How do you find love in New York?

Cupid's Advice:

Every year, countless singles bravely leave their small town lives behind in search of love and success in the Big Apple. Unlike Kim Kardashian, however, most newcomers to New York City aren't armed with a high rise apartment or on V.I.P. guest lists. Even with the glitz and glam of the celebrity life, New York is by far the hardest place to find love, but the best place to be in love:

1. Never turn down an invitation: Living in a big metropolis like NYC can be tiring and overwhelming much of the time. Though you may feel like giving up, force yourself to get to even the smallest of events, such as your friend's housewarming party. Though everyone seems to fixate on high-end bars and four-star events for meeting their next lover, some of the biggest connections are made far more casually. Don't miss out!

2. Become self-sufficient: If you don't meet anyone right away, really get to know yourself. Though it has an incredibly high population, New York can be a very lonely city. Don't be afraid to be alone. Take this time to focus on hobbies or your career. Who knows? You could end up meeting your next partner that way.

3. Explore new places: Even in a city with countless things to do, it's very easy to get stuck in the same routine and going to the same places week after week. Explore a different part of the city for once, even if it means having to take an extra subway ride. You are never going to meet anyone new if you don't branch out.

Us Weekly reports that the 41-year-old actress earned 29 percent of the vote, ahead of Halle Berry (21 percent), Elin Nordegren (15 percent), and Betty White (11 percent), among others. Despite her history of failed relationships, Aniston doesn't want people to pity her. She told Vogue, "This whole 'Poor lonely Jen' thing, this idea that I'm so unlucky in love? I actually feel I've been unbelievably lucky in love... I'm right where I'm supposed to be.”

Can being labeled as a “single” destroy your chance for romance?

Cupid’s Advice:

Being known as an eternal single can actually be a hindrance to finding a serious relationship. Cupid has a few reasons why being sans boyfriend or girlfriend could keep you single:

1. Commitment-phobe: Male or female, when you bounce from one relationship to another without finding anything permanent, people might think you are afraid of commitment. If you’re chronically single, you may also give the impression that you’re a player and therefore unlikely to settle down.

2. Undesirable: While it can be fun to be single with no attachments, the opposite sex might think it’s because there’s something wrong with you. Even if that’s not the case, people may jump to conclusions or tread with cautiousness if you’re always riding solo.

3. Not serious: If you’ve never been in a serious relationship, it may send a message that you lack emotional maturity. Someone looking for a serious partner may not want to put their heart out there if they feel that the other person isn’t able to sustain a long-term relationship.
