Cupid's Advice:

Getting engaged is a big and important step in a relationship. However, you may not be ready to share your big news with everyone around you. Here are a few ways to keep your new status quiet until the right time:

1. Stay off social media: When you and your partner get engaged, it's only natural to commemorate the event with photos. While you may be tempted to share photos or post subtle clues about your relationship, don't. Social media is the easiest way for your news to spread, whether or not you're ready for it.

In an emotional interview with EOnline.com, Stanton opens up about her ugly split, and the "red flags" she overlooked throughout their relationship. "It's hard for me to even talk about it without crying. I think he knew he was going to date me, so I think he kind of pretended to be exactly what he knew I wanted," Stanton stated, while getting emotional. Stanton also mentioned another red flag for her, which involved mentioning her previous ex Nick Viall. "I guess, a red flag for me was, if he was falling for me, he should've just been happy," she said. "Instead, he focused so much on Nick and what everybody else was saying." Stanton says she learned from this relationship and hopes to grow from it. "This whole break up has been really, really hard on me and the aftermath has been really hard on me." For now, Stanton explains that she is focusing on her kids, keeping up with her blog, and writing a book.

This celebrity break-up was anything but drama-free. What are some ways to keep the drama to a minimum mid-breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Messy break ups are far from easy. Here are some tips to remain drama free during this hard time:

1. Stay private: Try to keep your business to yourself and, if needed, your close circle of friends. It can become increasingly difficult if you let other people influence you or spread your news around. Make sure anyone you speak to is trustworthy and won't spread rumors like wildfire.

This celebrity couple is giving love another chance! How do you know if you should get back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

It's often tempting to give your ex a second chance. After all, you feel comfortable together, know each other well, and know that you can make each other happy. If you, like this celebrity couple, are thinking about reconciling with a past love, consider this dating advice:

1. You want the same things: It's not every day that you meet someone who you share passionate feelings, values, and longterm goals with. If you still can picture a life together – one that makes both of you happy – even after your break-up, you should sit down and discuss what went wrong and what you can change to make sure things go right this time.
