

What The Jeans You Wear Say About You

✘ As one of the most durable, versatile, and highly sought-after materials around, denim is a fabric that sits in most peoples' wardrobes. Today, jeans are regarded as a highly fashionable item, making it hard to believe that they became part of the world fashion scene in the mid 1870's.

Originating in Italy, jeans were first made popular by the likes of Jacob Davis and Levi Strauss who emigrated from Germany to the US, bringing with them a soon to be iconic statement of fashion that would change the way people dressed for centuries to come.

Today, there are many different types of jeans on the market, ranging from the most casual to jeans worthy of dinner dates and sophisticated nights out. The jeans you wear can actually say a lot about the type of person you are or the interests that you hold.

Below, we'll take a look at what the different types of jeans say about the wearer.

The Trouser Jeans

The trouser jean is a versatile look that can be worn casually or as part of a smarter look. No matter what the occasion, trouser jeans offer an air of sophistication and glide over curves, complementing most figures.

This style lends itself to a variety of looks, making it difficult to read what the wearer is about. However, their versatility means the wearer could be into a comfier fit of jeans while still enjoying the finer things in life.

Skinny Jeans

As one of the most popular styles of jeans, skinny jeans started out as a trend for women but soon became incredibly popular with men too. As an incredibly versatile style of jeans, skinny jeans can be worn for many occasions in which they can be dressed down with a hoodie and trainers or dressed up for a smarter occasion like a date or a night out with heels and a top or dress shoes and a shirt.

There is a common perception that people must be of a small figure to be able to wear skinny jeans, yet this isn't true as there are different skinny jeans cuts and styles to suit many different body sizes.

5-Pocket Boot Cut

Not into throw away fashion trends? The five pocket boot cut gives off an air of sophistication and lets people know that you have a timeless style that can be reworn season after season and still be on trend.

These quality jeans last years and won't go out of style after a season or two. Simply choose a quality pair and you'll be wearing them for years to come.

High Rise Jeans

For the person who wears high rise jeans, this indicates that you are a problem solver. Whether you're conquering morning bloat after last night's big meal or trying to work out how to fit four social gatherings into one night, you tackle your problems head on.

It also indicates that your hot on the heels of the latest trends and know how to put an outfit together when you spot something that works.

Flared Jeans

Still wearing flared jeans? We predict you're the type that doesn't care what anyone else thinks. Not that flared jeans don't look great, but since their hay days in the 90's and 2000's, flared jeans aren't around all that much anymore.

While flares are coming back into trend in recent seasons, these jeans indicate that you like to wear what you want and are your own trend setter, despite what anyone else is wearing.

Overall, the type of jeans you wear can give away a lot about who you are as a person. While we don't recommend looking for your soulmate based on the type of jeans they're wearing, a person's style can say a lot about other factors in their life.

Spruce Up Your Home With Wild New Trends

✘ You might find yourself wanting to upgrade the style of your home, without knowing what direction to take. There can be many ways to redecorate, but it may not always feel easy to find a way to update your home that is truly chic, sophisticated, and personal. Even though it might not seem straightforward, there can be great ways to try out new home trends, bring the upscale fashion world into your living room, and take your home's style up to the next level.

Try Bold Colors

If you like the look of fashion giants like Dolce and Gabbana then bold colors might be the right fit for your home. While many interior designers may want to steer you towards neutrals like beige and gray, the truly stylish will encourage you to opt for some bold pops of primary colors, like red, yellow, and blue.

These colors can add fresh life to stuffy or bland home decor and can bring a touch of excitement, as well. Not only are strong color palettes in style, but new ways of using these colors are, too. Intricate patterns and designs are an interesting throwback to old Italian folk designs that will look refreshing in comparison to many simple modern ones.

Look Into Intriguing Prints

Bold colors aren't the only thing that can add interest and style to your home. There are many Italian-themed motifs that are making an appearance in the home goods world. From old-fashioned folk motifs to newer, more modern Mediterranean ones these kinds of prints can add color to your home in an eye-catching way. This can be true whether it is a new set of blue-printed dinner plates in your kitchen or a large, colorful sofa in your living space.

Animal prints are another way that you can bring the zest of wild new life into your living spaces, whether it is a piece of zebra-streaked dishware or a leopard print pillow. For a Dolce and Gabbana lover, these kinds of pieces can bring the fashion world into their home in a new and thrilling way. Animal prints in particular can be effective for giving your home some wild touches and bringing the outdoors in.

Go Natural

Another way that you can shake up the style of your home and take it to a new level is to go natural and bring new textures and fibers into your decor. From real wood cabinetry to hand-woven pieces, there are many ways to try out new and unique fabrics and materials that will give your home an earthy and exotic touch.

Also, pulling in artisanally crafted pieces, like hand-blown glass items in dark and bold colors, hand-painted ceramics, woven and knitted items can help you bring history and one-of-a-kind culture to life in your home. When you try out pieces made with old-world techniques your living spaces will be telling an age-old story all on their own.

A Last Thought

There can be many different reasons to want to update your home and breathe new life into your decor. However, you might not always know just how to go about it. There are always new trends popping up on the horizon, and it can be difficult to tell which ones will be sticking around, and which ones won't. The upside is that while there are many options for changing up your living space if you are looking to update your home in a way that is bold, chic, and timeless, Italian and Mediterranean themes like those found in Dolce and Gabbana's Casa line can be a great way to do it.

Fashion Tips: Perfect Holiday

Gifts for Your Fashion-Forward Friends

 By Nicole Maher

Even when you've been friends with someone for a long time, it can be challenging to find the perfect holiday gift for them. This challenge is even greater when you gravitate toward a different fashion style than your friend, or simply do not have the same interest in fashion as they do. You may find yourself what is currently on-trend, and what will be forgotten about as we enter the New Year. If you're struggling to decide on a present this holiday season, take a look at some of these fashion tips for selecting the perfect fashion-forward presents.

Check out these fashion tips for selecting the perfect holiday gift for your fashion-forward friend.

1. Layered jewelry: One of the easiest gifts to give a fashion-forward friend is an accessory, and jewelry is no exception. One of the largest jewelry trends at the moment is layered necklaces or rings, making this the perfect gift to give this holiday season. Determine if your friend is a fan of gold or silver jewelry, or if they like to mix metals, then gift them with a few pieces that they can add to their next outfit to take it to the next level. Many places offer layered jewelry in predetermined packages if you are unsure how to select different pieces, or as individuals if you want to make the gift more unique.

2. Patterned booties: Booties are a trend that keep coming back every winter season. If your fashion-forward friend lives in a cooler climate, or is simply a fan of booties no matter the weather, gifting them with a new pair is a great option. While styles of booties may stay consistent over the years, patterns often change each season. Go for something super trendy by picking out a pair of animal print booties, or go for something more classic like a two-toned neutral pair.

3. Fashion subscription: It can be challenging to keep up with fashion trends, especially if it is something you are not particularly interested in yourself. If you're not sure about the newest fashion trends, or your friend's style is super eclectic, buying them a fashion subscription is a great option. You can either opt for a fashion magazine subscription that will keep your friend up-to-date on all the newest trends, or go for a clothing-box subscription which allows your friend to test out different kaszinó pieces without needing to keep them.

4. Statement handbag: Handbags can be the perfect holiday gift because they don't require you to know any specific sizes of your friend. Just like booties, handbags are a consistent outfit staple but go through pattern changes with each season. Quilted and embellished handbags were both large trends toward the end of 2020, making them great options for a winter-ready handbag. If you are looking for a more cost conscious gift, use this fashion tip to buy your friend a matching wallet to a bag they already own. Wallets are typically lower in cost, and by purchasing one in a pattern your friend already owns, they are sure to love it!

5. Trendy jacket: Jackets have become such a dominant fashion trend that they are now acceptable to be worn in nearly every climate. If your fashion-forward friend lives in a colder climate, or has a more cozy aesthetic, going for a teddy-coat is the best option. If your friend lives someplace that tends to be warmer, or likes sleeker silhouettes, faux leather jackets and trench coats are a nice on-trend option.

Fashion Tips: How to Style an Outfit for Zoom Meetings

 By Nicole Maher

At this point, you may have gotten used to working from home and adjusted to the world of Zoom meetings. In the beginning of quarantine, the idea of completing your job while lounging on the couch in sweatpants sounded amazing. However, months have passed and you may feel yourself having the desire to get dressed up for work again. If you are looking to impress your coworkers next time you log-on to a Zoom meeting, try incorporating some of these fashion tips to style a perfect outfit.

Check out these five fashion tips when putting together your next Zoom meeting outfit.

1. Patterned blouses: An easy way to catch attention in your next Zoom meeting is to wear a patterned blouse. Larger patterns work better than smaller patterns when visible on the computer screen, as smaller patterns may not focus as well or produce too much movement. Patterns that include contrasting colors are also a great option so that your blouse appears even more vivid to your fellow virtual meeting attendees.

2. Well-fitted clothes: When working from home, it can be tempting to remain in oversized t-shirts and sweatshirts all day. However, well-fitting clothes make for better outfits when attending Zoom meetings. The clothes you're selecting don't need to be tight or form-fitting, but consist of a good structure. Try using this fashion tip to incorporate some collared blouses or structured sweaters into your Zoom meeting attire and get ready to receive all the compliments from your coworkers.

Related Link: Fashion Tips: Keep it 'Corona Casual'

3. Fun accessories: Accessories are the best way to elevate any outfit, whether in person or on Zoom. When attending your next Zoom meeting, focus on accessories for the upper half of your body, as that will most likely be more visible. Throwing on some layered necklaces and matching earrings is a great way to accessorize a Zoom-friendly look. Different hair clips and headbands are another fun way to draw attention to your outfit.

4. Bright makeup: Doing your makeup for a Zoom meeting is another way to look put together and draw attention to your outfit. As the camera focus on computers isn't always the highest resolution, bright and bold accents of makeup will translate better than subdued colors. Try going for a colorful eye look or deep-colored lip to grab everyone's attention. Because Zoom meetings are often more casual than in-office meetings, focusing on one makeup accent should be enough!

5. Good lighting setup: A secret you may know from taking pictures is that lighting is everything! While you may have the perfect outfit on, poor lighting can cause it to translate poorly through the computer's camera. Harsh overhead lighting or lighting from one side can cause awkward shadows on your face and outfit. For your next Zoom meeting, try positioning yourself in front of a window or tabletop lamp to ensure equal lighting across your screen and eliminate any strange shadows.

Fashion Tips: How to Dress Up Your Sweatpants

 By Nicole Maher

Sweatpants may have once been reserved for lounging around the house, but that is no longer the case. Whether you are looking to incorporate more comfort into your work wardrobe, or just trying to stay warm in the colder months, styling your sweatpants with the newest fashion tips is a great way to achieve your goal. By finding new ways to make your favorite pair of sweatpants look more professional, you will feel just as confident leaving the house in them as you would in a pair of regular pants.

Check out these five fashion tips for making your sweatpants look more stylish.

1. Swap out the sneakers: One of the easiest ways to elevate an outfit while wearing sweatpants is to select fancier shoes. Try swapping out your sneakers for a pair of boots or heels to bring your outfit to the next level. This fashion tip works best when you are wearing sweatpants that are tighter around the ankles, such as joggers, so that everyone will be able to see the shoes you've selected. Pulling on a pair of boots or heels will keep you looking professional while still enjoying the warmth and comfort of sweatpants.

2. Make it monochrome: Matching the color of your shirt to the color of your sweatpants is a great way to make any outfit look streamline and cohesive. Wearing a black shirt with a pair of black sweatpants is a great way to pull together a simple outfit while still looking stylish. You can also use this fashion tip to make a larger statement by selecting a matching shirt and sweatpants set in a brighter color, such as pink or yellow.

3. Try a new pattern: Patterned pants are one of the most popular fashion trends at the moment, whether they are jeans, trousers, or sweatpants. Find a pattern that matches your personality, either a simple stripe or bright tie-dye, and plan the rest of your outfit around that piece of clothing. Match a pair of patterned sweatpants with a solid colored shirt and simple pair of shoes so that they'll be the statement piece. This will draw attention to your sweatpants and let everyone know that you are wearing them on purpose, and you look great in them!

4. Layer it up: One of the reasons you are wearing sweatpants is likely to stay warm, so why not incorporate that warmth into other aspects of your outfit? Pair your sweatpants with a longer coat and pair of tall boots to stay warm while looking stylish. To ensure that your outfit still highlights your figure, try finding a coat that is belted or ties at the waist. Wearing a longer coat and tall pair of boots is also a great way to hide the fact that you're wearing sweatpants as so little of the fabric will be showing.

5. Add some extra accessories: Adding accessories can make any outfit look more intentional and put together. While you may still be wearing sweatpants, throwing on a matching necklace and set of earrings will make your whole outfit look planned out to perfection. To make it look even more intentional, try selecting some accessories that directly compliment different aspects of your sweatpants. For example, if the drawstring hardware on your sweatpants is gold, add some gold jewelry or a gold accented handbag to pull the entire look together.

Fashion Tips: How to Make Your Outfit Stand Out

 By Nicole Maher

Nothing in the world seems to change as quickly as fashion trends, and it can be hard to determine whose fashion tips to listen to. A style of clothing will be the hottest trend one season only to be forgotten about the next, then likely resurface a few years later. With the world of fashion changing so quickly, putting together outfits that stand out and feel unique to you can feel like a challenge. However, by adding a few go-to pieces to your wardrobe and developing your own sense of style, you will be ready to take on any trend the fashion industry throws your way.

Check out these five fashion tips that will help you make your outfit stand out in any crowd.

1. Determine your aesthetic: The first step to creating outfits that stand out is to determine what style of clothing attracts you. With trends changing so quickly, it can be more difficult that it seems to develop a style that is unique to you. A great way to decipher what you like the best is to surf social media platforms. Creating a Pinterest board or Saved section on Instagram devoted to fashion can help you see to what colors and fits you are repeatedly attracted.

Related Link: Fashion Tips: Keep it 'Corona Casual'

2. Invest in a staple: One mistake that many people make when they are first developing their style and putting together outfits is believing that it is better to have more options. However, instead of buying multiples of the same type of clothing, it can be more beneficial to invest in fewer pieces that fit you better. Owning two or three pairs of jeans that fit you perfectly and one leather jacket that hits you in just the right place will make it much easier to put together amazing outfits than trying on multiple clothing items every morning.

Related Link: Fashion Tips: How to Wear Belts Better

3. Match your accessories: One of the quickest ways to elevate an outfit is to match your accessories. By matching the color of your purse, belt and shoes, you can make even the most basic t-shirt and jeans combo look like it took forever to put together! While having a few stable accessories in your closet is essential, it is just as important to have a few neutrals. Having a go-to purse and pair of shoes in colors such as black and white will help you tie together daily outfits in a breeze.

4. Don't discount jewelry: Just like matching accessories, adding a few pieces of jewelry is a quick and simple way to make your outfit stand out. Whether you prefer to layer a few dainty necklaces or go for a statement piece, taking the extra minute to put on a few pieces of jewelry in the morning will make even your simplest outfits look planned out and put together.

5. Wear it with confidence: No matter how quickly fashion trends change, there is one thing that will always be in style, and that is confidence. Whether you are trying out a new bold color and switching up your everyday jeans for a dress, wearing it with confidence will help your outfit stand out even more. We often spend time worrying about what other people will think of what we're wearing, especially if it's something out of our own comfort zone. In reality, if we appear comfortable and confident in what we're wearing, then no one will question us. If anything, they will wish they were wearing it, too!

Fashion Advice: 5 Shopping Mistakes to Avoid on Cyber Monday

✘ Enjoying a Thanksgiving that comes with all the trimmings can be a challenge for your budget, especially when you're quick to exchange your drumstick for a credit card. Traditionally, Black Friday kicks off the unofficial start to the holiday season, where the deal-hungry masses pack shopping malls across the country. But in a time when personal space is treasured, you may not be comfortable joining the melee as usual. Walmart, a bastion of Black Friday madness, is closing its doors for Thanksgiving, with more retailers sure to follow suit. That puts all the focus on Cyber Monday. Can your finances handle the pressure?

If you need some fashion advice on scouring the web for the best Cyber Monday deals, make sure you don't make these mistakes.

1. Shopping without Checking Your Budget: A budget gives your Cyber Monday shopping structure. It helps you determine a reasonable spending limit that won't eat into the money you need for important bills. If you're unhappy with the limit you have, take a closer look at how you use your cash in a month. Eliminate expenses you can control, like getting takeout when your fridge is full, another streaming service, and a gym membership you don't use. Unlike rent or utilities, you can live without these splurges.

2. Boosting Your Budget with a Loan:

When your budget falls short of what you want, it may be tempting to contact direct payday loan lenders to get a quick cash injection, but it's not a good idea. That's according to the loan specialists at MoneyKey, who warn against using direct lender payday loans unless it's an unexpected emergency. These financial products have a short turnover and high rates, which make them inappropriate for shopping. The same goes for direct lender installment loans. While they may have a longer term, they're better suited for unexpected emergency expenses, like a trip to the ER or repairing your car.

3. Using Your Debit Card to Shop:

Keep your debit card safely tucked away in your wallet when you hit the web. Using this card at the online checkout means you're sharing your bank account's information when you finalize the purchase. If hackers manage to get their hands on this data, they'll also nab any other account linked to your bank. Compare this to your credit card, which is an isolated account. Even if the website still gets hacked, the breach will only affect that one card, making it easier to isolate, prevent, and dispute potential fraud.

4. Shopping without a List:

A list is a valuable accessory that gives focus to your online shopping trip. Having your list of must-haves written down helps hammer home the fact that you're only looking for those items on the list. Anything that doesn't have a spot on that list shouldn't find its way into your cart.

5. Shopping on Your Own:

Don't head online alone when there are so many money-saving apps that can tag along to your shopping trip. From the browser extension, Honey, that finds and applies the best coupons to your shopping cart, to the cash-back app, Rakuten, that pays you to shop at participating stores, these apps can help maximize your Cyber Monday haul.

Shopping at home where you can avoid other people is easy, but don't let that lull you into a false sense of security. You need to be on your toes to make sure you nab the best deals without hurting your finances. Remember these shopping tricks to help you save and prepare for the upcoming holidays.

Fashion Tips: 7 Tips to Make You Look Slimmer

✖ By Alycia Williams

Finding chic and slimming styles can be difficult. The slimmer look always has an elegant feel to it and it gives anyone a flattering silhouette, but if not done correctly then you can do the opposite and end up looking bigger than you actually are. It's time for some fashion tips to keep us looking slim.

Here are some must know fashion tips to looking slimmer.

1. Wear dark colors: Darker colors instantly draw attention to all the right areas and it just draws your silhouette in. Embrace your little black dresses, black tops and jeans for that slimming outcome.

Related Link: Fashion Tips: How to Wear Belts Better

2. Wear waist belts: This will save you if you're wearing loose dresses that can make your figure disappear, by giving your waistline more definition. Get the medium sized or larger belts because the tiny ones won't really give you the slimming effect you're going for.

Related Link: Fashion Advice: 6 Plus-Size Fashion Trends to Look Your Best

3. Wear vertical stripes: Horizontal stripes widen the body and you should probably avoid them if you want to look more well put together. The lines guide the eyes vertically rather than horizontally which is exactly what makes you look toned.

4. Get fitted clothes: This doesn't mean that you should wear very tight things because that also does the opposite of what you want here. The trick is to fill your wardrobe with items that are the correct size for you.

5. High waisted pants: High waists usually look better than any other type of trousers. Those that ride awkwardly along the waistline draw in attention in the wrong way. The beauty of high-waisted jeans is that they tuck in the tummy and define your figure immediately.

6. Wear heels: Heels were designed to elongate the legs which is an important part of creating that slimming, chic look. Those that work best are pointed toe heels and nude heels. Whatever style of heel you like, add a variety that are within these two categories and you'll never go wrong.

7. Choose smaller patterns: Small patterns are more subtle and they don't enlarge things like the bigger, bolder patterns. They don't overpower your body and that also does a lot to narrow things down.

COVID-19 has been forcing a lot of us to stay home on days that we would've been going outside. At first, it felt great to know that we can lounge around in our pajamas all day, but as the months go by, it becomes harder and harder to feel good about ourselves not getting ready for the day. Just because you're not going anywhere, doesn't mean you can't get dressed and focus on fashion. You'll need some fashion tips for staying home and dressing casual.

Here are five fashion tips for dressing casually while staying home.

1. Get dressed: Now, it's time to get dressed. Getting dressed really helps with your mood as it gives you a sense of purpose for the day. You'll feel more productive when you put on clothes versus pajamas. It's also good practice to throw on a pair of jeans once a month just to check in and make sure that they all still fit.

2. Put on something that makes you smile: Enough with saving things for a special occasion. You know what makes you feel the best when you out it on, don't hesitate to dust it off and put it on for the day. Whether it's a top, earrings, or even a pair of high heel, just make sure you feel great in it. It's a instant mood lifter.

3. Wear a color that makes you happy: Studies have shown that the color yellow is perceived as a high energy color and is often used to create a sense of excitement. We could all use a bit of that right about now. If yellow is not your thing, find a color you love and that makes you feel good, and wear it often. It could be something as simple as changing the colors of the laces in your running shoes from white to blue, or pulling out the perfect red lipstick to get through your Zoom meeting with confidence.

4. Level up your loungewear: Exciting prints and comfort can apply to the loungewear we choose to wear outside of the house as well. Instead of lounging in your printed pajamas, throw on your favorite tee, some printed joggers, and sandals to pull together a casual, yet comfortable look that can be worn in the comfort of your home.

5. Grab your mask: Interestingly enough, in absence of seeing your smile, your mask may just be your best accessory these days. Choose masks that match your personality from showcasing your Packers or Badgers pride to abstract and animal prints, the possibilities are endless.

Fashion Tips: 5 Ways Mask Fashion Can Elevate Your Look

 By Diana Iscenko

It looks like cloth face masks are here to stay! The CDC recommends everyone to wear a face covering while out in public, while several states are now mandating this. While masks aren't a fashion statement, it doesn't mean you can't wear cute ones that match your outfit each day. Having fun styling your face mask can elevate any look. If you need fashion advice that works with your mask, Cupid has some tips for you.

No matter what your personal style is like, here are five simple fashion tips to help you incorporate a face mask into any outfit:

1. Embrace Basics

Everyone should have neutral-colored face masks! If you only own a couple, your first purchase should be either a black or a white mask. These masks will tie together any outfit. Remember, you don't want your mask to overpower the rest of your look.

Related Link: Fashion Trend: Celebrity Looks On the Way Out

2. Make Your Own Matching Set

While some brands are making face masks to match other articles of clothing, you can make your own matching set by buying a mask that matches an outfit you already have. Patterns might be harder to match, so try buying a mask the same color as your favorite shirt!

3. Make Your Mask a Statement

Think of your face mask as an accessory. If you're wearing a more neutral outfit, your mask can bring your look to life with a bright color or a fun pattern. Remember to keep other accessories, like jewelry and handbags, more minimal if the mask is your pop of color.

4. Emphasize Your Eyes

A mask covers the lower half of your face, so bring the attention to your eyes! Go a winged liner or a colorful eyeshadow look. Don't forget mascara and brow gel to finish off your stunning eye makeup.

5. Minimize Face Makeup

Even if you're the type of person who always wears a full face of makeup, consider toning down the makeup on the lower half of your face. Foundation and lipstick can get all over your mask, meaning you'll have to wash it even more. It can also clog your pores and lead to under-the-mask acne.

Fashion Advice: 6 Plus-Size Fashion Trends to Look Your Best

 By Diana Iscenko

Dressing for your body type can be daunting. With so many fashion trends coming in and out of style, it's easy to feel overwhelmed. This fear may be worse if you have a curvy figure, with fashion often displayed on bodies that don't look like your own. Cupid has some fashion advice to help you find out what outfits will flatter your body.

Here are six fashion tips for plus-size women to help you look (and feel!) your best:

1. Try Different Sizes

Not everything will fit the same way. Sizing varies from brand to brand, so it's important to try on a range of sizes. Even within the same brand, sizing may vary based on the style or the material. It can be discouraging to try clothes that don't fit but don't be afraid to venture out of your "normal" sizes when trying on clothes. After all, how the clothes fit your body is more important than the number on the tag.

Related Link: Fashion Trend: Celebrity Looks On the Way Out

2. Dress For Your Body Shape

There's no one-size-fits-all approach to flatter every curvy body type. Women who are hourglass-shaped and women who are pear-shaped will have different things that flatter them. Regardless of your shape, avoid wearing baggy clothes to hide your figure and embrace your curves.

3. Tailor Your Clothes

Tailoring is an overlooked asset for women of all sizes! A good tailor can be your secret weapon, transforming a frumpy, ill-fitting outfit into a wardrobe staple. Department stores and boutiques often offer in-store tailoring services, too.

Related Link: Fashion Trends for 2020

5. Invest in Basics

While buying a cheap white shirt or leggings may be tempting, you should invest in these wardrobe basics. They're the building blocks to your wardrobe and you'll likely be wearing them a lot. The same goes for undergarments. You don't want the wrong pair of underwear to ruin the cute outfit you had planned.

6. Find the Right Accessories

Accessorizing can bring your look to the next level. Add a wide belt to draw attention to your waist and extenuate your curves. Wear shoes that make your legs look longer and avoid ones with ankle straps. You can also experiment with colors and prints!

Fashion Advice: How to Find a Reliable Online Retailer

Nowadays, you can find all sorts of fashion items and accessories online. From coats, dresses, sweaters, jeans, glasses, shoes, slippers, you name it, you can buy it online. The internet has made it convenient to shop for various fashion needs online, and people are growing confidence shopping online with the quality of products and services being delivered by the top fashion retailers. However, online shopping does have its downsides. Some some product reviews speak for themselves and navigating through some sites can be a real pain.

Here is some fashion advice for considering an online fashion retailer.

There are many retailer shops, and we have to consider the following factors for legit online fashion retailers. The following factors will enable customers to have a pleasant experience when searching for an online fashion retailer:

1. Quality of products and services: The quality of fashion accessories is the most important, which is related to the authenticity of the clothing brands. Some of these online shops place fake products on their online shelves, and reading through customer reviews can reveal the truth of their fashion products.

2. Ease of navigation: With many brands of fashion products and accessories, a reliable fashion retailer should have a search engine. The search engine and navigation tools available will enable customers to search for items which ensure a pleasant shopping experience quickly. One of the ways of recognizing a reliable fashion retailer is how the brands and fashion accessories are categorized for easy access and navigation. Customers can easily find the search bar and all categories on the platform's front page and get an idea of the ease of navigation from customer reviews.

3. Payment and Services : A reliable online fashion retailer should have safe payment options available for their customers. They should have a wide range of payment options that will make it easy for customers to shop on the platforms. Another consideration is their return policies and ensures that they are flexible enough for the customers. Check out their policies regarding cash back or exchange for returns of items that are faulty, substandard, or does not meet the requirements.

Before customers shop for their fashion items and accessories online, they should check out reviews about the various online shops available on BritainReviews. This will enable the customers to determine the reliability of the online shops in making a decision. Customers should drop reviews about their experience with any online retailers to help others choose a reliable retailer.

Fashion Tips: How to Wear Belts Better

 By Alycia Williams

Wearing a cool belt has been a fashion trend for a long time, but it's never been as simple as just throwing on a belt and walking out the door. Wearing the right belt with the right outfit can take a so-so outfit to the next level. There are so many fashion tips to level up your outfits with the help of belts.

Here are some must-know fashion tips for wearing belts.

1. Slim belts: Slim belts can be used to spice up a variety of outfits. For instance, with a blazer, you can put a slim belt over it to give it a more chic look. Or, use a slim belt to fasten a loose fitting dress or shirt. That said, avoid putting on slim belts with jeans. Always remember loose fitting clothes are best, like skirts, dresses and shirts. The belt will help give the outfit structure.

2. Chunky or statement belts: These are the belts with large buckles or with extra-large widths. They are harder to pull off fashion-wise and portray a bolder look. Statement belts can be worn to accessorize outfits like trench coats or blazers. These belts can also be used to create a boundary between a shirt and skirt outfit. Do not put on statement belts with small summer dresses or tight fitting shirts, as they drown out the rest of the outfit.

3. Buckle belts: This is the most common type of belt. It is for both men and women and is easy to add to an outfit. Most people use these belts to fasten and hold up their trousers and they do a perfect job. When selecting a waist belt or buckle belt, always ensure the belt is a perfect fit for the trouser loops, and your outfits will look more planned and organized. Furthermore, ensure your buckle has an interesting design on it to make your outfit look sleeker.

4. Metal belts: These are typically worn with formal dresses or wedding gowns. Some metal belts are fastened with chains or are made of chains overall. Some are made of filigree silver/gold or gold and silver plated metals. Try not to wear a metal belt with a casual outfit, as it'll look out of place and uneven.

5. Cinch belt: A cinch belt is a tight fitting belt made of elastic / leather / stretchy fabric to encircle the waist tightly and make it look really small. This belt can give you an hourglass figure by thinning the waist. It is not worn inside the belt loops, but over it. Use this belt as the statement piece of your entire outfit, while keeping everything simple underneath. Don't wear this belt with any kind of lumpy or baggy clothes. Leggings and a long shirt are perfect for the cinch belt.

6. Sash belt: A sash is a fabric / ribbon- worn with dresses and gowns as a belt. It is worn by draping it from one shoulder to the waist for ceremonial occasions, or around the waist as in the case of a sash belt. The tails of the sash belt are usually tied into a bow. This belt is strictly for formal outfits, its most typical use on a wedding dress.

7. Military belt: This refers to a nylon webbing strap belt used by military personnel, mostly in neutral colors like black, navy blue, brown or khaki. The strap is a heavy nylon webbing and the belt will have metal hardware like buckles or sturdy plastic buckles. This belt works best with a pair of jeans, especially boyfriend or mom jeans.

Fashion Trend: Celebrity Looks On the Way Out

✖ By Diana Iscenko

Fashion is a fun way to express yourself, with plenty of celebrity styles you might want to try out. No matter your personal style, there's always going to be enough fashion trends for you to choose from. While many of these bold celebrity looks last the test of time, many fall out of fashion as quickly as they came.

Here are five celebrity fashion trends that are already on the way out:

1. Tiny Sunglasses

Tiny shades were a major red carpet fashion trend in 2019, with everyone from Kylie Jenner to Millie Bobby Brown wearing them. The trend is a revival of '90s fashion, even though it was first popularized in the '60s. Despite this, the tiny sunglasses trend has been losing its momentum. Several celebrity fashion brands, like Rihanna's Fenty and Kim Kardashian West's collaboration with Carolina Lemke, have moved on to big shades again.

2. Tiny Handbags

Also in the “tiny fashion” department, many celebrities were spotted with tiny handbags last year. This celebrity fashion trend debuted at Paris Fashion Week and was eventually picked up by stars like Lady Gaga and Lizzo. While the trend was fun and eye-catching, it didn’t catch on with the public since a handbag small enough to hold with a single finger isn’t exactly practical.

3. Weird Animal Prints

Cheetah print and snakeskin patterns will always have a place in celebrity style, but 2019’s animal print trends didn’t stop there. Zebra and cow print were popular trends in 2019. Zebra print is another throwback ‘90s trend, but it didn’t last long even with the support of Gigi and Bella Hadid. Cow print similarly lost steam halfway through 2019.

4. Harnesses

This male-centered trend took off during 2019’s award show season. Celebrities like Michael B. Jordan and Timothée Chalamet were spotted sporting harnesses at the SAG Awards and the Golden Globes. As much fun as a sparkly harness and black tux combo is, the fashion trend didn’t make it off the red carpet.

5. Neutral Monochromes

The winter of 2019 brought us a much more wearable celebrity fashion trend with neutral monochrome outfits. Layered ensembles of greys and beiges were popular on celebrities like Margot Robbie and Hailey Bieber. The trend never had a chance to catch on before the summer neon trend pushed it out of fashion

Fashion Tips: Current Trends That Need to Die Already

 By Alycia Williams

When it comes fashion, nothing is a sure thing. Fashion trends come and go, but some fashion trends stay a little longer than needed. Fashion tips are well needed so you can get rid of those old fashion trends.

There are so many fashion trends that need to die already. Here are some fashion tips.

1. The sneaker wedge: This trend started in 2012 and unfortunately still is around to this day. Almost every high street brand spawned their own knockoff version of this shoe. Although this shoe was extremely popular when it first came out, it's time to let this this trend fizzle out.

Related Link: Fashion Tip: Out With the Outdated & In With the New

2. Dad sneakers: Yes, they're comfy and make you feel like you're walking on air. These sneakers don't complete any outfit unless intended for running. They're called dad sneakers for a reason, they're not meant to be worn on with your best outfit. Keep them for your morning runs and that's all.

Related Link: Fashion Trend: 5 Ways Celebrity Style Influences Fashion Trends

3. Super distressed jeans: This is ripped jeans to the next level. The occasional ripped jean is fine, but overly ripped distressed jeans is just too much, why not just wear shorts?

4. Puff sleeves or power shoulders: This 80's fashion trend should be left in the 80's. It doesn't work for any situation or outfit. It recently tried to make a comeback, but we should keep the puffy shoulders where they belong forties years ago, in the 80's.

5. Mullet skirts: party in the front, business in the back is what the mullet is known for and unfortunately this skirt has the same motto. This skirt doesn't work for party or business and it has overstayed its welcome.

6. Fast food fashion: We love burgers and fries, but Moschino took it to another level. McDonald's based dresses or shirts is a trend that needs to die.

7. Leggings as pants: If you're going for a run or going to the gym, you get a pass, but anyone else needs to stop. Athletic leggings are thick enough to be worn as pants, but dress leggings are almost completely see through and not meant to be worn as pants. Unless you're going to wear those leggings with a skirt, throw them out.

Fashion Advice: What Your Watch Says About You

✖ By Hope Ankney

Believe it or not, a lot of things can be said about you only by the brand and type of wristwatch you possess. Interestingly enough, all wristwatch wearers select watches that fit their personalities, careers, and even hobbies. In this article, we shall be taking a look into specific messages that align with the type of watch you are wearing.

In this fashion advice, learn how to be a better judge of character by just looking at the kind of watch someone is wearing.

1. You are victorious and powerful: Of course, you can be successful through any means, but did you know that the type of watch you wear can instantly let others know you're successful as well? If you're looking for a new watch that can make you feel confident and powerful, look no further than renowned brand Rolex. If you are conservative, outgoing or otherwise, there is a Rolex watch for you. And today, you can get a Rolex Day Date watch in different versions as fast as you wish.

2. You are glamorous: The next watch type is for anyone who loves the glitz and glam. Of course, not everything that glitters is gold; but it's still nice to savor such pieces. When matched up with the right clothing, they look fantastic. As mentioned above, these pieces are loved by people in the limelight. Such as actors, musicians, and other media personalities. These pieces may be made of real gems like gold, rubies or diamonds among others. Be careful though, because some are counterfeits! So, one must only buy from certified dealers to get the real authentic watches.

3. You are adventurous and active: Watches that fit people who are into adventure and fitness are mostly made of plastic, are waterproof and may be digitized. Most fitness junkies always want to know how many steps they walked that day or the calories they burned, and that is where the digitization comes in. Through the systems in the watch, they can easily calibrate their exercise through movement the entire day even as they go about their other duties. These watches (mostly deemed smart), are incorporated into phones and can be accessed through them. Additionally, they have alarms set to them, and one can even pick up calls or send texts through the watch! An active person who is always on the move loves having these pieces as they are very convenient even when they aren't near their cell phones.

4. You are contemporary, and theme led: Another loved set of watches is the ancient and classical timepieces that exude sophistication to the highest degree. In the same category, there exist some people who do like old pieces in numerical numbers, colorful themes, and artiste pieces. Children are also featured in this personality group! For instance, you will find kids particularly drawn to pieces with cartoons such as Elsa or Spiderman on them. This is the crowd that is into contemporary themes that apply to them and give them joy. And one look at their timepiece will provide you with the very idea of what makes them tick.

Wearing a watch is a great fashion statement, but as we have seen, it goes beyond just that. Your watch can, for sure, speak volumes about who you are.
