What are some old-fashioned ways to impress your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Old-fashioned dates and ideals are always fun. Here are a few classic ways to impress your partner:

- 1. Picnic: Organize a picnic at the park. With the weather getting warmer, a romantic afternoon spent under the shade of a tree is a perfect way to bond with your partner.
- 2. Breakfast in bed: Your partner will appreciate the effort that goes into making breakfast in bed. While it is cliché, clichés are over-used for a reason; they work.
- 3. Movie night: Surprise your partner with some black and white movies. If Breakfast at Tiffany’s isn’t your style, then try some movies from your childhood, like Top Gun.

Jennifer Love Hewitt Picks Out Three Wedding Rings

Jennifer Love Hewitt is making it really easy for her boyfriend to propose by picking out three engagement rings for him to choose from. The 31-year-old actress has been dating Chicago actor and director Alex Beh for seven months, and things must be going well for the couple. Hewitt told Ellen Degeneres that she found the rings at Tiffany's, according to People. "I feel like I'm doing the guy a favor. I don't want to be upset if he picks a bad ring, so I feel like having three picked out and saying, 'Look! Look at this plethora of things you can choose from!'"

What are ways to make sure your groom-to-be picks out the right ring?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting engaged is exciting, but getting engaged with the right ring? Perfect. Cupid has some tips on how to make sure your mate proposes with the right rock:

1. Drop hints: If you want him to shop at a certain store, get him on the mailing list or rip out ads from the store and put them where he'll find them. He should get the hint eventually.

2. Use a celebrity example: Pick up a copy of People and point out a particular celebrity's engagement ring as beautiful. Giving him an idea of the style and design you want will help guide him when picking out a ring.

3. Have breakfast at Tiffany's: If you are really picky and know exactly the ring you want, tell your man that when he proposes, you'd love to be able to pick out the ring yourself. Being proposed to in Tiffany's with your choice of ring is also very romantic (see: Sweet Home Alabama).
