Recently on his show Late Night With Seth Meyers, Meyers filled in the audience on the exciting birth of his second celebrity baby, Axel Strahl. "I called 911 and over the course of a minute conversation, I said, 'We're about to have a baby – we're having a baby – we had a baby,'" Meyers said. According to UsMagazine.com, the New York Police Department and fire department arrived after the baby was born in the couple's apartment lobby and cut the umbilical chord while their neighbors warmed up towels in the dryer for the newborn.

Meyers and his wife, Alexi Ashe, welcomed their baby on Sunday. This celebrity couple was wed in September 2013 and also share a two-year-old son, Ashe. Best wishes to this new family of four!

This celebrity baby news is certainly a story for the books. What are some ways to support your partner during the birth of your child?

Cupid's Advice:

Giving birth is such a wonderful miracle. In Meyers' case, he definitely had to make efforts to provide comfort to his wife during this time. Throughout this exciting process, you and your partner should be supporting each other every step of the way. Here are some tips on how to do so:

1. Provide distractions: Both you and your partner are definitely so excited to welcome your new baby into the world. Yet, it can be a long, painful process. Maybe play a game with your partner in order to ease both of your anxiety until the baby is safely born.
