Cupid's Advice:

In some cases it's hard to see an ex with someone new. As hard as it can be, you have to keep it together. Cupid has some advice on how to handle jealousy when your ex moves on with someone new:

1. Try not to look!: With social media taking over, it can be hard to avoid finding out about an ex and their new partner. As much as you may have the urge to lurk, don't look. Whether you broke up on good or bad terms, it will hurt the same when you see it. As long as you keep lurking, the more upset and angry you will get. Don't do it to yourself.

2. "I don't want to hear it": While your friends may think they are doing you a favor by telling you your ex's every move, you have to tell them that you don't want to hear it. Constantly hearing about your ex won't help you heal and move on. A good idea is to have a conversation with the people closest to you and have a mutual agreement on not bringing up your ex. This combined with fun with your loved ones will help you have a smooth and healthy healing.

3. It's not a competition: When seeing your ex with someone

Don't go out and hurt someone else to make your partner jealous. Not only will you hurt someone else, it will only hurt you more. Keep calm and work through it. Cupid's Advice:

As time flies by in a relationship, it's normal to consider marriage. You may ask yourself, "When is the right time?" Cupid has some advice on ways to know you've been dating long enough to get engaged:

1. Are you ready?: Getting engaged is not only telling the world that you are ready to take the next step, but it's also letting each other know. Marriage is a big commitment and takes a lot of work. Although weddings are glorified with all that goes into it, after it's all said and done, you and your partner are now bound together. Have a serious talk with your soon-to-be spouse about the topic. While the amount of time you've spent together is a factor, more important is making sure you are both ready.

2. Knowledge is power: When dating, you get to know just about everything you need to know about your partner. Make sure you know, understand and can accept your partner for who they are. It's not uncommon for people to get married and then realize that their partner either changed or started doing things that they've never seen or realized. If you are confident that you know your partner and can accept their flaws, then it sounds like you are just about ready.

3. Timing: Timing is everything when it comes to engagements. While for some, dating for a few months is considered a long time, others need years. Relationships are constant work but if you feel like you have put the time and effort in and you are ready, than why not? It's kind of like retirement; sometimes you just need the time in order to reap the benefits.

Cupid's Advice:

It's always said that you should marry your best friend. Why not be with the person who knows what you like, can tell when you are upset and just likes you for you? Cupid has some advice on knowing if your friend has the potential to be more:

1. Views: Before you jump into turning your friendship into a relationship, explore each other's point of views. Although friendships can evolve into relationships, it is important to make sure you are both on the same page. What are your beliefs? What do you think your friend will bring to the relationship? How does your friend feel about relationships? Being great friends is different from being a couple.

2. Future plans: Discussing the future is essential. Everybody has their own plans for the future. Jumping into a relationship with someone who won't compromise their future plans with you isn't a good idea. This will bring heart break and hurt feelings later. Discuss your future; although nothing is set in stone, remember as a couple, you are supposed to grow and be happy. While compromising is great, don't compromise your whole future if that's not what you really want. Don't force it.

1. Have they done unforgivable things?: Forgiving them means accepting the situation and their apology, and moving on from it. There is no point in saying you will forgive your partner, if the problem will just keep popping up in the future. So, analyze and evaluate whether what they did is something you can move on from.

5 Things We Can Learn from Justin Bieber & Selena Gomez's Rocky Relationship

By Ashton Dixey

There are a lot of beautiful celebrity couples out there, but there is one in particular that we've all come to admire and treasure: Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez. Society has perhaps learned more from observing their dating story than we could from reading a relationship book! Although they're currently on a break right now, that doesn't mean that we can't learn from this super cute couple.

Read on to learn more about the five things that celebrity couple Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez taught us about relationships:

1. First loves are the hardest to get over: Justin Bieber was only 16 and Selena Gomez was 18 when they both started dating each other. Fresh faced and in love, these two went everywhere together and were spotted packing on the PDA in full swing. Fast forward eight years later (past all of the drama) and these two are still in touch trying to make things work. It seemed like Bieber never fully recovered once Gomez and him broke-up. Gomez even wrote a song about it called "The Heart Wants What It Wants." Be careful who you fall in love with for the first time because that first break-up is the toughest to recover from.

2. Learn to be okay alone: It seemed as if these two kind-of lost their balance when they had their celebrity break-up. One ended up in rehab and the other was caught peeing in random wash buckets in California. Be sure you are okay with who you are as a person inside so you can move on without racking up 20 tattoos on your neck to try and burn away the pain. One month shortly after the break-up, Justin ended up driving drunk without a license, running from the cops, and even egging his neighbor's house. When you go through a break-up, don't lose touch with yourself. Now is the perfect time to rediscover the greatness within you. Stay in touch with friends and family that truly support you so you can talk through your emotions instead of acting impulsively.

3. Keep a cool head after a break-up: Sometimes it feels really good to go on social media and unfollow your ex-boyfriend or girlfriend. Or, it might be fun to go out with a random person for the night and post pictures of yourself and them kissing. Although this may relieve the pain for a bit, it is not the best idea. Bieber put fuel on the Jelena rumor fires when he unfollowed Gomez and started posting steamy pictures of himself and other girls on Instagram. There was somewhat of an Instagram war occurring between the two. Try your best to keep a cool head after you break-up and don't do anything you'll regret. If you do end up back together at some point, you don't want to do anything that might spoil the relationship for the future. Collect yourself, you got this!

4. Rebounds don't work: If you're trying to get over an ex, it can be tempting to find someone that's available and willing to jump into a relationship with you. But when your heart is still reeling from wanting to be with your ex-lover, this can be a very bad decision. Instead of facing the pain, you're pouring it into a new relationship and settling to boot. Gomez ended up dating The Weeknd for about eight months before she ended up back in Bieber's arms after a sweet bicycle trip that turned out to be an awesome date idea. As much as you try to forget that person that you're still in love with, it won't be easy, and it certainly won't be fair for the person who's serving as your rebound.

5. If at first you don't succeed, try try again: Throughout Bieber and Gomez's rocky relationship, it seems that Bieber had tried to win Gomez back many times. From serenading her at a hotel in Beverly Hills, to posting photos complimenting Gomez on his Instagram, he tried and tried again to win her back. After several years of trying, it worked! They got officially back together and even made it Instagram official this month. If there's anything to learn here it's that true love never dies and that if there's someone you know you're supposed to be with, it makes sense to fight for their love. Bieber did it for Gomez and even though they are on a break right now, true love is always worth fighting for.

This celebrity divorce was not easy for Drew Barrymore. What are some helpful tips to coping with the divorce process?

Cupid's Advice:

We know that divorce is not easy. And unfortunately, for some of us, it's a time where we undergo a deep sadness. Cupid has some tips on getting through a hard divorce, and most of it is mental:

1. Know that you are sure about the divorce: Sometimes love can blind us, but it is important to know the reason for the divorce and that it is in fact the right decision. Try your best to skip any denial stage to make it easier for yourself. Think things through, analyze and examine your situation. But don't overdo it to the point you're blaming yourself or driving yourself crazy.

2. Think of the positive outcome: It is hard to see the light during a time as dark as going through a divorce – but it is essential that you do find it. Things can look hopeless and that can drag you into a downward spiral. It is important to find the good in all the bad situations we're in, no matter how small it may be. Just know that you are going through a hard time right now that will make you stronger, and the future holds something much better. Positive thinking goes a long way.

Champion on Tuesday night at the Roxy in Los Angeles. Photos show the potential celebrity couple exiting the venue and leaving in the same car. According to sources, they've actually hung out multiple times, and always seem to flirt and have fun with one another. "Justin has been hanging out with Baskin," a source said, adding that after the show Bieber and Champion went back to his house. "Justin had friends with him but they all left and Justin and Baskin were alone together for the night." We wonder what Gomez has to say about this. Was their break an actual celebrity break-up?

In celebrity news, we're wondering if Jelena is old news. What are some ways to know you're ready to move on after a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on from a past relationship can be hard. However, when it's done, it's done, and you have to move on. Cupid has some ideas on how to know when it's time to not look back and carry on from a former relationship:

1. There is no future with the relationship: If you no longer see a future with an ex flame, it's time to ditch them and move on. If you know this valuable piece of information, then you're just waiting for the inevitable at this point. Why waste more time on the relationship when you can spend that time moving on and actually doing things that will benefit the future you have without that person?

2. The other person has moved on: If your ex has moved on, then it is probably safe to say that you should too. It may hurt to see them with someone else, but things happen for a reason. Don't let seeing them with someone else throw you into a jealous fit. Instead, take it with a grain of salt, and move on.

3. You're worn out: Relationships can be tiresome. However, if you feel absolutely drained, this could be a sign that it's time to move on. You can only try so hard and oh so much. If you gave it your best shot, that's what matters. If your relationship still doesn't work after all your efforts, you may be seeing a dead end, and so it is time to carry on without your ex.

Celebrity Break-Up: Donald Trump Jr. Had an Affair with Aubrey O'Day During Marriage

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, it turns out that Donald Trump Jr. had an affair with Celebrity Apprentice contestant Aubrey O'Day while he was still married to his wife, Vanessa Trump. A source told UsMagazine.com that "Things started up with Aubrey and Don Jr. toward the end of the taping." This time spanned from the end of 2011 into March 2012. The affair ended at that time because Trump Jr.'s wife Vanessa allegedly found emails between the two. Vanessa and Trump Jr. had made up, but now, Vanessa has filed for a celebrity divorce on March 15.

Donald Trump Jr.'s celebrity break-up may have something to do with his infidelity. What are some signs that your partner is being unfaithful?

Cupid's Advice:

If things have just not been the same lately between you and your partner, there may be something sneaky occurring. Don't jump to conclusions, as we all have a tendency to do. But, if you notice any of these signs, sit down with your partner and have a mature conversation about the thoughts you are having. Here are some signs that indicate that your partner may be cheating:

1. Intimacy has halted: It is normal during long-time relationships that the intimacy between you two may slow down at points. If it has completely stopped and when you try to get close to your partner they back away constantly, then that is a red flag.

2. Constant private phone usage: If out of the blue your partner starts to use their phone a lot more often in a very private manner, then that is a little fishy. If your partner has always been a big phone user, then maybe it is normal. Ask them if they have something going on at work or another occurrence that may be causing them to use their phone instead of spending time with you.

3. Excuses: You and your partner should have an honest relationship where you make time for each other because you truly want to! If lately your partner is making an array of excuses as to why they can't meet up, you may need to get to the bottom of what is truly occurring.

According to EOnline.com, Iaconetti confirmed that the couple broke up less than a month after the Bachelor Winter Games finale. well, it's just there's a little something missing and you can't really pinpoint what it is. That's just how I feel." Wendt confirmed, saying, "I feel like that's normal and I feel like you get those connections all the time where if you take away our outside world and just put Ashley and me on an island together, we'd probably get along really well. And that's what Vermont was."

This celebrity break-up happened after a very short relationship. What are some ways to know your relationship doesn't have longevity early on?

Cupid's Advice:

For the most part, we want the relationships we enter to last. Sometimes there are signs to look out for to tell if the relationship is most likely going to hit a dead end down the line. Cupid has a few red flags to share, get ready for some relationship advice:

1. Lack of trust: Trust is built overtime, but if there is no amount of trust, then the relationship will likely end soon. Trust is essential and can make or break a relationship. Consider the following: do you not trust them because of your own issues or actually because of them? Sometimes we have trouble trusting people, not because of what they do or the way they are, but because of what we've been through before them. This is something to consider before you go crazy over not trusting them, and thinking your relationship won't last. However, at the end, you need to learn to trust those who have earned it.

2. You can't agree on anything: There are certain things you should be agreeing on. It's okay to have differences in opinion, but if you can't agree on things like goals and the future, then this is a red flag. There should be some similarities when it comes to the important stuff. To add on, when disagreeing on things, the situation shouldn't get out of hand. You should be able to approach and get through the conversation calmly, not always ending in a fight— so this is something else to also look out for.

3. Commitment issues: The inability to fully commit to you and the relationship is an obvious red flag. But that is not the only thing we mean when we say commitment issues. There are other things to look out for. If you notice that your partner in general has an inability to commit to things, then that's a possible red flag that you guys won't work out. In a successful relationship, we need consistency and devotion. If your partner isn't dedicated, responsible, or is unable to pull through with their obligations, then it's a definite bad sign. We need someone we can count on at the end of the day.

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, celebrity couple Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez put their relationship on hold due to her family's disapproval of Bieber, according to UsMagazine.com. "Selena and Justin decided to take a break mainly because of Selena's mom and her disapproval of Justin," a source said. "Justin's family loves Selena, but Selena's family has put her in a very conflicting spot because they still don't trust Justin. Selena has tried to convince her family that Justin has changed ... but her family just isn't budging right now." Because Gomez's relationship with Mommy Dearest was affected after she got back with Bieber, there is tons of pressure and negativity in the air. "It's been hard for her because she is super close with her mom. Her mom was her rock when she was having her health complications," the source added. "Justin and Selena decided to take a break to give her family some more time to heal and take in the idea of her and Justin being a couple again." As if that's not enough, Bieber "doesn't care about anyone but himself," another source said. "The second she saw it, she walked away, especially now with her health. She knows she doesn't need him." Let's see what happens in this messy situation.

This celebrity break-up is said to be sparked by Selena's mom. What are some ways to deal with a parent who doesn't like your significant other?

Cupid's Advice:

Being with and loving someone who your fam does not approve of can be stressful and just plain hard. Cupid has some love advice on things to consider and how to deal with a parent not liking your partner:

1. Consider if your partner is worth the fight: This may sound harsh, but if you're close to your family, you have to evaluate this. Is this person for right now or are you guys both thinking long-term? You have to assess the seriousness of your relationship before you go jumping through hoops for a person that may not be there in the not-so-distant future.

2. Communicate with your family and partner: If you're serious about your partner, then you have to talk with both parties about the situation. First talk to your fam. Express to them your feelings about the person and relationship, and don't forget to include how the disapproval is affecting you. Do the same with your partner –discuss your feelings about them and your family, along with the way their disapproval of them is affecting you and your relationship. Sometimes it will take more than communicating, but communicating constantly is important.

3. Take some time apart if needed: This may not work for everyone, but it may work for Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber, we'll see. Taking a break isn't ideal for every relationship, so you must know if it is something that is convenient and can help yours. Taking time apart may show your family that you really care about their opinions and it can even show them how you are affected by not being with your partner. This should not be taken as a sign of submission, but as a way to cope in the meantime.

We shall see!

In this celebrity news, Jelena are dealing with some relationship issues. What are some ways to get through a tough period in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

No relationship is perfect, we must know this. When problems arise, we must face them head on in order to make our relationship work. Cupid has some love advice on how to get past those rough patches:

1. Communicate effectively: You will always get this dandy piece of advice when it comes to relationships! Communicating effectively is essential. It may seem like a no-brainer, but people have different communication styles, and many do not know how to communicate properly. The important thing is to listen intently, process what your partner is saying, consider their stance and feelings, and discuss your side of it as clearly and patiently as possible.

2. Never disrespect: Respect is similar to trust in the fact that once you disrespect someone, it opens up a whole world of problems like when you no longer trust someone. Always be considerate of your partner's point of view and feelings. If you care about someone deeply, why disrespect them. Sometimes this is easier said than done, because things can get heated. The key is to stay as relaxed as humanly possible and try to work things out with your other half.

3. Take space if needed: Jelena has the right idea here. Sometimes a couple just needs space. If this is the case, it is important that you both agree on it before taking this step. Create “guidelines” so that you are both on the same page and know what to expect during this period. Taking time apart can either help or hinder a relationship, so ponder this decision before making it to ensure it is the right one for your relationship.

Do you have similar plans for the future? Take time to really think about it and you can even try to spend two consecutive days with each of them to explore the best qualities in each.
