How can pets bring you closer as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting a pet is a huge decision to make as a couple. It's a living, breathing creature that needs your dedication and teamwork to be happy. It needs love, attention, and basic caretaking. It's not a child, but after a while you might come to love it like one. Here are some ways a pet can make you fall in love and make your love for your partner even stronger:

1. A pet is a shared interest. At this point it should be clear that you both want a pet, and that's one thing on a long list of traits you most likely share. However, this interest is more than a hobby. It's the desire to take care of an animal, and that's a very strong common trait to have. Not only does it mean you love animals, but it means you're willing to be responsible.

2. Your teamwork will be stronger. As long as you both put in the work, this pet will bring you closer as a team. Maybe you haven't worked on many projects together, but this pet is a project that you're responsible for. As it grows and becomes a part of the family, you and your partner can see just how great your work together can be.

3. It's a step in commitment. A pet is usually one of the first steps in creating a family. It's sort of a pre-child test. After all, if you can't take care of a dog, how can you take care of a person? This pet adds a sense of permanence to the relationship as well. The pet is something you both own and can call 'yours' not just 'his' or 'hers'.

What are some ways to personalize your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting married? It can be overwhelming with all of the different aspects that need to be planned. Here are some ways on how to make sure your wedding is personalized:

1. You make the decisions: Sometimes it's difficult to remember that it's your big day; not your mother's, your sister's or your mother-in-law's. Instead of trying to make everyone else happy, at the end of the day it's all about you and your fiancé.

2. Share your story: It's your wedding, your relationship and your story. Don't be afraid to include some details celebrating your relationship with your partner that not everyone may understand. As long as you and your groom appreciate the detail, that's all that matters.

3. Stay on track: It's easy to get caught up in all of the different choices and latest trends. Try to stay on the track of what you originally had in mind rather than being swayed by the latest wedding trends and what your family wants included.
