Cameron Diaz and A-Rod Are Happy Family with His Kids

In honor of their on-again romance, Cameron Diaz and Alex Rodriguez took A-Rod's two children to Busch Gardens amusement park in Tampa, Florida. According to UsMagazine.com, the actress looked incredibly motherly holding hands with the baseball star's two daughters Natasha, 6, and Ella, 2, from his previous marriage to Cynthia Rodriguez. It looks like this couple may have hit a home run in the kid department after they rekindled their romance in November. Cameron Diaz was also seen bonding with the girls late last year on a family trip to Mexico.

How can you bond with your new partner's kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Bonding with a new partner's children can be one of the most magical and most difficult parts of a new romance. Here are some tips:

- 1. Show respect: Though you may be very excited about getting to know your new partner's children, it's always important to respect their boundaries and their previous relationships with both of their parents. The last thing you want to do is trash your partner's ex in front of the children or get in the way when your partner wants to spend quality time alone with his or her children.

2. Come bearing gifts: It's never a good idea to try to buy someone's love. However, kids love getting gifts. It makes them feel important that you thought of them. Also, getting them a little something you knew they have been wanting or would like shows that you are making an effort to get to know them.

3. Go on a date with the kids: Cameron Diaz and A-Rod had the right idea when they took the kids to an amusement park. Dating someone with children is a completely different playing field, so expect a mix of sophisticated dinners and dates with the kids at Chuck E Cheese.

A-Rod's Kids Like Kate Hudson Better Than Cameron Diaz

Apparently, Cameron

Diaz pales in comparison to Kate Hudson when it comes to boyfriend, Alex Rodriguez's kids. According to UsMagazine.com, a source says that Natasha, 6, and Ella, 2, "liked Kate more than Cameron, since she had Ryder [Hudson's 6-year-old son]. They really miss him." Diaz has been doing her best to get on the kids' good side while vacationing in Cab San Lucas, Mexico over the holidays. Hopefully, all of her efforts don't go unnoticed!

What do you do if your kids don't like the person you're dating?

Cupid's Advice:

Your kids are some of the most important people in your life, and their opinion of your new partner will definitely have an effect on the relationship. Cupid has some advice on what to do if your kids aren't thrilled about the person you're dating:

- 1. Find out why: If your kids have a reason beyond "he's not my dad" to dislike your new relationship, you need to find out what that reason is and, if possible, find a way to fix it.
 - 2. Put their needs first: As hard as it is to hear, being a parent is your first priority. If your children don't get along with your new partner, then you may need to rethink the relationship.
 - 3. Give it time: Sometimes it's just hard for children to adjust to new faces. Although they may not initially be thrilled with your relationship, time may be the answer.

Cameron Diaz Gets to Know A-Rod's Kids in Mexico

It looks like there's far from trouble in paradise with Cameron Diaz and Alex Rodriguez. The accomplished actress and Yankee's third-baseman are on vacation in Mexico with his kids Natasha and Ella. According to RadarOnline, this is the second time this month that the inseperable couple have been found on the Mexican beaches. The two haven't even been together for a year, and already the four of them seem like a one happy family!

What are ways to bond with your partner's children?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're dating someone who already has children, it's extremely important that you make a connection with them. Cupid has some suggestions:

1. Take them on a date: Just like you and your partner go on dates to get to know each other better, you can go on a date with his kids to get closer with them. This gives you all a chance to get comfortable with each other without their father being there. Have them choose a place they like, and let the bonding begin.

2. Swap stories: Make sure you're showing an interest in the children's lives. Simply asking them questions will show them that they're important to you. Then, to make them feel more comfortable with you, be sure to share stories about yourself in return.

3. Tuck them in: A more intimate way to bond with the kids is to be there when it's bedtime. Reading them a bedtime story and tucking them in is a very precious way to get them to feel safe with you. If you and your partner ever do get married, you're not just gaining a husband; you're gaining a family

Cameron Diaz and Alex Rodriguez Vacation in Mexico for Thanksgiving

on-again-off-again Yankee boyfriend, Alex Rodriguez were caught canoodling in Mexico over the Thanksgiving holiday last week, according to Us Weekly. The pair spent time in the sand showing off their beach bods and taking dips in the water.

The two were originally spotted together over the summer, but kept things cool in October. “They break up and get back together all the time,” says a source. Is an on-again-off-again relationship healthy?

Cupid’s Advice:

If you find yourself continuously cutting things off only to get back together a few weeks later, it may not be healthy.

Cupid has some tips on how to evaluate your relationship:

1. Look at the big picture: Step back and try to see your relationship from an outside perspective. Breaking up and getting back together may seem normal to you, but it may be destructive behavior.

2. Make a list: Sometimes a pros and cons list can help sort out confused feelings. Take a page from Miranda in the Sex And The City movie, as she used one to determine her feelings for her husband, Steve. It’s an old stand-by for a reason.

3. Question it: Ask yourself, “Why am I going back?” If you can't answer the question with clarity, getting back together may be the right decision. If not, calling it quits may be the way to go.

Kate Hudson Muses About New Beau

Kate Hudson has finally broken the silence about her new boyfriend, Muse singer Matt Bellamy. Hudson calls Bellamy, “lovely” in the new issue of Elle UK. She says, “Matt and I are just learning about each other and it’s wonderful.” Hudson has a long history of heartache, including ex-husband Chris Robinson and former flames Alex Rodriguez, Owen Wilson and Lance Armstrong. But Hudson hasn’t let her romantic past cloud her future. Us Weekly reports that although she’s not looking to marry again, she is still open to a new relationship. “I think a lot of times people are terrified of love and stop themselves from experiencing it. I don’t ever want to get that jaded. I do believe in love.”How do you avoid being jaded by past relationships?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s easy to feel like giving up and turning into a reclusive cat lady when you look back on your history of failed affairs. Cupid has some ideas about how to stay open to new relationships:

1. Gain perspective: Don’t assume that just because your relationship’s ended, you failed. Remember that every partner teaches you something about yourself and what you want, so that next time, maybe you can make it work.

2. Don’t let your past dictate your future: Just because your past boyfriends were jerks, doesn’t mean the next one will be. It’s up to you to make sure history doesn’t repeat itself.

3. Be optimistic: Kate had every reason to give up on finding the right man. But by staying open-minded and never losing her faith in love, she eventually found someone “lovely.”

Cameron Diaz & A-Rod Keep

Everyone Guessing

Cameron Diaz and Yankees' third baseman Alex Rodriguez continue to play it coy when it comes to their relationship. According to E! Online, the couple went out of their way to separately enter a teammate's birthday bash at the 40/40 club in New York City, after arriving in the same vehicle. A source told E!, "They were very, very strategic about not being near each other or talking to each other, but they were within each other's eyesight the whole night."

Is it smart to keep your relationship behind closed doors?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're not ready to jump on the PDA bandwagon just yet, here are Cupid's tips for keeping things undercover:

1. The truth will be known: At first, the idea of a secret relationship may seem exciting, but chances are, others will find out. Therefore, consider what will happen once it's out there. Also, when you remain in hiding, you close the door to true intimacy, and run the risk of ruining the relationship before it really has a chance to begin.

2. Is it for the right reasons? Make sure you know why you're keeping your relationship a secret. Are you worried about what other people will think? All that matters is how you and your partner feel. Also, be wary of those who ask to be in a secret relationship from the beginning.

3. Either do it or don't: If as a couple you decide to keep things on the down low, either follow through all the way, or don't do it at all. If friends or family sense some chemistry between the two of you, it will just lead to questions, and make things uncomfortable.

Cameron Diaz Says Goodbye to Bad Boys

After years of having her relationships in the public eye, Cameron Diaz plays it coy about her current love life in the August issue of Harper's Bazaar. She also remains mum about her relationship with Alex Rodriguez of the New York Yankees. However, one thing the actress is upfront about is that she is done dating bad boys. "Who doesn't like the bad boy, until you grow up and realize bad boys are not the way to go?" Diaz said to the magazine. "I'm done with that."

What's the best way to get over your bad boy crush?

Cupid's Advice:

More often than not, good girls are the ones who end up with bad boys. If you find yourself in this type of relationship, Cupid is here to help break your bad boy habit.

1. Recognize the problem: Try to understand why you keep running back to this type of guy. Psychotherapist Caroline Presno advises on Yahoo! Personals to write a list of the bad things your partner has done to you. Put the list up on the wall next to a picture of him to associate his face with with his actions.

2. It's not your job to save him: Many women think they can rescue a bad boy. Unfortunately, it most likely won't happen. Furthermore, continuing on this path might only hurt you in the end.

3. Build your self-esteem: Chances are, you continue to run after the wrong type of guy because you aren't happy with yourself. According to relationship writer, Allan Tan, a woman "usually does not like herself and that lack of self-respect causes her to settle for a man that is less than what she deserves."

Cameron Diaz & A-Rod: Are They Hooking Up Or Not?

Serial daters and heart-breakers Cameron Diaz and Alex Rodriguez are reportedly hooking up, though neither stars' camp has confirmed the rumor. So far, the relationship is said to have consisted mostly of "sleepovers" occurring everywhere from Miami to New York City, multiple sources, including the New York Post, are reporting. Both Diaz and Rodriguez are famous for their past breakups, including Justin Timberlake and Kate Hudson respectively, but lately, both are dating without any indication of wanting a commitment.

Can two people who can't seem to commit to anyone else make things work together?

Cupid's Advice:

While both Diaz and Rodriguez have had lasting relationships in the past, it's likely that this one will fizzle fast, given their recent dating history. Still, it's important to know things like that when you starting dating someone; it's helpful to know where you and your mate stand in terms of commitment.

1. Do the research: Yes, it can seem awkward, and maybe a bit stalker-ish, but a little digging never hurt anyone – as long as you don't take it to a level that would make a secret government agent cringe. Twitter, Facebook, and LinkedIn are all good social media sites that have privacy levels, so whatever information you can access is OK, since everyone else can access that information, too.

2. Make your feelings known: There's no need to have "the talk" until things get more serious, but you can let someone know where you stand in terms of love and commitment in small ways. Saying things like, "I'm just having fun right now," or, "I'm really looking to settle down," can give your partner clues as to what you want.

3. Have the talk...eventually: If you've been dating regularly for several weeks without a label, it's time to figure out where you stand.
