for the occasion, the party is about the bride, so she should be able to enjoy her favorite food. This could be something completely casual like burgers or chicken wings, or it could be more elaborate like a three course meal. Either way, the meal should reflect the bride's taste. Literally.

Andi Dorfman Says Juan Pablo Needs to Propose to Nikki Ferrell

By Laura Seaman

With Bachelorette Andi Dorfman accepting Josh Murray's proposal, talk of a wedding isn't far behind. "We have not really started making [plans]," says Dorfman. "I think I'm gonna enjoy being engaged for a little while..." According to UsMagazine.com, the newly engaged bachelorette was then asked if she would invite old flame Juan Pablo Galavis to the wedding. "Um, yeah—just gonna be a soft 'No' for now," she responded, later adding, "If he marries Nikki, he gets an invite." The newly engaged couple is talking about a spring wedding, but nothing is for sure quite yet!

What are some reasons to tie the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is a huge step to take in a relationship. That's why a proposal is so important! Some couples date for years and never end up married, while others are engaged in a matter of weeks. How do you know when it's time to finally pop the question and take your relationship to the next level? Here is some advice to help you figure it out:

1. You've talked about the future in depth. Marriage is a (hopefully) permanent future together, so all parties involved should know about future plans such as moving, career goals, or anything else that would affect your lives together. Don't leave anything hidden from your partner! Your future plans don't just involve you anymore.

Related: Naya Rivera Secretly Marries Ryan Dorsey on Original Wedding Date to Big Sean

2. You're ready to join the family. Maybe it's been easy to avoid your partner's family so far, but once you're married, you are officially part of the family whether you like it or not. Depending on your partner's family situation, this might mean going to visit them on holidays or joining them on vacations. Make sure you like this family before you become a part of it!

Related: Snooki Prepares for Wedding Day with 'Great Gatsby' Themed Bridal Shower

3. You are prepared in every way. This means emotionally, mentally, and financially. If you don't have the money to buy a house, pay for a wedding, or even get a ring, maybe you shouldn't be proposing. Yes, a marriage is a sign of never ending love, but it's also a very legally and financially binding agreement. Make sure you have this figured out before you dive in headfirst!

Andi Dorfman of 'The Bachelorette' Hands Out Final Rose and Confronts Runner-Up

By Laura Seaman

It's all over, folks! Andi Dorfman of The Bachelorette has made her final decision and is now engaged to... Josh Murray!

The famous celebrity couple was cuddling and showing their love for one another on the live post-finale show, according to UsMagazine.com. However, that's only one side of the story. Heartbroken and tossed aside, runner-up Nick Viall had a few things to say on the post-finale sit-down. "If you knew how in love with you I was, why did you make love with me?" he asked Dorfman. This was an awkward and shocking confession, making the rest of the conversation extremely uncomfortable. Luckily things became all love and cuddles once Viall was backstage and Murray took his place with new fiancé Dorfman.

It's not only famous couples who find themselves with one too many dating options. What are some ways to chose between two people you're attracted to?

Cupid's Advice:

Having two people fight for your affections might sound nice at first (it's definitely an ego boost), but be prepared for the extremely stressful task of choosing only one. This means ending any relationship you might have had with one person and committing yourself fully to the other. What makes this a million times harder is when you honestly care for them both! Cupid has some relationship advice to help make the decision easier:

1. Ask yourself which would make the better parent and spouse: If you're looking for a serious commitment, this is a very important question. Maybe the person who's the most fun isn't the one who would make a good spouse. Maybe the one you're most physically attracted to wouldn't make a good parent. These are the things you need to plan for!

Related Link: ‘The Bachelorette’ Andi Dorfman Brings Two Men to Fantasy Suite

2. Think about the kind of feelings you have: Your relationship with one person might be much more mature than the other, and you have to decide whether you want that mature relationship right now. One relationship might be more formal, whereas the other might be more casual and playful. You need to decide what kind of relationship you want and which partner can give that to you.

Related Link: Eric Hill’s Death Casts a Shadow on ‘The Bachelorette’ Hometown Dates

3. Look back at your history with each of them. Have you spent more time with one than the other? If both people were to ask you out and made plans for the same night, which one would you be more inclined to turn down? Chances are, you have a gut feeling telling you which one to choose, and it might be a good idea to follow it.

‘The Bachelorette’ Andi Dorfman Eliminates Chris Soules After Admitting Her

Feelings Aren't as Strong

By Laura Seaman

In the latest celebrity relationship news, reality TV sensation Andi Dorfman has narrowed it down to two men on The Bachelorette. Chris Soules, a farm boy from Iowa, was eliminated after his date in the Dominican Republic. Soules told Dorfman that he loved her, but according to UsMagazine.com, the reality TV star didn't feel the same way. "I don't think it's fair to make you sit here for days and wait for a rose ceremony," she said. "I just think I'd rather be honest with you and tell you that I'm trying and trying, but it's not there..."

How can you manage your relationship and love when your feelings are different from your partner's?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be extremely awkward when one person's feelings don't quite equal their partner's. If you don't think you're quite ready for the level of intensity that your partner is, don't worry. There are plenty of ways to handle this issue in relationships and love, and they don't involve running in the opposite direction:

1. Be honest, and tell them to be patient: Don't just let them continue thinking you're more into them than you really are. It's letting them believe in a lie, and it's no better than just outright lying! The further apart your feelings get, the further apart you will grow as a couple, and if you don't fix it soon, the distance may become too much.

Related Link: Eric Hill's Death Casts a Shadow on 'Bachelorette' Hometown Dates.

2. Ask them to double-check their feelings: Some people might want love so desperately that they trick themselves into feeling it when it's not really there. Make sure you're not a recipient of these fake feelings, and ask your significant other to really think about what they're feeling. This could bring them back to your level and give the relationship a more solid foundation.

Related Link: How Not To Scare a New Man Away

3. Take a step back and start from the beginning. If you've just been going along with their strong feelings, maybe you're taking steps you weren't really ready for. This might mean moving in together, talking about future plans, or just saying things you don't mean. Ask them to take a step back and start again a few steps back.

Eric Hill's Death Casts a Shadow on 'Bachelorette' Hometown Dates

By Laura Seaman

On week eight of this season's Bachelorette, a tragedy stuns the reality stars just after their hometown dates. A former contestant, Eric Hill, died in a paragliding accident. According to UsMagazine.com, the cast was told after returning from their hometown dates and given time to mourn the loss, though the cameras were still rolling. The rose ceremony was even more emotional than usual, with bachelorette Andi Dorfman saying, "Tonight was always gonna be tough, but I don't think anyone could've imagined that it would be like this."

What are some ways to support your partner through a tragedy?

Cupid's Advice:

Nobody truly knows how to handle a tragedy; if they did, maybe it wouldn't be such a tragedy. However, if your partner is going through a very emotional time, you can try to handle the situation the best way you know how. Here are some tips for helping your partner through tough times:

1. Give them any alone time they might need. For some people, piling on the attention and affection might seem like a good idea, but sometimes what your partner might really need is time alone to think, reflect, or just acknowledge their feelings. Respect their wishes and keep your distance.

Related: Screwing the Rules Dating Tips: Communicating About Tough Topics

2. Be the help they need. This could mean keeping your distance, or it would mean being the shoulder to cry on. There are many ways to support your partner, and you have to be willing to try all of them, even if they are out of your comfort zone. If your partner needs you to be there and listen, you need to be there and do just that. If you need to take a few days off work to make sure they're okay, do so.

Related: How to Help Your Partner Through a Crisis

3. Don't tiptoe around it. Tears and heavy emotions can be awkward and stressful, but you can't just avoid them. The last thing your partner needs is someone who ignores their pain or pretends like nothing is going on. Acknowledge their emotions and be there in the moment. This is a huge part of any relationship!

'Bachelorette' Andi Dorfman Quits Assistant District Attorney Job

By Shannon Seibert

After her memorable exit from Juan Pablo's season of The Bachelor, Andi Dorfman, attorney bachelorette, has proven to be a woman who goes after what she wants. It has been confirmed that the season 10 Bachelorette has quit her post as Assistant District Attorney in Fulton County, Georgia. Dorfman hasn't announced any plans for what comes next after The Bachelorette, but her direct attitude is helping her find love on national television, captivating the hearts of the lucky men as well as the hearts of America, according to UsMagazine.com.

How do you know when to put love before your career?

Cupid's Advice:

How can you choose between the person you love and what you love doing? In matters of the heart nothing is ever simple. Take a step back from the situation and weigh out your options. Love involves taking risks so take into account these three points before making your decision:

1. It all comes down to your happiness: If your partner is asking you to blatantly choose between them or your career, you need to proceed with caution. If this person isn't who you want to spend the rest of your life with, and they're asking you to quit what you love doing, they probably aren't the best match for you. Ambitious women are a force to be reckoned with, so don't let any man stand in the way of you reaching your goals. But if you have asked your partner to make significant sacrifices with their career for you, it may be your turn to return the favor.

Related: Screwing the Rules Video Dating Tips: George Clooney is Engaged! Why He Chose Her

2. Go with your gut: As people, our intuition can be one of the most useful tools we have. With first impressions, job interviews, and when meeting new people our gut feeling about the person is generally accurate. When it comes down to making a difficult decision with your relationship and your career, flip a coin. When the coin is in the air, you'll realize what you're wishing for most, and that should be the choice you make. Going for what you want most and things not panning out is better than wonder "What if" for the rest of your life.

Related: Leighton Meester and Adam Brody Walk First Post-Wedding Red Carpet

3. There is always other jobs, but there is only one of him: Yes, leaving the security of a job can be scary, or even just putting it in the backseat can be terrifying. There are millions of organizations out there that would be a good match for you, but there are very few people in the 7-billion that are compatible with you. If you truly love him, then there should be no decision. He is your decision.
