Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo will have their hands full with two celebrity babies. What are three tips to help parents handle young children so close in age?

Cupid's Advice:

This couple is soon going to be welcoming their second celebrity baby into the world. While it's an exciting time, it can also be super stressful. Check out these tips if you're nervous about having young children so close in age:

1. Remember the benefits: When you start to get overwhelmed, try your best to remember all of the positives of having two kids close in age. Your kids will most likely be close in terms of their relationship; you'll be able to use hand-me-downs from your first child; and they will be able to do activities together when they're older. Try to be thankful that they'll have a good sibling dynamic!

2. Hand-me-downs are all the rage: If you saved your first child's clothes and you're expecting another baby of the same sex, this is the perfect opportunity to break them out and put them to use again. You can reuse baby clothes, towels, toys, and more for the new baby to-be. It will save you a ton of money in the long run. Plus, it'll be cute to compare pictures of both kids in the same outfits or playing with the same toys.

3. Use the same discipline style: If you're concerned about disciplining them, never fear: Since your kids will be super close in age, you will be able to use the same discipline style for both of them. And hopefully, they'll learn good behavior from one another!

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone can use a little help on how to handle having a new baby. Lucky for you, Cupid is here to give out a little parenting advice:

1. Baby clothes: While some gender neutral clothes will work in a pinch, having a girl requires a whole new wardrobe. Head down to your local baby store and pick up a few feminine outfits. Be sure to keep an eye out for those adorable headbands to make the outfits complete.

Women around the world wept when the news of Adam Levine's engagement and wedding was announced. The Maroon 5 lead singer is easy on the eyes, so it's surprising that it took someone so long to nab him! What are the pros of being a married couple rather than just being in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Being in a committed relationship with someone is a wonderful experience, and when the two of you decide that it's time to get hitched, your love reaches a new level. You both care for and trust each other enough that you're willing to commit for the rest of your lives. Here are a few perks that go along with being a married couple:

1. Honeymoon phase: One thing that people always talk about is the so-called honeymoon phase that newlyweds experience. There is an overwhelming sense of joy now that your wedding is finally over. It's time to relax and just enjoy each other's company as a married couple.

What positive experiences have you had now that you and your partner are married?

Adam Levine Shares First Post-Wedding Pic with Wife Behati Prinsloo

By Laura Seaman

Newlyweds Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo were showing off their serious sides in a selfie that Levine posted on Instagram. The couple wore sunglasses and emotionless expressions as they posed at the camera. The two were married on July 19 in Mexico and had their 300 party guests gushing about how amazing the occasion was. "Adam and Behati set out to make this the most fun wedding that anybody has ever experienced and they truly did just that," a source told UsMagazine.com. Well it looks like the fun didn't end there for the couple, as they continue to post pictures on Instagram documenting their new lives as husband and wife.

What are three exciting things to do right after tying the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding is supposed to be one of the best days of your life, but that doesn't mean you can't have amazing fun afterwards! Most couples go on their honeymoon soon after their wedding, but maybe you want to take it a step further and kick it up a notch. These ideas will help you keep that giddy newlywed feeling alive long after you've said 'I do':

1. Go on a cross-country road trip. Instead of going the traditional route and going to the beach for your honeymoon, take some extra time to explore the entire country! Start in your hometown and make your way around until you've come full circle. You'll get a variety of exciting experiences, and you'll get to share them all with your new spouse. Not to mention this is a great opportunity to take tons of cool pictures together like Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo.

2. Take a mission trip together. Share your happiness with the people of the world and use your honeymoon time and money to help those who have less. Travel as a couple to a place where you can (safely) do charity work and immerse yourself in a foreign culture. It's an experience you can tell your children about and remember as a couple for many years to come.

3. Work on a big-time project. This could be a number of things, whether it's building your dream house or writing a book together. The process will let you become closer as a couple and the result is a testimony of how much you can accomplish together. Imagine how proud you'll feel when you can tell your friends and family "we built this together".

Behati Prinsloo Has 'Definite' Plans to Have Kids with Adam Levine

By Shannon Seibert

Newlyweds Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo may be celebrating their honeymoon in South Africa but the happy couple has even bigger plans for when they return. After a fun and extravagant wedding, what more could there be? Well, the Victoria's Secret model revealed in a recent interview with Net-a-Porter that she and the Maroon 5 singer had "definite" plans for kickstarting a family together. According to UsMagazine.com, Prinsloo told Net-a-Porter: "I have no expectations. Not in a bad way, but I've learned that you can't plan ahead. I live day by day and see what happens."

What are some ways to decide when to have kids?

Cupid's Advice:

In theory, first comes love, marriage, and then, presumably, a baby carriage. After the dust settles after getting married, couples' thoughts jump to "Now what?" Marriage and babies have always gone hand in hand, but you want to make sure that you're fully prepared to take the next step towards starting a family. Consider these three criteria when your baby fever starts showing symptoms, you want to be ready for the moment that a little heart beat on the monitor that will change everything:

1. You're financially stable: According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, parents will spend an average of $235,000 to raise a child born in 2011 to the age of 17. Now imagine if you want 3 children. Although seemingly expensive, the experiences of children are ultimately priceless. You'll never find a bond stronger than the bond between parent and child. But to get there, you want to make sure you'll be able to meet all of your child's needs when necessary. Take some time to budget your finances and prioritize what is important and what is needed to start your beautiful family.

Related: Daniel Radcliffe Says He Loves the 'Idea of Lots of Kids'

2. You've been able to enjoy being married, first: The minute you bring your first little miracle into the world is the minute that it isn't just you and your man anymore. Take it a day at a time like Behati Prinsloo and Adam Levine. There will never again be a time where all you have to do is provide for you and your husband. Take this time before children and enjoy each other's company. Go on trips together, go on as many dates as you can, and focus on the endless love that your relationship has brought each other. This period of happiness will bring you many fond memories down the road, and even greater stories to tell your future children.

3. There is no more room for doubt: Being a parent is the most rewarding, frightening, and strenuous unpaid job. You ultimately become responsible for the life of another human being until they can manage on their own. You may accumulate a few grey hairs throughout the process, but it's worth it. When you're young you may feel like having children is what you're supposed to do, when in reality it should be a choice of whether or not you want to. Make sure you're in a place where you are ready to accept your role as a parent and that you're definitely ready to build a family.

Find Out About Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo's Wedding Reception

By Laura Seaman

Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo's wedding reception was one for the history books as guests raved about the party to People.com. "Everyone was having so much fun," one source said. "Adam and Behati couldn't stop smiling the entire night." The reception, held at Flora Farms in Los Cabos, Mexico, included musical performances from Stevie Nicks, Maroon 5, Sublime, and bride Prinsloo herself. The food was all organic and the speeches "had guests laughing".

How do you make your reception memorable?

Cupid's Advice:

While the wedding itself is important, the reception is what everyone really looks forward to. It included everyone, and usually it's a lot of fun. Many receptions follow the same basic structure including a toast by the best man and maid of honor, the first dance as man and wife, and then an open dance floor. These are great traditions, but there are many ways to spice it up and make your reception something special:

1. Have the wedding party do a special dance. Coordinated wedding party dances are becoming very popular. They're fun, unique, and encourage others to get up and dance. If your wedding party is up to it, treat your guests to a fun and entertaining routine.

2. Include guest activities like a photo booth. Party games and activities let guests enjoy themselves even if they don't like dancing. These fun events can be a number of things, and they're bound to be a hit if you put enough creativity and effort into them. These activities can even lead to great reception memories like photos or take-home crafts.

3. Do a bit of couple karaoke. Use Levine and Prinsloo's wedding as an example! Have the bride, groom, or both sing a song that means a lot to them. Even if the singer doesn't have a particularly great voice, the crowd will still support them. After all, it's their wedding day!

Adam Levine Marries Behati Prinsloo in Mexico

By Shannon Seibert

Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo are officially married. The couple tied the knot in a glamorous tent at Flora Farms in Los Cabos, Mexico on Saturday, July 19. About 300 guests joined them in the tropical paradise, bringing with them charitable donations instead of wedding gifts. The star-studded wedding was filled with many of Prinsloo's fellow Victoria's Secret Angels, Levine's band members, and other celebrity guests. The beautiful pair will be spending their honeymoon in the terrain of South Africa, according to UsMagazine.com.

Where are three unique tropical wedding destinations?

Cupid's Advice:

Tropical paradises are wonderful havens for romantic destination weddings. The crystal clear water, the island breeze, and the unique landscapes all create the picture-perfect venue for an island wedding. Just as it did for Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo, tropical scenery can only spice up your love. We've researched and have found these three unique tropical destination sites that could be the perfect place to host your special day:

1. Aruba: Is one of the smallest islands on the map and it encompasses a ton of island-based activities. Cliff jumping, cave dwelling, and concentrated waterfalls are all beautiful sites to see and things to do on the minuscule piece of paradise. Aruba also has multi-colored villages, spreading over areas lighting the scenery with brightly painted homes, shops, and other buildings, rendering it perfect wedding material.

2. Santorini: Grecian paradise straight out of a movie scene, Santorini hosts a lot of tourism and large events. It is a popular destination due to its beautiful white buildings, white beaches, and white towers. In Santorini there are also tons of wineries that could be beautiful spots to host an outside ceremony, or a bachelorette wine tasting. There is a beautiful view at every corner and is said to have some of the most beautiful sunrises and sunsets across the globe.

3. Tahiti: White beaches surrounded by dramatic mountain peaks sounds like a perfect wedding photo opportunity. Tahiti is remote in destination and is secluded enough for a tropical getaway without the burden of tourism. The islands of Tahiti are a great source of relaxation, with limited technology and lavish resorts, Tahiti could even be the destination for your honeymoon.

Adam Levine Says Proposing to Behati Prinsloo Made Him 'Woozy'

By Laura Seaman

The smooth and sexy Adam Levine admits that he was anything but sexy and smooth when it came to proposing to his girlfriend (now fiancé) Behati Prinsloo. The Maroon 5 singer was quoted in UsMagazine.com saying, "It doesn't matter how certain you think you are, you still get down on that knee, and you get woozy, and you're like, 'I'm doing this, oh my god.'" You can't be confident about it. I'm a confident person, but I got on that knee and everything changed immediately. I lost my equilibrium. I had to get on the other one.”

How do you calm your nerves before a marriage proposal?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're not at least a little nervous about proposing, you're probably not human. This is the rest of your life we're talking about! But if it all goes well, it will make your life so much better than you could ever imagine. So take care of those nerves and get down on one knee, because this is the question that will change you forever.

1. Think positive! You love this person, and if you're proposing then you must have some sense of confidence in the thought that you're meant to be together forever. If you have a strong relationship and you're truly in love with this person, there's a good chance they'll say yes. So stop thinking about the negatives, because it won't do you any good.

Related: How to Know When It's Time to Get Hitched

2. Focus on the details. The best way to banish nerves is to keep yourself busy. There's no better way to stay busy and ensure the perfect proposal than to plan out every detail of how you'll pop the question. Even if it's going to be simple, you have to plan the what, when, where, and how. Busy yourself with this important planning and you won't have time to worry about the 'what ifs'.

Related: Don't Settle: Get Him to Commit

3. Drop some hints. If you absolutely can't calm yourself down and have to know ahead of time whether or not this proposal will end the way you want it to, try dropping hints. Don't be too obvious, but bring up the topic of long-term plans in conversation and see how your partner reacts. Gauge their reaction, and if it's positive, you have your green light to go for the question and you can stop doubting yourself.

What are some ways to cope with an abrupt breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes breakups happen quickly, and there's nothing you can do about it. Cupid has some advice on how to deal:

1. Spend time with friends: After you go through a breakup, it's a good idea to spend some time catching up with your loved ones. They'll be there to lend you a shoulder to cry on and they won't pass any judgment on you.

2. Keep busy: One of the best things you can do after a sudden breakup is keep yourself distracted. Continue to carry on with your daily routine as you normally would do. Hang out with your family and friends. Take up a few new hobbies. Over time, you won't need as many distractions, but for now, it'll help with the pain you might be feeling.

3. Pamper yourself: Take yourself out on a "me" day. Get a makeover or spend the day relaxing at a spa. Don't just spend your time pondering on what could have been. You're single now, so that mean you need to be the best "you" you can be for the next cute girl/guy who catches your eye.

How do you know you're ready to get married?

Cupid's Advice:

So, you've been thinking about tying the knot. You've been with your significant other for awhile now and it's only natural to start thinking about taking the next step. How do you know if you're really ready for marriage? Cupid has some advice:

1. Know your partner's expectations: Before you head down to the altar, make sure you're aware of what your partner expects from you. As far as life goals go, if the two of you aren't on the same page, getting married might not be the best decision. Do you want to live in the same place as your future spouse does? Is he/she where she wants to be career-wise? Will children be added into the equation soon? Ask yourself these questions before you make a trip to the jewelry store.

2. Commitment: You must be prepared to fully commit to your love. Once you're married, there's no running away (unless you count divorce, but no one wants that). Sometimes, you'll have to make sacrifices and you will have to learn how to be completely selfless. If you still enjoy the perks of living as a bachelor/bachelorette, pump the brakes on the wedding plans and wait until you're ready to work with your partner as a unit.

3. You have that "feeling": When most people meet "The One," they just know that he/she is person they're supposed to spend the rest of their life with. It's hard to explain to anyone else, but you know in your heart that you're ready to make the ultimate commitment. As a couple, the two of you have been through many ups and downs, but through it all you have still managed to make your relationship the best it can be. You know everything isn't perfect, but you're ready to take that leap of faith anyway.
