

Date Idea: Embrace a Physical Activity

By Delaney Gilbride

Are you and your boo running out of date ideas for your regular weekend date nights? It's important that you and your significant other spend time together on the weekends after a long week of work – you have to decompress! So, if you're tired of going on the same date time and time again, take our love advice by embracing any type of physical activity. Regardless of whether or not you and your partner are sports junkies, it's good to be active while spending time together!

In lieu of playing an actual sport, which may not be every couple's cup of tea, there are tons of physical activities that can help shake things up and keep the dynamic fresh:

Looking for a fun group activity? Sporty dates are a great way to socialize. Round up a few other couples and go bowling! Bowling alleys across the country are re-designing themselves with music, restaurants and bars to cater to adults looking for an enjoyable night out. Check out Lucky Strike Lanes; they have locations all across the country and have perfected the art of turning bowling into a classy, celebratory event.

Interested in something more personal and romantic? Ice skating is a much loved standby, and for good reason. You and your significant other can hold hands while circling the rink, and warm up afterwards with spiced cider or hot chocolate.

Date Idea: Learn a New Sport Together

By Delaney Gilbride

Are you and your significant other sports junkies? Do you watch your favorite sports together all the time? Well, instead of watching or playing the usual on your date nights, why not spice it up a bit and learn about a new sport this weekend? When choosing which sports to watch, make a list of all the ones you and your partner are interested in learning. Then, you can narrow your choices down from there. However, if you can't put your finger on what you and your boo want to learn...

Here's a list of three unique sports that are interesting to learn, fun to watch, and exciting to play:

1. Team Handball: This sport is a combination of basketball and soccer. The game involves two teams of six players and one goalie. Each team passes a ball and tries to throw it into their opponent's goal. The team with the most goals after two 30-minute halves wins the game.

Related Link: Date Idea: Take a Risk and Be Daring

2. Polo: In Polo, players on horseback move a ball into their opponent's goal by using a long wooden mallet. Each team has four players who have specific responsibilities throughout the game. The main purpose of the game is to score the most goals by hitting the ball through the goal.

3. Cricket: This sport is extremely similar to baseball, and it's played with two teams of 11 on an oval-shaped outdoor area. The centre of the area has a rectangular 22-yard-long pitch with a wicket (a set of three wooden stumps) at each end. To score a run, a striker must hit the ball and run to the opposite end of the pitch, while his non-striking partner runs to his end. Both runners must touch the ground behind the popping crease with either their bat or their body to get a run.

Date Idea: Take a Risk and Be Daring

By Tanni Deb. Updated by Jessica DeRubbo

Searching for some date ideas? Romantic date nights are always fun, but think about being a little more daring this weekend.

Feel the thrill of love this weekend by going on an adventurous date with your mate.

Do you both love taking risks? Consider going skydiving. Your hearts will race like never before as you soar above beautiful landscapes. For another exciting activity that's guaranteed to get your adrenaline pumping, find the nearest bungee jumping locations near you. If you prefer combining your thrills with exercise, go rock climbing. Of course, if you'd rather avoid bad weather, there's always indoor rock climbing as well.

Date Idea: Have Fun in the Winter Sun

By Tanni Deb. Updated by Jessica DeRubbo

So, guess what? It's still winter! Ugh. You might feel like there is nothing better than bundling up, sitting in front of the fireplace and sipping hot chocolate on a chilly day with your significant other. But, why waste a romantic season staying indoors?

Ignite new passion with your love this winter with this date idea. After all, all the great date ideas haven't flown down south during this time of the year.

Fall in love all over again by planning a trip to a ski resort. Stay active by spending the day on a slopes. If neither one of you know how to ski, take classes together. Nothing is more fun than sharing the experience of learning something new and then trying it for the first time with your sweetheart.

Searching for an inexpensive, but fun date idea that's closer to home? Grab a sled, find the closest hill and sled your hearts out. Afterward, visit a coffee shop and warm up with hot chocolate.

Date Ideas: Craft Your Christmas Presents

By Rebecca White

Ho, ho, ho! When you sit by the Christmas tree today admiring all of the presents around it, you don't want to be embarrassed about what you got your loved ones. In order to end this year on a high note, try to make your partner something special. For this weekend date idea, you'll get bonus points if you two craft some presents together! This date night will give you a chance to focus on your relationship while ringing in the holidays.

Craft your own Christmas presents with this week's weekend date idea.

To get started with this date idea, you'll need to get in touch with your crafty side. You can make each other a scrapbook of memories, noting your first kiss, your first date, and other important moments. If you want to keep it simple, you can just write a secret love note for your significant other to find on Christmas morning. No matter what, your gift will mean more if it comes from the heart.

This dating advice will surely make the holiday even more romantic!

You can even take a cue from celebrity couples like Kim Kardashian and Kanye West and make each other a selfie book. While these selfie books may not hit the bestsellers list, reminiscing and taking some photos together may be just what you need to feel connected.

Related Link: Find Out How Kanye West Proposed to Kim Kardashian

If you want to feel like a kid again, put on a Santa hat and dance to Christmas music on this weekend date idea. You can even make each other a “couple’s first Christmas” ornament and put it on the tree that morning. Or if you aren’t crafty or don’t want to make something yourself, go shopping together and give each other a list of items under 20 dollars that you want. Either way, you don’t need to spend tons of money this holiday.

After opening your presents, keep the gift giving spirit going and plan a surprise breakfast picnic for your honey. Pack some holiday favorites, like eggnog French toast, gingerbread, peppermint tea, and candy canes. It’s important to get some alone time together before heading off to see your families. Enjoy a calm moment by sharing some delicious food and chatting about what you are most excited for when the New Year hits.

Weekend Date Idea: Dance the Night Away

By Ryan Boyle. Updated by Stephanie Sacco

One way to spice up your love life is by going dancing with your partner. The lights are dim, the music is loud, and you and your man are out for a night on the town. It's time to show off your moves, so put on your dancing shoes.

Here are some date ideas that will have you dancing.

Live music is a great entertaining date idea that will have you on your feet. Lots of bars and restaurants offer live music on the weekends or karaoke and open mic nights during the week. Grab your partner and start jumping, because you won't want to miss out on all the fun. Order a drink, and get ready to whip your hair back and forth.

Related Link: Date Idea: Mid-Year Resolutions

Once the music starts, the dancing can begin. If you can't dance, it's okay. Start by improvising and moving with the music. Act silly as long as your partner is up for the fun. If he's awkward and stand-offish, get him to loosen up. Grab his hand and pull him onto the dance floor. Show him that it's okay to look ridiculous.

If he's not the dancing type, just sway with your partner or jump up and down. Head bang to the hits of today, or make up your own moves.

Related Link: Date Idea: Rain, Rain, Come Out and Play

Go to a class together and express yourselves. Be passionate, or attend a concert that you both love. As long as you and your partner are close, that's all that matters. Take this weekend as an opportunity to get even closer.

You might even find "your song" while you're out with your partner. Whenever you hear it you'll be reminded of the fun times you both had together.

Weekend Date Idea: Gift Him with a Guys Night Out

By Ché Blackwood. Updated by Josh Ringle

Whether he's grabbing a beer, playing video games or watching his favorite team, you know how your boyfriend wants to spend his spare time. Instead of dragging him to a restaurant that he doesn't care for, or making him go shopping at the mall, gift him with a night that will take your love to new heights with a different kind of weekend date idea.

Make your man feel extra special with this weekend date idea!

Head on over to ESPN and find out when his favorite sports team is playing next. Then, surprise him with a midweek trip to his favorite bar to watch the game together, one of the many date ideas that giving him a guys night out has to offer!

Do your part by researching the team and the players. Add in a few statistics and you will be sure to impress him. If your partner enjoys a sport that's featured on a premium channel, like boxing, order it and invite his friends over to watch it too. You could even contact a restaurant in your area to find which spot will be broadcasting the main event.

Related Link: Weekend Date Idea: Bases, Peanuts, and Home Runs!

If you really want to shock him purchase two unexpected tickets so he can watch his favorite team live. Don't tell him where you're headed and watch his eyes light up as you reach the stadium. A few hotdogs and a clear view to the field will make his day and spark the romance. A great piece of dating advice is to keep your man happy, and he will be sure to make you happy too!

Trips to the batting cages, put-put golf and trivia night are other great television-free options for your guy's night out.

Related Link: Dating Advice For Women: What Are Men Attracted To?

If your man isn't the sports type, take him on an impromptu trip to his favorite restaurant where he can order that dish he's been craving. After dinner, catch a movie he's been dying to see. Let him know that you're as laid back and fun to be around as his guy friends. This weekend date idea will clearly prove that to him! After all, karma dictates that you'll be rewarded for showing your man a great time.

Date Ideas: Preparing in Advance for Game Day

By Deanna Atkins. Updated by Josh Ringle

This upcoming weekend holds an event that is probably very close to your lover's heart: the Super Bowl. It's easy to get caught up in the game day festivities, but taking care of preparations with your guy in advance can help you relax and enjoy the game together. The Super Bowl offers many date ideas, from an expensive trip to see it live to a party with friends to (hopefully) root on your favorite team! Use these pieces of dating advice to add a little love to your partner's Super Bowl Sunday!

Get super with these date ideas for the Big Game!

Whether you have the privilege of seeing the Super Bowl live in Houston or you're planning to host a viewing party, you need to make sure everything is in order for your sweetheart – even if you're more excited for the half-time performance. The weekend leading up to the game can be full of fun date ideas and you'll want to do them together!

Related Link: Date Idea: Cheer for Your Favorite Football Team

If you're both rooting for the same team, hit up a sporting goods store for matching game day jerseys and foam fingers. While you're out, make a stop your local party place for any decoration needs: football-themed plates and napkins, colored streamers and noise makers. If you really want to impress your guests, get a football-shaped cake pan to make a special dessert decorated with colored icing and football player figurines. Your shopping won't be complete without going to Costco or BJ's for the most important items: food and beer. Let your babe take the reins on this one – what guy isn't going to get excited over wings, burgers and brew?

Related Link: Olivia Munn Supports Boyfriend Aaron Rodgers at Every Green Bay Packers Home Game

As your guests arrive, your man can be in charge of the grill, cooking up an all-American feast of foot-long hot dogs and double-stacked hamburgers. If you live in a colder climate, get a 6-foot hero from your local deli that will feed about 25 to 30 people. The great news is that you can mix and match and make the hero any size. This will make sure everyone can enjoy it! Don't forget to add buffalo chicken wings to the order too. Then, for dessert, bring out your sweet treat, and if the frosting happens to turn into face paint, then the fun can really begin.

With the essentials out of the way, you and your beau are ready to entertain without the stress of running around at the very last minute. If you do need a few extra things on game day, ask your friends to pick it up on their way over. Now that you're prepared for Super Bowl madness, your weekend is sure to be a touchdown! For an extra fun game, see who can spot the most celebrity couples at the game!

Date Ideas: Hot or Cold Nights

By Gabriela Robles. Updated by Josh Ringle

Cold winter dates can get hot, too! This weekend, base your date night on hot and cold elements. You'll be sure to warm up even the coldest night this winter with these date ideas! Whether you're stuck inside because of snow, or looking for an excuse for some time with your love, use these pieces of dating advice to heat up your winter!

The cold of winter can create some 'hot' date ideas!

First, you have to set the mood – it will immediately relax the both you and your partner and make you feel like you're in a dream. Decorate the room with candles and twinkling lights, and play some soft music to get ready for your intimate evening. Find a good playlist full of your favorite musicians and put your phones down for the evening; focusing on each other will make the night that much better!

Related Link: Date Idea: Cook a Romantic Dinner

Now, let's consider some hot and cold recipes that you can cook together. Make a warm, hearty dish like chicken pot pie or your mom's white chicken chili. For dessert, make some chocolate fondue and use pretzel rods, rice crispy treats and frozen bananas slices for dipping. End the evening by sipping on some hot chocolate. If you are itching to get out of the house, make an appointment for a warm couple's massage. The two of you will be in the same room keeping toasty and enjoying a warm-lotioned massage – these can be sexy date ideas and a nice relaxing experience with your partner!

If hot dishes aren't your thing, stick with cold meals. Make some spicy gazpacho for a light meal. For dessert, sip on some frozen hot chocolate instead of the kind that can burn your tongue. You can even whip up some thick homemade cream to top it off. Pour the drink into a couple of matching mugs – and voila! You have a nice sweet treat to share. If you're in the mood to go out, how about ice skating? Head to your nearest rink and lace up those rental skates. Most spots will even have some hot chocolate available for when you're ready to warm up again.

Related Link: Date Idea: Plan a Snow Date

You could mix both elements in one night, too. This time, jump right to dessert: setup a sundae bar and get busy! Stick with the hot and cold elements: use hot fudge and warm pecans or sprinkles and frozen chocolate chips – whatever you desire. Grab a cozy blanket to share and settle in by the crackling fire with your sweetheart watching your favorite celebrity couples on Netflix. For a fun activity out of your home, check out your nearest indoor pool and sauna. This way, the two of you will be able to play cool while still keeping the date hot!

Date Idea: Enjoy the Snow from Indoors

By Sarah Ribeiro. Updated by Josh Ringle

Embrace the winter weather this weekend with your honey while in the comfort and warmth of your home. Immerse yourselves in wintry-themed activities to get in the mood to cuddle, and keep out of the cold with these date ideas! While snow is fun, it is cold outside. So warm up the house and stay indoors!

Winter is full of fun date ideas!

Start off the night with a candlelit meal including all of your favorite winter foods: a roast chicken, snow peas, warm soup and hot cider or egg nog (spiked or not). You can even find the recipes of your favorite celebrity couples or chefs and get inspired by their dishes to create a new favorite cuisine!

You can even try your hand at making homemade hot cocoa with a romantic twist: use a fondue pot to melt your favorite chocolate bar and then pour the cocoa into a mug of steamed milk or cream that the two of you can share. For an extra burst of flavor, add a peppermint stick or some cinnamon. Then, as you enjoy your drink, watch the falling snow outside and share your favorite childhood stories of snowball fights and ice skating. A great piece of dating advice is to share these fun stories with each other as it builds a more personal connection!

After dinner, make some old fashioned popcorn and snuggle under a blanket on the couch for some great winter movies. Some favorites are 'Love Actually,' 'Serendipity,' 'Moulin Rouge,' and the classic 'Love Story.' If neither of you is a fan of "chick flicks," check out some winter comedies, like 'Blades of Glory,' 'Better Off Dead,' or 'Hot Tub Time Machine.'

If you're feeling crafty, embrace your inner child and create some homemade decorations or gifts. Make paper snowflakes and cotton snowmen or paint your own snowscapes while listening to quiet music like Yanni or Enya. If you're especially creative, knit together. Find a template for a scarf or gloves and knit each other a gift, grabbing yarn in your partner's favorite color or material to make it extra special for him. For an even more personalized touch, use his college colors or knit his name into the pattern. Check out some great patterns for beginners and experts alike at FaveCrafts.com.

Date Idea: Take a Holiday from the Holidays

By Shannon Seibert. Updated by Josh Ringle

The holiday season may be exciting, but sometimes, it can be a bit much. This weekend, take a break from all of the holiday madness and settle down for some alone time with your partner with this date idea. Reflect on how thankful you are to have your relationship and love in your life instead of focusing on the Christmas chaos.

Recharge during the holidays with this date idea:

The never-ending shopping lists, incessant carolers, and stress of coordinating plans can take a toll on you. If you're feeling the pressure, follow this dating advice: Relax and step away from the holly! Grab your man by the hand, hop in the car, and make a break for neutral territory. Going to a local park is a cool and casual weekend date idea. Pack up a thermos of hot coffee or tea and have your honey push you on the swing as you chat about anything but the season.

Related Link: Date Idea: Pick Your Own Presents

Another good place for a holiday hiatus is the movie theater. A dark room with two full hours of no distractions is the perfect place for a little isolation. There most certainly will be a fun movie that both you and your partner can enjoy! Whether it is an action movie, comedy, or romantic drama, it will keep your phone in your pocket and those nagging Christmas calls away from your partner! Buy the biggest tub of popcorn they have and snuggle close to your love as the lights dim.

Why not just lock yourselves inside for the day? Put on a non-holiday movie, such as Harry Potter and the Halfblood Prince or The Notebook, to distract you and your man from all of the films on the Hallmark channel. If you aren't in the mood for just sitting around, put on some music that the two of you can enjoy and relax. Sway with your love around the house. You'll feel like a princess in his arms. You could even be the 'dancing queen' if you want!

Related Link: Date Idea: Enjoy a Non-Traditional Christmas

At the day's conclusion, be sure to remember what this season is all about and give thanks for your partner and all they have been through with you. By focusing on your relationship instead of the holiday season, you will avoid relationship problems, feel rejuvenated and gather enough energy to tackle the rest of the 'happiest season of all' together.

Date Ideas: Have a Snow Day With Your Man

By Samantha Mucha. Updated by Josh Ringle

Don't let a snow storm keep your dating life on lock down during the frigid winter months. Bundle up this December and take on a blizzard with one of our winter date ideas! Grab your winter jacket, warmest gloves and scarf. Don't huddle together indoors – you lovebirds have a snow man to build!

Have fun in the snow with our winter date ideas!

Remember the days when you would get irrationally psyched about a snow storm? As a child, we saw it as an adventurous challenge. If you and your partner are up for it, it can be just like the old times all over again. Get a good stretch beforehand though because you probably aren't as nimble as you used to be. These winter date ideas require some physical energy so be ready!

Related Link: Date Idea: Plan a Snow Date

If you have a driveway, have a shoveling race with your partner. Don't be kind, go hard and see who actually wins. The loser makes the hot cocoa, and gives the winner a luxurious back massage (but that's for later on.) Having little competitions can be so fun and increase your motivation to win!

When the hard stuff is all taken care of, tackle your sweetheart into a pile of snow and make snow angels. Maybe you can even head into the woods, a park, or the neighborhood and take a stroll through a freshly powdered winter wonderland.

Last, but not least, build a snowman. As a child, it always seemed to be a challenge to make the perfect snowman. As an adult it can be your personal contest to create the perfect snow buddy, carrot nose and all! A good piece of dating advice is to keep things fresh and exciting, and a snowman contest could be the perfect way to do that!

Once your gloves are soaked and your nose is runny from the cold, call it quits and retire back inside. Date Ideas: “Fall” in Love

By Shannon Seibert. Updated by Josh Ringle

Before the weather gets too cold, take time out to embrace summer's last bit of warmth. This weekend, take part in some fall date ideas like going for an early fall hike and appreciating the nature changing around you. Or, you can just drive around with the windows down and breathe in that fresh autumn air. Check out this dating advice on how to make the most of your fall weekends!

Enjoy awesome date ideas for the fall!

Hiking is an amazing way for you and your man to connect with the beautiful outdoors and strengthen your relationship. Talk about your favorite events coming up this fall, and make plans for pumpkin carving, football games, and bonfires. The conversation will distract you from the distance, and in no time, you'll cover a decent amount of ground and get a great workout in for your legs. Staying healthy is one of the great dating tips autumn has to offer.

Collect different kinds of leaves as you make your way down the trail, and take cool pictures with the different sites you see. If you find a leaf unique enough, save it! Press it in a book, and when the leaf dries out, you can place it on a matted frame and have it as a keepsake of your trip.

For this weekend date idea, you can even build a pile of fallen leaves and jump in! The more, the better. Think of the scene from A Thanksgiving for Charlie Brown when everyone built gargantuan leaf piles and played in them for hours. You and your man can really dive into the feeling of fall and spend the afternoon making angels in the leaves.

If exercise isn't your thing or you don't have any mountains to scale, then take a long drive with the windows down to soothe the soul. Have your beau turn on some of his favorite tunes and just enjoy each other's company. Some "Old Time Rock N' Roll" or a little bit of Jason Mraz will relax the both of you and ease the stress of the workweek.

If you are fickle about wasting gas, you can just drive to an open field and have a picnic. As a tribute to the end of summer and the beginning of fall, bring all of your favorite foods. Hidden Valley has an amazing recipe for potato salad, which is a great picnic food. It pairs well with turkey sandwiches and fresh fruit.

Lay out with your love and watch the clouds roll by. Bring up your favorite fall memories as a kid or plan a trip together. It could be a weekend getaway to a nearby cabin or a visit to a national park. The Red Woods in Yosemite National Park in California are beautiful this time of year. Ask him about what his ideal vacation would be and bounce ideas off of each other. Maybe even use your favorite celebrity couples as an idea-starter!

When the day is over, snuggle on the couch with a blanket, pop in your favorite rom-com, and think about a fun fall date idea for next weekend.

Date Ideas: Make a Spooktacular Spectacle as a Couple

By Emma L. Wells. Updated by Josh Ringle

Make this Halloween extra special for you, your partner, and all of your neighbors by going all out with your decorations this year. For this date idea, one of the many you'll find from Cupid, you and your partner can get busy hanging fake spider webs and spooky ghosts around the house in preparation for the trick-or-treaters.

Get ready for a great Halloween with this date idea.

Whether you're going full-out scary or want a playful Halloween look, you'll need to stock up on supplies. Grab your honey and set off for the local superstore. You'll want to fill your cart up with creepy ghouls, fake gravestones, and maybe a skeleton or two. One of the many fun pieces of dating advice for this idea is to have a competition for who can make the scariest component in your yard! If you want to freak out your trick-or-treaters, think about getting things that glow in the dark or are motion-sensored. Or, you can go the opposite route and create a more lighthearted, kid-friendly setting by making your own jack-o-lantern pumpkin patch. Just like a relationship, make sure to compromise! That is always a great piece of dating advice. You can buy fake ones at the store that will last for years, or you can carve your own to add a personal touch to the scene.

Date Idea: Embrace Each Other with a Scary Movie Marathon

By Tanni Deb. Updated by Josh Ringle

Halloween is approaching, and it's time to get ready with a thrilling scary movie marathon, one of the many scary Halloween weekend date ideas for those who can handle it!

Boot up Netflix, head to your local movie theater, or rent movies that you've always been scared of or maybe that you love, and make a night of it with your significant other. Pop some popcorn and get ready for a few thrills and chills that'll have you jumping into the arms of the person you love – staying close is always one of those romantic and important dating tips!

Halloween offers the perfect time for some spooky weekend date ideas!

If neither of you are frightened by horror movies, then make it a competition to see how many you can watch in one night without falling asleep on the couch. A great piece of dating advice is to have little competitions when you can, to keep things interesting! This challenge is sure to keep your eyes wide open until the break of dawn.

Date Idea: Pumpkin Picking With Your Partner

By Steven Zangrillo. Updated by Stephanie Sacco

What better way to spend a fall weekend than by picking pumpkins with your partner (say that five times fast)? Pumpkin picking is a lighthearted way to enjoy a beautiful fall day. This seasonal activity is only available to you for a small amount of time, so take the opportunity this weekend to go with your partner.

Here's a date idea to get you into the spirit of Halloween!

The pumpkin picking itself will be a blast as this will give you the opportunity to make a decision as a pair. Discuss the size, shape, and particular orange glow that you so desire. Choose one large or a dozen tiny ones, but be aware of your partner's preference. Take lots of pictures to document this fun date idea! Head to the nearest pumpkin patch or local farm and get into the holiday spirit. Then, decorate your porch or get ready to carve these babies!

Related Link: Take a Holiday from the Holidays

Show off your artistic and childlike side by carving your pumpkins into characters. Make caricatures of yourselves or scary Jack-O-Lanterns. Get a step-by-step kit or wing it with your partner. Be careful not to get too messy, but a few pumpkin guts never hurt anybody. Once you're finished, enter them in a contest or give them out as gifts. It's a fun and easy way to enjoy the fall weekend.

A "Novel" Date Idea: Browsing for Books

Updated by Stephanie Sacco

If you're looking for a perfect way to settle down and relax this weekend, grab your partner and head to a bookstore for this weekend date idea. It's a fun way to educate yourself about the new titles that are out there today. You'll enjoy choosing books together and holding in laughter behind the shelves.

Here are some book-related date ideas to consider.

Find books that you and your partner both enjoy reading. Or, for fun, select one from a completely new genre, and take turns reading it to one another. Start a book club of two if you decide on a book together, or read totally different ones. If he likes graphic novels and you're in the mood for a memoir, that's fine, too. As long as you are reading together! Head to the nearest library or bookstore, and let your inner book-nerd out.

If you're into e-reading, cuddle in bed with your honey and go through the new book releases on your Kindle, Nook or iPad. Once you've found something, take turns reading to each other until one of you falls asleep.

Related Link: Date Idea: Make a Spooktacular Spectacle

If you love a book that has a movie adaptation, consider reading it and then going to see the movie with your partner. Debate about which was better – the novel or the film. Discuss the differences between the two over dinner afterwards or eat popcorn and whisper about it from your very own couch. It'll be good for the two of you to bond over your interests.

Related Link: Weekend Date Idea: Carve Your Way Into His Heart

If you and your partner enjoy similar authors, try to attend an author meet and greet or a book signing. Typically book stores or libraries have author talks and signings so take a look in your local newspaper. It's a perfect date idea that will link the two of you, since you'll hold onto the books forever.
