Dating with Dignity Telesummit: Sensuality Secrets: How To Get Men To Pursue You

Patty Contenta began her career in the ballroom dancing community 20 years ago with the Arthur Murray Dance Studio in Montreal. As a professional dancer, choreographer, judge, Master Examiner, international traveling dance consultant and owner of the World renowned Arthur Murray Dance Franchise, she has transmitted her passion for dance to students around the world. Founder and author of Sensuality Secrets, an e-book and DVD set that helps women who are struggling with their body image reconnect with their femininity, confidence and sensuality through the art of body language and dance. Patty's mission with her online business is to have women release their resistance with expressing their sensuality. To provide techniques that will lead them to be more playful, build their self-esteem and exude a natural confidence while creating an inviting environment that will make them more magnetic.

Patty has become a sought after speaker and radio guest in North America.
