These celebrity exes are certainly not on the best terms, especially after what transpired this week. What are some ways to keep your relationships with your exes civil?

Cupid’s Advice:

Keeping a relationship with an ex civil isn’t always an option, but it many times can be! Cupid has some tips on how to go about it:

1. Be respectful toward each other: Don’t curse, don’t be sarcastic – just don’t say things that can be taken the wrong way. Between exes there can be lots of tension, so it is easy for one person to feel like the other is overstepping. Stay in your lane and give the respect you expect.

2. Don’t be spiteful: This is not always easy, especially if you ended in wrong terms. However, two wrongs do not make a right. Try your best to not be petty. It will help in the moving on process as well. Also remember that this is a two way street, they should not be spiteful or vengeful either.

3. Keep it short and cordial: Unless there is an important reason for you to be talking to your ex, it is preferred to keep the communication to a minimum. Be polite and straight forward. The less you have to deal with an ex, the more likely you will be able to take tip one and two above.

It's often tempting to give your ex a second chance. After all, you feel comfortable together, know each other well, and know that you can make each other happy. If you, like this celebrity couple, are thinking about reconciling with a past love, consider this dating advice:

1. You want the same things: It's not every day that you meet someone who you share passionate feelings, values, and longterm goals with. If you still can picture a life together – one that makes both of you happy – even after your break-up, you should sit down and discuss what went wrong and what you can change to make sure things go right this time.

In celebrity news, this pair is still experiencing some fall-out from their break-up. What are some ways to keep the fall-out after a break-up to a minimum?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is never easy, and there are always at least some residual effects. That being said, you don't have to experience major negative fall-out. Cupid has some tips:

1. Make sure there's closure: Sometimes when break-ups happen, there's no closure. Whoever has done the breaking up simply runs away without an explanation. This isn't good when it comes to fall-out afterward, as the other person is no doubt going to want some answers. Make sure you leave everything on the table when you're going through a split.

2. Keep the gossip to a minimum: It can be tempting to gossip about your ex to your friends and family right after a break-up, but try to refrain from doing that. It will no doubt get back to your ex, and may cause him or her to retaliate.

3. Tell your friends and family to play it cool: Your close friends and family are no doubt on your side after your split, and they may want to stir things up with your ex on your behalf. Make sure to communicate with your friends and family and let them know that you'd simply like everyone to move on instead of causing any issues.
