Cupid's Advice:

Choosing your baby's name is exciting, but can also be a bit tedious considering you and your partner should be in agreement with the name chosen. Cupid has some advice on how to get on the same page when it comes to the name of your tiny loved one:

1. Try using a compromising tool online: Babynamester.com has this tool, along with many suggested baby names for you and your partner to check out. The way it works is you enter the sex of the baby, then you and your partner each type in what your top baby names are. Next, you choose which one you each like best from your partner's list. And lastly, the site generates a long list of combined baby name preferences. Try it and see if it may work for you!

2. The Middle Name: One of you can choose the first name and the other one can choose the middle name. Many couples compromise in this manner. Although, choosing the first name is most likely ideal for both parties, the middle name is the one that gives the name uniqueness considering that not everyone has a a middle name, and on top of that, a middle name is a nice differentiating addition to a first name.

3. Combine the names: This isn't always possible, but it sometimes is. You can create a beautiful, unique name! For example in the hit Twilight Saga: Breaking Dawn, Bella (played by Kristen Stewart) combined the names she and her husband Edward (played by Robert Pattinson) liked: Renee (Bella's mom's name) and Esme (Edward's mom's name), resulting in the name Renesmee.

Despite the recent incident that caused Bachelor in Paradise to stop filming its upcoming season, DeMario Jackson is keeping his head held high during sexual assault claims. In celebrity news, Warner Bros. have been examining an incident that reportedly happened between Jackson and Corinne Olympios. Sources from UsMagazine.com shared that the two had been excessively drinking the whole day. This led to the stars of the reality TV show to have a moment together in the pool. The rest of the cast are unknowing of the details and are not involved with the investigation.

This celebrity news regarding Bachelor in Paradise is getting more convoluted by the day. What are some ways to debunk relationship rumors that are hurtful to you?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors have a good way of changing what actually happened during the relationship. Check out some tips to put a stop to them:

1. Confront your ex or current partner: The first person you should go to is the person connected to the rumors. Tell them exactly what you heard being said. Hopefully this person can be mature and can put a stop to the rumor. If they are not responding to your hurt feelings, then move on to the people spreading the rumors.

2. Confront the sources: Speak to the rumor spreaders. Let them know your truth and share how this rumor is currently effecting your life. People often gossip without realizing the impact it has on the person they're talking about. Sharing your side should give them clarity and reshape the rumor to what actually happened.

3. Speak to those who ask: Instead of making a public statement on social media, tell people who confront you. If someone cares enough to hear what you have to say, then tell them the truth. The people who don't ask want it to end just as much as you do. Debunking rumors can't always be successful, but time will eventually reveal the integrity of the liars.
