Middle-aged women often think that men their age only want to date younger women, but that's not always true. According to this relationship advice video, it really just depends. If a man is going through a divorce and experiences a mid-life crisis, he may feel the need to date a younger woman to validate himself or make him feel desirable. If a man wants children, he'll be attracted to women of childbearing years.

As this dating expert explains, there are also men, though, who aren't going through a life change or don't want children and will date people closer to their age. For the most part, men want to date someone within 10 years of their age.

Related Link: How to Kick That Bad Relationship to the Curb

1. He met someone else: While it may be hard to accept, until you're in a committed, monogamous relationship, he's free to date multiple people at once – and so are you!

2. He already has someone: You may be the other woman and not even know it. If he suddenly stops calling, there's a chance he's focusing all of his attention on his girlfriend or wife. Unfortunately, some men enjoy the thrill of cheating.

3. He just wants sex: He may want sex without any strings attached. If so, if you don't give him what he wants, he'll disappear.

4. He's bored: He may think your relationship has become predictable and mundane. In that case, he may stop calling without any explanation.

If you're dating a man who disappears, it's important to remember that he's doing you a favor: Any guy who leaves without an explanation isn't the right one for you!
