

Love & Libations: Tequila Cocktails To Sip Like a Celebrity

by Yolanda Shoshana

While everyone talks about Champagne being sexy, the seduction of tequila is starting to be known. It's been said that women who drink tequila make fabulous lovers. Being a tequila drinker, I won't confirm or deny these claims. You will have to do your own field research to see it if it's true.

Tequila: a Seductive Spirit for Date Night

It makes sense that celebrities keep selecting tequila as a business they want to get into; the rich and famous always want to be a part of the hottest and sexiest thing. From Justin Timberlake, to Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson, Toby Keith, Carlos Santana, and on and on, tequila is the hottest trend. It would be nice to see a few female celebrities come out with a tequila, as well. Imagine if Cardi B. got into the tequila game; it would be lit.

If you want to sip tequila like a celebrity, be ready for National Tequila Day on July 24th. Below are suggestions for cocktails made with two hot brands to help you celebrate the day. Either rock it with your friends or just the one you love. Stay strong and get your tequila on.

At this point everybody knows that George Clooney and Rande Gerber are a part of Casamigos Tequila. They made so much money selling it, Clooney has boasted that he never has to work again. The main reason they got into tequila was so they could have one to drink while hanging out. Clooney is legendary for entertaining with food and drinks. I'm still waiting on my invite, it must be lost in the mail.

Casamigos is the go-to tequila when you are having your friends and family over. Since Clooney married Amal, his tequila soirees are now filled with deep conversations of politics and economics. You don't have to aim for that, unless that's how you want to spend the night. Maybe just a night of tacos and tequila. Who wouldn't love that for their next date night?

Two well-known crooners, Adam Levine and Sammy Hager, created a unique libation by mixing tequila and mezcal together for the world's first "mezquila," called Santo Puro Mezquila. The spirit came to life after Levine and Hager were drinking together in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico. They were probably a tad tipsy when they decided to mix tequila and mezcal, but they both liked the taste so much they decided to make mezquila a real thing. Leave it to one of the sexiest men alive to come up with a libation that features not one, but two sensuous spirits in a bottle. Santo is the drink that is perfect for a relaxing evening at home while listening to a playlist with a little Maroon 5.

Adam Levine & Pregnant Wife Behati Prinsloo Are Expecting a Second Baby Girl

y Rachel Sparks

Celebrity couple Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo are expecting their second celebrity baby, and it's going to be another girl! According to UsMagazine, Adam Levine shared the baby gender news on the Ellen DeGeneres Show November 7th. When asked if they would be having more children, the expecting couple claim they both want a lot more children. We can't wait to see the family these two beauties build together!

This celebrity news has the girls outweighing the boys in Adam Levine's household! What are some ways to help your husband deal with an all-girl family?

Cupid's Advice:

Family dynamics are an important aspect as couples decide to have another child. Oftentimes, though, parents only think about how the older child(ren) will adapt to being an older child. But how do parents change as their family grows, especially when one gender is outnumbered? Read Cupid's parenting advice below:

1. Model through Mom: Children watch how their parents interact, and this sets the basis for a lot of their future relationships. When you're raising all daughters, the girls watch how mom and dad read each other. If you want to raise confident young women with high standards, show them what those standards should be by treating your spouse right.

2. Don't shy away as she grows: The whole family gets pretty terrified as the little ladies in the family start to grow up. Teenage years are terrible for everyone in the family, but don't shy away. The pre-teen years are especially important for developing the adult minds, so be careful of too much distance, even if that seems like what they want. Be there, be supportive, be present.

3. Date her: Put aside the Oedipal complex and realize that your role as the most important man in your daughter's life really does effect the future of her relationships with men. That's a lot of pressure. Take your daughter out for dates for genuine connection, but you'll also teach her how she should be treated. Make sure to spend authentic time with each of the kids alone to nourish both the present and the future for your children.

Fitness Tips: 5 Couple Exercises That Are Worth the Sweat

y Rachel Sparks

Now that the holidays are over, we're no doubt regretting some of those holiday treats we consumed. The cold keeps us in, the sweets come out, and we're juggling between moments of extreme stress and joy with friends and family so our eating habits are erratic at best. Right after that came the new year with the promises we made to lose the weight we gained over the past couple of months. Let's break that cycle now by taking a cue from celebrity couples like Jennifer Lopez and Alex Rodriguez and start working out with our S.O's.

The hottest fitness tips start with you and your partner breaking a sweat together.

Working out makes us feel great about ourselves, but make it even better by doing it with your partner. Celebrity couples who work out together boast of strong bonds with their partner. There's nothing but good reasons to exercise with your partner, so grab them up off the couch and get going!

1. Hiking: We're starting easy and free (usually). If you or your partner are new to the exercising world, hiking is a great way to cheat the mind into thinking you're not working out. You can control your path, mileage, and speed so it's a great way to get into shape with a motivating view.

Related Link: Let Your Partner Be Your Inspiration to Getting and Staying Fit

2. Kayaking: Another way to trick those who hate traditional exercise into getting active involves another outdoor sport—kayaking. Most rental kayaks offer an option to share a two-butt kayak. It's a great workout for the arms and it challenges your communication and teamwork.

3. Rock Climbing: Let's keep it safe and stick with indoor rock climbing gyms until that confidence and strength has built up. The latest celebrity trend involves rock climbing gyms, but beware that there's a fair amount of trust involved. Your partner usually holds onto the rope that keeps you secure as you climb. When your arms start shaking, there's no better feeling than your S.O. cheering you on.

4. Kick Boxing: Don't do this when you're mad at your S.O. Or at least, don't miss the bag as you throw your anger-fueled upper cut and knock your partner in the teeth. It's a great way to relieve stress and learn self-defense in addition. Take turns on the offense and defense and offer each other constructive criticism. Hot celebrity couple Chris Hemsworth and Elsa Pataky are known to practice kick boxing together.

5. Yoga: Yogi's make intense positions look effortless, but be warned: there is a fair amount of knowledge and practice that goes into this sport. Couples who practice together help strength fine-tune muscles and flexibility. Bonus: you can do some really cool arial tricks together. Adam Levine and his wife Behati Prinsloo have been pictured holding plank together. And yes, holding your favorite position is an integral part of yoga.

Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo will have their hands full with two celebrity babies. What are three tips to help parents handle young children so close in age?

Cupid's Advice:

This couple is soon going to be welcoming their second celebrity baby into the world. While it's an exciting time, it can also be super stressful. Check out these tips if you're nervous about having young children so close in age:

1. Remember the benefits: When you start to get overwhelmed, try your best to remember all of the positives of having two kids close in age. Your kids will most likely be close in terms of their relationship; you'll be able to use hand-me-downs from your first child; and they will be able to do activities together when they're older. Try to be thankful that they'll have a good sibling dynamic!

2. Hand-me-downs are all the rage: If you saved your first child's clothes and you're expecting another baby of the same sex, this is the perfect opportunity to break them out and put them to use again. You can reuse baby clothes, towels, toys, and more for the new baby to-be. It will save you a ton of money in the long run. Plus, it'll be cute to compare pictures of both kids in the same outfits or playing with the same toys.

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes we struggle with creative ways to say, "Happy Birthday." Here are some ways to express sincere gratitude to your partner on their birthday:

1. Handmade items: Try to think of something fun and creative to make your significant other for their birthday. For instance, you might consider a collage depicting fun memories in your relationship or a book of DIY coupons. Nothing shows sincerity like a personalized or handmade gift!

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone can use a little help on how to handle having a new baby. Lucky for you, Cupid is here to give out a little parenting advice:

1. Baby clothes: While some gender neutral clothes will work in a pinch, having a girl requires a whole new wardrobe. Head down to your local baby store and pick up a few feminine outfits. Be sure to keep an eye out for those adorable headbands to make the outfits complete.

Being in a committed relationship with someone is a wonderful experience, and when the two of you decide that it's time to get hitched, your love reaches a new level. You both care for and trust each other enough that you're willing to commit for the rest of your lives. Here are a few perks that go along with being a married couple:

1. Honeymoon phase: One thing that people always talk about is the so-called honeymoon phase that newlyweds experience. There is an overwhelming sense of joy now that your wedding is finally over. It's time to relax and just enjoy each other's company as a married couple.

What are three exciting things to do right after tying the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding is supposed to be one of the best days of your life, but that doesn't mean you can't have amazing fun afterwards! Most couples go on their honeymoon soon after their wedding, but maybe you want to take it a step further and kick it up a notch. These ideas will help you keep that giddy newlywed feeling alive long after you've said 'I do':

1. Go on a cross-country road trip. Instead of going the traditional route and going to the beach for your honeymoon, take some extra time to explore the entire country! Start in your hometown and make your way around until you've come full circle. You'll get a variety of exciting experiences, and you'll get to share them all with your new spouse. Not to mention this is a great opportunity to take tons of cool pictures together like Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo.

2. Take a mission trip together. Share your happiness with the people of the world and use your honeymoon time and money to help those who have less. Travel as a couple to a place where you can (safely) do charity work and immerse yourself in a foreign culture. It's an experience you can tell your children about and remember as a couple for many years to come.

3. Work on a big-time project. This could be a number of things, whether it's building your dream house or writing a book together. The process will let you become closer as a couple and the result is a testimony of how much you can accomplish together. Imagine how proud you'll feel when you can tell your friends and family "we built this together".

Behati Prinsloo Has 'Definite' Plans to Have Kids with Adam Levine

y Shannon Seibert

Newlyweds Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo may be celebrating their honeymoon in South Africa but the happy couple has even bigger plans for when they return. After a fun and extravagant wedding, what more could there be? Well, the Victoria's Secret model revealed in a recent interview with Net-a-Porter that she and the Maroon 5 singer had "definite" plans for kickstarting a family together. According to UsMagazine.com, Prinsloo told Net-a-Porter: "I have no expectations. Not in a bad way, but I've learned that you can't plan ahead. I live day by day and see what happens."

What are some ways to decide when to have kids?

Cupid's Advice:

In theory, first comes love, marriage, and then, presumably, a baby carriage. After the dust settles after getting married, couples' thoughts jump to "Now what?" Marriage and babies have always gone hand in hand, but you want to make sure that you're fully prepared to take the next step towards starting a family. Consider these three criteria when your baby fever starts showing symptoms, you want to be ready for the moment that a little heart beat on the monitor that will change everything:

1. You're financially stable: According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, parents will spend an average of $235,000 to raise a child born in 2011 to the age of 17. Now imagine if you want 3 children. Although seemingly expensive, the experiences of children are ultimately priceless. You'll never find a bond stronger than the bond between parent and child. But to get there, you want to make sure you'll be able to meet all of your child's needs when necessary. Take some time to budget your finances and prioritize what is important and what is needed to start your beautiful family.

Related: Daniel Radcliffe Says He Loves the 'Idea of Lots of Kids'

2. You've been able to enjoy being married, first: The minute you bring your first little miracle into the world is the minute that it isn't just you and your man anymore. Take it a day at a time like Behati Prinsloo and Adam Levine. There will never again be a time where all you have to do is provide for you and your husband. Take this time before children and enjoy each other's company. Go on trips together, go on as many dates as you can, and focus on the endless love that your relationship has brought each other. This period of happiness will bring you many fond memories down the road, and even greater stories to tell your future children.

Related: Kate Hudson Would Marry Fiance Matt Bellamy 'For the Kids'

3. There is no more room for doubt: Being a parent is the most rewarding, frightening, and strenuous unpaid job. You ultimately become responsible for the life of another human being until they can manage on their own. You may accumulate a few grey hairs throughout the process, but it's worth it. When you're young you may feel like having children is what you're supposed to do, when in reality it should be a choice of whether or not you want to. Make sure you're in a place where you are ready to accept your role as a parent and that you're definitely ready to build a family.

Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo's wedding reception was one for the history books as guests raved about the party to People.com. "Everyone was having so much fun," one source said. "Adam and Behati couldn't stop smiling the entire night." The reception, held at Flora Farms in Los Cabos, Mexico, included musical performances from Stevie Nicks, Maroon 5, Sublime, and bride Prinsloo herself. The food was all organic and the speeches "had guests laughing".

How do you make your reception memorable?

Cupid's Advice:

While the wedding itself is important, the reception is what everyone really looks forward to. It included everyone, and usually it's a lot of fun. Many receptions follow the same basic structure including a toast by the best man and maid of honor, the first dance as man and wife, and then an open dance floor. These are great traditions, but there are many ways to spice it up and make your reception something special:

1. Have the wedding party do a special dance. Coordinated wedding party dances are becoming very popular. They're fun, unique, and encourage others to get up and dance. If your wedding party is up to it, treat your guests to a fun and entertaining routine.

Related: Adam Levine Marries Behati Prinsloo in Mexico

2. Include guest activities like a photo booth. Party games and activities let guests enjoy themselves even if they don't like dancing. These fun events can be a number of things, and they're bound to be a hit if you put enough creativity and effort into them. These activities can even lead to great reception memories like photos or take-home crafts.

3. Do a bit of couple karaoke. Use Levine and Prinsloo's wedding as an example! Have the bride, groom, or both sing a song that means a lot to them. Even if the singer doesn't have a particularly great voice, the crowd will still support them. After all, it's their wedding day!

Adam Levine Marries Behati Prinsloo in Mexico

by Shannon Seibert

Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo are officially married. The couple tied the knot in a glamorous tent at Flora Farms in Los Cabos, Mexico on Saturday, July 19. About 300 guests joined them in the tropical paradise, bringing with them charitable donations instead of wedding gifts. The star-studded wedding was filled with many of Prinsloo's fellow Victoria's Secret Angels, Levine's band members, and other celebrity guests. The beautiful pair will be spending their honeymoon in the terrain of South Africa, according to UsMagazine.com.

Where are three unique tropical wedding destinations?

Cupid's Advice:

Tropical paradises are wonderful havens for romantic destination weddings. The crystal clear water, the island breeze, and the unique landscapes all create the picture-perfect venue for an island wedding. Just as it did for Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo, tropical scenery can only spice up your love. We've researched and have found these three unique tropical destination sites that could be the perfect place to host your special day:

1. Aruba: Is one of the smallest islands on the map and it encompasses a ton of island-based activities. Cliff jumping, cave dwelling, and concentrated waterfalls are all beautiful sites to see and things to do on the minuscule piece of paradise. Aruba also has multi-colored villages, spreading over areas lighting the scenery with brightly painted homes, shops, and other buildings, rendering it perfect wedding material.

2. Santorini: Grecian paradise straight out of a movie scene, Santorini hosts a lot of tourism and large events. It is a popular destination due to its beautiful white buildings, white beaches, and white towers. In Santorini there are also tons of wineries that could be beautiful spots to host an outside ceremony, or a bachelorette wine tasting. There is a beautiful view at every corner and is said to have some of the most beautiful sunrises and sunsets across the globe.

3. Tahiti: White beaches surrounded by dramatic mountain peaks sounds like a perfect wedding photo opportunity. Tahiti is remote in destination and is secluded enough for a tropical getaway without the burden of tourism. The islands of Tahiti are a great source of relaxation, with limited technology and lavish resorts, Tahiti could even be the destination for your honeymoon.

Adam Levine on His Upcoming Wedding: 'It All Feels Very Natural'

“Here comes the bride . . .” And groom! Adam Levine is ready to get his hands dirty in the wedding planning business. The 35-year-old Maroon 5 singer told People, “I definitely feel like I’m sitting in the chair I’m supposed to be sitting in right now,” said Levine. “It all feels very natural.” In case you missed it, ‘The Voice’ judge is set to marry Victoria’s Secret model Behati Prinsloo. And his thoughts on what the wedding will be like? “It won’t be typical, I can tell you that.”

How can the groom be more involved in wedding plans?

Cupid's Advice:

Believe it or not, a groom can actually take part in the wedding planning (seems quite bizarre since so many bridezillas exist). Your husband-to-be can actually bring many great, festive ideas to the table. Cupid has a few ways to include him in all of the madness:

1. Ask for his creative insight: Does your love have an eye for art? He could possibly offer some great suggestions when it comes to choosing colors, decorations, and arrangements. Do not be afraid to ask for his opinion. It could lead to fabulous wedding pictures and endless compliments.

The smooth and sexy Adam Levine admits that he was anything but sexy and smooth when it came to proposing to his girlfriend (now fiancé) Behati Prinsloo. The Maroon 5 singer was quoted in UsMagazine.com saying, "It doesn't matter how certain you think you are, you still get down on that knee, and you get woozy, and you're like, 'I'm doing this, oh my god.' You can't be confident about it. I'm a confident person, but I got on that knee and everything changed immediately. I lost my equilibrium. I had to get on the other one."

How do you calm your nerves before a marriage proposal?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're not at least a little nervous about proposing, you're probably not human. This is the rest of your life we're talking about! But if it all goes well, it will make your life so much better than you could ever imagine. So take care of those nerves and get down on one knee, because this is the question that will change you forever.

1. Think positive! You love this person, and if you're proposing then you must have some sense of confidence in the thought that you're meant to be together forever. If you have a strong relationship and you're truly in love with this person, there's a good chance they'll say yes. So stop thinking about the negatives, because it won't do you any good.

2. Focus on the details. The best way to banish nerves is to keep yourself busy. There's no better way to stay busy and ensure the perfect proposal than to plan out every detail of how you'll pop the question. Even if it's going to be simple, you have to plan the what, when, where, and how. Busy yourself with this important planning and you won't have time to worry about the 'what ifs'.

3. Drop some hints. If you absolutely can't calm yourself down and have to know ahead of time whether or not this proposal will end the way you want it to, try dropping hints. Don't be too obvious, but bring up the topic of long-term plans in conversation and see how your partner reacts. Gauge their reaction, and if it's positive, you have your green light to go for the question and you can stop doubting yourself.

Adam Levine Reaches Out to Ex-Girlfriends

y Laura Seaman

Adam Levine is trying to make things right before his marriage to model Behati Prinsloo. The singer's ex-girlfriends, including Anne Vyalitsyna and Nina Agdal, "couldn't care less he wants to make it right," a source tells UsMagazine.com. Levine's relationship with Agdal had ended when he started ignoring her class and then texting her about him and Prinsloo's engagement. This didn't stop Levine though, as an insider said, "He apologized for how he treated them."

How can you remain civil with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

When relationships end, there's usually a broken heart and hurt feelings involved. These feelings can sometimes make it difficult to forgive and forget, but in the end it's better not to burn bridges and lose everything you had. Yes, it ended for a reason, but it also started for a reason; you liked each other at one point:

1. Don't push your anger and heartbreak onto the other person. It might be tempting to yell and blame the other person for everything, but sometimes relationships just end, and that's not your ex's fault. Handle the situation with grace and let it end peacefully. Save the yelling and ranting for when you're alone.

2. Don't talk bad about your ex, even to friends. The hurt of a breakup can make people say things they don't mean, and this leads to rumors getting out of hand or insults getting back to your ex. You never know who will pass on what you said, and if your ex hears some of the things you wish you hadn't said, it might drive a bigger wedge between you.

3. Do try to keep in contact once in a while. You don't have to talk about the relationship, or why it ended. That would be a bit too awkward. Just ask them how things are going, how their family is doing, and what they've been up to. Ignoring each other will just make it even more uncomfortable if you ever run into each other.

What are some ways to cope with an abrupt breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes breakups happen quickly, and there's nothing you can do about it. Cupid has some advice on how to deal:

1. Spend time with friends: After you go through a breakup, it's a good idea to spend some time catching up with your loved ones. They'll be there to lend you a shoulder to cry on and they won't pass any judgment on you.

2. Keep busy: One of the best things you can do after a sudden breakup is keep yourself distracted. Continue to carry on with your daily routine as you normally would do. Hang out with your family and friends. Take up a few new hobbies. Over time, you won't need as many distractions, but for now, it'll help with the pain you might be feeling.

3. Pamper yourself: Take yourself out on a "me" day. Get a makeover or spend the day relaxing at a spa. Don't just spend your time pondering on what could have been. You're single now, so that mean you need to be the best "you" you can be for the next cute girl/guy who catches your eye.

Adam Levine's rep told People that The Voice judge, 34 and Victoria's Secret Angel, 24 are back together and getting married. "Adam Levine and his girlfriend Behati Prinsloo are excited to announce they are engaged to be married. The couple recently reunited and Adam proposed this weekend in Los Angeles.” The couple began dating last year and had a brief split late spring.

How do you know you're ready to get married?

Cupid's Advice:

So, you've been thinking about tying the knot. You've been with your significant other for awhile now and it's only natural to start thinking about taking the next step. How do you if you're really ready for marriage? Cupid has some advice:

1. Know your partner's expectations: Before you head down to the altar, make sure you're aware of what your partner expects from you. As far as life goals go, if the two of you aren't on the same page, getting married might not be the best decision. Do you want to live in the same place as your future spouse does? Is he/she where she wants to be career-wise? Will children be added into the equation soon? Ask yourself these questions before you make a trip to the jewelry store.

2. Commitment: You must be prepared to fully commit to your love. Once you're married, there's no running away (unless you count divorce, but no one wants that). Sometimes, you'll have to make sacrifices and you will have to learn how to be completely selfless. If you still enjoy the perks of living as a bachelor/bachelorette, pump the brakes on the wedding plans and wait until you're ready to work with your partner as a unit.

3. You have that "feeling": When most people meet "The One," they just know that he/she is person they're supposed to spend the rest of their life with. It's hard to explain to anyone else, but you know in your heart that you're ready to make the ultimate commitment. As a couple, the two of you have been through many ups and downs, but through it all you have still managed to make your relationship the best it can be. You know everything isn't perfect, but you're ready to take that leap of faith anyway.

An insider told UsMagazine.com that the Maroon 5 frontman is “having fun” with the Sports Illustrated model but that their relationship is “still new.” That’s not to say that Levine is against the possibility of marriage, though. I want to probably be married at some point.”

What are some ways to announce your relationship to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Introducing your new girlfriend or boyfriend to the people in your life can be intimidating. Cupid has some ideas:

1. Show your partner off: Invite your friends to meet your new beau somewhere where his or her talent's really shine. For example, if your new partner is bilingual, you might consider inviting your friends to a restaurant where your partner can show off his or her linguistic skills by ordering in another language.

2. Avoid dinners: Advice #1 set aside, if you are particularly nervous about what your friends might think, it might be best not to stage the introduction at a meal. While it is the traditional setting for such get-togethers, eating is a stationary activity and so there is little to distract you from awkward pauses and failed attempts at humor if your friends don't take to your partner right away.

3. Skype: If distance or hectic schedules separate you from friends and family, go ahead and announce your relationship via Skype. It's far more intimate than a phone call or Facebook because it offers your friends and family to opportunity to both see and talk to your new partner.

Celebrity Couple: Adam Levine Dating Nina Agdal After

Behati Prinsloo Split

y April Littleton

According to comments made to UsMagazine.com by multiple insiders, the Maroon 5 singer Adam Levine has been dating Sports Illustrated supermodel Nina Agdal since early spring. Levine was recently linked to Victoria's Secret Angel Behati Prinsloo, whom he began dating in May 2012. A source close to Levine said, "Behati was in and out, but they finally ended it. It wasn't an abrupt ending." Levine has yet to comment publicly on their split.

When is it the right time to start dating someone new after a recent breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting over a breakup can be rough, especially when you're faced with the option of getting back in the dating pool. People move on at different speeds. Some can get back in the game in a matter of weeks, while others take months to fully feel OK with the idea of giving their heart away again. Ultimately, if and when you decide to date again is entirely up to you. To help make the decision a little easier, Cupid has some tips:

1. Mentally ready: Have you played around with the idea of moving on? If it hasn't even crossed your mind yet, then it's not the right time to let someone into your life. Don't rush yourself into dating someone new when your head is still filled with memories of your ex. Getting into a relationship you're not ready for will just make matters worse for you and your potential beau.

2. Emotionally ready: Have you stopped doodling your ex's name all over your notebook? If you have, it's safe to say you're ready to open yourself up to new love and possibilities. Do you still get emotional every time you hear "your song" on the radio? If you still tear up when that song plays and every little thing reminds you of your former boo, you still need time to heal.

3. You've met someone: If you have already met someone who completely takes your mind off of your former flame, this may be a small sign that you are ready to start dating again. If you find yourself thinking more about the new guy than your ex, you might want to consider taking things to the next level.
