Celebrities are always showing off their fitness methods and are eager to share new ideas!

Dying to learn how to get the

1. Mix it up: When you first start working out, you tend to stick to the things you know. You go running every day, or you spend all your time lifting weights. Singer Ellie Goulding says the key to her workout is mixing up her routine! Spend one day at the gym doing cardio, another day go try boxing, and a different day lifting weights. As long as you have variety, you will never get bored.

2. Update your diet: One of the simplest and most effective ways of improving your health and fitness is to enhance your diet. Cut out unhealthy things like sugar and sweets and add more protein to your meals. Performer Calvin Harris achieved this when he showed off his daily breakfast. Each day, he makes a mouth watering, egg white omelette with smoked salmon and spinach. His routine is a perfect example of how you can eat well and still have it be delicious!

While she is running, he might be on the bikes, but either way they are there supporting each other and working towards their goals!

4. Do something fun: Getting fit doesn't always have to mean spending countless hours in the gym. Instead, follow the advice of Nick Jonas, and do things you actually enjoy. For him, this means playing sports and getting in his cardio instead of spending an hour on the treadmill. This is extremely useful for people who don't enjoy the atmosphere inside a gym. You get to do things you enjoy, get outdoors, and even incorporate your friends.

There may have been a celebrity break-up in Hollywood, but we’re not quite sure. What are some reasons to avoid being wishy washy about your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Not knowing what you want or where you want to be in your relationship can cause a lot of issues within yourself and your relationship. Here are a few more reasons to avoid being wishy washy in your relationship:

1. It can be confusing: If you are on the fence about your relationship, your partner could easily get confused. If there are at a certain level in the relationship that you're not at yet, they may not understand what is going on. They may begin to wonder if you are as committed as they are or if you really want to be with them. It is best to make up your mind about them and communicate it clearly.

2. Feelings are at risk: If your partner feels that you both are on the same page when it comes to your romance but you are really several steps behind them, their entire world will apart when they figure it out. When you are wishy washy about your relationship, you are easily leading on your partner unless you make it clear that you are unsure. This way, they will not be blind sided by your feelings and they can adjust their expectations in the relationship.

3. You might settle: Sometimes, when we are unsure about something, we settle with what we have instead of making a hard choice. If this happens in a relationship, you will regret always. Instead of being comfortable with your indifference, make the decision. If you think that this relationship is the one you want, go for it. If you can't see yourself with your partner in the future, end it now.

your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

When starting a new relationship, it is important to have support from those you love, especially your family. However, your parents may not always like the person you bring home. Here are a few ways to handle a situation like that:

1. Talk with them: Many times, the reason your parents don't like your partner is because they don't know anything about them. If your parents have heard rumors about them, only know about their past, or are making predetermined judgments of any kind, then they simply need to get to know your partner. Sit down with your parents and let them know how much you care about your partner and explain why. Often times, when they realize how much you like the relationship they come around.

2. Compromise: Sometimes the best thing to do when your parents dislike your partner is to compromise. If they have an issue with your partner coming to major family events, then don't bring them along. However, make your parents understand that it is important to you that your partner comes over to family night once in a while. This way, your partner still gets to be apart of your family dynamic, without impeding on your parents wishes

3. Accept it: You can't force people to like each other and sometimes there is just nothing you can do. If your parents are dead set on not liking your partner, you will have to accept the situation as it is, and move on. As long as your parents understand that you and your partner are happy, and your relationship is important, then it shouldn't matter what they think.
