

Celebrity News: 'DWTS' Alan Bersten Calls Hannah Brown a 'Female Version' of Him

By Meghan Khameraj

In celebrity news, DWTS pro Alan Bersten calls Bachelorette alum a “female version” of himself, according to UsMagazine.com. Bersten also revealed, “Honestly, I’ve said it before. I just want Hannah to win...it’s incredible for a pro to get a mirror ball, but it’s all about Hannah’s journey, and she’s grown so much. Even though we’re a team, I want her to win. I guess if I’m a part of that I’ll take the mirror ball!” This potential famous couple has sparked celebrity relationship rumors since the season began in September. The rumors got even more intense after Brown brought Bersten as her date to the Country Music Awards. The pair, however, have denied that they are anything more than friends.

In celebrity news, Alan says his DWTS partner is a female version of him. What are some benefits of dating someone similar to yourself?

Cupid's Advice:

While Brown and Bersten are adamant that they are just friends, there are still many benefits of dating someone who is similar to yourself. Cupid has some relationship advice to help you determine the benefits of dating someone who is similar to you:

1. You like (and dislike) the same things: Every relationship, whether romantic or platonic, is based on the foundation that you have something in common. However, when you're dating someone who is similar to yourself you go beyond just a few common interests. You both tend to like and dislike the same things which can make decision-making much easier.

2. You can be yourself around them: There are few things worse than having to pretend that you're someone you're not. Luckily, if you and your partner are similar then there is no need to hide who you truly are. Being in a relationship with someone who is just like yourself allows you to be more free and open.

3. You finish each other's...: Sandwiches! Just kidding, sentences! More times than not, you two will be on the same page so when an issue arises you and your partner are more likely to solve the issue than argue about how to solve the issue. Besides making disagreements less frequent, being on the same page as your partner allows you to make wonderful and spontaneous memories.

There are rumors that Hannah Brown is part of a new celebrity couple with her DWTS partner! What are some ways working hard with someone can lead to love?

Cupid’s Advice:

It's okay to not know where your relationship is heading at the beginning stages. You could be really good friends, or you may develop feelings for each other. Cupid can help you with establishing if this might be love:

1. Connect with them: When you get to spend more time with someone, your connection grows deeper. The more time you spend with them, the better you get to know them. Finding out things like what their favorite food is and what movies they like to watch is a great way to bond with each other.

2. Start to hang out more: You and this person might just be friends, but if you start to hang out with him or her without anyone else around, it's a step toward something more. If he's picking up your favorite coffee for you or buying tickets to a play you wanted to see, it's proof he's looking to be around you more. If you feel like you're starting to get them to know them on a more personal level, then maybe this relationship is turning romantic.
