Celebrity Breakovers: Kardashian Breakups That Have Broken Necks & Other Helpful Relationship Advice

By Lori Zaslow and Jennifer Zucher for Project Soulmate with contributing writer Hana Gilbert

As healthier lifestyles have become a steady trend across the nation, the next generation grows more comfortable bringing health and fitness into their relationships. The latest craze that is catching fire is the breakover. What on earth is a breakover you may ask? Well, a breakover, otherwise known as the “revenge body,” is a complete reinvention of oneself. By changing one’s image through the transformation of mind and body as they shed both the pounds and people holding them back. If there was an award ceremony for Hollywood breakovers, spots one, two, and three belong to, yep, you guessed it, Khloe, Kourtney, and Kim Kardashian. Not only did their breakovers that focus on being fit, but also on staying fabulous, and falling back in love. In other words, the Kardashian sisters turned their breakups into breakovers and started breaking necks. Here’s some relationship advice that can help you achieve your own breakover.

Relationship Advice That Will Encourage You To Turn Breakups into Breakovers!

Be Fit Like Khloe: Khloe Kardashian’s breakover is probably the most significant of all time. Since her split from husband Lamar Odom in 2013, she has shed 35-pounds and transformed herself from “the fat, chubby, unhealthy sister of Kourtney and Kim,” to a gym enthusiast with a commitment to healthy living. Her breakover focused on finding self-love and independence after a devastating divorce, and she managed to break the bank as it inspired both her own book Strong Looks Better Naked and her own TV series, Revenge Body. Getting a “revenge body” after a breakup is one of the best ways to move on. Yes, you have the ability to show your ex what he or she is missing. More importantly, however, you gain the confidence you need to get through one of the most humiliating, insecure times in your life. Exercise has the ability to transform from the inside out. A breakover that focuses on fitness and healthy living not only improves how others view you, but how you view yourself. Trimming the fat includes both the extra relationship weight and the negative attitudes, vibes, and opinions surrounding the breakup. Breakups can leave you with a lot of free time. Instead of wallowing in self-pity and a pint of ice cream, do yourself a favor and sweat out your negative energy, thoughts and feelings. Your future self and significant other will thank you for it.

“Fitness is not about being better than someone else... It’s about being better than you used to be. I’m not where I want to be, and who knows if i ever will be.” – Khloe Kardashian

Be Fab Like Kourtney: Back in 2015, Kourtney Kardashian called it quits with long time love Scott Disick. After nine years and three children, Kourtney decided it was best if the couple spent some time apart. As Scott continued to spiral, Kourtney continued to squat, making her, hands-down MILF of the year. Although Kourtney flaunted her post-baby abs and cellulite-less tush, she gained most of her recognition from her Kylie-like fashion statements. The eldest of the three sisters had no shame in her game as she flaunted her revenge body in stylish crop tops, daisy dukes, and bodycons while rocking bold lips and eyes. How you dress after a breakup speaks volumes about how you’re handling the split. It is important to critique your style so that, although you’re an emotional mess on the inside, you project a classy lady who hasn’t lost her grace and dignity. Just like Kourtney, don’t be afraid to step outside your comfort zone and wear something you feel sexy in. Heels are also a breakover essential. Heels transform the way you look, from your legs up to your shoulders. You’ll be amazed at the level of confidence of few inches adds. Transform your normal makeup routine with sparks of glamour.

Don't be afraid to test a new lip color, or a sultry smokey eye. The glam additions will only further your confidence, helping you to love the new you in your new single life. The strong, confident face you see in the mirror now is the perspective you need to move on in the future.

Khloe – “Who calls you Queen?”

Kourtney – “Every single person on Twitter, Instagram, and anyone that meets me.”

Be Fallen Over in Love Like Kim: Although Kourtney and Khloe used physical attributes to motivate their breakovers, Kim Kardashian's breakover focused more on an emotional makeover. After her disastrous, 72-day marriage to Kris Humphries ended, Kim, just like the rest of us, was left heartbroken and humiliated. Opinions swirled regarding the two, adding to the emotional turmoil of the split. We all are aware of the drama that followed the split, and later Kanye's proposal of the century, so I'll just skip right to the most important part of Kim's breakover: Time... Time to heal, and time spent alone. Breakups, separations, and divorces are all nasty and affect all parties involved. All incur lingering heartache, while some experience a degree of guilt, issues and questions. None of which can be fixed or answered immediately. Yes, rebound hookups and dates make you feel uplifted in the moment, however those feelings are only temporary and don't resolve long term sorrow. A breakover that focuses on regaining independence, finding self-love, and taking the time to grow a friendship with your prospective partner is more important than jumping back in the saddle with the bartender at Chili's. Instead, try a slow burn relationship like Kim and Kanye to see your relationship from a different perspective. You meet, hangout, build a friendship, experience things separately, and then realize this person is actually your lifelong partner.

Give yourself enough time to heal from your previous relationships, and realize that you can stand on your own two feet. Get to know the friends you already have; you never know when one might just be “the one.” The honeymoon stage will wear off, but the passion from knowing your best friend on a deeper level never will.

*“I used to think, well, can you really have it all? The truth, the excitement, and the passion? Now I know you can.”
– Kim Kardashian*

You should also do your best to be yourself, because you'll only attract people you'd actually click with if you behave like your genuine self.

Russell Wilson Reveals 'Best Part' of His Celebrity Wedding Day

By Nicole Caico

Ciara and Seattle Seahawks QB Russell Wilson said “I do” at their celebrity wedding in England last week. Cupid’s Advice:

Take a page out of the Wilson’s book and plan a large wedding celebration. All of their friends and family were in attendance, and yours should be, too. There's no reason to skimp on your big day, so here are three reasons to have a large wedding celebration:

1. Lower stress: Having a large wedding celebration may sound more stressful, but it just might be less stressful. There is nothing worse than sitting down to make a guest list, deciding it's too long, and having to cross people off. Chances are if you put the person on the list, you don't want to cross them off. Planning a large wedding will save you the terrible feeling of crossing a friend off your list, and will also save you and your betrothed many arguments over the number of guests.

2. All the pieces of the puzzle: Whether a large wedding celebration refers to the actual number of people in attendance or just the general grandeur of the event, go big. Plan a budget that is within your means, but also allows you to have everything you want on your big day. Planning a large wedding celebration will ensure that every aspect will be the way you pictured it. You shouldn't skimp on your guest list, dress, food, or decor if you don't have to.

3. Party time: If there is no other reason, plan a large wedding celebration because at the end of the day, it's a party! Let loose and celebrate this new chapter in your life with all the people who are important to you. You can't have an awesome party with only 50 people, so just go for it!

2. Similar energy levels: Another important trait in finding your type is knowing how energetic you want them to be. If you like being active then you want someone that will be active with you. If you prefer low energy activities, you'll need someone who likes doing that as well. Dating a person who has an opposing energy level from your own is not the right type for you.

3. Mutual desire: Hopefully if you're trying to get into a serious relationship, you want someone who is attracted to you the same way you are to them. Don't try to force anything that isn't there. If you're not desiring to be in another's presence then they are not your type. A relationship without desire or passion is a friendship, go find someone who can satisfy your romantic needs.

3. Embrace it: Take it as a compliment that people are interested in your love life. If they aren't being nasty about it, it's harmless fun. When the gossip is cruel, that's when you need to consider their insecurities and see that it's not your fault or problem that they're involving themselves.

Cupid's Advice:

This kiss obviously caused some sparks for Henderson, if he is still talking about it. It leads us to believe that a kiss can tell us a lot about a new relationship. Cupid has some thoughts:

1. You should enjoy kissing your partner: Kissing, especially in a new relationship, should make you happy. You should be in a great mood and smile after getting a kiss from your partner. If you are not talking about your kiss years after it happens like Henderson, then there might be a lack of chemistry.

Kris Jenner Gives Her Best Dating Advice

By Jessica DeRubbo

Kris Jenner was all about giving some important dating advice on Elle.com recently, according to UsMagazine.com. Among other things, she discussed how the best way to live within singledom is to be yourself. She said, “Don’t try too hard. Because if you’re not your true self and putting on a lot of airs, then I think what’s going to happen is when you finally come up for air, it’s going to be really uncomfortable trying to keep up with that.” For the past two years, the reality TV star has been in a relationship with Corey Gamble, Justin Bieber’s former tour manager. She’s been through heartbreak with Bruce Jenner, and she’s certainly qualified to give important relationship advice to the masses.

This celebrity news shows those who have been through a lot are often times the best at giving dating advice. How do you know if a source is reliable for relationship advice?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes you're floundering in your relationship and you need reliable advice. The fact of the matter is, not all dating advice is created equal. Cupid has some tips that the advice you're getting is legit:

1. It's substantiated: Whether it's through academic research or tons of experience, the advice someone is giving you needs to be substantiated in some way. Don't just take someone's word for it. Always ask, "Why?"

Related Link: Dating Advice: How To Get Noticed on Dating Sites

2. The book is published through a big name publisher: If you're getting your advice by reading a book, it's often a good sign if the book was published by one of the well-known publishers. Often times independent publishers release 100 copies of a book, and those aren't the ones you want to take as a say all end all.

3. You're close to the person giving the advice: Obviously family and friends only want you to be happy, so they aren't going to purposely steer you in the wrong direction. What they say probably holds more truth than someone who's a stranger and is spouting off ideas.

Relationship Advice: How to Make This Valentine's Day Special for Your Loved One

By Amy Osmond Cook for Divorce Support Center

In 1653, a Mughal emperor shared with the world a token of his tragic yet enduring love for his favorite wife Muntaz Mahal, who died during childbirth. Today, the emperor and his wife have all but blended into the annals of ancient history, but the symbol of his love remains as the gleaming white marble 42-acre structure known as the Taj Mahal. While most public expressions of affection don't end up being a timeless wonder, many of today's celebrities make their mark in different and extravagant ways. As a relationship expert, I wanted to give you some unique ideas to celebrate Valentine's Day. Here's some relationship advice on how to say "I love you" to the special person in your life, like these celebrity couples.

Relationship Advice: Making Valentine's Day Special Like The Hollywood Stars

1. Share a little bit of nature. I'm not talking about cut flowers or baskets of posies. With a little bit of creativity, you can find a bit of nature that symbolizes the unique relationship and love you share. For example, Angelina Jolie purchased an olive tree to give to her husband, Brad Pitt. Angie may have spent $18,500 on this olive tree, but you can find something just as special but much more affordable. Aloe Vera plants, palms, fruit trees, and flowering plants are excellent alternatives to cut flowers. Also, some companies manufacture innovative bouquets made out of alternative materials that last forever and offer unique scents. Ecoflower.com designs arrangements using environmentally friendly and recycled materials like wood, paper, recycled jewelry among other things, and they will provide any scent you like such as raspberry, musk or lemon.

2. Share a wardrobe indulgence. For Jessica Simpson, that meant getting a $15,000 Birkin bag from her husband, Eric Johnson. For the rest of us, receiving a smart jacket, a silk scarf, a sparkling bracelet, or snazzy boots can generate the same feeling of confidence at one-third of the price. I recall a young newlywed presented his wife with a necklace made of aquamarine. It wasn't the most valuable of gems, but the color reminded him of his wife's eyes.

Related Link: Valentine's Day Special: How To Have An Irresistible Online Dating Profile for Valentine's Day

3. Share an experience. Angelina Jolie bought Brad Pitt flying lessons. Of course, she threw in the helicopter for good measure. Beyonce found a million-dollar token to share with husband, Jay-Z, when she presented him with a Grand Sport, reportedly one of the top performing and most expensive cars on the market. For you, a shared experience may be a hike to a cherished location, or a picnic in a secluded spot. Most people will tell you the things are nice, but sometimes it's the thought behind the gift that counts the most. A friend who lived by an Olympic training site bought her husband a ride on the bobsled track used in the 2002 Winter Olympics. It was an experience he will never forget.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Check Out Rebel Wilson's Video Valentine's Day Message to Justin Bieber

With Valentine's Day approaching, it seems the extravagant gifts is what makes the news. The relationship advice to remember is that Valentine's Day doesn't have an audience nor does it need a giant price tag. It's an opportunity for you to share a moment, a knowing exchange, a personal connection that is meaningful for the two people that matter the most—you and your loved one.
