

Celebrity Baby News: Anna Kournikova & Enrique Iglesias Welcome Twins

By Karley Kemble

Two new celebrity babies have been born! Enrique Iglesias and his partner Anna Kournikova have welcomed twins: a boy named Nicholas and a girl named Lucy, confirms UsMagazine.com. This celebrity news is certainly a surprise, as the pair kept the pregnancy under wraps until now! The couple has been together since 2001, and their two bundles of joy are their first children together. Congratulations to Iglesias and Kournikova!

These celebrity babies are two times the fun...and two times the work! What are some ways to work together with your partner to split the responsibilities of parenthood?

Cupid's Advice:

Sure, parenting is a lot of work, but it is very rewarding! As long as you and your partner actively work together, there is less of a chance for chaos. If you're looking for different ways to work with each other, look no further! Cupid has some tips for you:

1. Divide and conquer: You and your partner inherently have strengths and weaknesses. Maybe you're better at reading bedtime stories to your little one, but your partner has really got bath time down to a science. Use whatever it may be, figure out a system that works best for your individual talents. You and your partner will soon feel like super parents that can conquer anything together!

2. Create a chore chart: If visual aids are your style, a chore chart is super handy! They're not just meant for kids or college roommates, after all. With all the craziness that comes from parenting, a chore chart can hold you and your partner accountable for recurring tasks – i.e. laundry, dishes, cleaning the bathroom. It's easy for the mundane responsibilities to slip through the cracks, but this is an easy way to remember and take action!

3. Embrace conflict: As in all aspects of your relationship, conflict is inevitable. Parenting will certainly create conflict for you and your spouse at times. There's nothing wrong with conflict, just as sure you and your partner deal with it as adults. Find the compromise and work toward bettering each other for the sake of your children!

By Stephanie Sacco

Enrique Iglesias might be ready to tie the knot. In celebrity news, his views on marriage have always been that you don't need a piece of paper to prove your love, but he might be changing his ways. According to EOnline.com, Kournikova was seen with a ring on her finger along with a gold band. It looks like a celebrity wedding could be in the works. Iglesias said, "Who knows what the future holds...or the past...haha." We'll have to keep an eye on this celebrity couple.

Is there a celebrity wedding in the works? What are some ways to know you're ready to tie the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Deciding when to get married is a big life decision. You have to know when the time is right and whether the guy is right. Cupid is here with some dating advice:

1. Commitment: When you are committed, but more importantly, your partner is committed, it's a good time to start thinking about the future. If you can imagine spending your life with them and growing old together, it's definitely worth noticing. Feel it out with your partner before jumping in, but bring it up.
