

Celebrity News: Brad Pitt's Girlfriend Nicole Answers Fans Asking Why She Hates Angelina Jolie

By Nicole Maher

In the latest celebrity news, Brad Pitt's new girlfriend Nicole Poturalski faced questions about her rumored hatred toward Pitt's celebrity ex, Angelina Jolie. According to UsWeekly.com, Poturalski was presented with an array of comments on one of her Instagram posts after captioning the image "Happy people don't hate," followed by three heart emojis. Fans were quick to question the caption after hearing rumors about Poturalski's ill feelings toward Jolie, but the model silenced them instantly. Pitt and Poturalski's celebrity relationship was confirmed after the two were spotted in France together this past August.

In celebrity news, Brad Pitt's girlfriend is keeping things classy when it comes to her beau's ex. How do you deal with lingering drama with your partner's ex?

Cupid's Advice:

When beginning or continuing a relationship with your current partner, the last thing anyone wants to face is drama associated with their ex. While you may want to believe that none of the rumors are true, it can be difficult to stop them from affecting your relationship. If you are looking for ways to deal with lingering drama with your partner's ex, Cupid has some advice for you.

1. Listen to your partner: Your partner cannot control the way their ex acts after their relationship has ended. Rather than focusing on whatever it is that their ex is saying, pay more attention to the way your partner is speaking and acting. If he or she is not paying attention to any lingering drama, then neither should you.

2. Limit their access: In a world where everything we do ends up online, it can be beneficial to limit someone's access to you. There is no shame in blocking your partner's ex from your social media accounts if you feel that they are visiting your page regularly. If a person can't see what you are doing, then they can't start any real drama!

3. Stand your ground: Unfortunately, sometimes people can be relentless and turning a blind-eye to the drama will only work for so long. If this is the case, follow Poturalski's lead and give them a simple reply. Despite stirring up drama, some people are still afraid of confrontation, and acknowledging their actions once may be enough to get them to stop.

Love & Libations: Fall For Celebrity Wines This Autumn

By Yolanda Shoshana

Pumpkin spice lattes are great, but wait, it's time to get wines for autumn. 'Tis the season for snuggling, cuddling, and binge-watching your favorite shows with a libation to sip and savor. What this means is that it's time to stock up on wine. Have a good supply so that you are ready for crisp cold nights and snowstorms. Plus, you never know when Netflix is going to drop a new surprise show on a Friday night.

Celebrate Fall With These Autumn Worthy Wines

Here are some wine picks to enjoy doing this autumn season:

Gerard Depardieu Chateau de Tigne Anjou Rogue

It's no secret that actor and bon vivant, Gerard Depardieu, loves wine. He once admitted that he drank 14 bottles of wine a day. I would never challenge him to a drinking game, no way would I survive. Depardieu owns several vineyards with one of his most well-known being Chateau de Tigne in the Loire Valley, France. The red wine from this winery is the way to go while you are enjoying comfort food or after a long day at work.

It's the kind of wine that's good with most meals, enjoyed with a pizza or burger. The bonus is that it's very affordable. Don't forget to have it while watching, Marseille, starring Depardieu. It's the first French web series by Netflix. It's so bad it's good. Not to mention, very sexy at times. Of course, the women wear the sexiest French lingerie which is perfect for your own boudoir ideas.

Studio by Miraval

When Angelina filed for divorce from Brad, the first thing that wine lover's wanted to know is, "but what about Miraval". Their award-winning rosé has been getting accolades since it hit the market. The good news is that even though the couple has called it quits, the wine lives on and is going strong. The one to sip this season is Studio by Miraval. It's a four grape blend that comes in a bottle that will remind you of perfume. It's for lovers of art and music who want to feel like they are on the French Riviera.

Sip with your love as you cuddle up in a warm blanket and connect through conversation.

Invivo X, Sarah Jessica Parker Sauvignon Blanc

Sarah Jessica Parker announced that she would be dropping some wine and it's finally here. The Invivo X, Sarah Jessica Parker's Sauvignon Blanc will be the first wine released in the collection. It's said that SJP has been a part of the wine's process from beginning to end. When I first heard that the wine is produced in New Zealand, I was surprised. It seemed like a New York or California winery would be more fitting, but New Zealand is a rising star in the wine world so it's a good move.

It's the perfect wine to sip and watch Sex and the City with your girl squad as you share the joys and oys of dating. If you are on the other end, maybe you can sip and watch SJP's current show, Divorce, and share some "love is a battlefield" stories.

Domaine Curry Wine Cabernet Sauvignon

Not just a basketball wife, Ayesha Curry, who is also an author, restaurateur, and culinary personality has put her toe into the wine game as well. The luxury wine is a partnership with her sister-in-law Sydel Curry. The ladies teamed up with John Schwartz of Coup de Foudre in Napa Valley. It's a small production wine so it may be hard to find, but that makes it even better when you do get your hands on a bottle. You will be sipping all fancy.

This is a grown and sexy wine therefore perfect for a romantic night in. I have a feeling the Steph and Ayesha have quite a few of those (when their parent's watch the three kids).

By Ivana Jarmon

In celebrity news, Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt have come to an agreement after months of fighting over their custody agreement. The celebrity exes both were able to come together for their six children.

These celebrity exes finally reached an agreement when it comes to custody of their kids. What are some ways to compromise when it comes to your kids after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Co-parenting after a split is not easy, especially if you're not on good terms with your ex. But, Cupid has some ways to compromise when it comes to your kids after a split:

1. Set your pain aside: Successful co-parenting means setting your emotions aside to the needs of your children. Putting your feelings may be hard at first and learning to work with your ex, but it's the most important. Because co-parenting isn't about you and your ex it's about your children happiness.

Love & Libations: Celebrity Wines For Turkey Day

By Yolanda Shoshana

I'm sure you noticed that the day after Halloween the Christmas stuff was out front and center. Let's not forget about poor forgotten Thanksgiving. After all, it's a day to remember to be grateful for family and friends. Who doesn't love stuffing themselves with good food and libations on this holiday? While there are many wines to pair with your turkey day meal, here are some celebrity selections that are delicious and will make you feel fancy.

Different Celebrity Wines

1) Moet Chandon Champagne Brut

It's the first Champagne to even bother to work with celebrities. The first ambassador was Scarlett Johansson. No one knows why their relationship didn't last, but the bubbles moved on to tennis great, Roger Federer, to continue with its sexy sipping.

You may not realize this, but sparkling wine is perfect to pair with a Thanksgiving meal since bubbles go with anything and everything. Most people wait for a special occasion to break out the Champagne. What could be better than a meal with friends and family on a day full of gratitude? The wine would go great with turkey, but it's perfect for your guest who simply likes to indulge in the side dishes.

2) 2015 Napa Valley Three by Wade Red Blend/Wade Cellars

NBA player, Dwayne Wade has a lot to be grateful for this Thanksgiving. He and his wife/actress, Gabrielle Union, has just welcomed a baby girl. Wade has even taken time off from games to welcome his daughter.

As some of you may know, Wade is part of the secret NBA wine club. He enjoys wine so much that he started his own luxury wine label called Wade Cellars. The Napa Valley Three has some of the best red grapes swirled together such as Malbec, Merlot, Syrah, and Zinfandel. The black fruit and floral notes would be perfect for celebrating the day with those you love.

3) Lve Chardonnay/ Lve Collection by John Legend

John Legend has been in the wine game for a few years now. He teamed with wine personality, Charles to create a wine that is elegant and sophisticated. Long story short, his wine is as smooth as his music. I would love to know what he and Chrissy Teigen pair his wines. Will she cook this Thanksgiving or have it catered now that she has two little ones? Whatever they do, I assume wine will be in hand.

This California produced wine would be a delight with your turkey and for those who are vegetarians at your table. It's full and rich with notes of butter and toasted almonds. It's the perfect pairing and works well with a good playlist featuring some of John's music.

4) Miraval Rosé/ Chateau Miraval Cotes de Provence

While the love may be over between Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie their wine remains something to fall in love with. When they released the rosé it sold out in minutes. When the couple announced their split, wine lover around the world panicked because no one knew who would become of their beloved rosé.

The wine lives on until further notice. If you are a fan of a good French rosé, this one is for you. A glass of Miraval would be great as an aperitif when your guests arrive or as a kick off to a more intimate dinner.

Celebrity News: Find Out Why Angelina Jolie is Waging War Over Custody with Brad Pitt

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, Angelina Jolie is waging a war over custody of her six children with Brad Pitt after their celebrity divorce. In a court document filed August 7 by Jolie's legal team, Jolie claimed Pitt "has paid no meaningful child support" in the 23 months since their separation. According to UsMagazine.com, sources say the reason Jolie is revving up the custody battle is because, "She sees the writing on the wall: Joint custody is a done deal, and there is nothing she can do to stop it." Pitt was the subject of a child services investigation immediately following Jolie's divorce filing, but he was cleared of any wrongdoing. Though Jolie has held primary custody of the kids, Pitt has been granted increased visitation rights. In June, Pitt was granted temporary shared custody for the summer by an L.A. judge. An insider said, "Brad is done playing doormat to Angie, hoping that would tamp down her anger. He is going to trust his lawyers and inner circle of friends to continue to be there for him – and get him joint custody of the kids."

In celebrity news, Angelina Jolie isn't going to go quietly into the night when it comes to the custody of her children. What are some ways to make a custody battle more civil?

Cupid's Advice:

Custody battles can be hard for both the parents and the children. Cupid has some tips on how to make it easier:

1. Think of your children: During a custody battle, it's important you remember the reason you are going through all of this: your children. Do your best to keep things civil to ease the pain and turmoil your kids will have to go through with their parents splitting up.

3. Understand each other: As much as you might want to loathe your ex and have them have zero contact with your kids, it's important you understand where they are coming from and the love they have for your children. Be understanding and respect that they deserve time with your children as well.

Celebrity News: How Brad Pitt Came Out of Split from Angelina Jolie Better Than Ever

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, Brad Pitt seems to have come out of his celebrity break up with Angelina Jolie better than ever. After his shocking split with Angelina Jolie, with her filing for divorce and requesting full custody of their six children, Pitt seemed to be in a bad place. Despite cheating allegations and custody fights, Pitt has relied on therapy, solitude and sobriety to “strip down the foundation and break out the mortar,” as the 54-year-old actor said in an interview with GQ Style. Pitt also said, “For me every misstep has been a step toward epiphany, understanding, some kind of joy. Yeah, the avoidance of pain is a real mistake. It’s the real missing out on life. It’s those very things that shape us, those very things that offer growth, that make the world a better place, oddly enough, ironically. That make us better.” According to EOnline.com, an insider said Pitt and Jolie have “had a pretty dramatic year and [Pitt] wants things to remain calm in the future.” One source said the actor has been on a few dates, but hasn’t focused on any serious relationship yet. Another insider said Pitt maintains an active social life and that “Brad spent a lot of time alone and in private looking at himself and reevaluating what was most important and who he wanted to be. Now he’s in a place where he’s implemented those changes and has a lot more clarity. He’s come out of that dark time and is in a much better place.”

In celebrity news, Brad Pitt has never been happier. What are some ways to know it’s time for a change in your relationship status?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes, it’s time for a relationship to end. Cupid has some ways to know it’s time for a change:

1. You constantly fight: If you and your partner are constantly fighting, it may be time to end the relationship. You shouldn't be in a relationship where you are unhappy, so even if you really care about your partner, it might be the right thing to do to let them go.

2. You feel stuck: Even if there isn't any drama in your relationship, sometimes it can be rough when you feel a lack of passion or interest in your partner. If you feel your relationship is only holding you back, you should consider changing your relationship status.

3. You don't have time for each other: Sometimes, two people just aren't meant to be together when it comes down to timing. If you and your partner never seem to have time to hang out or go on dates, it might be time to take a break. If you miss each other, you can always try working it out again. But, it might be best for you to take some time alone.

Celebrity News: Brad Pitt Was 'Done Being Mr. Nice Guy' in Custody Agreement with

Angelina Jolie

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, the custody battle between Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie is getting contentious. A source told UsMagazine.com that amid the celebrity divorce, Pitt is “very angry” with Jolie for being “controlling of their children” and will “do anything to see his kids and have them in his life.” Court documents show that the judge said “it is critical each of [the Jolie-Pitt children] have a healthy and strong relationship with their father and mother” and that it is “harmful” for Maddox, Pax, Zahara, Shiloh, Knox and Vivienne to not have a relationship with their father. The papers also state that if Jolie does not allow the children to build relationships with Pitt, she could lose full custody of them. An insider said “Brad has taken the high road through all of this; he could have gone to court much sooner to ask the judge to intervene. He was done being Mr. Nice Guy and rolled the dice.” After the custody agreement leaked, Jolie released a statement through her spokesperson on June 13 saying, “This misleading leak is not in the best interests of the children. From the start, Angelina has been focused only on their health and needs, which is why it was so important that this last court hearing be conducted privately.”

In celebrity news, Brad Pitt is fighting for time with his children. What are some ways to affect your kids the least after a split?

Cupid’s Advice:

A breakup is always hard, but it’s even harder when there are children involved. Cupid has some tips to make it easier for your kids:

1. Work with your ex: Even after breaking up with your partner, it’s important for the sake of your children that you two work together. You and your ex need to coordinate when you will be spending time with your kids and help each other out in providing what your children need. Plus, you want your kids to see you and your former partner as a united front even after the split, because fighting parents will really upset your children.

2. Maintain old routines: After your breakup, it’s important things don’t feel completely different for your children.

While they will have to deal with separate households, it's important you stick to traditions and routines your children are used to. This way, things won't feel completely different for them.

3. Show your love: It's most important that in this time you show love and support for your children. Let your children know that your split with their other parent is not their fault at all and that you both still love them completely. Make sure to each spend as much time with your children as you can, because your breakup is a time where they will a lot of comfort.

Relationship Advice: The Pitfalls of Dating While Divorcing

By Dr. Jane Greer

Dating someone new is exciting but often challenging, and adding the complications of a divorce that's not officially finalized yet, as well as kids from the fractured marriage, into the mix can create a whirlwind of possible pitfalls and new challenges. Waiting for a divorce to become official, though, can take some time, and it is often difficult to put the entire future of one's love life on hold until it is all said and done. Actor Brad Pitt, for example, has been seeing MIT professor Neri Oxman in the midst of ending his marriage to Angelina Jolie. Dating while being separated from your ex-spouse can often feel like a no man's land of uncharted territory with no clear rules. There may be concerns about how quickly to move things along, or a newfound fear of commitment because the most recent union failed.

While you may be eager to move forward and find new love, it can feel like a slippery slope where you can get in too deep quickly, sometimes without even meaning to. With that in mind, there are certain pieces of relationship advice to consider as you navigate this sometimes lawless territory.

The first obvious question is how soon is too soon? It is a very personal journey in terms of how each person manages the sadness of saying good-bye to someone they loved and shared a life with. Some people have no immediate desire to meet someone new, and instead withdraw and go into emotional hibernation, unwilling to put themselves out there for a while and risk being hurt again or diving into another unsuccessful relationship. Others take the opposite approach and seek out a new romance because that is what they believe they need to survive the turmoil they are facing. Taking your personal inventory of what works for you, figuring out your own rhythm of moving faster or slower, can be helpful in gauging the best way for you to proceed. If you do decide to jump back in to the pond of love, try to consider what didn't work in your marriage and attempt to avoid those behaviors in this new partnership.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Brad Pitt is Casually Dating as He Adjusts to Single Life as a Dad

Along those same lines, how do you balance the responsibilities and devotion you have to your children, as well as all the things that go along with taking apart your old life, with this new person? Consider how much energy you realistically have to give to your new identity as a single person and to your new relationship. If you have met someone you really like and want to get involved, that is fine, but keep your kids in mind and pace yourself with how you introduce them, possibly saying your new love interest is simply a friend at first so as not to confuse them. On the flip side, you might find you are not ready to invest a lot of time into a new romance. He or she might want to jump right in, planning dates and weekend brunches, but you are juggling time with your kids and don't want to miss a soccer game or a dance performance which often conflicts with the proposed plans. Think about and prioritize what is most important to you, and be completely honest about what you are willing and able to put into this new situation. Be clear about your time and what you need to keep it balanced. It can be helpful to convey this upfront so that they can keep their expectations of you realistic and not bombard you with demands for getting together. By doing this it will help make the new relationship stay light and be a relief for you, instead of becoming another emotional burden and a new source of guilt.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Can You Cheat Jealousy?

Finally, is it okay to talk about your ex and the details of your divorce with your new dates? There is no question that you have gone through a difficult time as you and your ex-spouse untangle the life you shared together. It has probably been the focal point of everything for you, all that you can think about. It is natural, then, that it is what you are used to talking about, and very likely what you want to talk about. That is understandable, but when it comes to the people you are just meeting and getting to know, the less you say about the nitty-gritty of your ex and your divorce, the better. Try to keep the conversation focused on fun topics such as activities you enjoy doing as well as those you would like to pursue in the future. Instead of making this new person your support system while you go through the divorce, allow your connection to be about what is ahead of you and think about it as an opportunity to explore who you are now and who you are becoming.

While it is a lot to contend with, it appears Brad is handling these possible roadblocks and choices with aplomb. Neri seems to be taking everything in stride, and perhaps she and Brad can continue on this path to happiness together.

Love & Libations: Date Ideas & Summer Loving With Rosé

By Yolanda Shoshana

With the start of spring earlier this week and summer creeping closer, it's time to bust out the rosé. While it's fun to "rosé all day" anytime of the year, there's something even more magical about sipping the pink wine during the spring and summer months. If you're looking for a fun date idea, here are four rosés that you can enjoy to make you feel like the rich and famous.

Spring & Summer Date Ideas with Rosé

Château Miraval Rosé

Love didn't keep Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie together, but their wine, Miraval, is still flowing strong. When the former celebrity couple came out with the rosé, it was such a hit that it was named "the best rosé in the world." When they split, the first question was, "What will happen with the wine?" Luckily, the wine lives on!

Pitt once said that he tastes every barrel himself – but now, I'm not sure who tastes for him now since he is rocking a sober life. Made from four grape varietals in Provence, it's an elegant wine that works for all types of occasions. This wine is perfect for what Wendy Williams calls the "kitchen table top," when you are with family and friends sharing secrets, celebrity gossip, and the joys or oys of life.

Diving Into Hampton Water Rosé

Can you imagine Jon Bon Jovi sipping rosé by the pool? It's not a bad image at all. He just launched a new rosé inspired by the Hamptons called Diving Into Hampton Water. Rosé wine is known as "Hampton's Gatorade" because it's a big deal during the summer. Bon Jovi's son, Jesse Bongiovi, came up with the concept and name of the wine. While the name of the wine features the Hamptons, it's actually produced in the South of France by the very charming winemaker, Gérard Bertrand.

It's the kind of wine to sip by a pool when hanging out with your boo. The wine is selling out because it's shiny and new. If you can get your hands on a bottle, it will be a special treat for you and the one you love.

Sofia Rosé

This rosé by Francis Ford Coppola is named after his only daughter Sofia, who most people know as a talented director and screenwriter. With her busy schedule, I can't help but wonder how often she has her wine. This California wine is a blend of Syrah and Pinot Noir. It's an elegant wine in a sexy bottle that showcases the lively pink color of the rosé. The aromas in the wine are floral and berries, which make it wonderful to pair with fish, seafood, and cheese.

Skip the Sofia Rosé bubbles in the can and go for the still wine in a bottle. It's perfect to pair with a quiet date night at home or when you're cooking dinner together.

Vanderpump Rosé

While Lisa Vanderpump is famous for being one of the stars of Real Housewives of Beverly Hills, she is quickly becoming known for her wine. Since she and her husband, Ken Todd, are in the hospitality business with 28 bars and restaurants, having a wine is a natural progression. The Vanderpump Rosé is produced in Provence, so it's perfect to drink when you want to feel like you are in France without hopping on a plane. As Vanderpump says, "Life isn't all diamonds and rosé – but it should be."

It's a feminine wine with a lot of personality on the palate. This wine is perfect for your summer soirees at a rooftop bar or in the backyard with your squad.

1. Try your best to stay civil: If there's constant animosity between you and your former spouse, your child will pick up on it. While anger and sadness are normal responses to a life event like divorce, it's important to remember that your child is also likely experiencing these emotions, and keeping your relationship with your ex civil will help smooth the transition for them.

And my jazz collection is rare, I can play most anything – I'm a Brooklyn Baby." She used to play at a lot of small venues scattered around Williamsburg, Brooklyn and in the East Village in Manhattan. She advanced far in the Williamsburg Live Songwriting Contest that used to be held, with her original song "Pawn Shop Blues." She sings of her boyfriend during this time, "They say I'm too young to love you. I don't know what I need. They think I don't understand the freedom land of the seventies."

They made a beautiful pair, but recently it has been reported they are splitting. He actually filmed her music video "Ultraviolence" (the title track of her third major studio album) for her. This celebrity news sheds some light on how Angelina is doing amid her divorce. What are some ways to deal with divorce drama in an effective way?

Cupid's Advice:

Emotional hurt won't last forever, which is something to think about if you've gone through divorce. Cupid is here to make the drama a little easier to manage:

1. Ignore the petty communication: If your ex is not trying to solve a solution, but rather egg on a fight, then it's not worth a response. For example, if you dropped off your child, and your ex-partner sends you a text negatively commenting on the parenting you did, you do not have to answer. This will take out some of the fight, and you will be the more positive person.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Angelina Jolie, Sharon Osbourne and Tori Spelling

By Shoshi

In the latest celebrity news, three famous couples have caught the public's attention, one of which is a high profiled split that no one saw coming between Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt; while two other long term marriages are fighting to survive after celebrity cheating scandals (Sharon and Ozzy Osbourne, and Tori Spelling and Dean McDermott). But who's stepping out this time around hand in hand? Join me as I look into the crystal ball of relationships and love. Below, I share my predictions for these celebrity couples.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Celebrity Relationships That May or May Not Last

Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt: When it was announced that Angelina Jolie had filed to divorce Brad Pitt, gasps were heard around the world. The fairytale was officially over. But was their relationship really as wonderful as everyone thought it was? While most people were surprised that their marriage is ending, I was surprised that it's lasted as long as it did. There were clues that their marriage wasn't filled with unicorns and rainbows. Anytime a couple gets married due to pressure from their children, it isn't a good sign. This relationship should have ended a long time ago. Jolie is so ready to move on. Their pack of kids can beg and plead for her to go back to Pitt, but it's a wrap. Rumor has it that she has already moved into a private residence in Los Angeles that cost $30,000 per month! It's time for both of them to move on. While Pitt is a bit devastated now, he will see that this is for the best. Don't be surprised if Angelina's next lover is a woman. Brad will be fine, women are already getting information to swoop down and grab him. My relationship advice to him is to stop picking high maintenance women.

Sharon and Ozzy Osbourne: Look's like Sharon and Ozzy Osbourne are having a real lovefest after Ozzy's alleged affair with a celebrity hairstylist earlier this year. He recently surprised Sharon by showing up on The Talk and giving her a diamond ring for her birthday. Ever notice how men like to make things better with diamonds? There are those who feel like their happiness is staged. Maybe it is, but then again what hasn't their relationship been through at this point? I don't see anything that will actually cause this celebrity couple to break up for good. Their marriage has been a bit of a rollercoaster since day one. Sharon is a ride or die when it comes to Ozzy. They will continue on with their sweet gestures in the press. It is what it is. They are basically a famous couple that at the end of the day is just like everybody else.

Tori Spelling and Dean McDermott: Remember all the drama that Spelling went through with her husband McDermott. It looked like their marriage was going to end, but Spelling took one for the team and stuck with it. The couple recently announced that their fifth child is on the way. There is still conflict in their relationship that stems back to the Dean's 2-day affair when he was working in Canada. Let's not forget that Tori actually got together with Dean because they had an affair while filming a Lifetime movie. McDermott also recently proposed again to Spelling right before their tenth anniversary with their kids in attendance. That's all good, but I say this marriage is still a hot mess. Spelling can do so much better than him. When will she see the light? With baby number five on the way, she may never leave. Being a single mother with five kids doesn't sound so sexy when it comes to dating. McDermott is sneaky and it looks like he just may bring more heartbreak to Spelling; that may be just the thing that she needs to let him go and find love with another. Let's just say that he is the lucky one in the relationship.

According to UsMagazine.com, a source says Pitt is waiting to file a divorce response until the agreement is in place. “Brad has a month to respond to the initial filing, so there is no rush,” another source includes. “The fact that things have quieted down so much is a good indicator that discussions are moving forward and are productive. The main issue is custody.”

Celebrity divorce is not an easy or pleasant task. What are some ways to make negotiations during a divorce easier?

Cupid’s Advice:

No one likes the process of a divorce, as it takes a lot out of you. Cupid is here to help you try and make the process a little easier:

1. Talk it out before the lawyers: Lawyers are very helpful when it comes to a divorce, but only you and your ex-partner can talk it out before you take it further. You shouldn’t expect to go into a divorce without any idea of what the other person wants. You’d be in for possibly a very big shock.

2. Make a list: Both of you write out a list of what you want in the divorce. Of course, you can’t list your kids if you have them. So instead, write out what you believe is a fair way to get custody of your children. You can exchange and have your lawyers start to negotiate.

3. Ease the fighting: Yelling and screaming at each other is not the way to negotiate, and it tends to make things even worse. Try to resist the fighting. If you want the divorce to run smoothly, it's better off to put the arguing aside.

Celebrity Divorce: Brad Pitt Will Fight Angelina Jolie for Custody of Kids

By Kayla Garritano

Love for your kids will never fade. In the latest celebrity divorce, Brad Pitt will be fighting for custody of his six kids from his soon to be ex-wife, Angelina Jolie. According to UsMagazine.com, it can be confirmed that Pitt hired divorce attorney Lance Spiegel. But, despite the problems he and Jolie are having, he still has his children's best interests in mind. "He wants to have a significant role in his kids' lives, and he wants to be with them consistently, but he also wants them to be in the most protected and proper environment,” said a source.

This celebrity divorce could get ugly. What are some ways to shield your children from your divorce drama?

Cupid’s Advice:

If there’s one thing that’s most important in a divorce, it’s to make sure that you protect your kids from the “ugly.” Cupid is here to help:

1. Remind them that you love them: A problem with parents divorcing is that the child may feel like it’s their fault, or that you don’t love them anymore and that’s why you’re getting the divorce. Reassure them that it is not their fault, and that they are what’s most important.

2. Keep it private: Sometimes, divorcing involves a lot of fighting. If you do end up arguing, make sure it’s not around your children. Your child will get upset from hearing mom and dad fight and yell at each other. Try to move away from your kids to ensure that they won’t be emotionally affected by your argument.

3. Don’t talk trash: You don’t like your soon-to-be ex if you’re divorcing them; that’s a fact. But that doesn’t mean you're allowed to go around and talk poorly about them, especially in front of the kids. In order to keep your kid happy, you have to make sure that both of their parents are in their lives. No good will come from talking badly about the other parent. Your child shouldn't have to choose sides.
