

Justin Bieber Denies Fathering a Baby

Baby, baby, baby noooo way! Justin Bieber recently became the father of his new puppy, Baylor, with girlfriend, singer and actress Selena Gomez, but he denies all accusations that he fathered the (human) child of Mariah Yeater. The 20-year-old Californian told STAR magazine that she and Bieber, 17, had sex backstage at a show in L.A. She gave birth to her son three months ago, and has filed a paternity lawsuit against the young pop sensation. A rep for Bieber told UsMagazine.com, "While we haven't yet seen the lawsuit, it's sad that someone would fabricate, malicious, defamatory AND demonstrably false claims. We will vigorously pursue all available legal remedies to defend and protect Justin against these allegations."

How do you handle others' claims that your partner is cheating?

Cupid's Advice:

Hearing that your partner is cheating on you is humiliating and infuriating. If you're told your partner's been sneaking around, here's some ways to react:

1. Get the facts: Don't believe everything you hear without finding out exactly what people are saying, and who's saying it. Rumors get twisted, but they have to start somewhere. Get your facts and your sources straightened out, and then proceed to deal with the situation.

2. Confront the source: If someone tells you that your partner is cheating, turn around and directly ask your significant other. It might be difficult, but usually that fear comes because we're afraid of their answer. Make sure that you don't back down too easily if they try to persuade you otherwise. They've lost your trust, and they need to win it back by proving themselves.

3. Don't act irrationally: Just because you hear that your partner has cheated, that doesn't mean you should try to even the score by cheating on them. All previous trust within the relationship will vanish, and repair may be impossible, especially if your partner ends up being innocent. Wait until you're positive your partner is cheating, and then handle the situation maturely, whether that's breaking up or choosing to work things out.

Justin Bieber and Selena

Gomez Adopt a Puppy

Justin Bieber and his Disney-actress-turned-pop-star girlfriend may not be ready for human children, but they're ready for the pet variety. The couple recently adopted a puppy from D'Arcy's Animal Rescue Centre in Winnipeg, Canada, while on tour for Gomez. They chose to name the blue-eyed husky mix, Baylor. "It was nice that they thought of the animals and came to visit our shelter while they were on tour," D'Arcy, the owner of the shelter told E! News.

What are the advantages of raising a pet together?

Cupid's Advice:

Taking care of a pet is no easy feat, but it does come with some valuable lessons and perks. Here are a few:

1. Prep for kids: If you're considering having kids at some point, but are a little bit hesitant, consider bringing a pet into your family. It'll definitely teach you about the responsibility that goes into having another living thing to care for in your family.

2. Reliability and trust: Caring for a dog can teach you to rely on each other in a relationship. You'll also find out if your partner is capable and compassionate.

3. Sharing responsibility: If you're raising a pet with your significant other, you can both do the duties that go along with it. You can take turns walking a dog or cleaning a litter box. It's less work for you both.

Best Celebrity-Couple Costumes for Halloween

By Whitney Baker

There are so many fun factors about Halloween. First, there are the pumpkins: pumpkin carving, pumpkin patches, pumpkin pie – and an annual viewing of the TV show, It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown. Next, you can't forget candy, like Brach's candy corn, which are only available seasonally in the autumn, making them a particularly delicious and coveted treat. Then, there's all that scary stuff: haunted houses, witches, goblins and ghouls – boo! And finally, perhaps the best part is the costumes – for one day out of the year, you get to be anyone you want to be, celebrities included.

For anyone looking for a little romance on a holiday that's typically filled with fright, you're in luck! Here's a list of celebrity couples whose looks can be transformed into costumes. One of them may be the perfect fit for you and your partner.

1. Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez: For the teeny-boppers out there – or anyone hoping to feel a bit younger for an evening – the prince and princess of pop make a very suitable duo. For Bieber, any guy with longer locks can sweep his bangs to the side, and any boy with a shorter 'do can simply throw on a sideways Yankees hat. Add a pair of Ray-Ban Wayfarers (dark lenses not necessary), jeans, and a hoodie, and you're set! For Gomez, you can rock a casual but glam look: skinny jeans, a flowing tank top, flats, hoop earrings, and wavy hair. If you really want to channel these two lovebirds, PDA is highly encouraged.

2. Katy Perry and Russell Brand: This eccentric and oh-so-in-love couple is an ideal choice for anyone looking to get a little crazy this Halloween. Perry has donned a number of hair colors and styles over the years, so take your pick: bubble-gum pink or bright blue, jet black, or her most recent, honey-hued blonde. As for outfits, anything is fair game, even that sassy and sparkly Smurfette dress that's hiding in your closet. For Brand, the look is quite low-key: a pair of skinny jeans and a tight (and low-cut) t-shirt, along with unbrushed and knotted hair, some stubble, and a bit of guyliner. Oh, and don't forget the British accent.

3. Prince William and Princess Catherine: Their wedding may have been months ago, but people are still talking about these newlyweds, the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge. Princess Catherine has taken the fashion world by storm with her chic and totally relatable style, making her the ultimate princess to emulate on this costume-filled holiday. To truly stand out, opt for their wedding look: your man can wear an outfit that resembles Prince William's Irish Guards' red military uniform, while you can get glamorous in a lacy and flowing white gown, a beautiful sapphire (faux) engagement ring, and a bouquet of flowers. Complete the look with a tiara, of course.

4. Blair Waldorf and Chuck Bass: Okay, okay – so they may not be a real celebrity couple, but they've certainly made their mark as the "it couple" in the Gossip Girl-World of the Upper East Side. To imitate this high-society pair, girls should pull together their most designer-drenched look. Choose from high school Waldorf, who wouldn't have been caught dead without her preppy headband, or the now college-aged fashionista, who has adopted a more grown-up dress code – just be sure to accessorize accordingly. As for Bass, a guy only needs a three-piece suit, bow tie, pocket square, and all the charm that he can muster.

Justin Bieber Plans “Titanic” Date For Girlfriend Selena Gomez

Teen sensation

Justin Bieber went all out in the romance department for girlfriend Selena Gomez for their date Friday night. The couple's first destination was the Nokia Theater, where they watched fellow Disney star, Demi Lovato in concert. People reported that they then headed to LA's Staple Center, where Bieber rented out the entire arena so he and Gomez could watch the critically acclaimed movie, Titanic without any interruptions. Bieber shelled out a whopping zero dollars to rent out the popular arena, as the Staple Center management gave it to him free for selling out the center three times. His romantic gesture proves why all the ladies have "Bieber Fever."

How do you vamp up the everyday movie date?

Cupid's Advice:

For those a little short on cash, renting out a whole arena probably isn't your best option. However, switching up the movie venue or watching a different type of movie is sure to spice up the usual "dinner and a movie" routine:

1. Outside the movie theater: When the idea of the movie theater gets a little boring, consider a drive-in movie or watching a movie in the park. It allows for a more intimate and relaxed setting.

2. Classics: Sometimes rushing to get tickets to the latest blockbuster can be a little stressful. It doesn't hurt to wait until next week to see it. In the meantime, rent some classic movies in the genre of your choice and snuggle up at home.

3. Choose at random: If you find you and your partner are unsure of what to watch, choose something you both wouldn't normally see. Spontaneity can lead to the discovery of wonderful things.

Justin Bieber Says He Wants to Be Married By 25-Years-Old

Teen sensation Justin Bieber already has marriage on the mind, reports People. When asked where he sees himself in five years, the 17-year-old pop singer told Women's Wear Daily, "By 25 or 26, I want to see myself, like, married or start looking for a family. I want to be a young dad. I want to be able to have done what I wanted to do – to be successful, to do a movie or whatever."

Is age a factor when it comes to marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Though the age-old mantra "age is just a number" often holds merit, it's important to take age into consideration when committing to marriage. Here are a few things to consider before making a decision:

1. Future experiences: When you truly love someone, you shouldn't feel like you're giving anything up. When you marry, you potentially forever rule out any future relationships. At a young age, you are giving up a lot of future relationships. Be sure that you don't feel as though you're missing out.

2. Your goals: When you're young, you don't always have your priorities set in stone. You may mature and decide to take your life in a different direction. Be confident with your place in life before marrying.

3. The age of your partner: Though you may be the rare young person who is mentally prepared for a marriage, your partner may not be. Make sure that your partner is as ready as you are for this commitment.

Celebrity Couples We Can't Wait to See at MTV's VMAs

By Tanni Deb

From Britney Spears to Nicki Minaj, this year's MTV Video Music Award (VMA) nominees are teeming with A-list music stars. The three top contenders include Katy Perry, with nine nods (the most of any performer this year), and Adele and Kanye West, both with seven nominations each. While it will be exciting to see which stars take home a trophy for their designated categories, we're also eager to see which of our favorite celebrity couples will attend. Although we won't know for sure who will show up to the VMAs until Sunday, Aug. 28, here are five celebrity couples we hope make an appearance:

1. Beyoncé Knowles and Jay-Z: Listed as the "most powerful couple" for TIME magazine's "100 Most Influential People" in 2006, the duo dated for six years before secretly getting married in 2008. OK Magazine reported that "the couple is very supportive of one another – making sure to attend performances and appearances together." That means we can definitely count on them to arrive together, since Beyoncé is up for a nomination, right?

2. Britney Spears and Jason Trawick: Although these two love birds have made many public appearances together, the first time they stepped out as a couple was at the St. Bernard Project Event in May, 2011. Spears' relationship with Trawick seems to be getting serious, but now the question is whether he'll attend the VMAs to support his pop singer lady, or not?

3. Katy Perry and Russell Brand: In May, 2011, comedian Russell Brand visited Japan to see his wife perform, but unfortunately, he was deported due to criminal incidences that happened more than a decade ago. Distraught with the news, the Firework singer tweeted, "So...my husband just got deported from Japan. I am so sad." Don't worry, Katy. Since the VMAs take place in L.A. this year, your hubby should have no problem attending. After all, how could he miss the opportunity when you have the most nominations?

4. Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber: The teen heartthrob and the Wizards of Waverly Place beauty were set up on a date by her mother and his management team at the end of last year. In an interview with Seventeen magazine, the 18-year-old Disney star admitted that she is head over heels for Bieber, and the pair were even seen exchanging 'I Love You's' while shopping in New York City last month. This year, they attended many award shows together, including the Oscars, the ESPY Awards show, and the Billboard Music Awards. Let's just hope they won't miss out on this one.

5. Lady Gaga and Luc Carl: The mother monster credits her boyfriend for helping her become "successful" in the music industry. Last year, she told Rolling Stone, "I've really never loved anyone like I loved him. Or like I love him." Despite break-up rumors, hopefully her supportive boyfriend will be by her side to cheer her on at the VMAs.

Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez Show the Love at Teen Choice Awards

When it comes to celebrity couples and the media, the feuding couple is always more interesting than the happy pair. That's probably why there are so many rumors surrounding lovebirds like Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber. The young couple decided to put these rumors to bed at the Teen Choice awards by arriving together and engaging in various public displays of affection, according to UsMagazine.com. Bieber even stated that he couldn't wait to see his girlfriend perform, "Because she's awesome!"

What are some ways to squash break-up rumors?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes rumors surrounding relationship problems can be lethal and can actually lead to a split. To make sure that doesn't happen, Cupid has some tips on how to stop the poisonous talk once and for all:

1. Utilize social networking: Use tools like Facebook or Twitter to post loving pictures of you and your beau to show everyone that you most definitely have not broken up and are in a good place.

2. Plan a trip together: When two people plan a trip in advance, it shows that you plan to be together for an extended period of time.

3. Ignore it: The best way to fight a rumor is to not buy into it at all. As long as the tall tale is not actually affecting your relationship, there's no reason to make yourself crazy trying to disprove it.

5 Of Our Favorite Celebrity Beach Bum Couples

By Melissa Tierney

We aren't the only one's trying to hit the beach this season to escape the hot summer heat. Sizzling celebrity pairs can be spotted in Miami, Los Angeles and the Hamptons, soaking up some rays and having fun in the sand. If you're lucky, you may spot your favorite duo while you're taking an ocean dip.

Here are a few of the celebrity beach bum couples that we'd love to join at the beach:

1. Kim Kardashian and Kris Humphries: This newly engaged couple has been all over the media lately and one of the last trips they made caused a huge splash. The duo traveled to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico in late May, and by looking at the pictures of them, it seemed like they had a blast together.

The couple played in the ocean and embraced on the beach – talk about summer lovin'.

2. Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez: The teenage royalty twosome hit Maui in May and turned heads when they were spotted smooching in the sand. Things have gotten serious for the young lovebirds as Gomez was even seen visiting Bieber's family in Canada this spring. We wonder if they love her as much as we do.

3. Ice-T and Coco: The hip-hop couple showed their overwhelming love for each other on the hot beach of Miami in February. Rapper Ice-T kept it cool while his wife, former Playboy model Coco, showed off her sexy beach body in an itty-bitty bikini. The couple, who have been married for five years, now have their own reality show, Ice Loves Coco, every Sunday night on E.

4. Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler: The ex-reality star went to Cabo San Lucas in April on a romantic getaway with beau Jay Cutler and came back engaged – what a treat. Love was definitely swirling around this pair as they spent their weekend hand-in-hand walking in the sand before Cutler popped the question. We don't know what was more blinding: the bright sun or her new 5.2 carat engagement ring.

5. Reese Witherspoon and Jim Toth: These newlyweds celebrated their nuptials by having a fun-filled getaway in Belize with Witherspoon's two kids. The new family came back with some nice color. They were just in time for Witherspoon to promote her latest movie, Water for Elephants, and accept the generation award at the MTV Movie Awards. Good thing they got to enjoy an exotic getaway before heading back to work.

Justin Bieber Tells Selena Gomez She's 'Very Beautiful'

While Canadians rioted over losing the Stanley Cup last week, American girls continue to riot over losing Justin Bieber to Selena Gomez. UsMagazine.com reports that the 17-year-old pop sensation, who tied for Best International Video by a Canadian with Drake at the Much Music Awards, went up to receive his award from no other than his girlfriend. He then proceeded to fake a kiss, and instead, went for a hug. "Selena, nice to meet you. My name is Justin,” he said in a fake introduction. “You’re very beautiful. Maybe we can go out sometime!”

What are the best ways to flatter in public?

Cupid’s Advice:

Flattery is a great way to show affection for your partner. Cupid has a few pointers for some great ways to do so in public:

1. Poke war: This doesn’t have to be limited to Facebook poking! Expand your touchy-feely ways between yourself and your guy with a game of footsie under the table.

2. Fake intro: Similar to what Bieber did to Gomez, ‘randomly’ meet your partner while out and strike up a conversation, reintroducing yourself. It’s a cute way to spice things up in your relationship.

3. Flash mob: Flash mobs, where random people seemingly come out of nowhere and start to synchronize dance in public spaces, is becoming ever more popular. Take a cue from this bold gesture and get some of your friends to ‘flash’ your love while at the mall or beach. While it may sound silly, it definitely shows your other half – as well your friends and tons of innocent bystanders – how much he or she means to you.

How do you flatter your mate? Let us know in a comment below!

Selena Gomez Admits Justin

Bieber Is More Than a Little Brother

While appearing on Ellen this week, Selena Gomez had to defend some comments she made about her alleged boyfriend, Justin Bieber, according to People. Last September, when Ellen DeGeneres asked Gomez, 18, about Bieber, 17, she replied, “He’s little. He’s like my little brother.” This time around, DeGeneres put her on the spot and asked, “He’s like your little brother? ... What do you have to say now?” The couple was spotted kissing in the Caribbean in January and a month later, they attended the Vanity Fair Oscar party together. However, the Disney star still refuses to confirm they’re dating, telling Ellen, “He’s just sweet.”

How do you stay quiet about a relationship without lying?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes you just need some privacy in a relationship, but it's hard to keep it a secret without hurting people's feelings or lying. Cupid has some ideas on what to do in this kind of situation:

1. Change the subject: When someone asks about your relationship, casually change the subject. They should get the hint and stop asking about your significant other.

2. Avoid nosy people: You know that friend that can't keep a secret? You might want to avoid telling them about you and your mate if you want to keep it quiet. And not telling them is not the same as lying.

3. No PDA... for now: If you don't want to get into a situation where people ask you about who you're dating and you have to lie, avoid it all together by keeping PDA to a minimum. Once you're ready to tell the world about your significant other, you can get back to being affectionate in public.

Selena Gomez Talks Justin Bieber with David Letterman

Disney star Selena

Gomez has still not confirmed her relationship with Justin Bieber. In fact, when asked about the rumored romance on Late Night with David Letterman, she quickly changed the subject by saying, "It was like a little prom night, wasn't it?" in reference to a picture of them together at the Vanity Fair Oscar party. According to People, however, David Letterman did manage to get some information out of the teen actress. She has known the singer for two years now and they met through their agents. "He's been in my life for so long, and it's just nice to have someone that understands what you're going through," she said.

Is it important that your partner understand you all the time?

Cupid's Advice:

Though no one can ever understand another person 100% of the time, if you listen to and love your partner, you should be able to come close:

- 1. Listen: The more you listen to your partner the more you will understand them.
- 2. Know their likes and dislikes: Once you know what your partner likes and dislikes, you should be able to predict how they will react in certain situations.

3. Be understanding: In the event that you don't understand each other, don't make a big deal about it. Just decide if it's something you're willing to live with, and go from there.

Teens Break Into Justin Bieber's Hotel Room

Looks like Bieber Fever has struck again! According to UsMagazine.com, two teenage Bieber fans found an incredibly clever way to sneak into the pop star's hotel room at the Hard Days and Night Hotel in Liverpool. According to a source, the two die hard fans apparently snuck in through a side entrance, stole housekeeping outfits and pretended to be part of the staff to get inside the Bieber's room. Once inside, they started to pretend to polish a few things before taking photos of the singer's belongings. Eventually, their girly giggles gave them away and the two were escorted off the premises. Needless to say, Justin Bieber was less than pleased and checked out of the hotel immediately afterwards.

What should you do about an obsessive crush?

Cupid's Advice:

We've all had that crush that we can't stop thinking about. But, for some, that crush can quickly turn from harmless to destructive. Cupid has some tips on what to do when your crushing becomes an obsession"

1. Control your thoughts: When you catch yourself thinking about your crush, actively divert your attention to something else. Call a friend or go to a movie ... anything to get your mind off of it.

2. Find a new interest: Many times, we become infatuated with one thing or person because of the lack of excitement in other aspects of our lives. Try to find a big project or something that will take up a lot of your time and make you happy, so that you are not relying on this one person for your source of happiness.

3. Find out if they are your type: Most of the time, the reason we become so obsessed with a person is due to the mystery factor and the fact that they are unattainable. Try to get to know him or her, and go from there.

Justin Bieber Decides to Grow

a Moustache

Justin Bieber is taking his first steps into adulthood by growing facial hair. UsMagazine.com reports that the 17-year-old crooner announced via Twitter that he will not shave for a month and that he is “pumped” for his fans to see him with a ‘stache. Recently, Bieber lost 80,000 Twitter fans after cutting his trademark locks, trading in for a more current, adult look. Bieber, who recently admitted to dating fellow young Hollywood starlet Selena Gomez, is currently touring in Europe, away from his new girl.

What do you do if you don't like your partner's facial hair?

Cupid's Advice:

Selena Gomez may just luck out and not get to see the Biebs in the flesh with his facial hair. But for some ladies who have to deal with stubble scratches and sore chins, it can be tricky to let your boy know you don't care for his hair:

1. Reminisce: When your man walks into a room and you catch a glimpse at his burly beard, think about how he looked pre-facial hair and let him know how much you miss his smooth face.

2. Be blunt: Although it's ultimately his choice to keep or give up his facial hair, you can let him know what you think is best. If all else fails, withhold kisses.

3. Report the facts: Men with facial hair and beards are less likely to get hired because they don't come off as trustworthy. The beard may make your man look like he has something to hide.

Did Selena Gomez Get Punched By a Justin Bieber Fan?

When Selena Gomez went public with Justin Bieber, she knew she'd have to deal with her boyfriend's crazy fans. But this time, the "Beliebers" may have gone too far. People reports that after Gomez, 18, was photographed with what looked like a fat lip, rumors started that she was punched by a Bieber fan. Paparazzi snapped the photo when Bieber and Gomez were leaving his 17th birthday party at Maggiano's restaurant in L.A. Gomez's rep insists that there is "absolutely no truth" to the rumors.

How do you deal with your partner's exes?

Cupid's Advice:

When your partner is as popular a guy as Justin Bieber, he may have a couple of angry or jealous exes. Cupid has some tips on how to deal:

- 1. Ignore: If there is an ex who is trying to get back with your partner, ignore her and tell your beau to do the same. The ex is probably just trying to get attention and when they realize they can't get it, they'll stop.
- 2. Don't get jealous: Keep jealousy out of the equation. Remember that your partner chose you and broke up with his or her ex for a reason.
- 3. Tell them: When your mate's ex just won't leave you two alone, let the ex know that you're uncomfortable with the way they're acting and if they can't tone it down, they should just stay away.

Caught: Justin Bieber and

Selena Gomez Holding Hands

Photographic

evidence of rumored couple Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez has officially been captured, according to UsMagazine.com. While the rest of the country tuned in to Super Bowl XLV, Gomez and Bieber kept a low profile in Santa Monica, California. The rumored duo were hanging out by the pier when a paparazzo snapped a photo of them holding hands. According to sources, the pair “giggled” at being caught on film. While the two have been trying to keep their relationship under wraps, photographs of them getting close on a yacht in the Caribbean were taken on New Year’s.

When should you come clean about a long-rumored romance?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes when you become a part of a new relationship, it’s fun and exciting to keep things on the down-low. But when things start to heat up and it gets harder to cover your tracks, it may be time to come clean and own up to your new relationship:

1. Ain't no shame!: Unless your new boyfriend still hasn't broken things off with his previous girlfriend, there's no reason to hide your relationship. Love should be celebrated, and keeping it under wraps may come off as suspicious.

2. Parental approval: If your parents have their eyes set on one type of man and you fall in love with another, that's just the way it is. The sooner you open up to your parents, the sooner your partner will win their approval.

3. When you start to lie: It may seem like a good idea at the time, but when you go out in public together under wraps, jealousy and hurt feelings can ensue. Nobody knows you're together, which brings on incorrect introductions and unexpected come-ons from other party-goers.

Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez Kiss in the Caribbean

Did pancakes just become a code word for kiss? A couple weeks ago, cute crooner Justin Bieber and Disney Channel star Selena Gomez were spotted getting cuddly at IHOP. Now, the duo may have shared a smooch while vacationing in the Caribbean over the weekend, according to UsMagazine.com. Bieber and Gomez were seen ringing in the New Year on a private yacht. So far, they both deny they're anything more than good friends.

What are ways to put relationship rumors to rest among friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationship rumors can be annoying, especially if they're completely untrue. Cupid has some ways to put the rumors to rest:

- 1. Be candid: Be insistent that nothing is going on and don't hesitate with your words or seem unsure. Just stick to the facts.
- 2. Get cozy with someone else: People are bound to discredit the rumors when they see you with someone else. They might come to the conclusion that you're just a warm and affectionate person!
- 3. Laugh it off: In the end, who really cares what people think. If you're being honest with yourself, that's all that matters.

Is it possible to be “just friends” with someone of the opposite sex?

Cupid's Advice:

This question has been debated for years, and there isn't one universal answer. Cupid has some ways to tell if it's possible to remain “just” friends:

1. You're physically attracted to each other: If you or your friend have a physical attraction to one another, the odds are that sooner or later it's going to get in the way of your friendship.

2. You're part of the same group of friends: If you've been close friends for years and have mutual friends, there's a good chance you can keep your friendship without having to worry about it turning into more. On the other hand, if you just met this person and are both single, things might start to get a little tricky in the "friend" department.

3. You spend a lot of time together: If you're constantly with your friend of the opposite sex without other friends around, it 's possible you might be setting yourself up for more than friendship. Always make sure you're both on the same page.

Sarah/Bristol Palin

Is teen activist Bristol Palin becoming more famous than her political mom? The teen mother is on this season's Dancing With the Stars, the #1 show on TV, and has millions of fans across the country. If you want to go the more traditional route, go with the now-classic Halloween costume: Sarah Palin. Hey, it worked for Tina Fey!

Edward Cullen

One of the most popular book series of the past decade, the Twilight Saga, has produced three blockbuster movies so far, rocketing its actors to superstardom. Robert Pattinson plays the brooding vampire, the romantic lead and the subject of many a teen girl's fantasies. Get the look with some white makeup, a gray peacoat and a bouffant hairdo. All you have to do now is practice your pout. Add some fangs if you're feeling daring.

Jersey Shore couple

Although they may not be an actual couple, The Situation and Snooki are undoubtedly the breakout stars of MTV's Jersey Shore. Besides the obvious GTL (gym, tan, laundry), get Snooki's poof with lots of hairspray or a wig. For the Situation, three words: abs, abs, abs. You might need some time to prepare for that one...

Justin Bieber

While the Biebs was blowing up the charts this year, Halloween costume-makers were busy making, you guessed it – the Justin Bieber wig. All you need to complete this costume is some baggy jeans, sweet kicks, and the hair. Screaming 12-year-old girls are optional.

Kim Kardashian

This reality TV bombshell is one of the most talked-about celebs on the planet. With her hit show Keeping Up with the Kardashians under her belt and the new Kourtney and Kim Take New York coming soon to a living room near you, the curvy brunette is a perfect costume idea. Try a wig or extensions to get Kim's long dark locks, a bandage dress, and if you need it, a little help in the chest area will complete the transformation!

Mad Hatter

If you're a fan of Johnny Depp and/or huge top hats, this is the costume for you. Replicate the iconic character played by Depp in this year's Alice In Wonderland with a tall, raddy-looking hat, long pinstripe pants and a colorful blazer.

Avatar

So a tall blue alien with long hair and very little clothing might not be the most traditional costume, but will no doubt be the most recognizable. Avatar, the highest-grossing movie ever made, came out last year and the Na'avi people featured in the movie are still all the buzz. You can find plenty of blue body paint and full Avatar costumes at most Halloween stores.

MTV's Video Music Awards: What You Missed

By Jessica DeRubbo

Well, the MTV Video Music Awards have come and gone yet again, and the celebs in attendance this year didn't disappoint!

Some of the more notable duos walking the white carpet this year were Justin Bieber & Selena Gomez, Usher & Justin Bieber, Jersey Shore's Ronnie & Vinnie and Stephanie Pratt & Lo Bosworth, according to Hollywood Life. And, of course, there was the much-anticipated awards show participants Taylor Swift and Kanye West. After last year's debacle where West barged on stage during Swift's acceptance speech, he was on his best behavior. The two stars separately sang two brand new songs addressing last year's event, "like a pair of dueling attorneys making closing statements in front of a jury," according to Tris McCall at the New Jersey Star-Ledger.

That's not to leave out the host of this year's VMA extravaganza. E!'s popular comedienne Chelsea Handler took the podium, and the question is: how did she measure up?

Here are three reviews that seem to sum it up:

1. "As the live portion of the show began, Handler turned in a moderately funny Gaga sendup, appearing amid red-lycra-clad dancers wearing a dollhouse on her head. Though, again, it felt a little like Host the VMAs Paint-by-Numbers – Gaga's both the easiest and the lamest (not to mention the most willing) target around," said Jennifer Armstrong in Entertainment Weekly's PopWatch.

2. "And then there was the awkward plight of the night's host, Chelsea Handler. She was among the worst in the show's history – purposefully out-of-touch, with brief, alarming flashes of off-color racial humor," said Jon Caramanica of the New York Times.

3. "But there was little smooching or feuding on Sunday, despite some nudging from the host. 'I want to encourage everyone to be on their worst behavior,' comedian Chelsea Handler declared in her opening monologue, a string of flat punch lines that felt a few degrees below crass," said Chris Richards in The Washington Post's Click Track.

Although the VMAs usually make for some stories full of cat fights and on-stage duels, the show was pretty tame overall this year. But with the best ratings since 2002, according to Just Jared, Chelsea Handler can't complain!

Kim Kardashian Denies Bieber Dating Rumors

Kim Kardashian has finally responded to the stream of rumors suggesting that she is interested in dating 16-year-old Justin Bieber. The rumors started after Kardashian told George Lopez that, after pairing up with Bieber in a suggestive photo shoot for Elle Magazine, she would “definitely” date the pop star if he were 18. But Kardashian wants to make it clear that she’s not interested in the teen, Starpulse reports. “I’m almost 30, this is illegal, this is disgusting. He’s a cute kid and that’s it. But for the record, I am not dating Justin Bieber and I would not date Justin Bieber.” Should you date someone older or younger than you?

Cupid’s Advice:

For the most part, you shouldn’t let age difference keep you from getting involved with someone. Cupid has some tips on how to deal with age difference while dating:

1. Listen to yourself: Don’t let other people’s judgments keep you from dating someone of a different age. Pay attention to how you feel, and tune out the naysayers. Do what makes you comfortable.

2. Age is nothing but a number: Most people date someone who is in or near their same emotional, physical, and professional stage of life. If your partner is ahead of you in one of those areas, you can help him or her grow. It's a win-win. Let him keep you young!

3. There is a limit: In Kim Kardashian's case, dating Justin Bieber is illegal. Breaking the law to date someone doesn't help matters, and it adds a negative element to your relationship that you just don't need. Take a minute to think over your relationship. Can you see a future with a much-older or much-younger partner?
