

Celebrity Interview: Hollywood Medium Tyler Henry Talks Upcoming Season, New Memoir & His Love Life

By Cortney Moore

Unlike most young adults trying to find themselves in life, 20-year-old Tyler Henry has made an impressive name for himself in the reality TV scene with his clairvoyant abilities. As the star of the hit show Hollywood Medium, Henry helps his celebrity clientele reconnect with lost loved ones. The small town California native captivated audiences with his detailed readings and secured a second season on E! which premieres tonight, August 10. Aside from having an active medium practice, this reality TV star has also written his own memoir. Learn more about the upcoming season, his new book, and his love life in this exclusive celebrity interview.

Hollywood Medium* Star Opens Up About His Talents, Dating Life & Second Season In Exclusive Celebrity Interview

As to be expected, this young medium's life changed drastically after filming the first season of his show. One aspect Henry is still trying to get used to after his television debut is being recognized by fans in his coming and goings. "Getting stopped on the street by people who've been personally affected by the show has been one of my favorite experiences," the reality TV star shares in our celebrity interview, "I love getting to meet fans of the show and hear their stories – everyone has one." And speaking of stories, there's many to tell in this upcoming season of Hollywood Medium. "There are so many moments that are deeply profound, some of my favorites being with people who may have started off as skeptics," Henry reveals. He especially enjoyed conducting a reading for singer and songwriter Moby, who Henry assures received touching results. Other celebrities to keep an eye out for in season 2 include Melissa Joan Hart and Kris Jenner, both of whom left the medium starstruck. The young psychic revealed that he'd like to read Lana Del Rey and Cher because "both are amazing performers with intriguing stories."

In addition to being a medium to the stars, Henry finds time to do readings for non-celebrity clients as well. "The show only represents a small demographic of my overall clientele,” he says, “I still read the public and people who need it. It’s essential for me to have a balance during filming as readings can become physically and mentally draining.” And despite having a busy schedule, this talented clairvoyant has written his first book, titled Between Two Worlds: Lessons from the Other Side that will be released in November. The book is a memoir of Henry’s journey to becoming a medium, discussing life events that profoundly affected his upbringing, such as the passing of a childhood friend. “I think people will be surprised to see that many of the stereotypes people associate with don’t apply to my situation,” the psychic says. “In telling my story, I kind of demystify more of the outlandish ideas that people often assume mediums believe. It isn’t like The Sixth Sense, and healthy skepticism is something I embrace.” Henry hopes that readers will find resonance in his experiences and learn that we’re all interconnected. The book will also go in-depth about the lessons people on the other side can offer to the world of the living. In five years, Henry hopes to still be working on Hollywood Medium, conducting readings cross-country and setting up a charity for young people who’ve experienced loss.

Thanks to his clairvoyant abilities, Henry’s been lucky enough to avoid nightmare date nights. Though there have been times he’s felt “more connected to a date’s deceased grandmother,” but he typically goes with the flow during these situations. The 20-year-old’s career as a medium has helped keep his life free from relationship problems. “When I’m dating someone, I often find I know whether we’ll be going on a second date before the first one even really begins.” But he also says that he isn’t opposed to having his mind changed. His abilities just simply provide intuition about people’s intentions or motivations. However, this rarely happens since many with ulterior motives “run for the hills” anyway when they discover his abilities.

Tune in for the new season of Hollywood Medium with Tyler Henry on E! on Wednesdays at 10/9c. Catch the premiere on August 10! You can keep up with Tyler on Twitter @tyhenrymedium.

5 Celebrity Couples We Want to Reunite

By Katie Gray

We love it when our favorite stars become a celebrity couple.

However, sometimes the celebrity relationship doesn't last and they have to go their separate ways. Some of our favorite celebs even had celebrity weddings and children together. That doesn't mean we can't remember the good memories though. Here's to nostalgia and wishful thinking!

Cupid has compiled the five celebrity couples we want to reunite:

1. Miranda Lambert & Blake Shelton: They were the cutest country couple! Miranda Lambert and Blake Shelton are both country music artists, singers and songwriters. They were a match made in heaven. Their celebrity wedding was beautiful and we loved it when they performed songs together. Sadly, they got divorced. However; they left us with a lot of great music!

2. Taylor Swift & Taylor Lautner: Who could forget Taylor and Taylor? People loved to joke that if they got married, their names would both be Taylor Lautner. The singer, Taylor Swift, and the actor, Taylor Lautner were a pretty pair. They even participated in the film Valentine's Day together, and it was awesome. Sometimes young love doesn't last though, but it was fun while it lasted!

3. Selena Gomez & Justin Bieber: Remember the height of the Bieber Fever? Pop singers Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber were a hot item. Their relationship took several twists and turns in the media. Fans loved that they were together. Even though the celebrity relationship ended in a break-up, they still have respect for one another and are proud when the other person accomplishes something. Luckily, they've both come out with catchy songs for us to jam to!

4. Reese Witherspoon & Ryan Phillippe: Reese Witherspoon is America's Sweetheart. When she met Ryan Phillippe while they starred in the cult classic film, Cruel Intentions, they hit it off. He attended her birthday party and she said to him, "Are you my present?" So cute! They had a celebrity wedding and have two children together. Sometimes good things come to an end so better things can fall together. They both co-parent as a family unit and have moved on. However; they were the 'it' couple for several years.

5. Gisele Bundchen & Leonardo DiCaprio: Gisele Bundchen is the highest paid supermodel in the world. She was also famously a Victoria's Secret angel. When she dated, Hollywood heartthrob, Leonardo DiCaprio, it was the most beautiful couple ever. He is known for dating supermodels but their relationship actually lasted a few years. The pair remain good friends though. When she gave birth to her babies with Tom Brady, he even sent her a gift. See, sometimes you can be friends with your ex-partner!

Last Picks on Summer Beauty Products

By Nicole Caico

The summer is winding down, but there is no reason not to make the most of what's left. If the summer products you stocked up on in June are running low right about now, there are still some great products to help you get through the rest of the summer.

You won't want to miss out on these pivotal summer products!

For Lips: Nothing says summer better than a bright, bold lip. The Black Up Cosmetics Neon Kiss Lip Sets ($29) includes three bold shades, as well as jumbo lip pencil and pencil sharpener. It's great for everyday wear or date night makeup.

For Eyes: Another summer makeup essential? Anything waterproof. Black Up Cosmetics Waterproof Smoky Kohl Pencil ($19) comes in 10 waterproof shades, to help you maintain your summer eye look in the harshest of humidity or on the beach.

For Face: Summer is almost over, but there are plenty more hot days to come. Outsmart your climate and keep your face looking matte and flawless with Black Up Cosmetics Anti-Shine Loose Powder ($32), which comes in five different shades. Mattifying powder is one of the best summer beauty tricks.

For Skin: The scent of coconut is a signature summer smell. To keep your skin from peeling or drying out after long days in the sun, there is Fruit Fusion Coconut Water Energizing Body Lotion ($9.99). The added perk of the product is that, like all Shea Moisture products, it is organic and not tested on animals.

For Skin: Summer clothes mean showing skin, skin, and more skin. When moisturizing alone doesn't do enough, get baby soft skin with Shea Moisture's Superfruit Complex Hand & Body Scrub ($9.99). This organic exfoliating scrub will give you shiny, smooth, summer legs.

For Body: Whoever said water isn't a summer beauty product was way off. Keeping yourself hydrated will benefit your body and keep your skin glowing from the inside out. Looking to help yourself and the planet? Just Water retails for $0.99 in most stores and is one of the most sustainable water bottle designs on the market. Calvin Harris, Will Smith, Jada Pinkett Smith, and their son Jaden Smith are some celebs who back the company.

Get rid of the summer blues, and get ready to use some of these great products!

Relationship Advice: Stay True to Yourself

By Jennifer Craig

Relationships bring with them many changes. Sometimes we can become so wrapped up in a relationship that we slowly lose ourselves along the way. The best piece of relationship advice I can offer is to make sure to take time for you so that you have energy to give to your significant other without feeling lost and emotionally drained. If you do that, your relationship may be as successful as David and Victoria Beckham's!

Check out the following relationship advice I entitle, "Free to Be Me."

Take Time for Your Interests

Especially in a new relationship, we can sometimes have the tendency to want to spend every single waking hour with the new person in our lives. There is nothing wrong with soaking up quality time together, except for when that time cuts into the hours that you used to spend on your personal interests.

In her post, "Five Signs that You've Lost Yourself (and Your Integrity) in Your Relationship," Jenni Bevill states that the most important relationship in life is the one we have with ourselves. Even if it's hard to do, carve out time for the things that you love to do. This will ensure that you don't lose yourself in someone else by foregoing your own interests.

Maintain Friendships

One of the biggest mistakes that people in new relationships make is to neglect their other friendships in favor of a significant other. Your true friends will be happy for you and will likely understand that you want to spend much of your time dating instead of hanging out with them.

But, it's still extremely healthy for you to take time to honor your existing friendships. You will be glad that you have taken the time to relax with friends and you just might have some interesting stories to share on your next date with your partner.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: The Pressure To Choose Friends Over Your Significant Other

Share Your Interests With Your Partner

Share your interests with your significant other by teaching them one of your hobbies or having them watch your favorite television show. It may not be their new favorite thing, but they will appreciate learning more about what makes you unique. Return the favor and explore their interests as well; you might just find a new hobby along the way.

Your Individuality is Attractive

Your friendships, your interests, and your personality are all the reasons that your significant other was first drawn to you, according to Doctor Lisa Firestone in her Psychology Today article, "Staying Compatible by Staying Yourself." If you allow yourself to lose what makes you unique by investing yourself too heavily into a relationship, you might end up losing both yourself and your new love interest.

Alone Time is Healthy

Trust your partner enough to know that time away from each other is healthy for the both of you. In her article, "How Not to Lose Yourself in a Relationship," Shelly Bullard states, "Love is the ultimate opportunity for evolution." You will find that you are more easily able to give yourself to your relationship. Investing first in yourself lends to a happier, healthier version of you, which benefits everyone.

Top 10 Sexy, Successful, Single Celebrity Women Over 40

By Katie Gray

They say your 40's are the best years of your life! These famous celebrities show us that this statement is so accurate. Many of these stars have been in celebrity relationships, but right now they are on the market. Whether they're in the film or music industry, there is no doubt that these stars are successful, sexy and single. They prove that you really can have it all. Age is just a number, and you must always reach for the stars!

Cupid has compiled the top 10 sexy, successful and single celebrity women over 40:

1. Jennifer Lopez (47): Don't be fooled by the rocks that she got, she's still Jenny from the block! Jennifer Lopez is a triple threat; singer, dancer and actress. Her major breakout was her lead role in the film Selena. Since then, she's starred in films and TV series, has released many albums and even wrote a memoir. She has her own fashion and perfume lines as well and was a celebrity judge on American Idol. The mother of two has had highly publicized relationships including with Marc Anthony and Ben Affleck. Lopez is also famously known for her behind, which led to her hit song with Iggy, "Booty." In fact, the song "I Like Big Butts" by Sir Mix A Lot was inspired by her! There isn't an industry that this mami can't tackle! She is a hottie for life.

2. Madonna (57): 'Cause you know that we are living in a material world, and she is a material girl! Madonna is the ultimate Queen of Pop! She still looks sexy at 57, puts on concerts and is in the best shape of her life. She frequently runs through Central Park, stays active and even does flips at her concerts. Who could forget her famous Superbowl Halftime Show performance? Madonna is still putting out new music, and we bet that her career will never die. Although now she is single, she's a happy mother of four and has a net worth of $800 million!

Related Link: Hollywood's Most Unexpected Celebrity Couples

3. Diane Keaton (70): One of the biggest names in the industry is Diane Keaton. She's won too many awards to count. Her first major role was in The Godfather, and her career took off after that. She's never been married and doesn't intend to change that. In the past, she's had notable celebrity relationships, such as with Woody Allen. She's also a mother of two. Keaton shows us we can be successful and live our lives the way we want! There is no 'right way.'

4. Jennifer Garner (44): Golden Globe and SAG Award winner, Jennifer Garner, has been killin' it in the world of film and television for decades. She played CIA agent Sydney Bristow on Alias, but can also do funny comedies like 13 Going On 30. She separated from her husband Ben Affleck last year, and they have three children together. Garner is attractive, smart, and educated, with a great personality. She definitely is successful, sexy and now single!

5. Halle Berry (49): Oscar winner Halle Berry has starred in numerous films and she is often praised by the critics. She won the 'Best Actress' Academy Award for her role in Monster's Ball – making her the only black female to win this title to date. That is a huge accomplishment! She has been married three times, has two children, and is currently single and ready to mingle!

6. Marisa Tomei (51): Everyone knows Marisa Tomei best from the comedy film My Cousin Vinny. She's starred in numerous critically acclaimed films and it's earned her awards and notoriety. Although she's had two relationships, she really isn't about the married life. Tomei has stated, "I'm not that big a fan of marriage as an institution, and I don't know why women need to have children to be seen as complete human beings."

7. Drea de Matteo (44): Italian-American actress Drea de Matteo had her breakout role on The Sopranos as Adriana La Cerva. Her portrayal of that character scored her an Emmy award! Now she currently stars on Shades of Blue with Jennifer Lopez and Ray Liotta. Although she isn't dating anyone right now, she was with Shooter Jennings for many years and they have two beautiful children together.

8. Nicolette Sheridan (52): Although she's had her share of relationships in the public eye, Nicolette Sheridan is not married. Her most famous celebrity relationship was with Michael Bolton. You may remember her best as the character Edie on ABC's hit Desperate Housewives! There is no doubt about it that she is smoking hot! She plays the roles of sultry characters a lot, and does risqué campaigns. Go girl!

9. Gwyneth Paltrow \(43\): Gwyneth Paltrow has been acting for a couple of decades, with many films under her belt. She was famously married to Chris Martin, of Coldplay, until last year. The pair have two children together. She also founded Goop, which is a popular online site. She is even the author of two cookbooks and the founder of a lifestyle company. She's been the face of Coach and perfume for Estee Lauder, too. Paltrow shows us that you can be sexy, successful and single with children all at the same time.

10. Edie Falco (53): You may know her as Carmela Soprano or "Nurse Jackie", but it's no denying that Edie Falco rules the television scene. She's a talented actress, with numerous award wins to prove it. Falco also is a breast cancer survivor and looks great for her age. She is not married, but has adopted two children. It's true that we get better and better as we age.

Relationship Advice: Post-Engagement Behavior

By Dr. Jane Greer

Only a few short months after former child star Lindsay Lohan and fiancé Egor Tarabasov professed their love for each other with an engagement, it appears there's trouble in celebrity couple paradise. Lindsay shared a series of posts on social media recently, including a video on Instagram of her fiancé in a club, which she captioned "Home?" She posted another shot with the caption, "Thanks for not coming home tonight. Fame changes people."

After you get engaged, taking that next step in your relationship, the expectation is that you will both live up to your new commitment and want to spend even more time together building your new life.

What happens, though, when just the opposite seems to be taking place, and what might it mean for your future?

Sometimes it isn't such a clear path from getting engaged to getting married. For some people, undertaking such a big change and lifelong responsibility can cause people to question their choices and judgment, basically asking, did I make the right decision? That concern and insecurity can trigger their fears and hamper their ability to move forward. As one partner might be looking to be more involved and connected than ever, the other, questioning partner might actually be pulling away and become less available, spending more time elsewhere and possibly even dabbling in activities that can cause jealousy and trust issues. These actions, however, can often be more of a statement of the trepidation that becoming engaged conjures up, rather than a reflection of their true feelings for their partner.

If this happens to you, whether you are on the side of needing more space or the side of wondering what is going on with your fiancé, the most important thing to do is have a conversation with each other to explore the feelings that were triggered by this huge, life-changing event. Leave room to talk about misgivings and insecurities, even if that is difficult, so that at least you have an opportunity to express your concerns with the hope that they don't weigh you down and pull you apart permanently.

Another piece of relationship advice is to seek counseling to address whatever might be getting in the way of your future happiness. Talking to someone about this can help you determine if you jumped into the engagement prematurely, and the best thing to do would be to postpone the wedding or even walk away, or if it is just a temporary setback that can be fixed. Given Lindsay and Egor's apparent break-up, this might be a helpful step. This is a way to work through the tough time and have a better understanding of each other, know you are able to share your fears and conflicts, and perhaps move toward a happy ending.

Relationship Advice: 4 Ways to Keep Your Long-Term Relationship Hot this Summer

By Josh Ringle

Summertime is the perfect time to heat up your relationship to new heights. Those in long-term relationships can really take advantage of the long summer days by spending more time together, and finding creatively fun ways to spend that time with each other. If you are looking for ways to keep your long-term relationship hot over the summer, look at the following pieces of relationship advice.

These pieces of relationship advice will keep your long-term relationship hot in the warm summer months!

1. Romantic getaways: Take advantage of travel deals, the weather, and those extra days off to take a nice trip with your love. Go to somewhere romantic like Cabo or Hawaii, or find a more local place. Don't break the bank, but don't be frugal! This trip will really heat up your love life with your partner and the two of you will definitely enjoy spending time together away, alone, in a room by yourself.

2. New date ideas: Cupid has plenty of date ideas, and there will certainly be one that is new for you! Try a new restaurant or a new at-home idea. Whatever it is, changing things up is a great piece of relationship advice and will surely bring joy into your love life. While it may be hard to come up with new ideas to do together, there are plenty of options to keep things fresh and new, especially in how you and your lover go on dates.

3. Try new and different things: Being in a long-term relationship, sometimes things can get stale. Of course, new date ideas will help that, but it is not just dates that make up a relationship. Trying new and different things, like new vacations, new ways to communicate, and maybe even a new game on your phone, can really make a difference and keep things hot. Even trying a different place to go on a walk can keep things exciting and keep the love flowing!

Related Link: Relationship Advice: 10 Simple Ways to Be More Romantic

4. Cool off: The best way to keep your summer hot is to take advantage of the weather and have fun in the water. Whether it is a pool, the beach, or a lake, being out together and enjoying the warm weather will definitely make the two of you happy. Take advantage of water parks and spend a day acting like eight year-olds or go find a romantic secluded waterfall off a hiking trail to go swimming in. Whatever it is, there are plenty of watery options to make your love heat up!

How do you keep your long-term relationship hot in the summer? Let us know in the comments below!

Jill Zarin Hosts Star-Studded Hamptons Party

While the temperatures reached almost 100 degrees, celebrity couple Jill and Bobby Zarin hosted their 4th Annual Luxury "Experience Nervana" Luncheon at their Southampton Estate to benefit The Eric Trump Foundation/St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. On Saturday, July 23, celebrity guests like Jonathan Cheban, Cindy Barshop, and Rita Cosby joined the Zarin's at their sprawling beachfront estate to "experience nervana."

Nervana hosts Jill Zarin's Annual Luxury Luncheon

"Discover The Palm Beaches" was the tone for the event as guests were able to experience first-hand brands hailing from the sunshine state like Nervana, Hallow + Plank, Chic Boutique to name a few. The party goers could escape the excessive heat in the Zarin Fabrics pool-side cabana and cool off when an Iguana Yachts watercraft drove up on the property to pick up guests and ride around Shinnecock Bay, while others escaped the heat inside the Nervana lounge. Upon leaving the event, VIP guests and celebrities were given "better gift bags than you would receive at the Oscars," Real Housewife of Atlanta Cynthia Bailey shares. The Experience Nervana gift bag, a highly anticipated item of the event, was valued at over $5,000 and included an array of items from many brands including M Cushion, Xtava, Quilted Koala, Ralph Lauren, and more.

The luncheon visitors were served gourmet food designed and served by CARLYLE OFF THE GREEN with celebrity chef Adam Banks. Guests also enjoyed an interactive chocolate truffle bar from Voila Chocolat and sipped on an endless supply of rosé provided by Studio Wines Boisset or signature cocktails provided by Blue Ice vodka. This year invited guests were given the opportunity to win the key to Jill Zarin's luxury closet curated by event planners Ticket2Events where one lucky winner received over $30,000 worth of products, including shoes from Marchesa, a crocodile clutch from Palaso Aspen, a styling session with The Style Duo, a shopping party at Calypso St. Barth Easthampton and much more.

There was even a "beauty bar" with free gifts for women including Radha Beauty, Kiss USA, Ageless La Cure, Cane +Austin, Clio/Mumsie, Poo-Pourri, and on-site personalized bags from GiGi New York. Various health & wellness brands were also on-site to inspire change for the better like Alkaline expert Dr. Daryl Gioffre of Alkamind, Super Detox Me the body restart cleanse, and Juvly Aesthetics. Guests who were invited to Jill Zarin's 4th Annual Luxury Luncheon Experience Nervana also enjoyed onsite pamperings such as a nail bar from Pop of Color, a braid bar hosted by rpzl, a Sania's Brow Bar, and on-site massages.

Whether you're looking for the latest beauty products or want to keep up with the hottest fashion trends, Zarin's luxury luncheon featured amazing products to try on your next date night!

Most Dateable & Un-Dateable Hollywood Celebrities

By Katie Gray

Some of our favorite celebrity couples have their celebrity relationship out in the open, while others keep them more private. There are many celebrities who keep their personal lives private when it comes to dating, but often they will discuss their dating status, their interest or lack thereof in marriage, celebrity weddings or celebrity engagements. Whether they are ready for a committed relationship or are content being an eligible bachelor(ette), all that matters is if they're happy!

Cupid has listed the most dateable and un-dateable Hollywood celebrities right now:

Dateable:

- 1. Margot Robbie: What's not to love about this attractive Aussie actress? Margot Robbie is best known for her breakout role in The Wolf of Wall Street, where she played 'The Duchess of Bay Ridge,' opposite Hollywood heartthrob Leonardo DiCaprio. She has stated that she is looking for a "rugged boyfriend." She definitely will find what she's looking for!

2. Rachel McAdams: This actress has been stealing the show with her hit films like The Notebook, Mean Girls, Midnight in Paris and Sherlock Holmes. She's had a few publicized celebrity relationships like with Ryan Gosling, who she co-starred alongside in the classic love story The Notebook. She's the type of girl you can take home to meet your family, is hard-working and balances her media and private lives perfectly.

Related Link: Bigger Is Better: Top 6 Celebrity Couple Engagement Rings

3. Chace Crawford: This hunk is best known for his role as Nate Archibald on the hit series Gossip Girl. He hasn't been in a publicized or confirmed relationship in quite some time. Many sources feel as though he's ready to date!

4. Ariana Grande: She's so into you! Pop princess, Ariana Grande, may sing about how she has one less problem without you. However; after a couple of celebrity relationships she is single now and ready to start something new. After all; she is a 'Dangerous Woman!' We can't wait to hear new songs from this songstress as her dating life evolves!

5. Jake Gyllenhaal: This cute actor is always seen on the streets of New York City and has made countless amazing films. It's definitely in the family, as his sister Maggie Gyllenhaal is also a popular actress. Nobody has heard of him really officially dating since his romance with Taylor Swift back in 2011. We're sure he would be a great date!

Un-dateable:

1. Diane Keaton: This famous actress is an icon. Although she has been in some celebrity relationships, she has stated that dating is probably out of the picture right now. She has also said that she believes the old maid is a myth, and she's happy even without marriage. It's true that you make your own happiness and have to choose what is best for you!

2. Mindy Kaling: This comedian has been keeping us all entertained with her show The Mindy Project. In addition, her books are hilarious, too. She is busy with her career and has stated publicly that she doesn't have time to date. In fact, she jokes about her love life. A good sense of humor is key!

Related Link: 7 Most Hyped Celebrity Weddings of the Last Decade

3. Hugh Grant: Notable actor Hugh Grant is no stranger when it comes to celebrity relationships. One of his most famous was with fellow Brit, Elizabeth Hurley. Although their love story ended, he's the Godfather to her son. In addition, he's a father, but isn't looking to marry right now. He starred in the movie Nine Months back in the 90's, and his character didn't want marriage and children either until his views changed toward the end of the movie. Maybe this will happen to the actor, too! Life imitates art.

4. Kourtney Kardashian: Member of the Kardashian Klan, Kourtney Kardashian, is a proud mother. However; she chose to never marry her longtime partner Scott Disick, the father of her children. She is like many women who choose to focus on family and not so much marriage. It's not that she doesn't like it, she just prefers to not put a title on anything right now.

5. Chelsea Handler: Comedian Chelsea Handler is not married, and she's happy about that. She once stated that when she was a little kid, her dad told her that she was not the "marrying kind" and she says she thought it was a "huge compliment."

Rock the “Dress-Over-Pants” Fashion Trend This Fall With Celebrity Stylist Alexa Taylor

By Alexa Taylor

We've all been there. You've spent your entire wardrobe budget on pretty dresses and skirts, and now that summer is over you're wondering how these beauties are going to transition to fall. As a fashion blogger and celebrity stylist, I believe that this fall everyone can raise the sartorial bar with the dress-over-pants fashion trend (or D.O.P for short). The new modern way to pull off a D.O.P is more streamlined and sophisticated, and it isn't tough to master at all! Emma Watson may have brought the D.O.P idea back for the masses this past awards season, but these five fashionable ladies I selected were rocking the look long before the fashion-forward actress.

Celebrity Stylist Shares Fall Fashion Tips

1. Casually Cool: A sweater dress over jeans is proof that a statement piece (or two) can amp up any old look. One tip to keep in mind when rocking skinnies underneath a heavy dress and coat combo is to keep them as skin-tight as possible.

2. Sophisticated Layering: Nothing is worse than making a 45-minute commute in a pencil skirt and heels, and it's even worse when it's blistering cold. This office-appropriate layering trick is a simple, straight-cut dress over slim pants.

Related Link: Celebrity Stylist Derek Warburton on Holiday Fashion: “If You’re Meeting the Family, Wear the Softest Cashmere Possible”

3. Edgy Princess: While this D.O.P. has nothing to do with utility, you’ll no doubt get attention from street style shutterbugs in a wispy look (even if you are shivering). The man-repelling Leandra adds a punch of drama to an otherwise boring outfit with layered tulle and two-tone tap shoes.

4. Pretty in Pink: Not only do leather pants add a dose of badass to a super girly getup, but they allow you to wear that too-short-to-be-worn-alone babydoll dress. I love how this editor mixes her prints.

Celebrity Interview: 'Botched' Star Dr. Paul Nassif Discusses Being Single, Skincare and Spin-Off Shows

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Stephanie Sacco.

Dr. Paul Nassif is more than a doctor on reality TV. He's a renowned facial plastic surgeon and skincare specialist. Though people may remember him from The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills, he's even more recognizable for his E! reality series, Botched which he co-hosts with former RHOC star, Dr. Terry Dubrow. The success of Botched has even led to a few upcoming spin-off shows, Botched By Nature and Botched Post-Op. Last week, Nassif spoke to us in an exclusive celebrity interview about the upcoming spin-off shows, his new anti-aging skincare line and his very single relationship status.

Reality TV Star Dr. Paul Nassif Talks 'Botched' Success

Back when Nassif first developed the concept for Botched and pitched the show, his co-host was doubtful, calling Nassif "crazy" for wanting to put plastic surgery on TV. "Now look at us," the former RHOBH star says. Botched is in its third season and the show has led to multiple spin-off series. One of the many reasons for the show's success is that all the cases are legitimate, and Nassif and Dubrow are passionate about their clients. The doctors really enjoy helping their patients through their issues. Nassif says the role of a plastic surgeon is "part doctor and part therapist." Although extreme cases are common in this line of work, the reality TV star shares that the worst is yet to come. "For me personally, once you see the episodes of Botched By Nature, those are going to be the most riveting and the hardest cases we've had to do," he admits.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: E!'s 'Famously Single' Dating Coach Laurel House Says "Every episode has drama"

One of the differences between Botched By Nature and Botched is the client's reason behind getting plastic surgery. "Some people got struck by lightning, went through severe accidents, and had deformities," the plastic surgeon says about the spin-off series. This brings the doctors even closer to the clients. "You really get into the heart of it by going into these people's homes," he shares. "You see their families and loved ones, and you're allowed to discuss these incredible human interest stories about what they've had to go through their entire life." That added personal layer is something the fans haven't seen before. Due to the extreme cases that they're dealing with, Botched By Nature has the surgeons on the road, traveling all over the country. But it's not all serious business. The two friends have some adventures along the way. Nassif explains, "We'll be going to different parts of the country and doing something fun in each city." Being on the road has its perks and these two won't disappoint. "You're going to see more of a reality between Dubrow and I because we're traveling. So you get to see a little bit more of that bromance," Nassif says.

Reality TV Star on Dating & His New Skincare Line

Though he's always been successful in the operating room, Nassif hasn't been as successful with romance. He admits that he isn't dating anybody right now and that he's found that dating takes a lot of time and energy. "I cleared my slate so I could come home, work out earlier, and get more sleep. Dating is fun, but it's very taxing," shares the father of three. He's already been a part of a celebrity couple for many years, and he isn't interested in having it again at the moment. While his career flourishes, he's putting his love life on hold and is focusing on his new skincare line. The NassifMD Bio-Rhythmic and Bio-Clock Dermaceuticals skincare lines are out already, and Nassif uses the collection. When asked how the products differ from others on the market, he explains that he has an understanding of the face and body, and is qualified to know what works. "As a plastic surgeon, I look at skin differently than a dermatologist," he says.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Brandi Glanville Is More Than a Housewife on 'Famously Single'

As a facial reconstruction specialist in Beverly Hills, Nassif also knows that there are many different motivations for getting plastic surgery. The idea that women get work done for their man sometimes happens, but when it comes up in his office, Nassif is strongly against it. "If there's a wrong reason, I simply won't do the surgery," he shares. Typically, his clients are aware of the problem and want to fix it for their own health. "When it comes to facelifts, eyes, and noses, my patients are pretty spot on about wanting to do it for themselves." The reality TV star has also had some work done himself, such as some reconstruction surgery on his nose here and there. But, the most recent celebrity news is that the doctor hinted he may potentially get Botox on television. He says, "You gotta watch the show. Watch Botched By Nature to see something different regarding me.”

Botched By Nature premieres on August 3rd at 9/8c.

You can follow Dr. Paul Nassif on Twitter and watch Botched on Tuesdays at 9:00 on E!

Celebrity Interview: 'Famously Single' Star Dr. Darcy Reveals Her Favorite Cast Members & Those Who Surprised Her Most

By Rebecca White

Over a year ago, Dr. Darcy Sterling received an email inviting her to audition for a new reality TV series, Famously Single, which focuses on helping eight single celebrities work through their relationship problems. Having made her television debut on E! in 2011, the network was familiar with her, so she flew out, auditioned, and the rest is history. Her experience as a licensed clinical social worker and relationship expert facilitates her work to help individuals and couples who want more out of life. She hosts workshops focused on psychology and runs a Q&A blog. In our exclusive celebrity interview, Dr. Darcy dishes on the Famously Single cast members, from who was her favorite to who surprised her the most, and shares her best relationship advice.

Dr. Darcy Dishes On Famously Single Cast In This Celebrity Interview

In the latest celebrity news, before filming the show began, Dr. Darcy reveals that she was most concerned about working with Jersey Shore star Pauly D. “Based on what I knew of him, which was very little, he’s a big prankster always making wise cracks. I thought he was going to be the difficult, oppositional child in the classroom,” the social worker shares. “He actually turned out to be one of my favorites! Not that a mom really has favorites, but he was a delight to work with. He came in so earnest and really showed up with an openness to the process that made it so easy to work with him.” However, now that she’s finished filming the show, Dr. Darcy says that Somaya Reece surprised her the most. On the show, Reece shared her story of domestic abuse and became a poster child for resilience. “How she bounced back from that was mind-boggling,” Dr. Darcy says. “It speaks to human resilience and she is such an inspiration.”

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: ‘RHOD’ Star Stephanie Hollman Says Her Life Is All About Her Family

The main premise of the reality TV series is to teach relationship skills to celebrities who are infamous for being single. But since filming ended, the celebrities who have the best chance of finding love after this experience are those who were able to learn about themselves. “Those celebs that walked away learning about themselves, taking personal responsibility, recognizing that they've made mistakes in the past that having nothing to do with being famous are the ones who have the best chance at finding love," the therapist says. While being famous supersedes relationship problems, notoriety doesn't create problems that didn't pre-exist. With Dr. Darcy leading the group therapy sessions, these celebs can't use fame as the reason for their relationship issues. "The fact that they're famous is not justification for why they're single," the psychologist shares. After discussing their issues and teaching them relationship skills, the celebrities have had a chance to practice these skills through interacting with each other and mock dates.

The celebrity couple who made the biggest splash in the headlines was Brandi Glanville and Calum Best, who began dating on the show. Although their courtship has ended, Dr. Darcy says both celebrities have learned a lot about themselves from the experience. "Brandi is much more aware of certain things she's done and Calum has thrown himself into yoga, which is major progress for him," she adds. "The show wasn't meant to create long-term sustainable change, though. It was intended to provoke a level of awareness in everyone and ignite a desire in each individual to go on their own journey and do their own work." After working with the celebs, the therapist says that Glanville does tend to pick the wrong people for her, but that there is a reason she's attracted to certain types of people. "Brandi has done a lot of work on herself and her work's not done," she says. After all is said and done, Dr. Darcy said filming Famously Single was an amazing and challenging experience, saying, "I would love a second season."

Reality TV Therapist Shares Best Relationship Advice

From filming a hit reality TV show to managing time with her clients, Dr. Darcy has a busy schedule. However, she knows that her relationship needs to be her top priority. "You cannot give everything you have away at work," she says. "You have to come home with a little reserved. It's unacceptable to come home on empty." The reality TV therapist says that relationships require work every single day and that it's a fallacy that relationships "shouldn't feel like work." If you're struggling to manage your relationship and busy lifestyle, think back to what created your relationship. Think back to the beginning when you courted, seduced, supported, encouraged, and admired your partner. After the honeymoon phase, relationships are about self-discipline. "You have to incorporate it into your everyday life," Dr. Darcy says. "This is the person you want to show up most for, not the least." In her own relationship with her wife Stephanie, it is all about self-care. The duo makes sure they are highly involved with hobbies, such as yoga, dance, meditation, and CrossFit. "Steph and I try to walk the walk," she shares. "There have been times when we haven't engaged in the level of self-care we need to and our clients reflect that. They don't absorb the information if we don't walk the walk."

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Reality TV Matchmaker Carmelia Ray Says, "Take Actions That Are Consistent With Your Commitments"

The most important skill to maintaining a healthy relationship is communication. "You have to be willing to listen to your partner, even when you're tired and feel like they're picking on you," Dr. Darcy says. It is crucial that you actively listen, remain quiet, and control the impulse to be defensive. You have to mirror back and paraphrase what they said so they know you listened to them and you know you understood. Most of the time, your partner just wants to be heard. “If you can deliver that to your partner, you have a basis of a great relationship,” she says. Once you learn the basic relationship skills, all of your relationships will improve because you will use these same skills with your family and friends. “I really hope people are motivated to learn about relationship skills because the quality of our lives is predicated on the quality of our relationships,” Dr. Darcy reveals. “It’s the most important thing in our lives and nobody teaches us.” At the end of the day, the best love advice from Dr. Darcy is the metaphor: “Use the good china every night.” Relationships are about showing up for your partner the same way you would for a stranger or company that you’re trying to impress. Make every day a date and bring romance into everything you do.

Celebrity Interview: E!’s ‘Famously Single’ Dating Coach Laurel House Says “Every Episode Has Drama!”

Interviewed and Written by Cortney Moore.

Last month, E! debuted its newest reality TV show, Famously Single, which features one of Cupid's own, Laurel House. As an experienced relationship expert, House has had the opportunity to work closely with celebrities to fix their love lives, so it was only natural that E! selected her as one of the dating coaches to bolster their celebrity cast. In our exclusive celebrity interview, House opens up about her experience on the show and the relationship advice she offered the celebrity cast members.

Celebrity Interview: Laurel House Talks E!'s Newest Star-Studded Reality TV Show 'Famously Single'

Famously Single explores the dating lives of eight celebrities: Brandi Glanville, Aubrey O'Day, Pauly D, Jessica White, Willis McGahee, Somaya Reece, Calum Best and Josh Murray. With House's expertise and guidance, each celebrity is able to examine their behavior and past experiences in order to understand why their relationships have failed. But why do celebrities often experience failed relationships in the first place? House says, "The reality is that just because they're celebrities, doesn't mean that they're really all that different when it comes to entertaining difficulties and insecurities." She went on, saying, "Anyone can relate to the dating problem the celebrities are struggling with." In her expert opinion, celebrities are relatable because their insecurities stem from fear. Their careers require them to have both public and private personas, which sometimes conflict and are damaging if revealed.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Reality TV Matchmaker Carmelia Ray Says, "Take Actions That Are Consistent With Your Commitments"

Prior to meeting the cast, House expected the celebrities to be "high maintenance or catty," but was pleasantly surprised when she was able to work with them. "They were all truly amazing human beings, with the most gigantic hearts," she says. She also expressed how delighted she was to see these stars open up and reveal their more vulnerable sides. Two celebrities who stood out in her mind when discussing authenticity and kindness were Pauly D and Calum Best, both of whom are known for their wild party sides. "There is so much more than that," she reveals, referencing who they truly are. As far as which cast member inspired her, House says it was Somaya Reece who opened her eyes. She adds, "She's been through a tremendous amount of pain and difficulty in her life, and she's overcome it more than anyone I've ever seen." House believes the challenges in Reece's life made her fragile, which is similar to the stories of many celebrities. "There is some fragility with these celebrities. Yes, they're very strong and put up strong exteriors, but that's for public consumption. They do have a very fragile and soft side, and that's the beauty of them."

Though House was able to get most of the celebrities to open up, her experience as their dating coach was not all smooth sailing. A number of the celebrity cast members gave her a difficult time at some point or another while filming. Two such celebrities were Willis McGahee and Josh Murray, both of whom she met in episode 2 during the cast's outing to a club. "I was personally very surprised by Willis's request to join him in the bathroom," House admitted when asked about the incident. Although she was surprised by his invitation, she wants audiences to understand that a situation like this isn't uncommon for a professional athlete. "In the sports industry, women are throwing themselves at you," she explains. "So while it was surprising to me, it's not a surprise that it happened. And it's not reflective of Willis as a human being because he's a really good man; it's just that he has been shown that this is the norm throughout his life as a football player." Murray's standoffish behavior towards her, on the other hand, was very disheartening. "Instead of taking the connection that we had and turning that into a conversation, he took the connection and immediately thought that I was conniving," House says about their interaction at the club. Despite Murray's harsh treatment, she understood where he was coming from. "He's the newest celebrity in the house and he's not used to all this additional attention," House says. She went on to explain that many celebs are defensive because they're unsure of people's ulterior motives.

Another challenge House faced while trying to mentor the celebrities were changed personas when the cameras were rolling. With Calum Best in particular, House's skills were tested in getting him to show his real self while the cameras were on. Aside from changing personalities, House reveals that the most challenging and fun celebrity to mentor was Aubrey O'Day. "She didn't just take my advice and do what I said. She wanted to discuss it and really come to wrap her head around it and understand the theory behind it and why," House explains in our celebrity interview. "The questions that she asked showed me that she was invested in making change and analyzing herself so she could be in a real sustainable, loving and happy relationship, which she found in Pauly D.” And O’Day isn’t the only celebrity who has found love through the show. According to House, Reece has also found love with a woman where there is “mutual respect and mutual adoration,” which were essential pieces she was missing in her past relationships.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Virtually In Love’s Kansas Discusses Falling In Love Online

House hopes the other, currently single, celebrity cast members will be able to find love through the relationship advice she provided for them during the show. The piece of advice she believes is crucial to their success is having real and substantive conversations. For celebrities, she says it’s important “to get away from the ‘I’m a celebrity’ conversation and get into the real conversation where the celebrity no longer feels like a celebrity, but feels like a normal person.” Aside from valuable love advice, House assured us that Famously Single is still a reality TV show packed with entertaining drama. “Every episode has a big surprise, every episode has drama. Truly every single day I could not wait to get into that house and see what was going on.” But despite having fun on set, cast members on the show took their roles very seriously. There was not a single person House doubted and she hopes viewers will see how pure everyone’s intentions were. “Everyone at their core is looking for love and connection. No matter what they say, that’s the desire.”

Famously Single airs Tuesdays on E! at 10 p.m. EST.

Famous 'Couples' Star in Best Movies for a Rainy Day

By Katie Gray

The weather is always unpredictable, but how we spend our time during a rainy day doesn't have to be. When it's dreary outside, the best thing to do is stay inside and watch a movie. Watching celebrity couples on screen with your significant other is the perfect bonding experience. Plus, a movie date is classic! Many of these storylines involve love, celebrity engagements and celebrity babies. You'll be happy you have your love by your side during these films. Watch celebrity relationships in movies unfold, snuggled up with your partner!

Cupid has compiled the 10 best couple movies for a rainy day:

1. The Proposal: This 2009 romantic comedy starring Ryan Reynolds and Sandra Bullock will have you laughing and feeling the love. It shows us that sometimes we fall in love with someone who we least expect. The plot revolves around Margaret, a powerful publishing executive, and her assistant Andrew. In order to continue working in the United States as a Canadian, Margaret convinces Andrew to marry her, and in return he would get a promotion. We meet his family and get to see this story unfold. Bonus: Betty White plays the Grandma! Hilarious!

2. Juno: Diablo Cody outdid herself when she wrote this masterpiece film. She even won the Academy Award for Best Screenplay for it! The film stars Ellen Page, Michael Cera, Jennifer Garner, Jason Bateman, Allison Janney and J. K. Simmons. It's a film you can watch as a couple and/or as a family. The comedy-drama is set in Minnesota and revolves around a teenager who finds herself pregnant and is giving the baby to a couple who can't get pregnant through adoption. It's fresh, funny and heartfelt. The film was so popular it earned over $231 million dollars, when the budget was only a little over $6 million. In fact, Jennifer Garner loved the script so much, she took on the role even though her salary alone is usually way over what the entire budget was for this production.

6. Breakfast At Tiffany's: Indulge in this classic film with your partner on a rainy day. Audrey Hepburn is forever a Hollywood icon, and this film is one of her most famous roles. Set in New York City, this love story will keep your eyes glued to the screen. The best packages come in little blue boxes from Tiffany & Co., and the best things in life are the relationships we have with people.

7. The Spectacular Now: Based on the novel of the same name written by Tim Tharp, this film is spectacular. It stars Miles Teller and Shailene Woodley. It tells the story of two high school students who typically wouldn't be a match, but end up making a pretty pair. The main character Sutter is a fun, party boy, who avoids the future, and Aimee a shy, nerdy, introvert who tends to be a pushover. They end up learning a lot from one another. Sometimes the best relationships are when we can teach our partner different things.

8. Runaway Bride: Julia Roberts and Richard Gere shine in this romantic comedy. Celebrity weddings, engagements and babies are always fun topics. In this film, it makes for great storylines. It's a cute love story full of small town characters that will entertain you. It is also very realistic and truly makes you feel real emotions. Bond with this movie and characters, while bonding with your own partner!

9. How To Lose A Guy In 10 Days: Despite the title, this film is actually a heartfelt love story that packs the humor! It stars Kate Hudson and Matthew McConaughey, and they make a pretty pair. It's a funny flick that tells the tale of two people who think they are both playing the other. However; games played in love are put to the test in this film!

10. The Wedding Planner: Jennifer Lopez plays a wedding planner who takes care of everyone, but herself. She makes everyone's big day extra special, but her own love life is nonexistent – until one day it changes. Fall in love with the woman who helps everyone else in love.

Celebrity Interview: Brandi

Glanville Is More Than a Housewife on 'Famously Single'

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Stephanie Sacco.

Brandi Glanville is more than a “real housewife” and reality TV star. She’s also a single mother looking for a good man. Known mostly for her infamous (drinking) escapades on The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills (RHOBH), the mother of two has joined the cast of the new reality television series, Famously Single. The new E! series centers around eight single celebrities living in a house together with the goal of mending their broken hearts and relationship issues once and for all. The singles are advised by relationship coaches, practice dating techniques and attend group therapy sessions throughout the season.

Glanville opened up to CupidsPulse.com in an exclusive celebrity interview, where she gave us the scoop on her recent Instagram booty post, filled us in on her tryst with Calum Best and dished on all things marriage, love and her experience on the new reality TV show, Famously Single.

Reality TV Star Brandi Glanville reveals who the booty Instagram & Tweet were for in our celebrity interview.

Glanville has kissed a lot of frogs in her dating life but last week she addressed her most recent (ex) flame on social media by sharing two pictures of her booty on Instagram and on Twitter, where she reclaimed her body and said it no longer belonged to him. The photo created a lot of celebrity news headlines but Glanville gave us the real scoop on who that booty shot was intended for saying, “There’s always that guy that you go back and forth with and you know it’s not good for you, but he’s there when no one else is.”

She says the relationship was on again, off-again for about a year before she decided to end it for good on social media. “We would just hook up but we would never really go out together,” explained Glanville. “He’s an actor and he didn’t want to be seen with someone on a reality show because I guess it makes him less legitimate as an actor.”

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Virtually in Love’s Kansas Discusses Falling in Love Online

Glanville decided to go along with the half-relationship and let it play out. But last week, on her way to his Fourth of July party, her love interest called and told her not to come because it wasn't the best idea that she be there. Her response? "I got a bottle of rosé, I went to my gay husband's house, we made Instagram videos, and I taught him how to walk on a runway, and that was my Fourth of July." Instead of letting her flames rejection consume her, she took to social media and ended it-her way!

Reality TV Star Addresses Recent Celebrity Gossip

The most recent celebrity gossip has focused on the fact that Glanville claims she never wants to get married again and while she admits that to be true she also says that she "would love to meet someone who changes her mind." Glanville says that she is open to the possibility if it happens but "she doesn't need a paper to define the relationship." I guess never say never. On RHOBH, Glanville says that she wasn't seen as a mother with emotions and a woman with a romantic side, but instead as 'your drunk friend Brandi.' Famously Single shows a different side to the former model and allows her to be herself.

The former RHOBH star says that she was skeptical about doing another reality show and unsure how open she should be about the process. "I used to be very touchy feely, and I used to snuggle and now for seven years I don't do PDA, I don't snuggle," she says. Her doubts proved unnecessary because she did connect emotionally on the show with her new Bestie, Calum Best. "Luckily I met someone in the house that I ended up having feelings for," says the Famously Single star. "It made me feel good again. It made me feel like I'm ready for this again and I don't have to be so tough and scare everyone off. I really just need to put myself out there and if I get hurt, I get hurt." The most important part of life is learning how to cope with change and moving on after hard times.

Discusses His Online Relationship

Famously Single taught Glanville a lot about herself, although she didn't find lasting love in the end. She says Best, her equally famous and single love interest, played a huge part in helping her figure things out. "Ultimately I love him, I adore him. If he was five years older and lived here, things would be different."

Being on the show was a life changing experience for Glanville and she received plenty of great relationship advice. "I realized that I have to be softer. I have to let people in and give them the chance to get to know me."

Instead of exploiting single celebrities and trying to make them look bad, the dating coaches on Famously Single try to help them fight through their dating past to make a better future. "I want to be a girl sometimes. I want to let that side of me down and I want to be vulnerable, but having said that I know that's how I get hurt," Glanville says. "So it's just about finding that recognition and Laurel and Darcy helped me find it."

Glanville doesn't want to dwell on the past and she isn't interested in ever going back to the RHOBH show that made her famous. According to Glanville, her time on Famously Single was nothing like RHOBH. "It was completely different," she says. "They weren't trying to have us fight with each other. We were all there to work on ourselves. I fell in love with all of them a little bit. It was nice. It was a completely different experience."

Famously Single airs on Tuesdays at 10 p.m. on E!

Eat a Cultured Meal by a Famous Chef at One of NYC's Future Famous Restaurants, Tapestry

By Josh Ringler

The City That Never Sleeps is one of the most diverse places in the USA, let alone the world. While that means you can try many different types of cultured food, it is often hard to find the perfect restaurant to really have that authentic meal. If you are in need of a city date night and are looking for a restaurant as one of your date ideas, Tapestry could be the perfect place for you.

Tapestry will be on NYC's list of famous restaurants soon, and the food, famous chef, and setting are easily the reasons why.

Destined to become one of NYC's newest famous restaurants, Tapestry is located in the heart of the Meatpacking District and is run by famous chef Suvir Saran, who is also the joint's owner.

Saran adds global flavors to his Indian cuisine. The famous chef's menu is rather short, but what it lacks in many options, it adds in multiple flavors. Each dish is unique and will excite your taste buds!

From appetizers, called Naashta, or noshing, to vegetables and many dishes, the restaurant has options for everyone. You and your date can share a yummy meal or get a few meals and taste test! Keeping things fun and new always keeps the relationship exciting!

The restaurant itself is also almost as good looking as the food. Many of New York's famous restaurants have an awesome interior and Tapestry does not disappoint. From the light bulb covered ceiling to modern interior design, the restaurant is eye popping and exciting.

One of the coolest parts about a meal at Tapestry, though, are the dishes and glasses. Instead of your traditional cups and plates, Saran uses fancy bronze colored tumblers and black slates for plates. The way the food is served is complimented by the silverware and that is truly unique!

Relationship Advice: Ways to Turn a Summer Fling Into a Relationship After Labor Day

By Josh Ringler

As the summer season winds to an end, you may begin to worry about your summer fling, and whether or not it will last. There can be many obstacles that lead to relationship problems, but if you think positively along with your partner, there is a lot the two of you can do to keep the love alive, and make the relationship work. Celebrity couples have made it through plenty of summers, and you can, too! Whether it is the long distance or the school year starting that you are afraid of, cool the fears with these pieces of relationship advice, and keep your summer flame alive through the fall!

These pieces of relationship advice will help you make your love go past Labor Day!

1. Stay in touch: A crucial piece of relationship advice is to be sure you're good at communicating with your partner. If you want to continue the relationship, then texting, FaceTiming, and other communication channels will be on the ultimate ways to talk to each other. While the communication doesn't need to be constant, the amount of communication the two of you have will really determine the success of the relationship after the summer ends.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: 10 Strategies to Make a Good Relationship GREAT

2. Talk about it: Along with communication, feelings are critical to the success of your love life. If you think things can work out, then talk about how you want them to work out and advance past Labor Day. If you let the elephant in the room grow larger, there will be less of an opportunity for things to actually work out. Considering that as the summer ends, the amount of time you and your partner have together may be reduced, you need to talk about the future sooner rather than later.

3. Plan dates: A great way to keep the two of you together is by planning dates. Whether it is a concert, a sporting event, or even a weekend reunited together, planning days to see each other is a great way to keep you in their mind and to keep the relationship at the forefront of their scheduling. Life can get crazy sometimes, but if the two of you have days set aside for together, the chances of making it work are much better!

4. Say it, if you mean it: If you didn't say "I love you" yet, now is really the time, as long as you truly feel it. If you are unsure of what is going to come now that Labor Day has passed, solidifying your feelings by saying you love your partner will really show the seriousness of the relationship. With that being said, make sure you mean it and want to put the effort into long distance, or a more difficult relationship. While things may have been perfect over the summer, a lot of the things you did together, like seeing each other a lot, or working together, may not happen anymore and you should take that into consideration.

Dating Advice: 5 Unique Ways to Find Summer Love

By Josh Ringler

Remember Sandy and Danny from Grease? They had such a unique love experience and were lucky to find each other. That would have never happened had it not have been for the summer. The hot months of July and August offer plenty of time and opportunities to find love in a unique way on a series of date nights. From celebrity couple who find love on the set of a movie to the couples who fall in love under the blue sky at the beach, the summer offers plenty of unique ways to find your next perfect match! Take this pieces of dating advice to find your next summer love.

These pieces of dating advice will help you find your next love this summer!

1. Vacations: If you and your friends or your family are going on a vacation, you may also be taking a trip to Love City! Your future partner could be waiting for you in paradise, and that could make the vacation even better! You can definitely find someone looking for love just like you. A great piece of dating advice is to not be afraid to go for the long distance relationship if you really feel the love there; it could be worth it!

2. By the water: Water parks and beaches offer great places to hang out with friends or by yourself, and they also offer a great place to strike up a conversation with a future love interest. You can find someone who likes to take long walks on the beach, or join in on a game of ultimate frisbee! Find a future lover, and join him or her on the slides, or sit and chat on the lazy river together. Being by the water offers so many options for love!

3. Online dating: A lot of people are looking for love, and online dating is one of the best avenues to explore. With many online dating sites, try one that singles out something important to you, like your religion. There is no reason you can't put a profile out there, showing your best qualities and interests. The right partner for you is probably looking for someone just like you, and the match the two of you make will surely add some heat to the summer!

4. Work: Who says work has to be all fun and no play? If you have a summer job in between school years, or have had a crush at someone at work for awhile, the summer is the perfect time to act upon these crushes. Offer a date night suggestion or ask to hang out after work one day. Maybe a lunch date could turn your friendship into something more romantic! There's nothing in your way. Don't be afraid to go for it, especially if you're in a temporary summer job; you'll have nothing to lose, and only love to gain.

Relationship Advice: What NOT to Do In Your Marriage, Thanks to Celebs

By Malini Bhatia

Don't you wish there was a marriage handbook they gave out at the altar? Things that, if you followed, would guarantee a long and happy marriage? The thing is – each person and each couple is different. So, what may work for one relationship may not work in another.

That said, there are some basic pieces of relationship advice we all should follow—things like be positive, say nice things, do things for the other person, etc. Plus, we can learn from others, especially celebrities, how to avoid mistakes in marriage.

Here are some things NOT to do:

Do NOT Allow Other Things Ahead of the Marriage

We may never know the real reason former celebrity couple Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck split up, but some reports say there wasn't enough togetherness—specifically Ben's busy movie-making schedule. Sometimes, other things get in the way of marriage, especially our work. It's a hard balance for anyone, especially celebrities, who can be gone for months at a time on a movie set. How exactly do you make that work when you are married and have kids?

Hard times and busy schedules are inevitable in marriage. The difference in whether you make a mistake or not is in how you handle it. Both of you must make an effort in making sure the relationship comes first. If being apart has to happen, then think of ways you can still feel like you are together. Visit often, have regular Skype dates, text, send pictures, think of each other at a certain time every day, etc. Be creative!

Do NOT Let the Temptation to Cheat Happen

Amid reports of cheating being the reason Gwen Stefani and Gavin Rossdale went through a celebrity divorce, it's a good reminder to always keep things in check. Both were on the road a lot, and being away from your spouse can definitely increase the chances that you'll be tempted to stray.

So, keep those temptations to a minimum. Take your spouse with you when you can, bunk with a trusted co-worker, or make other arrangements. We are all human, so don't think the temptation could never arise.

Do NOT Take Each Other for Granted

Hugh Jackman and wife Deborra-Lee Furness have been going strong for 20 years, and every time Hugh is asked about her, he raves that things just get better and better. It makes your heart melt, doesn't it? He expresses the fact that they do everything together, and that they have a profound amount of respect for each other.

In essence, they are grateful for each other. That is huge. In marriage, you should see your spouse for who they really are, and vice versa. Don't try to change them. Be thankful every single day for the unique person they are and how they bless your life. If you do that, you can't go wrong.

Enjoy a Date Night High in

New York's Skyline at La Birreria

By Josh Ringler

While New York City is full of romantic date ideas and famous restaurants, there are just some that stand out above the rest, pun intended. La Birreria, the rooftop restaurant of Eataly, is a perfect location for a date night. High above 23rd Street and 5th Avenue, this eatery is located in a hotspot for celebrity couples.

La Birreria is a delicious restaurant that is perfect for a date night!

New York City offers so many seasonal options, like ice skating in the winter and scenic walks in the summer. It is no wonder then that the owners behind La Birreria make the restaurant change with the seasons as well. This summer, the theme is Sabbia, which in English means 'sand.' Featuring 'cabana' seating, this pop-up restaurant will not disappoint.

To top off the brand new scenery, the menu changes alongside the seasons as well. Brand new drinks and meals accompany the changing seasons, and this summer is no exception. The Italian food dishes will surely make your mouth water for more.

Pastas, antipasti, oysters, and much more brace their menu. The menu is full of Italian favorites with delicious taste that are sure to make you and your date happy. To top off your date night, the dessert menu includes cannolis, coffee, and tiramisu.

Perhaps one of the best parts of this restaurant is the fact that it is a microbrewery as well. The adult beverage offerings include wine, cocktails, and beer. The two-page menu is full of flavors and options for everyone. You may want to have Uber up on your phone and ready to go!

Sabbia, which is in La Birreria, is seasonal only so you want to check it out soon. But, do not fear! La Birreria remains open year round, using retractable roofs to protect you from spring showers and heaters to keep you warm in the winter.

The view at La Birreria doesn't change from season to season. Offering beautiful views of the New York skyline, the restaurant's 'natural' artwork is nearly unrivaled, especially for such an affordable price. Cupid definitely recommends making a reservation for this date night!

After your first or second trip to Birreria, it would not be a surprise that you'll become a seasonal guest. Every season, the theme of the restaurant changes, and who knows what the fall will bring! Perhaps the best feature of this restaurant is the imported culture directly from Italy. Each season will feature distinctly different menus that will have you coming back at least four times a year!

Have you visited La Birreria? What was your favorite seasonal theme and dish? Let us know in the comments below!

Relationship Advice: Make Your Love Life Sparkle Post-4th of July

By Josh Ringler

Now that the 4th of July has passed, it's officially the beginning of summer, and there is no better time than summer to have a lover in your life. Whether it is beach dates, hiking trips, or days at the lake, the summer will always be better when you are with your love. Celebrity couples love to spend the 4th of July together, but they usually go far away. Luckily for you, you don't have to go far to find love! Follow these pieces of relationship advice to make your love life full of sparks and fireworks!

These pieces of relationship advice will help you find love this 4th of July!

- 1. Go to the beach: The beginning of July is a perfect time for a day trip to the beach! Here's a great piece of dating advice: Leave early to avoid traffic! Going to the beach together will create great memories and leave the two of you happy. Swimming together, playing frisbee, and flying a kite on the beach can really get the sparks flying between the two of you!

2. Get romantic: If the beach isn't your ideal destination, there are plenty of other options. Go to the city for a romantic date, or fly away if you can afford it! Finding a romantic restaurant or place to go can be easy, but it does not just have to be the destination that is romantic. Buy sparklers and firewood and make a mini-4th of July in your backyard! The two of you can get creative and that will always make things fun.

3. Shake things up: If you are in a long term relationship, or one that has already had a 4th of July together, try to change things up. An important piece of relationship advice is to keep things fresh, new, and exciting, and any holiday is a perfect time to really take advantage of this. If you went to the beach last year, go hiking this year. If you took a vacation for the holiday, find a new place to go. Keeping things new and shaking them up will keep the relationship full of sparks, and the two of you will be happier for it!

4. Don't be afraid of PDA: Whether you are at the beach, a fireworks show, or maybe a concert, don't be afraid to show a little affection in public! Show your love for your partner, and make everyone around you jealous! You should be proud to be in a happy relationship, and there is nothing wrong with a little kiss, holding hands, or more. Wrapping yourself around each other in the water or cuddling on a blanket at fireworks or the shore won't hurt anyone, and will only help to expand your love for each other.

5. Find a spot for just the two of you: Fireworks, especially around the 4th, can be a really romantic time. Find a secluded spot on the beach, or a lonely hiking path to heat up the woods. For the fireworks show you go to, find a spot that is dark and away from everyone else so you can cuddle and have some romantic moments. The holidays are about love and you should have your partner right next to you to show you how much you love them!

How did you spend the 4th? Let us know how you keep the sparks in your relationship in the comments below!

Dating Advice: 5 Reasons to Be 'Independent' This Summer

By Josh Ringler

The summer is a great time to find summer love, but that isn't for everyone. Love can be in the air, but there is no reason that you have to look for it. Let it come to you, or take the summer to focus on yourself! If you are just overcoming a break up after relationship problems, or you are reading about celebrity couples on the verge of collapse and need some advice, look no further! Cupid has your back with these pieces of dating advice that will keep you thinking positively about being independent this Independence Day!

These pieces of dating advice will highlight the reasons to be on your own this summer!

1. Take a break: The summer is the perfect time to detox and move on from someone in your past. Whether it was a hard break up over the winter or a painfully recent spring split, the summer is a great time to let that all go. Put on sunscreen, a pair of shades, grab a beach towel and head to the beach to cool off your mind and heat up your skin. While going to the beach can be fun as a date, being by yourself or with your friends can be just as relaxing and happy!

2. Family time: Having a partner means you have to make compromises with your time, whether it be less time with family and friends, or a combination of both. Now that you are on your own, spend time with your younger siblings, visit your cousin or aunt in a different state, or spend time with your grandparents. They will be really happy to spend time with you, and who knows! They may even have some good dating advice for you.

3. You can explore: Have you been dying to go to the Grand Canyon, L.A., or Orlando? Now is your time. Go with a group of friends, or by yourself, it won't matter. You can have a great time and maybe even find a new love interest! Take the drive to think things through, and the change in scenery to enjoy the next chapter of your life. Don't be afraid to try something new or take that far drive. It will be worth it!

4. Focus on your career: Without a relationship, you can work extra hours, or spend extra time studying. If you are in school, find an internship or a job in a city across the country, or if you are already employed, work extra hours, or ask for larger assignments. Now is a perfect time to propel your career to the next level and make advances in your life. That will definitely help your future chances in love!

5. Focus on yourself: After a break up, especially a rough one, you may want to blame yourself for everything that happened. Instead of thinking negative, you should keep your head up and focus on yourself and your future relationships. A great piece of dating advice is to stay positive and to look on the bright side of life. You can't find your next love if you are looking down at the floor!

Have a Front Row Date Night to the Fireworks on a Circle-Line Cruise

By Josh Ringle

The 4th of July is a perfect time for you and your loved one to do something exciting and new! Take your partner to the city, but instead of walking the streets, dining out, or taking advantage of the city's many date ideas, go right to the piers! This date night is a little different than most July 4th dates! While celebrity couples always take advantage of yachts, most of us can't afford them. But this Independence Day date night will make you cruise in celebrity-like style!

Circle-Line Cruises offers a great date night Independence Day voyage, and you would be crazy to miss it!

One of the best views you can get for the Macy's fireworks show is on the water. Thankfully, companies like Circle-Line offer cruises that sail to the East River so you can watch the show unfold in front of your eyes.

No buildings, crowds of people, or any of that craziness will be in your way on this ship! There are two options for these cruises, VIP or regular, but regardless of which you choose, you will be in love with this trip. The only difference is an on-board DJ and a slightly better food menu. Sailing out of Pier 83 in the city, your love boat will sail past many of NYC's famous landmarks.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: 10 Simple Ways to Be More Romantic

One of the coolest pre-fireworks parts of this trip is the stop at the Statue of Liberty. What is more American than the Statue of Liberty and then going to see fireworks? Maybe BBQ-esque food... But wait! That's what is on the menu!

The best part of this cruise is the view for the fireworks. Snuggle with your love on the waters of the East River, right in front of the beautiful display of colors in the sky! Nothing could be better! These cruises are perfect for romantic nights, and an important piece of dating advice is to have as many date nights as possible to keep the relationship fresh, hot, and feeling new.

Related Link: Date Idea: Enjoy the Warm Weather

Circle-Line's Independence Day trips will surely excite you and your lover and make the 4th of July full of happiness for the two of you. While not everyone can enjoy a world-class fireworks display over the water with a magnificent skyline in the background, you can if you take advantage of a Circle-Line cruise on the Fourth of July!

Have you ever been on a Circle-Line cruise or enjoyed fireworks over the water with your love? Let us know in the comments below!
