Movie Review: 'Pitch Perfect 3'

By Rachel Sparks

The Bellas are back in this second follow up to Pitch Perfect! After winning the World Championships, the all-girl group have split, but they're coming together for one last competition: the USO tour overseas. The catch is the groups they compete against have started using instruments. Follow the amazing vocals of Emily (Hailee Steinfeld), Beca (Anna Kendrick), Calamity (Ruby Rose), and Fat Amy (Rebel Wilson). Watch this story of friendship, frenemies, and competition

'Last Call Pitches' has relationship advice to get you through romantic partnerships and friendships!

Should you see it:

If you've loved the past two Pitch Perfect movies then this third one won't disappoint. There's going to be competition, arguments, friends overcoming obstacles together, global tours, and of course, a grand singing finale.

Who to take:

This isn't a chick flick, so you can bring guys or gals. The sense of community and girl power is definitely something to bring a group of your girlfriends to, but if it's time for a date night, your significant other will still have a great time.

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships can be hard, but Pitch Perfect 3 portrays the struggle of every kind of relationship. Whether it's romantic or friendly, the Bellas set the stage for some serious relationship advice. This is what we've learned from Last Call Pitches about the importance of all your gal pals:

- 1. When competition strikes: The Bellas are all about competition. The first movie showed them fighting amongst each other but the second movie showed them banding together for the ultimate stand-up performance. Competition can hurt a friendship, but it's not insurmountable. Encourage each other's strengths and find a way to combine your gifts and passions into something you can do together.

2. Life has made you distant: The Bellas have split but they're coming together for one last show-stopping performance. Life can tear friends apart. You take different jobs, move for work, marry before your friend, have a baby, make new friends. It can feel hard to maintain a friendship when life places obstacles and makes time a hot commodity. Talk to your friend about how you want to spend more time together, learn each other's schedules and what times work best, and make it a priority.

How do you know when it's time to move on?

Cupid's Advice:

Even some of the most heartfelt romances end in sorrow. In the

It can be difficult to decipher whether you and your partner are just going through a rough patch, or if it really is time to break it off. Cupid has provided some insight on how you can tell when it's time to move on below.

1. The relationship brings more pain than joy: If your relationship is leaving you with more tears, anger, and frustration than joy and laughter, it's time to move on. Relationships aren't always going to be perfect, but you shouldn't constantly feel burdened or stressed out either.

3. You believe they'll change: Sometimes, people hang on to their significant other because they expect that what they're going through is just a "phase." What are things to be cautious of while dating around?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're single, you want to play the field without going overboard. Cupid has some tips on how to be careful, and yet still have fun while dating:

1. Overbooking: Even if you're a heartthrob movie star like Jake Gyllenhaal, more than three dates in a week can be a little overwhelming. It's not like you can't go out with more than one person at a time; just make sure you're giving each of your dates enough attention.

2. Being dishonest: When you're seeing someone new, you should be truthful right away. If you're not looking for a serious relationship, tell them that to avoid any confusion or hurt feelings.

3. Falling into a pattern: If dating bad boys hasn't exactly worked out for you, try changing your habits. By dating outside of your comfort zone, you'll find out what you like and in the process, you may also find "the one."
